PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-353]

MANNING AND WINK, INC., ET AL.

Manning and Wink, Inc., and Wink, Inc., Etowah, Tennessee, own and operate a number of motion picture theatres in Georgia and Tennessee. Subsequent to June 6, 1942, the applicable date of Supplementary Conservation Order L-41-a, they continued construction of a building primarily for the amusement of the public containing a theatre, two stores and a restaurant, known as the Wink Theatre, Dalton, Georgia. The total estimated cost of this theatre building project at the time of its commencement was $150,000, and subsequent to June 6, 1942, $22,000 was expended in further construction of the building. Respondents knew, or as a result of the business experience of its responsible officers should have known of Supplementary Conservation Order L-41-a. Such conduct must be deemed wilful violations of this order; they have diverted critical materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing; It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.353 Suspension Order S-353. (a) Neither Manning and Wink, Inc., nor Wink, Inc., nor their successors or assigns, nor any other person, directly or indirectly, shall order, purchase, accept delivery, withdraw from inventory, or in any other manner secure or use any material or construction plant in order to begin or continue any "construction" (as "construction" is defined in Conservation Order L-41-a as amended), whether heretofore commenced or not, on the building known as Wink Theater in Dalton, Georgia, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Manning and Wink, Inc., nor Wink, Inc., nor their successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or Regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 4, 1943.

Issued this 29th day of June 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Interpretation 3 of Priorities Reg. 1]

REJECTION OF RATED ORDERS FOR FAILURE TO MEET ESTABLISHED PRICES AND TERMS

The following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to Priorities Regulation No. 1 (§ 944.2):

(a) Section 944.2 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 states that a seller must sell his product to any person who presents him with a rated order. Five exceptions under which rated orders may be refused are specified in sub-section (b) of that section. The third exception is where a buyer does not "meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment". This exception applies to a seller who receives a rated order for quantities which are less than the minimum which he regularly sells. For example, a manufacturer who has been selling only in carload lots may reject a rated order for a less than carload lot.

(b) The exception also applies to the seller who regularly sells only to certain types of trade purchasers, such as wholesalers, jobbers or retailers. He may reject orders from other types of purchasers but only if it is practicable to obtain the merchandise in the required quantity through regular trade channels.

(c) It should be noted that the above exception includes the requirement that "there shall be no discrimination . . . in establishing such prices or terms". This means, for example, that a seller who sells principally at wholesale but also at retail to one or more customers may not reject rated retail orders from other customers. However, if a manufacturer or wholesaler has an exclusive distributor, either for all sales or for a particular territory, he may reject orders from other purchasers provided the exclusive distributor is in a position to fill the orders promptly.

Issued this 30th day of June 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

Recording Secretary.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 3, as Amended June 30, 1943]

UNIFORM METHOD OF APPLICATION AND EXTENSION OF PREFERENCE RATINGS

§ 944.23 Priorities Regulation 3—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(3) "Assignment" of a preference rating means the granting to any person, by order or certificate issued by or under the authority of the War Production Board, of the right to use such rating.

(4) "Application" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by the person to whom it is initially assigned by or under the authority of the War Production Board, and includes the initial issuance by any governmental agency, under authority of the War Production Board, of a preference rating certificate rating a delivery or the use of facilities directly to or for such agency.

(5) "Extension" of a preference rating means the use of the rating by any person to whom it is applied or extended by another person.

(b) General provisions. (1) Any person may apply a preference rating assigned to him by any regulation, preference rating certificate or preference rating order issued to him in his name or as one of a class, and, subject to the provisions of this regulation, any person may extend any rating which has been applied or extended to deliveries to be made by him.

(2) A preference rating may be applied by a person to whom it is assigned only to the specific quantities and kinds of material authorized (or to the minimum required amounts of material when no specific quantities are authorized) or to the particular use of facilities specified.

(3) No person shall duplicate, in whole or in part, purchase orders which he has placed with one or more suppliers for delivery of material to which he has applied or extended a rating, in such manner that the amount of the material ordered exceeds the amount to which he is authorized to apply or extend the rating, even though he intends to cancel or reduce his purchase orders to the authorized amount prior to completion of delivery.

(c) Restrictions upon the application or extension of ratings for the use of facilities. Ratings may be applied or extended to obtain the use of facilities only, in the following cases:

(1) A rating which has been specifically assigned by the War Production Board to permit a named person to obtain the use of specified facilities only may be applied only by the person named and only to obtain the use of the specified facilities.

(2) When a person is authorized to apply or extend a rating to obtain material which he will deliver (or which will be physically incorporated in material to be produced or delivered) he may apply or extend the same rating to obtain the processing by a concern regularly engaged in such business of the material to be produced or delivered or of material which will be physically incorporated therein, regardless of the fact that the material to be so processed may be the property of the customer for whom the processing is to be done. As used in this paragraph (c) (2) the term "processing" includes manufacturing and fabricating operations which are incidental to the production of finished material, but does not include processing of goods after their production is completed. For example, it includes industrial dyeing for manufacturers when such dyeing is incidental to the preparation of goods or material for sale but does not include the dyeing of clothing after it has been sold by the manufacturer.

(3) A person to whom a rating has been applied or extended pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (2) to obtain the use of his facilities only may not extend the rating for any purpose. The person applying or extending a rating for the use of facilities only shall place upon the purchase order an endorsement substantially as follows: "For the use of facilities only; may not be extended by you for any purpose".

(d) Extension of ratings for material. The following provisions of this paragraph (d) shall be applicable to all extensions of preference ratings originally applied by any person to obtain deliveries of material, notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating. No preference rating may be extended to the delivery of any material except:

(1) Material which will itself be delivered by the person extending the rating on a delivery bearing the rating which is being extended, or which will be physically incorporated into material to be so delivered, including the portion of such material normally consumed or converted into scrap or byproducts in the course of processing; or

(2) Material which is required to replace in inventory material so delivered or incorporated. Material shall not be deemed to be required if the delivery can be made and a practicable working minimum inventory of such material still retained; and if, in making delivery, the inventory is reduced below such minimum, the rating may be extended to replace such material only to the extent necessary to restore the inventory to such minimum: Provided, however, That the material ordered for replacement must be substantially the same as the material delivered or incorporated in the material delivered, subject only to minor variations in size, shape or design or substitutions of less scarce materials, which in any case do not substantially alter the purpose for which the same is to be used.

A person may not extend a rating to any materials in excess of the quantities specified in this paragraph (d), nor to materials for plant improvement, expansion or construction, to machine tools or other capital equipment, to business machines whether purchased or leased, or to maintenance, repair or operating supplies.

(e) CMP Regulation 3 and Priorities Regulation 11. Nothing contained in paragraphs (b) or (d) above shall be deemed to enlarge or limit or to alter in any way any of the provisions or restrictions contained in CMP Regulation 3 (§ 3175.3) or Priorities Regulation 11 (§ 944.32).

(f) Restrictions upon application and extension of ratings. The following provisions are designed to eliminate or limit the use of preference ratings with respect to certain materials and products as to which such use is inappropriate because of adequate supply, specialized needs or other particular factors:

(1) Items as to which preference ratings have no effect: List A. Any item on List A attached to this regulation may be produced or delivered without regard to preference ratings. No person shall apply or extend any rating to any of these items and no person selling any such item shall require a rating as a condition of sale. Any rating purporting to be applied or extended to any such item shall be void and no person shall give any effect to it in filling an order.

(2) Items to which MRO ratings do not apply: List B. Items on List B attached to this regulation are not subject to preference ratings assigned by any regulation or order of the War Production Board for maintenance, repair or operating supplies (including CMP Regulation 5 and CMP Regulation 5A), and no person shall apply or extend any such rating for such a purpose. Ratings assigned for purposes other than maintenance, repair and operating supplies may, however, be used to acquire items on List B. If any person receives an order for any item on List B bearing a rating assigned for maintenance, repair or operating supplies (as shown by the symbol MRO or other prescribed identification, or which he otherwise knows to have been assigned for that purpose) he shall not give effect to such rating, and such rating shall be void.

(3) Illustration A manufacturer of a product listed on Schedule II of CMP Regulation 5 is assigned a rating of AA-2 for operating supplies. He may not use the rating to buy wooden shelving for his own use since it is on List B. A contractor has received an order bearing a rating of AA-3 to install wooden shelving in an Army camp. He may extend that rating to obtain the wooden shelving from the manufacturer since in this case the shelving is production material as to him and not operating supplies. If, however, wooden shelving were on List A instead of List B, neither rating could be used.

(4) Items to which only ratings assigned under specified orders apply: List C. No person may apply or extend any preference rating to the delivery of any item on List C attached to this regulation, unless the rating is assigned or authorized by the particular order specified after that item on the list. No person shall give any effect to any rating in delivering any such item unless the purchase order bears the specific endorsement or certification required by the order assigning the rating; or, if no such endorsement or certification is required by the order, unless the purchase order bears a notation substantially as follows: "This rating has been assigned by Order No. ------".

(g) Method of application or extension. (1) Any person authorized to apply or extend preference ratings may do so:

(i) On a written contract or order by endorsing on or attaching to it a certification in substantially the form prescribed by CMP Regulation No. 7 (Section 3175.7), or substantially as follows, if preferred:

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to apply or extend the preference ratings indicated opposite the items shown on this order, and that such application or extension is in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3 as amended, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar.

(Name of Purchaser and PRP Certificate No. if Purchaser is a PRP Unit)

(Address)

By ---
(Signature and Title of Duly Authorized Officer)

(Date)

The certification which is used shall be signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation 7 (§ 944.27) by an official duly authorized for that purpose.

(ii) On a purchase order placed by telegraph, by including in the telegram the following abbreviated certification: "Ratings certified". The requirements for manual signature or authorization under Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) will be satisfied in such case if the copy of the outgoing telegram retained by the person placing the order is signed or authorized in the manner provided in that regulation.

(iii) On a purchase order placed by telephone and requiring shipment within seven days, by stating to the supplier at the time of placing the order the substance of either certification authorized in subdivision (i) of this paragraph (g) (1): provided, however, in such case, that the person making the statement is an official duly authorized to make such certification, and the person making the statement furnishes to the supplier within fifteen days after placing the purchase order confirmation in writing describing the material ordered and bearing a certification of such preference rating substantially in one of the forms authorized by subdivision (i) of this paragraph (g) (1). No preference rating received by telephone shall be extended by the supplier to replace in inventory any material delivered, until receipt by the supplier of the written confirmation herein required. On or before the twentieth day of each month, any supplier who has received in the prior month a preference rating applied or extended by telephone shall notify the War Production Board, Compliance Division, of any case in which a purchaser has failed to furnish to him the written certification when due.

(iv) The person receiving the certification and rating shall be entitled to rely on such representation, unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false. Each person applying or extending a rating must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to apply or extend such rating, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection. In addition thereto, each person applying or extending a rating shall execute and file with the War Production Board all reports and questionnaires required by the applicable preference rating certificate or preference rating order and such other reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request.

(2) Such certification may be used in lieu of any other form of certification required by the terms of any regulation, preference rating order or preference rating certificate (including, without limitation, the instructions accompanying Forms PD-1A, PD-3A and PD-25A) as a means of applying or extending a preference rating and in lieu of furnishing any copy of any preference rating order required thereby; except that the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 9 (§ 944.30) with respect to the method of applying (but not extending) preference ratings covering certain types of exports must be complied with when ratings are applied pursuant to that regulation.

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of any applicable preference rating order or certificate,

(i) A person may defer extending any rating for a period of not more than three months after he becomes entitled to extend the same;

(ii) Ratings of the same grade assigned by different preference rating certificates or orders may be combined and extended to a single delivery; and

(iii) Ratings of different grades, whether assigned by the same or different preference rating certificates or orders, may be extended to deliveries under a single purchase order provided the amount of each material to which a particular grade of rating is extended is shown either as a separate item, or on a percentage basis where the material involved is of such type and in such quantities that the supplier can readily determine, from percentage figures alone, the exact effect of the extension of the rating on his production and delivery schedule. To the extent necessary to avoid production or delivery of material in quantities smaller than the minimum commercially practicable, items to which ratings of different grades might be extended may be combined and the rating of the lowest grade extended to the total production or delivery.

(4) In addition to complying with the foregoing requirements of this paragraph (g), any person applying or extending a preference rating shall include on his purchase order or contract such information (except designation of the number or serial number of the preference rating certificate or preference rating order assigning the rating) as may be required by the terms of any applicable order of the War Production Board and which the person placing the purchase order is able to furnish.

(h) Applicability of other restrictions. Except as expressly otherwise provided in paragraphs (d) and (g) of this regulation, the application or extension of any rating shall be subject to any applicable restrictions contained in any order of the War Production Board assigning the preference rating in question or regulating transactions in the material or the use of the facilities involved, including, without limitation, restrictions as to the kind and amount of material to which preference ratings may be applied or extended, requirements of countersignature or other written approval of particular transactions, and restrictions on the use of material or facilities.

(i) Effect on existing certificates and orders. All existing forms of preference rating certificates issued by or under authority of the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board are continued in full force and effect, and additional certificates on such forms may continue to be issued by the persons now or hereafter authorized to issue the same until such authority is revoked or amended, subject to the provisions of this and other regulations of the War Production Board. All certificates and all existing orders of the Office of Production Management or the War Production Board are to be deemed amended by this regulation only where and to the extent that the provisions of this regulation indicate that it is to control.

Issued this 30th day of June 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 2

The restrictions on the use of ratings for the items on Lists A, B and C, which were added to the regulation by the amendment of June 4, 1943, apply to orders for such items which had been placed before June 4 but were not yet filled.

Paragraph (f) provides that no person shall give effect to any rating the use of which is restricted by that paragraph, in filling an order. It follows, therefore, that (1) all outstanding ratings on unfilled orders for items on List A are cancelled; (2) all outstanding ratings assigned for maintenance, repair or operating supplies which have been applied on unfilled orders for items on List B are cancelled; and (3) all outstanding ratings other than those specifically authorized by List C on unfilled orders for items on that list are cancelled. [Issued June 12, 1943]

FIRE PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

Preference ratings assigned to the delivery of maintenance, repair and operating supplies (MRO ratings) may be used to obtain repair parts and materials for existing fire protective equipment, but may not be used to obtain end items of fire protective equipment. The term "Fire protective equipment", item 13 on List B attached to Priorities Regulation 3, includes only end items and does not include materials or parts required for the repair or maintenance of existing fire protective equipment.

For example, a fire extinguisher or a fire hose coupling is an end item of fire protective equipment and therefore may not be obtained on MRO ratings, whereas a part required to repair an extinguisher or coupling is not an end item and therefore may be obtained on MRO ratings. Similarly, MRO ratings may not be used to obtain a fire sprinkler system nor to extend an existing sprinkler system, but such ratings may be used to repair or replace sprinkler heads which have been opened up by fire or damaged in any other way. However, MRO ratings may not be used to repair or replace new equipment which is still usable. [Issued June 17, 1943]

APPENDIX A

PERFORMANCE SPECIFICATIONS FOR DOMESTIC ICE REFRIGERATORS

I. Temperature & Ice Meltage Performance

1. The refrigerator shall maintain with no load in the food compartment an average food compartment temperature of 48° F. or less and a temperature of 46.5° F. or less in the milk storage space at 60% of initial ice load with the room at an average temperature of 85° F. plus or minus 1° F.

2. The temperature at a point two inches above the bottom of the food compartment and two inches from the sidewall, located in the vertical plane perpendicularly bisecting a return air duct shall not be higher than the temperature of the air entering the return air duct. (The return air duct is defined as the duct or ducts through which the air in the refrigerator returns from the food compartment to the ice compartment.)

3. Ice meltage at 60% initial ice load for food compartment volumes between 2.75 and 5.5 cubic feet shall not exceed the value, in lbs/day, computed from the following formula:

M equals 7.28 plus 3.3V

where M is the ice meltage in lbs/day and V is the volume of the food compartment in cubic feet. Note: This formula applies only under the following conditions: Room temperature 85° F.; Average food compartment temperature 48° F.; and Food Compartment volumes ranging between 2.75 cubic feet and 5.5 cubic feet.

II. Construction Performance

4. Box deformation: The box shall show no permanent vertical deformation in excess of 3/16" per 3 feet of vertical elevation when subjected to a horizontal load of 350 pounds applied along one diagonal of the top from front to back with the box fastened to the floor at all four legs.

5. Door damage: The door and hinges shall show no permanent damage when the door is subjected to a vertical load of 100 pounds applied to the upper outside corner 2 inches from the outside vertical edge of the door with the door open and at an angle of 90° with the front of the box.

6. Ice shelf: The ice shelf shall be able to support a load of 200% of the normal ice load without fracturing the shelf or supports or causing permanent sagging of more than 1/16" at the center, sides and back.

7. Food shelves: Full width food shelves shall have sufficient strength to support an evenly distributed load of 50 pounds without fracturing or permanently sagging more than 1/16" at the center. Fractional width shelves around the milk storage space shall have sufficient strength to support an evenly distributed load of 25 pounds without fracturing or permanently sagging more than 1/16" at the center.

8. The back of the ice compartment shall withstand without damage an impact of 40 ft. lbs.

9. The refrigerator door shall withstand without damage to the door, hinges and latch a closing of 100 consecutive times from a fully opened position (opened through an angle of 180°) by an impact of 40 ft. lbs. applied at the center of door.

[General Conservation Order M-204 as Amended June 30, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of nutgalls and tannic acid U. S. P. for the war effort, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort:

§ 3035.1 General Conservation Order M-204 — (a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Nutgalls" means the excrescenses or galls obtained from the young twigs of Quercus infectoria Olivier and other allied species of Quercus (Fam. Fagaceae) or from the leaves of Rhus semialata Murray or R. javanica L.

(2) "Tannic acid U. S. P." means gallotannic acid or so-called tannin meeting U. S. P. requirements.

(b) General restrictions. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this order, after August 8, 1942.

(1) No person shall process, combine with other materials or use:

(i) Any nutgalls except for the maximum production of tannic acid U. S. P.

(ii) Any tannic acid U. S. P. except

(a) For the treatment of burns, or for the manufacture of a product to be used exclusively for the treatment of burns, or

(b) As an analytical reagent for use in analytical, control and research laboratories, or

(c) As an antidote for internal administration in the treatment of poisoning, or

(d) In the extemporaneous compounding by licensed pharmacists of individual prescriptions of licensed physicians, dentists or veterinarians, or in the extemporaneous compounding of medicines by licensed physicians, dentists or veterinarians for their own patients.

(2) No person shall sell, transfer or deliver, or purchase or accept transfer or delivery of, any nutgalls or tannic acid U. S. P. which he knows, or has reason to believe, is to be processed, combined with other materials or used for purposes other than those permitted by paragraph (b) (1).

(3) Except in the case of a sale, transfer or delivery of tannic acid U. S. P. to a person exempted from the restrictions of this order by paragraph (c) (3), no person shall sell, transfer or deliver any nutgalls or tannic acid U. S. P. until he has received a certificate signed by the person purchasing or accepting transfer or delivery, or a duly authorized official, in substantially the following form, but adopting only the pertinent parts:

The undersigned hereby certifies that the material ordered in connection herewith will not be processed, combined with other materials or used:

In the case of nutgalls, except for the maximum production of tannic acid U. S. P.;

In the case of tannic acid U. S. P. except

(1) For the treatment of burns, or for the manufacture of a product to be used exclusively for the treatment of burns, or

Such certification shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board and the seller or supplier of the facts stated therein. The seller or supplier shall be entitled to rely on such representation unless he knows or has reason to believe it to be false.

(c) Applicability of restrictions. The restrictions contained in paragraph (b) of this order shall not apply to:

(1) Any stock of nutgalls consisting of less than five pounds physically located at any one place on August 8, 1942; but any stock weighing five pounds or more physically located at any one place on said date shall, in its entirety, be subject to said restrictions.

(2) Any transaction affecting, or any use of, any nutgalls or tannic acid U. S. P. which on August 8, 1942, had been combined or compounded with other materials; but any transaction affecting, or any use of, any nutgalls or tannic acid U. S. General Provisions

§ 3175.6 CMP Regulation No. 6—(a) Purpose and scope. (1) This regulation explains how to get materials for construction, and for facilities acquired in connection with construction, under the Controlled Materials Plan. It does not cover facilities not related to construction.

(2) Consumers manufacturing Class A products off the site may receive allotments under this regulation, but their use of these allotments is governed by CMP Regulation No. 1.

(3) Controlled materials for the manufacture of Class B products are not obtained under this regulation.

(b) Definitions. The following definitions apply to this regulation:

(1) "Controlled materials" means carbon and alloy steel (including wrought iron), copper (including copper base alloys) and aluminum, in each case only in the forms and shapes indicated in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(2) "Claimant agency" means the following government offices and any others that may be designated from time to time. (Identifying symbols are indicated in parentheses.)

(A) Department of Agriculture.
(C) Aircraft Resources Control Office (agent for Army Air Forces and Bureau of Aeronautics of United States Navy).
(E) Board of Economic Warfare.
(H) National Housing Agency.
(L) Office of Lend-Lease Administration
(M) Maritime Commission.
(N) Navy Department.
(O) War Department (Ordnance).
(P) Petroleum Administrator for War.
(R) Office of Rubber Director.
(S) Office of Civilian Requirements.
(T) Office of Defense Transportation.
(U) Office of War Utilities Director.
(W) War Department (except Ordnance).

The symbol (F) will be used by several claimant agencies to identify certain construction programs; the symbol (D) will be used to identify certain programs in the Dominion of Canada; the symbol (RO) will be used by regional offices of the War Production Board, and the symbol (SO) will be used to identify small orders as defined in paragraph (t). The symbols (F), (D), (RO) and (SO) constitute claimant agency symbols for purposes of this regulation.

(3) "Construction" means the erection, construction, reconstruction, restoration, or remodeling of any structure or project or any extensions or alterations of the same.

(4) "Facility" means any machinery or equipment acquired in connection with construction.

(5) "Prime consumer" means a person who receives an allotment of controlled material for construction from a claimant agency. In most cases he is the person who is to be the owner of the structure or project and not the general contractor. There are certain exceptions to this rule including:

(i) In the case of structures or projects to be owned by the Army or the Navy, the person who contracts with the Army or Navy for the construction is the prime consumer.

(ii) In the case of foreign projects the person holding the export license for the materials required for the construction is the prime consumer.

(iii) In the case of projects financed through Defense Plant Corporation, the prime consumer is the person designated as such by Defense Plant Corporation.

(6) "Secondary consumer" means a person who receives an allotment of controlled material from a prime consumer or another secondary consumer.

(7) "Class A product" means a product which is not on the "Official CMP Class B Product List" of the War Production Board and which contains steel, copper or aluminum fabricated or assembled beyond the basic forms and shapes specified in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1. For this purpose, however, steel, copper or aluminum contained in a component part or subassembly of the product is disregarded if the part or subassembly is on the list.

(8) "Class B product" means a product on the "Official CMP Class B Product List" of the War Production Board which contains steel, copper or aluminum fabricated or assembled beyond the basic forms and shapes specified in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(9) "Delivery order" means a purchase order or contract which constitutes a complete instruction from a purchaser to a seller calling for delivery of any material or product. The term does not include any arrangement which, although specifying the total amount to be delivered, contemplates that further instructions are to be given.

(c) Basic allotment procedures—(1) Allotments by claimant agencies to prime consumers. Each claimant agency will distribute allotments received by it from the Requirements Committee of the War Production Board by making allotments to prime consumers. The allotments will designate the amount of each form of controlled material available to a prime consumer, during each quarter (or, in the case of small projects authorized by Regional Offices, during whatever period is specified) for use by the prime consumer or allotment to secondary consumers.

(2) Allotments by prime and secondary consumers. A prime consumer receiving an allotment may use as much of it as he needs to get controlled materials for the construction, and must allot the rest to his secondary consumers to cover their requirements for controlled materials. Allotments by secondary consumers to secondary consumers may be made in the same way.

(3) Advance allotments. Advance allotments by claimant agencies to prime consumers may be made within specified limits before receipt of allotment from the Requirements Committee in order to assure fulfillment of long-term construction schedules. Prime consumers receiving such advance allotments may, in turn, make allotments to their secondary consumers and secondary consumers may make further allotments, in the same way as in the case of ordinary allotments, but no consumer shall make any allotment in advance of receiving his own allotment.

(4) Allotment numbers. (i) Allotments to prime consumers will be identified by allotment numbers consisting of a Claimant Agency letter symbol and a digit or digits indicating the program, and, in some cases, the schedule and project involved. The claimant agency symbol is indicated before the name of each agency in paragraph (b) (2) of this regulation.

(ii) Allotments to secondary consumers must be identified by an abbreviated allotment number consisting of a major program identification. The major program identification consists of the claimant agency letter symbol followed by the first digit only of the program number. The numerical identification of months and quarters previously used has been changed. Allotments must show the quarter for which the allotment is valid—for example, "3rd quarter 1943." This may be abbreviated as "3Q43" and should appear immediately following the allotment number. Orders for controlled materials must indicate the month delivery is required instead of a month number—for example "July 1943." The change from the numerical system shall take effect on July 1, 1943, but does not apply to orders placed, or allotments made, before then. For example, where an allotment to a prime consumer for the third quarter of 1943 is designated N–1234–567, the allotment to a secondary consumer will be N–1–3Q43, meaning an allotment for major program number 1 of the Navy Department valid for placing authorized controlled material orders calling for shipment of controlled materials during the third quarter of 1943.

Applications for Allotments

(d) Applications by prime consumers. Exhibit A lists, for information purposes, application forms to be used by prime consumers in applying for allotments. In most cases these forms are the same as required to obtain authorization to begin construction under Conservation Order L–41. It should be borne in mind that except as provided in L–41, no construction may be carried on unless authorized by the War Production Board. An allotment of controlled materials is not in itself authorization to begin construction. The prime consumer in addition to applying for authorization to begin construction, where required by L–41, must apply for an allotment of all controlled materials which he needs and which are required by his secondary consumers.

(e) Application by secondary consumers. Each secondary consumer must, upon request of the person from whom he is to receive his allotment, file an application on Form CMP–4A with such person for an allotment of the controlled materials required by him and his secondary consumers for the part of the construction for which they are responsible.

(f) Waiver of applications. Any consumer making an allotment may waive the furnishing of an application for an allotment if he has other information as to the actual requirements of his secondary consumers. The waiver, however, should only be given if the person has information sufficiently detailed to enable him to make application for the allotment.

(g) Materials for B products not to be included. In no case shall a prime or secondary consumer include in his application for allotment, materials required for the manufacture of Class B products. The manufacturer of Class B products will obtain his requirements by application to the appropriate Industry Division of the War Production Board.

(h) When materials for maintenance and repair to be included. When maintenance and repair work is being performed on a structure or project as part of a construction job for which, under L–41, specific authorization to begin construction must be obtained, controlled materials required for the work must be included in the application of the prime consumer, since under L–41 no building operation or job may be part construction and part maintenance, and repair. No controlled materials or other materials or products needed for maintenance and repair work of this type, or needed for construction, the cost of which is in excess of the cost limitations in L–41, may be obtained under CMP Regulation No. 5 or CMP Regulation No. 5A, unless specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(i) When applications not required. In the case of maintenance or repair work or of minor capital additions where there is no construcuton of the kind which must be authorized under L–41, the necessary materials may be obtained under CMP Regulations Nos. 5 and 5A within the limits indicated in those regulations.

Mechanics of Allotments

(j) How allotments are made. A consumer may make an allotment on such form (including Form CMP–5 described in Schedule II of CMP Regulation No. 1 as may be specified for the purpose. Allotments may be made by telegraphing the information required and confirming it with the appropriate written form.

(k) Forms in which controlled materials are allotted. Each allotment, whether made by a claimant agency, industry division or a consumer must specify the form of controlled material allotted. Except as may be otherwise specified allotments of steel, shall be in terms of (1) carbon steel (including wrought iron) and (2) alloy steel, without further breakdown, and allotments of copper and aluminum shall be broken down as indicated on Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1. A supplier may make allotments only in the forms of controlled materials which have been allotted to him.

(l) Alternative procedure for simultaneous allotments. A consumer who has several secondary consumers in different degrees of remoteness and finds it impracticable to determine the exact allotments to be made to each of his immediate suppliers, for their needs and those of their suppliers, may, at his option, make simultaneous direct allotments to each supplier, of all degrees of remoteness. In such case, the person who is to make the allotment must request each supplier, of all degrees of remoteness, to file an application for an allotment directly with him rather than with the supplier from whom he would otherwise receive his allotment. If this procedure is followed, each supplier shall include in his application only his own requirements for controlled materials and not those of his suppliers.

(m) Limitations on use of allotments. (1) No consumer shall make an allotment in advance of receiving his own allotment.

(2) No consumer shall make an allotment of more controlled materials than remains allotted to him after deducting all other allotments which he has made and all orders for controlled materials which he has placed.

(3) No consumer shall make any allotment for the production of Class B products and no person shall accept an allotment for the production of Class B products from a consumer.

(4) A consumer who receives an allotment for construction must not use it for any purpose except (i) to get materials needed for the construction for which the allotment was made or (ii) to replace in inventory materials used for the construction, but his inventory may not exceed a practicable working minimum or the limits provided in CMP Regulation No. 2. The use of any allotment is subject to any specific limitations which may be placed on it by the War Production Board or Claimant Agency making the allotment.

(n) Transfers of allotments. No person shall transfer any allotment, (as distinct from making an allotment to a secondary consumer) unless the transfer is approved in writing by the person who made the allotment; furthermore transfers of allotments by prime consumers shall not be made unless the transfer of the related authorization to begin construction is approved by the authorizing agency.

(o) Grouping allotments by major program. The holder of an allotment may combine in a single allotment to a supplier requirements for different construction jobs which are identified by the same major program number of a particular Claimant Agency as described in paragraph (c) (4) (ii). He must not, however, use any allotment to procure for any project, any item other than those approved on the authorization to begin construction.

Changes in Allotments

(p) Correction of over-statements and over-allotments. (1) Any person who discovers that (by inadvertence or otherwise) he has substantially overstated his requirements for controlled material, or those of his suppliers, must immediately report the error to the person to whom the statement of requirements was furnished. If he has received an allotment based on the overstatement, he must immediately cancel or reduce the allotment (or an equivalent amount of other allotments received for the construction) and report the cancellation or reduction to the person who made the allotment or, if for any reason he is unable to make a cancellation, he must immediately make a full report to the person who made the allotments, sending a copy of the report to the appropriate claimant agency or industry division.

(2) If any person receives a statement of requirements which he knows or has reason to believe, to be substantially excessive (either by inadvertence or otherwise) he must withhold any allotment based on the statement (at least to the extent of any possible excess) until satisfied that the statement is not excessive or that it has been corrected. If he is unable to obtain sufficient information or a correction, he must promptly report the matter to the appropriate claimant agency or industry division. Failure to withhold allotments or to make a report in these circumstances shall be considered participation in the offense.

(3) If, after making any allotment, a person finds or has reason to believe that it was substantially greater than actual requirements, he must either (i) cancel or reduce the allotment or other allotments made by him to the same supplier or (ii) report the matter promptly to the appropriate claimant agency. Failure to make such correction or report shall be deemed participation in the offense.

(4) An inadvertent over-statement of requirements shall be deemed substantially excessive for purposes of subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph if it is either 25 percent or more of the material allotted or is greater than the minimum mill quantity of such material specified in Schedule IV of CMP Regulation No. 1, whichever is less.

(q) Adjustment for requirements filled without use of allotments. A person receiving an allotment must reduce it to the extent that he fills a substantial portion of the requirements which it covers by a method not involving use of the allotment. For the purposes of this paragraph, a "substantial portion" means 25 percent or more of the quantity allotted or the minimum mill quantity of such material specified in Schedule IV of CMP Regulation No. 1, whichever is less. No reduction need be made for purchases made under the small order procedure described in paragraph (t).

(r) Adjustment for changes in requirements. If a person's requirements for controlled materials or Class A products are increased after he receives his allotment, he should apply to the source from which he received his allotment for an additional allotment. If his requirements decrease, for any reason, he must promptly cancel or reduce his allotment. If a consumer requires controlled materials or Class A products in a quarter other than authorized, he must apply for an additional allotment.

(s) Method of cancelling or reducing allotments. A person who has made an allotment may cancel or reduce it by notice in writing to the person to whom it was made. A person who has received an allotment may cancel or reduce it by making an appropriate notation on the document carrying the allotment and by notifying the person from whom it was received. If a person's allotment is cancelled, he must cancel all allotments which he has made and all orders for controlled materials which he has placed on the basis of the allotment; and if a person's allotment is reduced he must cancel or reduce allotments which he has made or orders for controlled materials which he has placed to the extent that they exceed the reduced allotment. If such cancellation or reduction is not practicable, he may make equivalent cancellations or reductions of other allotments received by him for the same construction. If he considers this alternative impracticable, he shall immediately report to the appropriate claimant agency or industry division for instructions.

Exemptions from Allotment Procedure

(t) Small orders. (1) A person who places a delivery order for Class A products, or a contract or subcontract covering construction work, where the amount of each controlled material required to produce the Class A products or to fill the contract or subcontract, is less than the amount specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph may, instead of making an allotment, place on his order the applicable allotment number followed by the symbol SO, but no person shall subdivide his requirements for the purpose of coming within this provision.

(2) This procedure may not be used where the aggregate amount of any one controlled material required to fill a single delivery order for Class A products or to fulfill a single construction contract or subcontract exceeds the following:

Carbon steel (including wrought iron)	1 ton
Alloy steel	400 lbs.
Copper and copper base alloys	100 lbs.
Aluminum	20 lbs.

(3) A person who receives orders or contracts placed under this paragraph may obtain his requirements of controlled materials to fill the same by placing authorized controlled material orders in the same manner as if he had received an allotment, except that instead of an allotment number, he must use the symbol SO. Use of this symbol constitutes a representation, subject to the criminal penalties of section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code, that the controlled materials ordered are required to fill orders or contracts accepted in good faith.

(4) No person receiving orders, contracts or subcontracts under this paragraph shall be required to furnish his customer with an application for allotment or equivalent information, other than a statement, if requested, that the controlled materials required come within the limits of a small order.

(5) A claimant agency or industry division may, instead of making allotments for construction, authorize a prime consumer to obtain controlled materials needed for the construction by using the SO symbol in those cases where the aggregate quantity of no one controlled material needed for the entire construction project exceeds the quantities specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(u) Purchases of Class A products from distributors. A person who purchases a Class A product from a distributor under the conditions specified in paragraph (k–1) of CMP Regulation No. 1 need make no allotment but must reduce his allotment as required in paragraph (q) of this regulation.

Placing Orders

(v) Placement of orders with controlled materials producers or controlled materials warehouses. (1) A delivery order placed with a controlled materials producer, warehouse or distributor for controlled material shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order if, but only if, it complies with the provisions of this paragraph or is specifically designated as an authorized controlled material order by any regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(2) A person who has received an allotment may place an authorized controlled material order with a controlled materials warehouse or distributor (within the limitations of CMP Regulation No. 4) or with any controlled materials producer, unless otherwise specifically directed. An allotment to a prime consumer may include a direction to place delivery orders for controlled materials with one or more designated controlled materials producers. In such event the consumer shall use the allotment only to obtain controlled materials from the designated controlled materials producer or producers or to make allotments to suppliers, designating only producers named in the allotment received by him. (Except as required by the allotment which he has received, no consumer shall impose any such restriction in any allotment made by him.)

(3) Every authorized controlled material order must be identified by an endorsement including an allotment number or symbol. Unless another form of endorsement is specifically prescribed by an order or regulation of the War Production Board, the endorsement must be in substantially the following form (or in the form prescribed in CMP Regulation No. 7), and must be signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

The undersigned certifies, subject to the criminal penalties of Section 35 (A) of the U. S. Criminal Code, that he has received an allotment or allotments of controlled materials (or delivery orders not requiring allotments) authorizing him pursuant to CMP Regulation No. 6, to place an authorized controlled material order in the amount herein indicated for delivery in the month specified, and that he is authorized to use the allotment number ————.

The allotment number included in the endorsement must be the abbreviated allotment number described in paragraph (c) (4) (ii) of this regulation, and must be followed by the abbreviated quarter designation. Each such order must call for delivery in a specific month in the quarter for which the allotment is valid. The endorsement on an authorized controlled material order placed under paragraph (t) of this regulation, relating to small orders, must include the symbol SO.

(4) A delivery order for controlled material must be in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules, and, if placed with a controlled materials producer, must be received at such time in advance as is specified in Schedule III of CMP Regulation No. 1. The controlled material producer may relax this requirement to the extent that he finds it practicable to do so, but he must not discriminate between customers in accepting or rejecting late orders.

(w) Restrictions on placing orders. No consumer shall request delivery of any controlled material in a greater amount or on an earlier date than needed to complete the construction, or in an amount so large or on a date so early that receipt of the amount on the requested delivery date would result in his having an inventory of controlled materials greater than that permitted under CMP Regulation No. 2. No consumer shall, however, be required by the provisions of this paragraph to reduce a delivery order below the minimum mill quantity specified in Schedule IV of CMP Regulation No. 1. He must, however, have an allotment to support any authorized controlled material order placed by him.

Preference Ratings for Construction

(x) Assignment of rating to prime consumers. Where an allotment is made to a prime consumer for construction, preference ratings will be assigned either by the War Production Board or Claimant Agency making the allotment (depending on the type of project) for obtaining materials other than controlled materials needed in the construction.

(y) Extension of ratings to secondary consumer. In each case where an allotment is made to a secondary consumer the person making the allotment must apply or extend the rating or ratings he received for the construction. Preference ratings to be used in connection with authorized production schedules for a supplier producing a Class A product in connection with the construction will be applied in the same manner as provided in CMP Regulation No. 1. Such ratings may be applied or extended with the appropriate allotment number as provided in CMP Regulation No. 3.

(z) Limitations on use of ratings. A prime consumer who is assigned preference ratings for construction may use the ratings to purchase those materials, and only those materials, shown on his application as approved or on the instrument assigning the ratings, and must comply with any conditions which may be placed on the use of the ratings in the approved application or instrument assigning them. The ratings must be identified by the abbreviated allotment number identifying the construction. In applying or extending ratings the certificate provided in paragraph (g) of CMP Regulation No. 3 or the certificate provided in CMP Regulation No. 7 or the certificate provided in Priorities Regulation No. 3 may be used. The certificate must be signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7.

Miscellaneous

(aa) Other War Production Board regulations and orders. Nothing in this regulation relieves any person from complying with any applicable regulation or order of the War Production Board (including priorities regulations, and orders in the "E", "L", "M", "P", "R", "T", and "U" series).

(bb) Records and reports. (1) A person making or receiving any allotment of controlled materials must maintain at his regular place of business accurate records of all allotments received, of procurement pursuant to all allotments, and of the subdivision of all allotments among his direct secondary consumers. Such records must be kept separately by abbreviated allotment numbers, as provided in paragraph (c) (4) (ii) and must include entries under each number for each customer, claimant agency or industry division from whom allotments are received.

(2) Each prime and secondary consumer must retain for two years at his regular place of business all documents on which he relies as entitling him to make or receive allotments or to deliver or accept delivery of controlled materials or Class A products, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or claimant agencies, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection.

(cc) Appeals and applications for relief. (1) Any person who is subject to any requirement of any regulation, order or other action under the Controlled Materials Plan, may appeal for relief by filing a letter in triplicate with the appropriate claimant agency or industry division, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers he is entitled to relief.

(2) In case of any disagreement between any persons as to the interpretation of any provision of this regulation or any other regulations, direction or order under the Controlled Materials Plan, the matter should be referred to the CMP Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C.

(dd) Penalties. Any person who willfully purports to make any allotment of controlled materials or to place authorized controlled material orders in excess of the amount allotted to him, or violates any other provision of this regulation, or any other regulation, direction or order under the Controlled Materials Plan, or who knowingly or willfully makes any false or fraudulent statement or representation with respect to requirements for controlled materials or in any other matter under the jurisdiction of any agency of the United States under the Controlled Materials Plan, is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by a fine up to $10,000 or imprisonment, or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries or allotments of controlled material or from making or obtaining any further deliveries of or from processing or using, any material under priorities control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 30th day of June 1943.

Recording Secretary.

PART 3257—ALIPHATIC-HYDROXY-CARBOXYLIC ACIDS

CITRIC ACID

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of citric acid for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3257.1 Allocation Order M-321, Citric acid—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Citric acid" means hydroxy tricarballylic acid from whatever source derived, in dry form only.

(2) "Producer" means any person who produces citric acid.

(3) "Refiner" means any person who refines citric acid.

(4) "Distributor" means any person who purchases citric acid from a producer or refiner for resale as citric acid without further processing or admixing.

(5) "Supplier" means any producer, refiner or distributor of citric acid.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of citric acid. (1) On and after July 1, 1943, no supplier shall use citric acid except for the purpose of refining, and no supplier shall deliver citric acid for any purpose (including refining) except as specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board upon application pursuant to paragraph (e).

(2) No person shall accept delivery from all suppliers of more than 5000 pounds of citric acid in the aggregate during July, 1943, or during any calendar month thereafter, except as specifically authorized by the War Production Board upon application pursuant to paragraph (e).

(3) Unless otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board, each person who is authorized to accept delivery of citric acid or who furnishes a use certificate as required by paragraph (d), shall use or dispose of such citric acid or products made therefrom, or an equivalent amount thereof, only for the purpose authorized or certified. Any citric acid not so used may be delivered by such person to any supplier without specific authorization.

(4) The War Production Board, at its discretion, may from time to time issue special directions to any person with respect to use, refining, production, or delivery of citric acid, or of products made from citric acid allocated to such person.

(c) Small order exemption. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1):

(1) Any person may accept delivery of, and any supplier may use, 125 pounds or less of citric acid in the aggregate during any calendar month without specific authorization.

(2) Any supplier may deliver in any calendar month, in lots of not more than 125 pounds to any one person, the aggregate quantity of citric acid which he has been specifically authorized by the War Production Board to deliver for small orders during that month upon application pursuant to paragraph (e) (2).

(d) Use certificate. (1) Each person seeking delivery of between 125 and 5,000 pounds of citric acid during July, 1943, or during any calendar month thereafter, shall, upon placing any purchase order for such delivery, furnish his supplier with a certificate specifying the end use of such citric acid. Such certificate may be placed on the purchase order and shall be substantially in the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

(Description of Primary Product and End Use—See instructions in paragraph (e) (1) for columns 3 and 4 of Form PD-600)

Pursuant to Allocation Order M-321, the undersigned hereby certifies to the seller and to the War Production Board that the citric acid covered by the accompanying purchase order, or an equivalent amount thereof, will be used solely for the purpose listed above.

(Name of purchaser)	(Address)
By ——— (Signature and title of duly authorized officer)	(Date)

(2) Distributors purchasing from producers and refiners may certify as their end use "Redelivery upon specific authorization of the War Production Board."

(3) A written purchase order placed by any department or agency of the United States Government pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), provided such purchase order specifies the Lend-Lease contract or requisition number, shall constitute a use certificate for the purpose of paragraph (d) (1).

(e) Applications and reports. (1) Each person, including any supplier, seeking authorization to accept delivery of more than 5,000 pounds of citric acid in the aggregate from all suppliers during any one calendar month, and each supplier seeking authorization to use any quantity of citric acid, shall file application on Form PD-600, in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following instructions for the purpose of this order:

(f) Allocations for inventory. Citric acid allocated for inventory shall not be used for any purpose, except as specifically directed by the War Production Board or except to fill orders for authorized uses pending arrival of the citric acid allocated to fill such orders. Upon arrival of such citric acid, the allocated inventory shall be restored.

(g) Suppliers' intra-company deliveries. Specific authorization shall not be required for intra-company deliveries of citric acid between sub-divisions of any supplier, notwithstanding the provisions of § 944.12 of Priorities Regulation No. 1, as amended.

(h) Notification of customers. Each supplier is requested to notify his regular customers as soon as possible of the requirements of this order and of all amendments hereto, but failure to receive such notice shall not excuse any person from complying with the terms hereof.

(i) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable War Production Board regulations, as amended from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact, or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 3275—STABILIZED ROSIN

[General Preference Order M-335]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of stabilized rosin for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3275.1 General Preference Order M-335—(a) Definitions. (1) "Stabilized rosin" means rosin stabilized by hydrogenation, dehydrogenation, or disproportionation, but not polymerization nor condensation.

(2) "Soap" means the product commonly known by that term, including all types of shaving creams, excluding, however, soap used for nondetergent purposes, including the processing of textiles.

(3) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of stabilized rosin and includes any person who has it produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(4) "Distributor" means any person who buys stabilized rosin for resale without further processing.

(5) "Supplier" means a producer or distributor.

(b) Restrictions on delivery. (1) No supplier shall deliver stabilized rosin to any person except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board. No person shall accept delivery of stabilized rosin which he knows or has reason to believe is delivered in violation of this order.

(2) Authorizations or directions as to deliveries to be made by suppliers in each calendar month will generally be issued by War Production Board prior to the beginning of such month, but may be issued at any time. They will normally be issued on Form PD-602 which is to be filed by the supplier with War Production Board as explained in paragraph (g) below.

(3) If a supplier is authorized or directed by War Production Board to deliver stabilized rosin to any specific customer or group of customers, but is unable to make the delivery either because of receipt of notice of cancellation or otherwise, he must immediately notify War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-335, and shall not deliver to any one else, or use, the stabilized rosin until he receives further instructions.

(c) Exceptions for small deliveries. Specific authorization in writing of War Production Board is not required for the delivery by any supplier to any person in any calendar month of not more than 100 pounds of stabilized rosin; Provided, however, That the aggregate quantity which any supplier may deliver in any calendar month pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall not exceed the quantity which War Production Board shall in writing specifically authorize or direct such supplier to deliver in such month under this paragraph (c), on application made by such supplier (in the normal case on Form PD-602 filed pursuant to paragraph (g) hereof).

(d) Restrictions on use. (1) No supplier shall use stabilized rosin except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board.

(2) Each person who with an order for stabilized rosin furnishes his supplier with a certificate of use as required by paragraph (e), shall use the stabilized rosin received on such order only as specified in such certificate.

(3) War Production Board may from time to time issue directions as to the use or uses which may or may not be made of stabilized rosin to be delivered to, or then in the inventory of, the prospective user.

(e) Customer to furnish certificate of use. No supplier shall in any calendar month beginning with August, 1943, deliver to any person more than 100 pounds of stabilized rosin unless he shall have received from such person a certificate as to the use for which such person is ordering stabilized rosin. Such certificate must be substantially in the form indicated in Appendix A to this order. The certificate must be received by supplier not later than the 15th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery is to be made. It need not be filed with War Production Board. A supplier must not deliver stabilized rosin where he knows or has reason to believe the purchaser's certificate is false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on the certificate.

(f) Use in soap prohibited. No person shall use stabilized rosin in the manufacture or preparation of soap.

(g) Applications by suppliers. (1) Each supplier requiring authorization to make delivery of, or to use, stabilized rosin during any calendar month, beginning with August, 1943, shall file application on or before the 20th day of the preceding month. Applications respecting deliveries or use in June or July, 1943, shall be filed as soon as possible. In any case, the application shall be made on Form PD–602 in the manner set forth in the general instructions appearing on that form, subject to the special instructions contained in Appendix B to this order. If there is an inconsistency between the general and special instructions, the special instructions must be followed.

(2) War Production Board may issue other and further directions with respect to preparing and filing Form PD–602.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions. (1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–335.

Issued this 30th day of June 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

Under "End Use", purchaser will specify the ultimate or end use to which the product manufactured by him will be put. "Pressure sensitive adhesive tape", for example, is not a sufficient description of ultimate use. The certificate must show, rather, the type of pressure sensitive adhesive tape and the use to which it will be put; for example, "marking tape for Army Air Force" or "surgical tape for Army Medical Corps." Where the ultimate user is the Army, Navy or other government agency, or the product made by purchaser is ultimately to be delivered pursuant to the Lend-Lease Act, purchaser should set forth specification and contract numbers.

(3) If purchase is for resale, specify "Resale" under "Primary Product" and leave blank "End Use" column.

APPENDIX B

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUPPLIER'S FORM PD–602

(1) Copies of Form PD–602 may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(2) Prepare an original and three copies. File original and two copies with War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–335, retaining the third copy for your files. The original filed with the War Production Board shall be manually signed by a duly authorized official.

(5) In Column 1–a (except for small orders as explained in (6) below), specify the product or products in the manufacture or preparation of which stabilized rosin will be used by your customer, the end use to which such product or products will be put, and Army, Navy or other Government agency or Lend-Lease specification and contract numbers, all as indicated by the certificates obtained under paragraph (e) of this order. The quantity of stabilized rosin used in the manufacture or preparation of each product for each product use shall be shown separately. If the stabilized rosin ordered by a customer is for two or more uses, indicate each use separately and indicate the quantity of stabilized rosin ordered for each use.

(6) It is not necessary to list the name of any customer to whom not more than 100 pounds of stabilized rosin is to be delivered in the applicable month, nor, in the case of any such delivery, the name of the product or the end use. Instead, write in Column 1 "Total small order deliveries (estimated)", and in Column 4, specify the total estimated quantity so to be delivered.

(7) A producer requiring permission to use a part or all of his own production of stabilized rosin shall list his own name as customer in Column 1 on Form PD–602, specifying quantity required and product manufactured. (b) The applicant must issue a check to each industrial user for the amount of each rationed food for which replacement or advance has been obtained on his behalf. The applicant shall note on his copy of the application the date and amount of that check. Each industrial user receiving such a check shall note its date and amount on his copy of his certification.

SEC. 5.2. Ration bank account. (a) No industrial user may apply for replacement or an advance on behalf of another industrial user, unless the applicant has a ration bank account for each rationed food for which replacement or an advance is requested. The applicant may open a ration bank account as an industrial user even for a rationed food as to which he is not an industrial user under the order rationing that food.

SEC. 5.3. Allotment increased. (a) The allotment of any industrial user for the allotment period in which checks are issued to him under this order for his own use shall be deemed increased by the amount of the checks.

SEC. 5.4. Representation to Office of Price Administration. (a) Any representation made in an application or certification under this order is a representation made to the Office of Price Administration and to the designated agency.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 14,[1] Amdt. 1]

FIREWOOD

A rationale for this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 14 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1.3a is added, to read as follows:

SEC. 1.3a. Deliveries after June 28, 1943 are restricted. (a) After the 28th day of June 1943, no dealer may deliver firewood to any consumer and no consumer may accept any delivery of firewood from a dealer, unless the consumer at the time of placing his order gives the dealer the following information:

(1) The kinds of fuels he uses (such as coal, fuel oil, firewood or other kinds of fuel), and the purposes for which they are used; and

(2) The amount of each kind of fuel (except fuel oil) he has on hand and his estimated annual fuel needs for each kind of fuel (except fuel oil) in cords, tons, or other appropriate units.

(b) Within seven (7) days after placing his order for firewood, the consumer must send to the dealer a signed statement confirming the information given to the dealer under paragraph (a).

(c) If a consumer who has not received delivery of the entire amount of firewood ordered by him from a dealer places an order for the same kind of firewood with another dealer, he must immediately cancel his earlier order, and within 72 hours thereafter must send to the dealer a signed statement confirming such cancellation. No consumer who has placed an order for firewood may accept delivery of the same kind of firewood under an earlier order placed by him with another dealer, and no dealer may make a delivery of firewood on an order that has been cancelled. No dealer may deliver firewood to a consumer who he knows has outstanding with another dealer an order for the same kind of firewood.

(d) So long as an order for firewood placed in accordance with paragraph (a) remains unfilled, the consumer must send written notification to the dealer having such order of any increase in the amount of fuels (except fuel oil) on hand.

(e) Each dealer shall retain at his place of business for at least sixty (60) days from the date of its receipt each statement or notice he receives from a consumer.

(f) In making deliveries of firewood to consumers who have furnished the required information, dealers must deliver in the following order of preference:

(1) Consumers who need firewood for any purpose other than heat, domestic hot water or domestic cooking, in the amounts needed, but not beyond an amount necessary to bring their total inventory of all fuels to their annual fuel needs for such purposes.

(2) Consumers who need firewood for heat, domestic hot water or domestic cooking (except consumers who use fuel oil, gas or electricity primarily for such purposes), and whose total fuel on hand is less than one-fourth (¼) of their estimated annual fuel needs, to the extent necessary to bring their total inventory of all fuels to one-fourth (¼) of their annual fuel needs for such purposes.

(3) Consumers who need firewood for heat, domestic hot water or domestic cooking (except consumers who use fuel oil, gas or electricity primarily for such purposes), and whose total fuel on hand is more than one-fourth (¼) but less than one-half (½) of their estimated annual fuel needs, to the extent necessary to bring their total inventory of all fuels to one-half (½) of their annual fuel needs for such purposes.

(4) Consumers who need firewood for heat, domestic hot water or domestic cooking (including consumers who use fuel oil primarily for such purposes), and whose total fuel on hand is more than one-half (½) but less than their estimated annual fuel needs, to the extent necessary to bring their total inventory of all fuels to their annual fuel needs for such purposes.

(5) Consumers who use gas or electricity primarily for heat, domestic hot water, or domestic cooking, to the extent necessary to bring their total inventory of all fuels to their annual fuel needs for such purposes.

(g) If conservation of labor or efficiency of transportation will be served thereby, nothing in this order shall be deemed to prohibit any single delivery to a consumer of a full load of firewood by means of a truck or other transportation facility, customarily used in delivering firewood to such consumer, even though such delivery brings the total amount of fuels in the consumer's possession to more than the amounts to which he would be entitled under paragraph (b).

(h) For purposes of determining the amount of fuel on hand and estimated annual fuel needs under this section, a ton of coal and a cord or unit of firewood shall be deemed of equal value.

2. Section 1.4 is amended, to read as follows:

SEC. 1.4. Regional Administrator may issue emergency orders. Whenever the Regional Administrator finds that conditions affecting the supply or distribution of firewood in a locality or localities in the limitation area so require, he may from time to time issue orders, supplemental to and not conflicting with the provisions of section 1.3a, effective in such locality or localities, and for such periods, as may be stated in the orders:

(a) Allocating or giving priorities to deliveries of firewood, upon such conditions as he may designate;

(b) Directing that dealers accept orders for and deliver dry wood to the extent that they have dry wood on hand, before accepting orders for or making deliveries of green wood.

3. Section 1.6 is amended, to read as follows:

SEC. 1.6. Prohibited acts. Regardless of any agreement or commitment:

(a) No dealer shall discriminate in the delivery of firewood among consumers entitled to receive deliveries under this order or any order issued hereunder by the Regional Administrator.

(b) After the 28th day of June 1943, no person shall deliver any firewood, acquired, owned or held by him as a consumer, to any other consumer, and no consumer shall accept any such delivery.

(c) No person shall deliver or receive a delivery of firewood except in accordance with this order and with any order issued hereunder by the Regional Administrator.

(d) No person shall make any false or misleading statement or entry in any document or record required to be filed or kept under this order or any order issued hereunder by the Regional Administrator.

(e) No person shall offer, solicit, attempt or agree to do any act in violation of this order or any order issued hereunder by the Regional Administrator.

This amendment shall become effective on June 28, 1943.

(Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 597, 77th Cong.; Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; W.P.E. Dir. No. 1, 7 F.R. 562; Supp. Dir. No. 1-U, 8 F.R. 1835; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719)

Issued this 28th day of June 1943.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PROCESSED FOODS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 13 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 25.1 (b) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) The serial number of the Non-Resident Alien's Border Crossing Identification Card, if any, or of the passport, if any, bearing either a visa for entry into the United States or a notation showing that such a visa has been issued for use by the applicant, and of any cards or passports issued for use by the persons included in the application. The applicant shall present them, if any have been issued, to the board (or Customs Officer) at the time he makes his application. He shall also give any other information which the board or Customs Office may request.

2. Section 25.1 (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i) are amended to read as follows:

(c) If the board (or Customs Officer) finds that the persons covered by the application reside in Mexico, within the area described in paragraph (a), and desire to acquire processed foods in the United States, it shall grant the application and shall issue yellow punch cards (OPA Form R-184) as provided in this article. (Applicants who have received certificates for a period prior to July 1, 1943, may obtain yellow punch cards for a subsequent period by returning to the board (or Customs Officer) the duplicate copies of such certificates, in accordance with paragraph (m).)

(d) The monthly ration of processed foods for each of the persons for whom the application is granted shall be 48 points. Yellow punch cards shall be issued for periods of two calendar months, beginning July 1, 1943. However, a card shall be issued for only one calendar month, if it is issued in August 1943 or in any second month thereafter, unless it is then issued for the next two month period. The full monthly ration shall be allowed for the month in which the application is made regardless of the time of the month when it is made, if a ration is desired for that month.

(e) One yellow punch card shall be issued for all persons included in the application. However, if there are more than 5 such persons, one additional yellow punch card shall be issued for each additional 5 persons or less. The board (or Customs Officer) shall indicate the number of persons for whom the card is issued by perforating the appropriate box on the top of the card. For each person fewer than 5 for whom a card valid for two months is issued, the board (or Customs Officer) shall remove two of the horizontal strips, each containing the numbers 1 to 48, starting at the bottom of the card. For each person fewer than 5 for whom a card valid for one month is issued, the board (or Customs Officer) shall remove horizontal strips starting at the bottom of the card, in sufficient number to leave as many strips attached to the card as there are persons for whom the card is issued.

(f) The board (or Customs Officer) shall indicate the period for which the yellow punch card is valid by perforating the appropriate boxes under the words "Ration for". The name and address of the applicant and of the retailer, wholesaler, processor, country shipper or grower from whom the processed foods will be acquired shall be written by the board (or Customs Officer) in the spaces on the card provided for that purpose. If the applicant has a Non-Resident Alien's Border Crossing Identification Card, or passport bearing either a visa for entry into the United States or a notation showing that such a visa has been issued, the board (or Customs Officer), at the time a yellow punch card is issued, shall endorse the letter "R" upon these immigration papers and upon the immigration papers, if any, of the other persons included in the application. A validation stamp (OPA Form R-123) shall be pasted on the reverse side of each yellow punch card issued.

(g) If the board (or Customs Officer) which issued a yellow punch card is not the board for the area in which the supplier designated on the card is located it shall notify the supplier's board of the issuance by following the procedure indicated below:

(1) If the card is issued pursuant to an application on OPA Form R-183, it shall send to the supplier's board a copy of the application, with a notation of its action.

(2) If the card is issued upon surrender of an expired certificate or yellow punch card, without a new application on OPA Form R-183, as provided in paragraph (m), it shall send the expired card or certificate to the supplier's board.

(h) Between the 10th and the 15th of July 1943, and between the 10th and 15th day of every second month thereafter, each board shall send a "certificate" to each retailer, wholesaler, processor, country shipper or grower within its area entitled thereto, who has been designated on yellow punch cards for which he has not previously been given a certificate. However, no certificate shall be issued to any such supplier until he has submitted to the board the reports required by section 25.3.

(i) Each certificate issued under paragraph (h) in July 1943, shall be for the number of points computed in the following manner:

(1) Add the number of points allowed by all the yellow punch cards on which the supplier has been designated, issued prior to July 10, 1943;

(2) Deduct from that total the number of points, if any, which the supplier owes. The number of points which he owes, is the total number of points given him by certificates previously issued under this Article, less the point value of all processed foods transferred by him to residents of Mexico, prior to July 1, 1943.

3. A new section 25.1 (j), (k), (l), (m) and (n) are added to read as follows:

(j) Each certificate issued under paragraph (h) in September 1943, or in any second month thereafter, shall be for the number of points computed in the following manner:

(1) Add the number of points allowed by all the yellow punch cards on which the supplier has been designated, issued before the 10th day of the current month and after the 9th day of the second preceding month, and for which no certificate has previously been issued.

(2) Deduct from that total the number of points, if any, which the supplier owes. The number of points which he owes is the total number of points given him by all certificates previously issued to him under this Article, less the point value of all processed foods transferred by him to residents of Mexico, up to the end of the preceding month, pursuant to this Article.

(k) For the purposes of paragraphs (i) and (j) only, a yellow punch card issued by a Customs Officer or a board other than the supplier's board shall be considered issued on the date when the supplier's board receives the information as to issuance, as provided in paragraph (g).

(l) A retailer or wholesaler designated on any yellow punch card issued to an applicant at any time other than between the 1st day and the 9th day of July 1943, or of any second month thereafter, may apply to his board for a certificate to cover that card. His application need not be on any particular form. He must show that he will be unable to acquire sufficient processed foods to meet consumer demand under rationing if he waits until the next regular period for issuance of certificates under paragraph (h). The board may give him a certificate for the number of points allowed by any such cards.

(m) Upon the expiration of a certificate issued under section 25.1 (c) as it read prior to July 1, 1943, or of any yellow punch card, the board (or Customs Officer) shall issue a yellow punch card for a subsequent period, but only if the applicant returns the expired duplicate certificate or card to it. The applicant shall, within five days after the expiration of any certificate or yellow punch card issued to him, return the duplicate of the certificate, or the card, to the board (or Customs Officer), either in person or by mail. However, if the duplicate certificate or yellow punch card has been lost, destroyed or stolen, a supplier's statement given to the applicant before July 1, 1943 under section 25.2 as it read prior to that date, or a white punch card given to the applicant by his supplier as provided in section 25.2 as amended, may be returned to the board (or Customs Officer) instead. If the applicant has not received such a statement or a white card, a board may waive compliance with this requirement. No new application is required for the issuance of a yellow punch card to replace an expired yellow punch card or an expired certificate issued for a period prior to July 1, 1943, unless, since the date of the last application, there has been a change in the number of members of the applicant's household related to him by blood, marriage or adoption who wish to acquire processed foods. Acceptance by applicant of a yellow punch card to replace an expired card or certificate shall constitute a representation by the applicant that the number of such persons has not been reduced

(n) An applicant may apply to the board (or Customs Officer) where his original application was made, to change the retailer, wholesaler, processor, country shipper or grower from whom he acquires processed foods. However, no application for such a change shall be made with respect to any currently valid yellow punch card unless the supplier designated on the card refuses to transfer processed foods against it under section 25.2. Any yellow punch card thereafter issued to the applicant by the board (or Customs Officer) shall be issued with the name and address of the new supplier written on it in the space provided for that purpose.

4. Section 25.2 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Each supplier who has been designated by an applicant as the person from whom processed foods are to be acquired, may transfer to the applicant to whom a yellow punch card has been issued, or to his authorized agent, and the applicant (or his agent) may acquire from the supplier, processed foods up to the number of points allowed by the yellow punch card, at any time during the valid period indicated on the card.

5. A new section 25.2 (b), (c) and (d) are added to read as follows:

(b) A supplier who transfers processed foods against a yellow punch card shall, at or before the time of his first transfer against that card, make an exact copy of it on a white punch card which will be furnished to him by his board.

(c) Each time a supplier transfers processed foods against a yellow punch card he shall indicate, on the transferee's yellow punch card and upon the duplicate white punch card made out by the supplier, the point value of the processed foods transferred. This is to be done by perforating the appropriate box in the horizontal strip, or crossing out the number in that box, beginning at the bottom of the card, and by removing one strip for each 48 points of processed foods transferred. (For example, if the processed foods first transferred have a point value of 44 points, the supplier is required to perforate the box in the first horizontal strip containing the number 44 or to cross out that number. If the second transfer is for 24 points, the supplier is required to remove the first strip and to perforate the box in the second horizontal strip containing the number 20 or to cross out that number.)

(d) No transfer may be made unless the yellow punch card is presented to the transferor. However, if the applicant or his agent fails to present the yellow punch card on the ground that it has been lost, destroyed or stolen, the supplier may make an exact copy of his white punch card on another white punch card. He shall sign the white punch card which he makes out in this manner. This card may then be used in place of the lost, destroyed or stolen yellow punch card.

6. Section 25.3 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 25.3. Records and reports by supplier from whom processed foods are to be acquired. (a) Any retailer, wholesaler, processor, country shipper or grower who has been designated by an applicant as the supplier from whom processed foods are to be acquired shall maintain and keep at his place of business the white punch card which he is required by section 25.2 (b) to make out for each such applicant. Not later than the 10th day of September 1943 and not later than the 10th day of every second month thereafter the supplier must give his board a written statement showing the total number of points given to him by certificates issued under this Article during the two preceding calendar months and the total number of unused points left on yellow punch cards valid for those months, on which he has been designated as supplier.

7. Section 25.4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 25.4. Records and reports by suppliers who transferred processed foods to residents of Mexico before July 1, 1943.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(a) Any retailer, wholesaler, processor, country shipper or grower to whom a certificate has been issued under this Article prior to July 1, 1943, shall maintain and keep at his place of business a record showing the name of each applicant for whom he has received such certificate, the point value of each certificate and of all processed foods transferred against it and the dates of such transfers. Before the 10th day of July 1943, he must give to his board a written statement showing the total point value of all certificates received by him for June 1943 and the total point value of all transfers of processed foods made under such certificates during that month.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

MEAT, FATS, FISH AND CHEESES

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 25.1 (b) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) The serial number of the Non-Resident Alien's Border Crossing Identification Card, if any, or of the passport, if any, bearing either a visa for entry into the United States or a notation showing that such a visa has been issued for use by the applicant, and of any cards or passports issued for use by the persons included in the application. The applicant shall present them, if any have been issued, to the board (or Customs Officer) at the time he makes his application. He shall also give any other information which the board or Customs Officer may request.

2. Section 25.1 (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) and (i) are amended to read as follows:

(c) If the board (or Customs Officer) finds that the persons covered by the application reside in Mexico, within the area described in paragraph (a), and desire to acquire foods covered by this order in the United States, it shall grant the application and shall issue green punch cards (OPA Form R-185) as provided in this Article. (Applicants who have received certificates for a period prior to July 1, 1943, may obtain green punch cards for a subsequent period by returning to the board (or Customs Officer) the duplicate copies of such certificates, in accordance with paragraph (m)).

(d) The monthly ration of all foods covered by this order for each of the persons for whom the application is granted shall be 16 points. Green punch cards shall be issued for periods of two calendar months, beginning July 1, 1943. However, a card shall be issued for only one calendar month, if it is issued in August 1943 or in any second month thereafter, unless it is then issued for the next two month period. The full monthly ration shall be allowed for the month in which the application is made regardless of the time of the month when it is made, if a ration is desired for that month.

(e) One green punch card shall be issued for all persons included in the application. However, if there are more than 5 such persons, one additional green punch card shall be issued for each additional 5 persons or less. The board (or Customs Officer) shall indicate the number of persons for whom the card is issued by perforating the appropriate box on the top of the card. For each person fewer than 5 for whom a card valid for two months is issued, the board (or Customs Officer) shall remove two of the horizontal strips, each containing the numbers 1 to 64 starting at the bottom of the card. For each person fewer than 5 for whom a card valid for one month is issued, the board (or Customs Officer) shall remove horizontal strips starting at the bottom of the card, in sufficient number to leave as many strips attached to the card as there are persons for whom the card is issued.

(f) The board (or Customs Officer) shall indicate the period for which the green punch card is valid by perforating the appropriate boxes under the words "Ration for". It shall also indicate that the card provides a monthly ration of 16 points for each of the persons for whom it is issued, by perforating the square on the card containing the words "Ration is for fats alone if this square is punched." The name and address of the applicant and of the retailer, wholesaler or primary distributor from whom the foods covered by this order will be acquired shall be written by the board (or Customs Officer) in the spaces on the card provided for that purpose. If the applicant has a Non-Resident Alien's Border Crossing Identification Card, or passport bearing either a visa for entry into the United States or a notation showing that such a visa has been issued, the board (or Customs Officer), at the time a green punch card is issued, shall endorse the letter "R" upon these immigration papers and upon the immigration papers, if any, of the other persons included in the application. A validation stamp (OPA Form R-1237 shall be pasted on the reverse side of each green punch card issued.

(g) If the board (or Customs Officer) which issues a green punch card is not the board for the area in which the supplier designated on the card is located it shall notify the supplier's board of the issuance by following the procedure indicated below:

(1) If the card is issued pursuant to an application on OPA Form R-183, it shall send to the supplier's board a copy of the application, with a notation of its action.

(2) If the card is issued upon surrender of an expired certificate or green punch card, without a new application on OPA Form R-183, as provided in paragraph (m), it shall send the expired card or certificate to the supplier's board.

(h) Between the 10th and the 15th of July, 1943, and between the 10th and 15th day of every second month thereafter, each board shall send a "certificate" to each retailer, wholesaler or primary distributor within its area entitled thereto, who has been designated on green punch cards for which he has not previously been given a certificate. However, no certificate shall be issued to any such supplier until he has submitted to the board the reports required by section 25.3.

(i) Each certificate issued under paragraph (h) in July 1943, shall be for the number of points computed in the following manner:

(1) Add the number of points allowed by all the green punch cards on which the supplier has been designated, issued prior to July 10, 1943;

(2) Deduct from that total the number of points, if any, which the supplier owes. The number of points which he owes is the total number of points given him by certificates previously issued under this Article, less the point value of all foods covered by this order transferred by him to residents of Mexico, prior to July 1, 1943.

3. A new section 25.1 (j), (k), (l), (m) and (n) are added to read as follows:

(j) Each certificate issued under paragraph (h) in September 1943, or in any second month threafter, shall be for the number of points computed in the following manner:

(1) Add the number of points allowed by all the green punch cards on which the supplier has been designated, issued before the 10th day of the current month and after the 9th day of the second preceding month, and for which no certificate has previously been issued;

(2) Deduct from that total the number of points, if any, which the supplier owes. The number of points which he owes is the total number of points given him by all certificates previously issued to him under this Article, less the point value of all foods covered by this order transferred by him to residents of Mexico, up to the end of the preceding month pursuant to this Article.

(k) For the purposes of paragraphs (i) and (j) only, a green punch card issued by a Customs Officer or a board other than the supplier's board shall be considered issued on the date when the supplier's board receives the information as to issuance, as provided in paragraph (g).

(l) A retailer or wholesaler designated on any green punch card issued to an applicant at any time other than between the 1st day and the 9th day of July 1943, or of any second month thereafter, may apply to his board for a certificate to cover that card. His application need not be on any particular form. He must show that he will be unable to acquire sufficient foods covered by this order to meet consumer demand under rationing if he waits until the next regular period for issuance of certificates under paragraph (h). The board may give him a certificate for the number of points allowed by any such cards.

(m) Upon the expiration of a certificate issued under section 25.1 (c) as it read prior to July 1, 1943, or of any green punch card, the board (or Customs Officer) shall issue a green punch card for a subsequent period, but only if the applicant returns the expired duplicate certificate or card to it. The applicant shall, within five days after the expiration of any certificate or green punch card issued to him, return the duplicate of the certificate, or the card, to the board (or Customs Officer), either in person or by mail. However, if the duplicate certificate or green punch card has been lost, destroyed or stolen, a supplier's statement given to the applicant before July 1, 1943 under section 25.2 as it read prior to that date, or a white punch card given to the applicant by his supplier as provided in section 25.2 as amended, may be returned to the board (or Customs Office) instead. If the applicant has not received such a statement or a white card, a board may waive compliance with this requirement. No new application is required for the issuance of a green punch card to replace an expired green punch card or an expired certificate issued for a period prior to July 1, 1943, unless, since the date of the last application, there has been a change in the number of members of the applicant's household related to him by blood, marriage or adoption who wish to acquire foods covered by this order. Acceptance by applicant of a green punch card to replace an expired card or certificate shall constitute a representation by the applicant that the number of such persons has not been reduced.

(n) An applicant may apply to the board (or Customs Officer) where his original application was made, to change the retailer, wholesaler or primary distributor from whom he acquires foods covered by this order. However, no application for such a change shall be made with respect to any currently valid green punch card unless the supplier designated on the card refuses to transfer foods covered by this order against it under section 25.2. Any green punch card thereafter issued to the applicant by the board (or Customs Officer) shall be issued with the name and address of the new supplier written on it in the space provided for that purpose.

4. Section 25.2 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Each supplier who has been designated by an applicant as the person from whom foods covered by this order are to be acquired, may transfer to the applicant to whom a green punch card has been issued, or to his authorized agent, and the applicant (or his agent) may acquire from the supplier, foods covered by this order up to the number of points allowed by the green punch card, at any time during the valid period indicated on the card. The card allows 16 points per month for each person for whom it is issued. No numbers above 16 on any horizontal strip on the card are deemed to authorize the transfer of any foods and all such numbers are to be ignored.

5. A new section 25.2 (b), (c) and (d) are added to read as follows:

(b) A supplier who transfers foods covered by this order against a green punch card shall, at or before the time of his first transfer against that card, make an exact copy of it on a white punch card which will be furnished to him by his board.

(c) Each time a supplier transfers foods covered by this order against a green punch card he shall indicate, on the transferee's green punch card and upon the duplicate white punch card made out by the supplier, the point value of the foods covered by this order transferred. This is to be done by perforating the appropriate box in the horizontal strip, or crossing out the number in that box, beginning at the bottom of the card, and by removing one strip for each 16 points of foods covered by this order transferred. (For example, if the foods covered by this order first transferred have a point value of 14 points, the supplier is required to perforate the box in the first horizontal strip containing the number 14 or to cross out that number. If the second transfer is for 8 points, the supplier is required to remove the first strip and to perforate the box in the second horizontal strip containing the number 6 or to cross out that number).

(d) No transfer may be made unless the green punch card is presented to the transferor. However, if the applicant or his agent fails to present the green punch card on the ground that it has been lost, destroyed or stolen, the supplier may make an exact copy of his white punch card on another white punch card. He shall sign the white punch card which he makes out in this manner. This card may then be used in place of the lost, destroyed or stolen green punch card.

6. Section 25.3 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 25.3. Records and reports by supplier from whom foods covered by this order are to be acquired. (a) Any retailer, wholesaler or primary distributor who has been designated by an applicant as the supplier from whom foods covered

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

7. Section 25.4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 25.4. Records and reports by suppliers who transferred foods covered by this order to residents of Mexico before July 1, 1943. (a) Any retailer, wholesaler or primary distributor to whom a certificate has been issued under this Article prior to July 1, 1943 shall maintain and keep at his place of business a record showing the name of each applicant for whom he has received such a certificate, the point value of each certificate and of all foods covered by this order transferred against it and the dates of such transfers. Before the 10th of July 1943, he must give to his board a written statement showing the total point value of all certificates received by him for June 1943 and the total point value of all transfers of foods covered by this order made under such certificates during that month.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1412.263 (h) is amended to read as follows:

(h) Sales of grain distilled ethyl alcohol to the Defense Supplies Corporation. (1) The maximum price for the sale by any plant to the Defense Supplies Corporation of ethyl alcohol of 190 proof distilled from grain shall be the maximum price set forth in paragraphs (a) to (d) of this section, or a maximum price computed pursuant to the following formula:

Maximum price per gallon of 190 proof ethyl alcohol f. o. b. works shall be the sum of the following cost items per gallon, less the recovered value of dried feed, fusel oil and the like, plus a margin for profit computed pursuant to subparagraph (2):

(i) Direct materials.
(ii) Direct labor.
(iii) Miscellaneous direct production charges.
(iv) Indirect production expenses.
(v) Miscellaneous direct expenses.
(vi) An allowance of $.03 per gallon for selling and general and administrative expenses.

(2) The per gallon margin of profit shall be allowed on the alcohol produced in each plant as follows: For each gallon produced and sold to the Defense Supplies Corporation during a calendar quarterly period, up to and including 750,000 gallons, 4 cents per gallon; for each gallon produced and sold during a calendar quarterly period over 750,000 gallons and up to and including 1,500,000 gallons, 3 cents per gallon; and for each gallon produced and sold during a calendar quarterly period over 1,500,000 gallons, 2 cents per gallon.

(3) Maximum prices computed pursuant to the formula contained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be determined for the ethyl alcohol produced during each calendar quarterly period and shall be based upon the actual costs of producing such ethyl alcohol. Until the actual costs for a quarterly period are determined, the price shall be an estimated price. Within twenty days after the end of each calendar quarterly period, each seller computing a maximum price pursuant to the formula contained in subparagraph (1) shall submit to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., upon a form to be obtained from that Office upon request, a report of the actual costs of producing the ethyl alcohol sold to the Defense Supplies Corporation during such period. The estimated price shall be adjusted upward or downward in accordance with the report of actual costs filed with the Office of Price Administration. A maximum price so determined shall be subject to disapproval in writing at any time by the Office of Price Administration, and if a maximum price reported pursuant to this paragraph is revised downward by the Office of Price Administration and if any payment has been made at a price higher than the price approved by the Office of Price Administration, the seller shall refund the excess.

(4) All cost computations and maximum price determinations and reports made pursuant to the formula contained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be on the basis of a gallon of 190 proof ethyl alcohol. Where ethyl alcohol of a proof other than 190 proof is sold, it shall be billed and paid for on the basis of an equivalent gallonage of 190 proof ethyl alcohol.

(5) Where a converted alcoholic beverage distillery determined a maximum price for sales to the Defense Supplies Corporation for the calendar quarterly period ended June 30, 1943, under § 1412.263 (h) as it existed prior to July 1, 1943, such converted distillery may at its option adopt as its maximum price for the period ended June 30, 1943, the maximum price so previously determined or a maximum price computed on the basis of its actual costs during the calendar quarterly period ended June 30, 1943.

(6) This paragraph (h) shall not apply to ethyl alcohol produced as a by-product in the manufacture of fermentation butyl alcohol.

This amendment shall become effective July 1, 1943.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[RO 1A,[1] Amdt. 35]

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 1A is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.401 (d) is hereby revoked.

2. Section 1315.503 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Eligibility determined on basis of adjusted ration. When the Board has adjusted the applicant's mileage requirements pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, it shall determine the applicant's eligibility for a tire or tube in the following manner, exclusive of any special ration:

(1) In the gasoline shortage area, as defined in § 1394.7551 (a) (44) of Ration

Order No. 5C, an applicant whose total rationed mileage is more than 90 miles per month but less than 241 miles per month may be issued a certificate for a Grade III tire. Any applicant whose total rationed mileage is less than 241 miles per month may be issued a certificate for a new tube.

(2) Outside the gasoline shortage area, as defined in § 1394.7551 (a) (44) of Ration Order No. 5C, an applicant whose total rationed mileage is 240 miles per month or less may be issued a certificate for a new tube, but may only be issued a certificate for a Grade III tire if any of the purposes for which his vehicle is used constitute occupational mileage, as defined in § 1394.7551 (a) (27) of Ration Order No. 5C, and if the Board would be entitled to allow him such occupational mileage under provisions of § 1394.7704 of Ration Order No. 5C.

(3) An applicant whose total allowed mileage is 241 miles per month or more may be issued a certificate for a Grade I or Grade III tire at the applicant's option, or for a new tube.

(4) An applicant operating fleet or official passenger automobiles, for which interchangeable gasoline ration books have been currently issued, may be issued a certificate for a Grade III tire or a new tube; if the applicant establishes that the particular vehicle will be operated for 241 miles per month or more, then a certificate for a Grade I tire may be issued.

3. Section 1315.503 (d) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) An applicant who is eligible under § 1315.503 (c) may be granted a certificate for a Grade III tire in any area where recapping facilities are unavailable or inadequate, upon turning in a recappable tire carcass.

4. Section 1315.503 (d) (5) is amended to read as follows:

(5) An applicant for a passenger automobile, which is not driven by gasoline as defined in § 1394.7551 (a) (12) of Ration Order No. 5C, or which has been issued a currently valid Non-highway ration in accordance with § 1394.7904 of Ration Order No. 5C, may be eligible only if the mileage driven in the vehicle and the purposes for which it is used are within § 1315.503 (c); such an applicant may be granted a certificate for a new tube and for the grade of tire provided for in § 1315.503 (c).

This amendment shall become effective July 1, 1943.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PROCESSED FOODS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 13 is amended in the following respects:

1. The last two sentences of section 4.6 (c) (1) (ii) are amended to read as follows:

These points include all which he has on hand, all in his ration bank account (except those for which ration checks are outstanding), all which he already has given up for processed foods not yet shipped to him, and all which he has not yet received for processed foods he has already shipped. However, points he has received for processed foods which he has not shipped, or points he owes for processed foods already shipped to him, are not included.

2. The last two sentences of section 5.8 (c) (1) (ii) are amended to read as follows:

These points include all which he has on hand, all in his ration bank account, if any (except those for which ration checks are outstanding), all which he has already given up for processed foods not yet shipped to him, and all which he has not yet received for processed foods he has already shipped. However, points he has received for processed foods which he has not yet shipped, or points he owes for processed foods already shipped to him, are not included.

3. Section 9.5 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) When points must be given up. (1) The transferor must get the points from the transferee, and the transferee must give them up, at or before the time when the transfer is made. Exceptions to this rule are stated in the next two subparagraphs.

(2) If the transfer is made through shipment by railroad or any other public carrier, the transferor may arrange to have the carrier get the points for him from the transferee at the time of actual delivery, or to have the points obtained for him by anyone in exchange for the bill of lading or other document entitling its holder to take possession of the processed foods.

(3) The points may be given up later, but not more than ten days after the time when the transfer is made, if the conditions of this subparagraph are satisfied. A transferee may not accept the transfer in this case unless he has points on hand (excluding points not yet surrendered for processed foods bought or acquired) or in his ration bank account (excluding the amounts of ration checks issued which have not yet been cleared) equal to the point value of the processed foods transferred. The transferor must, at or before the time he transfers the processed foods to the transferee, prepare and keep a memorandum showing the name of the transferee, the date of transfer of the processed foods, a description of the items, and their point value. If the transferor does not get the points within the time required by this subparagraph, he must immediately notify the district (or State) office for the place where the transfer was made, of the default. As long as the transferee is in default, he must not acquire any processed foods and no transferor who has knowledge of the default may transfer such foods to him. (However, he may continue to acquire processed foods and transferors may continue to transfer such foods to him, pursuant to Article X.)

(4) Points which are mailed are considered given up when the envelope containing them is postmarked.

This amendment shall become effective July 6, 1943.

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 10.5 (d) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) The points may be given up later, but not more than ten days after the time when the transfer is made, if the conditions of this subparagraph are satisfied. A transferee may not accept the transfer in this case unless he has points on hand (excluding points not yet surrendered for foods bought or acquired) or in his ration bank account (excluding the amounts of ration checks issued which have not yet been cleared) equal to the point value of the foods transferred. 9. A new § 1429.74a is added to read as follows:

§ 1429.74a Permitted increases in maximum prices for dried egg products for sales of quantities of 3,000 pounds or less sold and delivered to purchasers other than the United States or any agency thereof—(a) When delivered from a warehouse or the premises of a manufacturer. Where any of the dried egg products named in § 1429.74 are sold and delivered from a warehouse or from the premises of a manufacturer in quantities of 3,000 pounds or less, there may be added to the maximum price for such product in more than 3,000 lb. quantities, provided by § 1429.74 hereof, the amount per pound set forth in Table I below.

In calculating such maximum price in more than 3,000 lb. quantities (to be used as the base for quantities of 3,000 pounds or less in the paragraph immediately above), the price from Table H in § 1429.74 for the month in which the delivery of the 3,000 pounds or less quantity is made shall be used.

(b) Table I: Maximum permitted increases for sales of dried egg products in quantities of 3,000 pounds or less to purchasers other than the United States or any agency thereof. Users other than the United States or any agency thereof whose total purchases and deliveries of all dried egg products from all sellers for the calendar month immediately preceding the particular sale average a number of pounds weekly within the range of pounds indicated below may be charged in the particular sale the increase in cents per pound shown opposite thereto below.

Quantity sales	Maximum increase in cents per lb. above base price at warehousing point: Dried whole eggs and dried egg yolks	Flaked dried albumen and spray dried or powdered albumen
Users whose weekly purchases average—
1,001 to 3,000 lbs., inclusive	3	5
101 to 1,000 lbs.	6	8
100 lbs. or less	10	12

10. A new § 1429.76 (a) (1) is added to read as follows:

(1) If the complete container or package or any separate part of any container or package of an egg item is returned to the seller or delivered to another at the seller's request or direction, deduction shall be made from the maximum price of the egg item at the rate of the maximum price of the complete container or package or separate part so returned or delivered or, if no maximum price for the complete container, package, or separate part has been established, then deduction shall be made from the maximum price of the egg item at the rate of the current market price of the complete container, package, or separate part, and the reduced amount shall be the maximum price for the sale and delivery of the particular egg item.

This amendment shall be effective as of June 29, 1943.

PART 302—CONTRACTS WITH VESSEL OWNERS AND RATES OF COMPENSATION RELATING THERETO

REQUISITION BAREBOAT CHARTER

§ 302.60 Requisition bareboat charter for combination cargo and passenger vessels. Bareboat charters entered into by the United States of America, acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, for combination cargo and passenger vessels consisting of two parts, designated, respectively, Part I and Part II, shall be as follows:

Form No. 110 Contract No. WSA—

WARSHIPDEMISE
(Passenger Form)

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION, REQUISITION BAREBOAT CHARTER FOR COMBINATION CARGO AND PASSENGER VESSELS

[PART I]

Requisition Bareboat Charter, dated as of 194--, between ---------- address ---------- owner of the SS MS ---------- (herein called the "Vessel"), and United States of America, Charterer:

Whereas, pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, and the President's Executive Orders Nos. 9054 and 9244, the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, has requisitioned the use of the Vessel.

Now, therefore, pursuant to said section 902, the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, hereby transmits to the Owner this Charter, consisting of Part I and Part II, setting forth the terms which, in the Administrator's judgment, should govern the relations between the Charterer and the Owner and a statement of the rate of hire which, in the Administrator's judgment, will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel under the terms of this Charter:

CLAUSE A. Period of charter. From the time of delivery to the time of expiration of the voyage current at the end of the emergency proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941; provided, however, that either party may sooner terminate this Charter upon not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other. In either case the Vessel shall be redelivered as hereinafter provided.

CLAUSE B. Trading limits. As and where the Charterer may from time to time determine.

CLAUSE C. Hire. The Owner is hereby given an election either (I) to accept the rate of hire hereinafter set forth in Option I, which states the rate which in the Administrator's judgment will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel under the terms of this Charter; or (II) to reject such rate of hire and to have the amount of just compensation judicially determined. If the Owner elects Option I, hire at the rate therein stated shall be paid by the Charterer to the Owner in the manner provided in Part II. If the Owner does not accept the rate of hire set forth in Option I, but elects Option II, the right of the Owner to pursue whatever legal remedy it may have to recover just compensation under the laws and Constitution of the United States shall not be impaired or prejudiced either by the execution and delivery of this Charter, or by the acceptance of 75 per centum of the rate of hire set forth in Option I, and this Charter in any such event shall then be deemed an agreement governing only the relations between the Owner and the United States in respect to matters other than the amount of just compensation for the use of the Vessel under the terms of this Charter.

Option I. The rate of hire shall be $------ per day and pro rata for any portion thereof.

Option II. The Charterer shall pay to the Owner just compensation, to be judicially determined, for the use of the Vessel, and shall pay on account of just compensation a sum equal to 75 per centum of the rate of hire set forth in Option I above, as the same may from time to time be due under the terms of this Charter, and the Owner shall be entitled to sue the United States to recover such further sum as added to such 75 per centum will make up such amount as will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel under the terms of this Charter. The term "just compensation" as used in this Clause C and elsewhere in this Charter shall be deemed to include interest, if any, to which the Owner would be entitled under the laws and Constitution of the United States if the owner had rejected this Charter.

Time of election between options. The Owner shall elect between Option I and Option II on the execution of this Charter, unless a rate has not then been inserted in Option I. In the latter case, such election shall be made by the Owner in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Charterer of the rate to be so inserted. In the event of the Owner's failure to elect Option I at the time of execution, or within such 30-day period, as the case may be, Option II shall apply: Provided, however, That at any time after election has been made of either Option I or Option II, but before redelivery and before commencement of suit for just compensation, the Owner may change such election to the other Option in such manner and under such conditions as the Charterer may determine.

Payment on account. Prior to initial election as between Option I and Option II above, the Charterer, upon application of the Owner, shall pay at least once in each month on account of hire $------ per day, and the Owner may accept such payments on account without prejudice to the rights of either party under this Charter or otherwise.

Rate revision (option I only). At any time after October 1, 1943, but not more often than once every 120 days, either party may request a redetermination of the rate of charter hire upon thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other. If a revised rate is determined and agreed upon within such 30-day period, it shall become effective as of the date specified in the determination and shall continue for the balance of the period of this Charter, subject to further redetermination in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. If a revised rate is not determined and agreed upon within such 30-day period, then the rate of hire in effect at the time of such notice shall apply only until noon (EWT) of the day after the end of such 30-day period, and the Charterer shall make a redetermination of the rate of hire as to which the provisions of Option II of this Clause C shall apply for the balance of the period of this Charter. A change in the rate of charter hire under this paragraph shall not terminate the period of or otherwise modify the provisions of this Charter, and any such change shall be without prejudice to the rights of either party to terminate this Charter as provided in Clause A, Part I.

CLAUSE D. Total loss liability. In the event of the actual or constructive total loss of the Vessel as provided in Part II of this Charter, the Charterer shall pay to the Owner a sum to be mutually agreed upon but failing such agreement, shall pay just compensation for the loss of the Vessel. In the latter event, the Owner may accept 75 per centum of the sum determined and tendered by the Charterer and shall be entitled to sue the United Staes to recover such further sum as added to such 75 per centum will make up such further amount as will be just compensation under the laws and Constitution of the United States.

CLAUSE F. Time and date of delivery.

CLAUSE G. Port of redelivery. Not less favorable to either party than the port of delivery, unless otherwise agreed: Provided, however, That at Owner's option, redelivery shall be made at the U. S. continental port where the Owner maintains its principal operating headquarters.

CLAUSE H. Notice of redelivery. Not less than twenty (20) days' written or telegraphic notice.

CLAUSE I. Uniform terms. This Charter consists of this Part I and Part II, conforming to the Requisition Bareboat Charter for Combination Cargo and Passenger Vessels, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of ---------- 1943.

Unless in this Part I otherwise expressly provided, all of the provisions of said Part II shall be part of this Charter as though fully set forth herein.

CLAUSE J. Prior charter or requisition. Execution and delivery of this Charter by the Owner shall not impair any rights or obligations of either the Charterer or the Owner existing at the time of delivery of the Vessel under this Charter and in connection with the use or operation of the Vessel or any services relating thereto under any prior Charter or requisition of the Vessel or otherwise, but with respect to any rights or obligations in connection with the use or operation of the Vessel or any services relating thereto after delivery of the Vessel under this Charter, the terms of this Charter shall govern.

CLAUSE K. Special provisions.

In witness whereof, the Owner has executed this Charter in quadruplicate the ------ day of ---------- 19--, and has elected Hire Option ---------- (election to be deferred if rate not inserted in Part I), and the Charterer has executed this Charter in quadruplicate the ----- day of ----------, 19--.

[PART II]

CLAUSE 1. The Vessel shall be delivered to the Charterer in the port of delivery at such safe place as the Charterer may designate. Unless otherwise noted on the delivery receipt or survey report mutually taken hereunder, and subject to the provisions of this Clause 1, the Charterer shall accept the Vessel in whatever condition she may be at the time of delivery thereof, without any agreement, representation of warranty, expressed or implied, by the Owner as to its physical condition, equipment, seaworthiness, or fitness for any purposes whatsoever. The Vessel, unless lost, shall be redelivered by the Charterer to the Owner after she has been restored by the Charterer to the same or equivalent condition as that in which accepted, subject to the provisions of Clause 7, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

If, at the time of delivery, the Vessel has outstanding classification requirements or has sustained unrepaired damage of an insurable nature, the cost of repairing such unrepaired damage or of satisfying the outstanding classification requirements shall be for the Owner's account and, if the Charterer is not reimbursed for such cost by the Owner, such cost shall be deducted by the Charterer from the charter hire due hereunder and, in either event, during the time required for such repairs, the Vessel shall be off-hire.

CLAUSE 2. Unless otherwise agreed, the Charterer may, at its expense and on its time, install any equipment, gear or armament and make any alterations or additions to the Vessel. Such equipment, gear or armament so installed are to be considered Charterer's property. The Charterer shall, before redelivery and at its expense and on its time, remove any equipment, gear and armament installed by or at the request of the Charterer and restore the Vessel to her condition prior to any installations, alterations, additions or changes made by or at the request of the Charterer, whether such installations, alterations, additions or changes were made under this Charter or prior to delivery under this Charter, except as may be otherwise provided in Clause 7, Part II.

CLAUSE 3. If the Owner elects Hire Option I, the Charterer (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Charter) shall pay hire for the use of the Vessel at the rate provided in Option I of Clause C of Part I of this Charter per day of twenty-four hours and pro rata for any part of a day, and if the Owner elects Hire Option II of Clause C of Part I or such Option II becomes otherwise applicable, the Charterer shall similarly make payments to the Owner per day or pro rata for any portion thereof on account of just compensation in accordance with Option II, in either case for the period beginning with the time of the Vessel's delivery under this Charter and continuing until the time of her redelivery under this Charter to the Owner at the port of redelivery, or if the Vessel shall be lost as an actual total loss, hire shall continue until the time of her loss, if known; or if the date of loss cannot be ascertained or if the Vessel is unreported, hire shall continue for one-half the calculated time necessary for the Vessel to proceed from her last known position to the next port of call, but not exceeding 14 days; or if the Vessel is a constructive total loss under the terms of this Charter, hire shall continue until noon (EWT) of the day of the last casualty resulting or causing or contributing to her loss, except as provided in Clause 18C, Part II. Such hire shall be due and payable on the first day of each calendar month for the preceding month or portion thereof.

CLAUSE 4. If, pursuant to any applicable laws of the United States or any agreements entered into pursuant thereto, the Owner is required because of the operation of the Vessel under this Charter to make any payment to the United States by way of reimbursement for construction differential subsidy or payment of additional interest, then the Charterer shall pay to the Owner as additional charter hire a sum equal to any amount so paid.

CLAUSE 5. The Charterer, at its own expense, shall maintain the Vessel in at least as good condition, working order and repair as said Vessel was in at the time of her delivery to the Charterer under this Charter ordinary wear and tear excepted: Provided, however, That repairs necessary to maintain the Vessel in the condition described above may be deferred but shall be accomplished prior to redelivery. The Charterer at its own expense shall drydock the Vessel and clean and paint her underwater parts when necessary and not less than once every eight months. The Charterer shall, if practicable, give the Owner notice of the time and place of drydocking fifteen (15) days in advance thereof and afford the Owner the opportunity to inspect the Vessel while drydocked.

CLAUSE 6. The Vessel shall be drydocked and surveyed jointly by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner before delivery at the expense of the Charterer. Should the Charterer elect to waive drydocking or fail to drydock the Vessel before delivery, any damage to the Vessel's bottom found on redelivery shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have occurred subsequent to the date of delivery, and all expenses in repairing such damages shall be for the account of the Charterer to the extent that the Owner is unable to recover as to the insured damage.

CLAUSE 7. Before redelivery the Vessel shall be surveyed jointly by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner, or by a surveyor satisfactory to both the Charterer and the Owner, to determine the condition of the Vessel. If the survey is by such surveyor, the results of his survey shall be conclusive on both parties. Such survey shall include drydocking to determine the condition of the underwater parts, which drydocking shall be at the expense and on the time of the Charterer if drydocking for cleaning and painting bottom is due, or if underwater damage is found, or if there is evidence that since the last drydocking the Vessel has been involved in a grounding or underwater contact or a collision; otherwise such expense shall be paid by the Owner. Before redelivery, the Charterer, at its own expense, and on its time, shall restore the Vessel to at least as good condition and class as upon delivery, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and do all work and make all repairs necessary to satisfy any outstanding classification or steamboat inspection requirements necessary to place her in such condition and class, and perform all work required by Clause 2, Part II: Provided, however, That the Charterer shall not be required to make any Owner's repairs deferred upon delivery, or to satisfy any classification or steamboat inspection requirements for Owner's account outstanding at the time of delivery. For the purpose of Clause 5, Part II, and of this Clause 7, the condition upon delivery shall be deemed to include any repairs which were for the Charterer's account under any prior Charter or requisition but were still unexecuted on delivery under this Charter: Provided, further, That at the Charterer's option, redelivery of the Vessel to the Owner may be made prior to satisfying such requirements or prior to completion of such repairs or work, in which event the Charterer shall pay to the Owner the amount reasonably expended to place the Vessel in such class and condition, and to perform the work of restoration under Clause 2, Part II, and in addition thereto shall pay (a) an amount equal to the hire payable under this Charter for the use of the Vessel for the period of time necessary for such restoration work and repairs including any time lost awaiting available facilities; and (b) any such further amount necessarily expended by the Owner for insurance, wages and subsistence of the Master, officers and crew, and other Vessel expenses incurred during such period of time for restoration work and repairs, the Owner at all times to use due diligence, dispatch and economy: Provided, further, however, That if the Charterer and the Owner agree, the Charterer's obligation under this Clause 7 and under Clause 2, Part II, may be discharged by a lump sum payment to the Owner at the time of redelivery of the Vessel to the Owner, or other mutually satisfactory agreement. "Ordinary wear and tear," wherever used in this Charter, shall mean only such ordinary wear and tear to which the Vessel would be subject in normal commercial trading as a commercial passenger liner: Provided, however, That if correction of such wear and tear is required by the Vessel's classification society or by local inspectors, such wear and tear shall not be deemed to be "ordinary wear and tear".

CLAUSE 8. A complete inventory of the Vessel's entire outfit, equipment, hotel equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts and of all consumable stores, fuel oil and fresh water on board as of the time of the Vessel's delivery shall be jointly taken by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner, and mutually agreed upon by them as to items and as to price with respect to all consumable stores, fuel oil and fresh water, but if it is impracticable to make such inventory, then the Charterer will accept the Owner's inventory or reasonable estimates as to items and as to reasonable prices where pricing is required at the time of delivery, or as soon thereafter as may be possible, and a similar inventory shall be so jointly taken and mutually agreed upon immediately after redelivery but, if practicable, before redelivery.

CLAUSE 9. The Charterer shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores and fuel oil on board at the time of delivery, and the Owner shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores and fuel oil on board on redelivery at the current market prices at the ports of delivery and of redelivery, respectively, on the respective dates of the delivery and redelivery thereof; Provided, however, That the Owner shall not be required to accept and pay for such unbroached consumable stores and fuel in excess of the Vessel's normal peacetime requirements. "Consumable stores" within the meaning of this paragraph are all consumable and subsistence stores (but not radio supplies, expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7915A, 7916A, 7918A and 7919A (Revised Forms 1939).

CLAUSE 10. The Charterer shall have the use of all outfit, equipment, hotel equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts on board the Vessel from the time of delivery under this or any previous Charter without extra cost and the same or their substantial equivalent shall be returned to the Owner on redelivery in the same good order and condition as when received, any such items lost, destroyed, damaged, or so worn in service as to be unfit for use in the Owner's regular passenger service, to be replaced or made good by the Charterer in kind before redelivery or in value at the time of redelivery. The Charterer shall also have the benefit of all apparatus and appliances and spare replacement parts on shore, at prices to be mutually agreed upon, and the Owner shall furnish the Charterer forthwith a list of such parts and equipment.

CLAUSE 11. The Owner may, and upon demand of the Charterer shall, prior to the first departure of the Vessel from its port of delivery under this or any prior Charter, and thereafter at any reasonable time, remove such equipment on board as is not required for the intended employment of the Vessel, but the Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for the expense of such removal, of the transportation and storage of and insurance on the removed equipment during the term of this Charter, unless sooner removed from storage, and of replacing or reinstalling such equipment on the Vessel at the termination of this Charter. If such property is stored on the premises of the Owner of any subsidiary or affiliate or holding company, then the amount allowed for such storage will be that determined to be fair and reasonable by the Charterer, but in no event more than the cost of storage in comparable facilities or in a public warehouse, whichever is the lesser. However, the Charterer, at its option, may purchase such equipment at any time during the currency of this Charter at its fair and reasonable value if such storage charges exceed such value.

CLAUSE 12. During the period hereof, the Charterer shall at its own expense, or by its own procurement, man, victual, navigate, operate, supply, fuel, and repair the Vessel and pay all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever incident thereto, it being understood that the Owner retains no control, possession or command whatsoever during the period of the Charter, but that the Charterer shall have exclusive possession, control and command of said Vessel during the period of this Charter.

CLAUSE 13. A. Beginning with the delivery of the Vessel under this Charter and continuing until her redelivery, the Charterer, directly and also as insurer, assumes the risks of and hereby insures the Owner against loss of or damage to the Vessel, the loss, if any, being payable to the person entitled thereto, and assumes and insures the Owner against liabilities arising out of or in connection with the use of the Vessel by the Charterer.

The Charterer assumes and insures the Owner against war, marine and all other risks or liabilities of whatsoever nature or kind, including, without limitation, all liabilities for breach of statute or contract, or for loss of or damage to property including cargo and other vessels, or for personal injuries or death of any persons whatsoever, and in addition, the Charterer shall indemnify and save harmless the Owner and the Vessel against and from any and all loss, liability, damage, and expense (including costs of court and reasonable attorneys' fees) on account of such risks or liabilities arising out of any matter occurring during the currency of this Charter. The Charterer having assumed and insured the Owner against all risks of loss of or damage to the Vessel, then in the event of total or constructive total loss of the Vessel the Charterer shall pay to the person entitled thereto the agreed valuation of the Vessel, but if no valuation of the vessel has been agreed to, the Charterer shall pay just compensation for such loss to the extent the person entitled thereto is not otherwise reimbursed through policies of insurance. The amount of the just compensation shall be determined by the Administrator and paid by the Charterer as soon as practicable after the loss but if the amount of just compensation so determined is unsatisfactory to the person entitled thereto, the Charterer shall pay to such person 75 per centum of the amount so determined, and such person shall be entitled to sue the United States to recover such further sum as, added to said 75 per centum, will make up such amount as will be just compensation for the Vessel. The Charterer shall not, however, by reason of the operation of this Clause, be liable for any damage of an insurable nature incurred prior to delivery under this Charter, or under any prior charter with the Charterer.

B. In addition to the insurances provided by the Charterer pursuant to this Clause 13, the Owner shall have the privilege of procuring, at its own expense, and for its own account, insurance upon anticipated charter hire in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as may now or hereafter be permitted by General Order of the Charterer.

CLAUSE 14. A. (1) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any vessel owned by the United States, or under charter to the United States on terms which would make the United States liable for such claims.

(2) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any other vessel owned by or under charter to any Government, and against any cargo carried on any such vessel or on any vessel described in subparagraph (1) above, to the extent such waiver may be required by the Charterer in any specific case or cases in order to give effect to any agreement for mutual or reciprocal waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

(3) The waivers provided in this paragraph A shall not relieve the Charterer of any liability it may have to the Owner solely as insurer of the Vessel;

B. The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim against any ship repairer, based on negligence or otherwise, arising out of repair or custody of the Vessel during the period of this Charter, to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the repairer: Provided, however, That such waiver shall not preclude recovery by the Owner against the repairer for amounts less than the customary contractual limit of $300,000 on the repairer's liability, nor for any claim by the Owner for proper replacement of defective workmanship or material in connection with any repairs which are for the Owner's account under the terms of this Charter. The Owner shall and does hereby also waive any claim against any stevedore to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the stevedore.

C. The Charterer shall indemnify and hold the Owner harmless for and against any loss or damage suffered by the Owner for which claim is waived under the provisions of paragraphs A or B of this Clause 14 and which is not recovered by the Owner under any other provisions of this Charter: Provided, however, That if a valuation of the Vessel has been agreed to this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for loss of or damage to the Vessel an aggregate sum in excess of the agreed valuation: And provided further, That this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for any period of detention or loss of use of the Vessel an aggregate sum in excess of the amount which would be payable to the Owner under the other terms of this Charter for such period.

CLAUSE 15. A. The Owner shall forever indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Charterer against any liens, claims, demands, or liabilities of whatsoever nature by whomsoever asserted (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees paid or incurred in defending such lien, claim or demand, whether or not it shall be found to be valid, and also including reasonable compensation for loss of use resulting therefrom) upon the Vessel at the time of her delivery under this Charter, or arising out of the use or operation of the Vessel prior to her delivery under this Charter, unless the amount thereof is properly chargeable to the Charterer by reason of any preexisting charter of the Vessel or requisition of her by the Charterer. The Charterer shall forever indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Owner against any liens of whatsoever nature by whomsoever asserted and against any claim of lien (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees paid or incurred in defending any such claim, whether or not the claim be found to be valid and also including reasonable compensation for loss of use resulting therefrom), whenever and by whomsoever asserted, upon the Vessel at the time of her redelivery under this Charter, and for which the Owner is not responsible as aforesaid. The Charterer shall also indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Owner and the Vessel against any claims, demands, or liabilities against them or either of them (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees in defending such claim or demand, whether or not the claim or demand be found to be valid, and also including reasonable compensation for loss of use resulting therefrom) arising out of the use or operation of the Vessel by the Charterer or any subcharterer or out of any act or neglect of the Charterer or any subcharterer in relation to the Vessel, or out of any obligation or liability incurred by the Charterer or any subcharterer. Each party shall give to the other prompt notice of the assertion of any such lien, claim, demand or liability.

B. If after redelivery the Vessel is arrested or attached upon any cause of action arising or alleged to have arisen from previous possession, or operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, or any subcharterer, the Charterer undertakes to use its best efforts to cause the release of the Vessel under the Suits in Admiralty Act or any other special remedy available to the Charterer.

CLAUSE 16. This Charter shall be subject to all applicable valid laws and government rules and regulations (including Executive Orders) and the terms of any governmental preferred mortgage on the Vessel, and the Charterer shall indemnify the Vessel and the Owner against any loss, claim, liability, damage or expense on account of the violation by the Charterer of any such law, rule, or regulation.

CLAUSE 17. The Charterer shall at all times have the right to subcharter the Vessel in accordance with Section 902 (e) of the Merchant Marine Act of 1936, as amended, or any other applicable law or Executive order, without prejudice to this Charter, but the Charterer shall always remain responsible for the due fulfillment of this Charter in all its terms and conditions.

CLAUSE 18. A. In case of serious damage or injury to the Vessel during the period of this Charter, to the extent that the Charterer shall consider her to be a constructive total loss, the Charterer shall have the option of declaring her a constructive total loss by so notifying the Owner in writing as soon as practicable after the occurrence causing such damage or injury. In the event of such a declaration by the Charterer, the Charterer shall forthwith pay or cause to be paid to the Owner as though the Vessel were an actual total loss the amount to be determined in accordance with the provisions of Clause 13, Part II. Against such payment the Owner will give the Charterer such releases and instruments granting the Vessel or the property of her remaining as the Charterer may require.

B. If the Charterer delays declaring the Vessel a constructive total loss beyond six months after hire terminated under Clause 3, Part II, the Charterer shall pay hire for such period in excess of six months.

C. The Owner shall be entitled to receive additional hire equal to 3½ per centum per annum of the just compensation value of the Vessel, or the agreed value, as the case may be, for the period between the date of the last casualty resulting in or causing or contributing to the loss of the Vessel and the date of declaration of a constructive total loss under this Clause 18, but in no event, however, shall the Owner be entitled to receive such additional amount for any period during which hire is payable.

CLAUSE 19. A. If immediately prior to delivery under this Charter the Vessel shall have been under charter pursuant to requisition or otherwise to the Charterer, then the term of this Charter shall commence coincidentally with the termination of the prior charter and there shall not be an interval between the two.

B. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for its actual out-of-pocket expenses, including all taxes with respect thereto, for which the Owner is responsible by reason of the Ship's Articles or collective bargaining agreements with the crew, for transportation, wages and subsistence, or payments in lieu thereof, incurred in returning the officers and crew to the port, place or area of signing off named in or contemplated by the terms of the Articles, if such expenses are incurred by reason of delivery of the Vessel under this Charter, pursuant to orders or directions of the Charterer, at a port, place or area other than that named in or contemplated by the Articles for termination of the voyage during which delivery of the Vessel is made.

CLAUSE 20. Unless otherwise provided in this Charter or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter shall be made or addressed to the Owner at the address provided in Part I and all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

CLAUSE 21. No member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner is or shall be admitted to any share or part of this Charter, or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except to the extent allowed by Title 18 U. S. Code, Section 206. The Owner agrees not to employ any member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

CLAUSE 22. The Owner warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Charter upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Charterer the right to annul this Charter or, in its discretion, to deduct from any sums payable under this Charter the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the Owner upon agreements or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Owner for the purpose of securing business.

CLAUSE 23. A. In the event that this form of bareboat charter is modified by the Charterer at any time prior to October 1, 1943, the Owner shall, at its option, have the benefit of any such modifications, subject to the assumption by the Owner, at the request of the Charterer, of any obligations imposed in conjunction with such modifications. Said option shall be exercised within such reasonable time as the Charterer may prescribe, and, upon such exercise, the modification shall become effective as of the date of this Charter. In the event of non-exercise by the Owner of said option, this Charter shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms.

B. This Charter may be amended, modified or terminated at any time by mutual agreement between the parties hereto.

CLAUSE 24 This Charter consists of this Part II and Part I which incorporates this Part II therein by reference. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Part II and those of Part I, the provisions of Part I shall govern to the extent of such conflict.

If the ship is not owned by or chartered by demise to the Company designated herein (as may be the case notwithstanding anything that appears to the contrary) this bill of lading shall take effect only as a contract with the owner or demise charterer, as the case may be, as principal, made through the agency of the Company designated herein which acts as agent only and shall be under no personal liability whatsoever in respect thereof.

In accepting this bill of lading, the shipper, consignee, pledgee, holder or endorsee of this bill of lading, receiver, owner of the goods and each of them agree that all freight engagements, dock receipts or other agreements whatsoever in respect of the shipment of the goods are superseded by this bill of lading, and agree to be bound by all its terms whether written, printed or stamped on the front or back thereof or incorporated by reference therein, any local customs or privileges to the contrary notwithstanding.

If requested, one signed bill of lading duly endorsed must be surrendered to the agent of the ship at the port of discharge in exchange for delivery order.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Service Order 126, Amdt. 3]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

REICING OF POTATOES IN REFRIGERATOR CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June, A. D. 1943.

It appearing, that weather conditions have enhanced the perishable characteristics of potatoes originating in the States of Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina, so that they require icing; that the acute shortage of ice in this territory precludes full icing privileges for such traffic, or any icing or reicing of such traffic originating in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Tennessee, or Virginia when moving in refrigerator cars; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action:

It is ordered, That § 95.308 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 95.308 Refrigerator cars. (a) (1) Cars of potatoes originating in Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Tennessee, or Virginia not to be iced or reiced. Notwithstanding the provisions of Service Order No. 123, as amended (§ 95.307 of this part, 8 F.R. 6481); effective 12:01 a. m. June 29, 1943, and until further order of the Commission, no common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall ice or reice or permit to be iced or reiced a refrigerator car or cars loaded with potatoes originating at points in the States of Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Tennessee, or Virginia. The operation of all tariff rules or regulations insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended.

(2) Cars of potatoes originating in Florida, Georgia, or South Carolina to be initially iced. Effective 12:01 a. m. June 29, 1943, and until further order of the Commission, all common carriers by railroad may initially ice or permit to be initially iced a refrigerator car or cars loaded with potatoes originating in the States of Florida, Georgia, or South Carolina, but not in excess of 5,000 pounds of ice per car: Provided, however, That where a refrigerator car is equipped for half-stage icing, such ice, but not to exceed 5,000 pounds per car, shall be placed in the upper half of the bunkers with grates set for half-stage icing. This order shall not be construed to permit any reicing.

(b) Charges to be assessed. Charges to be assessed for icing prescribed in paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall be as now provided in Rule 240 of Agent Quinn's Perishable Protective Tariff, No. 12, I.C.C. No. 19, supplements thereto or reissues thereof.

(c) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads or its agent shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension and establishing the substitute provisions above set forth.

(d) Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Director of the Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances. (40 Stat. 101, Sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, Sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register, The National Archives.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

[Docket No. A-1959]

DISTRICT BOARD 22

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO MODIFY TEMPORARY RELIEF AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 22 for the establishment of additional price classification and minimum prices for certain coals produced in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with the Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of a price classification and minimum prices for 3" x 1⅝" nut coal, to be designated as Size Group 6–A, produced by code members in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22, for shipment by rail to destinations in certain specified market areas.

On April 30, 1943, a memorandum opinion and order granting temporary relief was issued in this matter wherein it was found that the original petition did not contain facts sufficient to warrant the temporary or permanent establishment of a new size group to be designated as Size Group 6–A, as requested by petitioner, without a hearing; that the minimum prices proposed by petitioner for the 3" x 1⅝" nut coal produced in Subdistrict 2 for shipment by rail did not appear to maintain a proper differential with respect to the minimum prices previously established for Size Group 7 coals produced in Subdistrict 2 for rail shipments. Accordingly, pending a hearing and the final disposition of the original petition in this matter, the temporary relief requested in the original petition was granted except that no new size group was established and the temporary minimum prices established for 3" x 1⅝" nut coals produced in Subdistrict 2 are lower than those proposed in the original petition.

On June 4, 1943, the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel filed with the Division a Petition of Intervention and Motion to Modify Temporary Relief, contending that, while there is no objection to the establishment of the new size group as requested by the original petition, the preparation of the new nut size would result in the making of additional sizes not heretofore produced in Subdistricts 1 and 2 which would fall into size groups carrying minimum prices higher than are proper for such additional sizes and that any relief granted to the original petitioner should be accompanied by new classifications for such additional sizes; that it is discriminatory as among consumers to establish minimum prices for 3" x 1⅝" nut coal for shipment into certain market areas to the exclusion of other market areas; and that the minimum prices requested by the petitioner for shipments of this nut coal from Subdistrict 2 appear too high, and the minimum prices temporarily established by the Order entered on April 30, 1943, for shipments from Subdistrict 2 seem more properly to reflect the relative market value for such nut size coal. The Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel requests (a) that such adjustments in size groups and prices be made as may appear necessary to establish proper minimum prices for lump and egg coal with a bottom size of 3" and for slack and double-screened coal with a top size of 1⅝" produced in Subdistricts 1 and 2; (b) that all minimum prices established in this proceeding be made effective for shipment to all destinations; (c) that the temporary relief granted by the Order entered on April 30, 1943, be modified accordingly; and (d) that the minimum prices for the nut size, 3" x 1⅝", for shipments from Subdistrict 2, temporarily established by the Order entered on April 30, 1943, be made permanent rather than those requested by the petitioner.

It appears, therefore, that the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel supports the temporary relief heretofore granted in this matter and in addition thereto, requests that such relief be broadened and that additional temporary relief be granted. With respect to the broadening of the existing temporary relief and the establishment of additional temporary relief, however, no showing of the necessity therefor is made.

Now, therefore, It is orderd, That the aforesaid motion of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel be, and the same hereby is, denied, without prejudice to the right of the Bituminous Coal Consumers counsel or any other party to this proceeding to renew the said motion upon the hearing in this matter.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the rules of the Division be held on July 28, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, at the Billings Commercial Club, Billings, Montana.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before July 23, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of the original petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to:

(a) The petition of District Board No. 22 for the establishment of the following additional price classification and minimum prices in cents per net ton for 3" x 1⅝" nut coal, to be designated as Size Group 6–A, produced by code members in Subdistricts 1 and 2 in District No. 22, for shipment by rail to destinations in the market area specified:

Market areas:	Size Group 6–A
237 (Idaho) and 240	260
237 (Washington) 238, 239 and 247–254

(b) The Petition of Intervention of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel requesting (a) that such adjustments in size groups and prices be made as may appear necessary to establish minimum prices for lump and egg coal with a bottom size of 3" and for slack and double-screened coal with a top size of 1⅝" produced in Subdistricts 1 and 2; (b) that the minimum prices for the nut size, 3" x 1⅝" produced in Subdistrict 2 for shipments by rail temporarily established by the Order entered on April 30, 1943, be made permanent rather than those requested by the petitioner; and (c) that the minimum prices established in this proceeding be made effective for shipments to all destinations.

Dated: June 29, 1943.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 22 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Carlson Mine for shipment by rail.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party;

It is ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the Rules of the Division be held on July 28, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, at the Billings Commercial Club, Billings, Montana.

It is further ordered, That Charles O. Fowler, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before July 23, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of District Board No. 22 for (1) the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals produced from the Carlson Mine, Mine Index No. 128, of code member G. J. Jeffries (Jeffries Coal Co.) located in Subdistrict 9 in District No. 22, for rail shipment into all market areas, and (2) the establishment of the following additional price classification and minimum prices in cents per ton for 3" x 1⅝" nut coal, to be designated as Size Group 6–A, produced from the Carlson Mine, Mine Index No. 128, for shipment by rail to destinations in specified market areas:

[Docket No. A-2037]

ONTARIO GAS COAL CORP. OF VIRGINIA

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF

In the matter of the petition of Ontario Gas Coal Corporation of Virginia for the establishment of minimum prices and price classifications for the coals of Tidewater No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 289, located in District No. 7.

A petition, pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of its Tidewater No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 289, in District No. 7.

Petitioner requests that the same prices as those that have been previously established in Docket No. A–1572 for the coals produced at the Tidewater No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 316, be established for the coals of this mine. The minimum prices and price classifications established in Docket No. A–1572 were temporarily granted, and a hearing was held concerning the matter of final relief. Final relief in the matter has not been granted and at the present time is being considered by the Director. Therefore, any final relief granted in Docket No. A–2037, effecting the Tidewater No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 289, should be made contingent upon the decision of the Director in Docket No. A–1572. Accordingly, temporary relief is granted in this matter pending the final determination of the Director in Docket No. A–1572.

It appears that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief, that no petitions of intervention have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter, opposing the granting of temporary relief, and that the granting of temporary relief is necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act.

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief be, and it hereby is, granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, the Schedules of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 7 for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments are supplemented to include the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the schedules marked Temporary Supplement R and Temporary Supplement T, annexed hereto and made a part hereof.

Notice is hereby given that applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division, pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

Dated: June 29, 1943.

AUTHORITY: §§ 212.1 to 212.11, inclusive, issued under 56 Stat. 356; 12 U.S.C. 265; Pub. Law 68, 78th Cong.

§ 212.1 Instructions of Commissioner of Internal Revenue relative to payment of taxes. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has issued Circular WT, dated June 1943,[2] with reference to the collection of income tax at source on wages, in which employer's duties under the provisions of the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943 are explained. The circular contains, in part, the following information:

19. Payment of tax. It will be the duty of every employer who withheld more than $100 during the month to pay, within 10 days after the close of each calendar month, to a depositary and financial agent authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to receive deposits of withheld taxes, pursuant to section 1631 of the Internal Revenue Code as added by the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943, all funds withheld as taxes during that calendar month. (All banks insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation are eligible to qualify as depositaries and financial agents.) On or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarter of each calendar year, every employer shall make a return on Form W-1 to the collector of his district, covering the aggregate amount of taxes withheld during that quarter, and attach to such return, as payment for the taxes shown thereon, receipts in the form approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, issued by the authorized depositary and financial agent evidencing the payment of funds withheld as taxes: Provided, however, That for taxes withheld during the last month of the quarter the employer may, at his election, in lieu of this method of payment, include with his return direct remittance to the collector for the amount of the taxes withheld during such last month of the quarter. The employer may obtain from his local bank the names and locations of the nearby depositaries and financial agents authorized to receive deposits of withheld taxes. A list of the depositaries and financial agents will be furnished each bank by the Federal Reserve Bank of the District.

§ 212.2 Authority to use insured banks as depositaries of public money. Section 10 of the Act approved June 11, 1942 (56 Stat. 356; 12 U.S.C., Sup. II, 265), provides in part as follows:

All insured banks designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury shall be depositaries of public money of the United States • • • and the Secretary is hereby authorized to deposit public money in such depositaries, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary; and they may also be employed as financial agents of the Government; and they shall perform all such reasonable duties, as depositaries of public money and financial agents of the Government as may be required of them • • •.

§ 212.3 Authority to use Government depositaries in connection with payment of taxes. Section 1631 of the Internal Revenue Code as added by the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943 provides as follows:

The Secretary may authorize incorporated banks or trust companies which are depositaries or financial agents of the United States to receive any taxes under this chapter in such manner, at such times, and under such conditions as he may prescribe; and he shall prescribe the manner, times and conditions under which the receipt of such taxes by such depositaries and financial agents is to be treated as payment of such taxes to the collectors.

§ 212.4 Designation of Government depositaries in connection with payment of taxes. All incorporated insured banks, within the meaning of section 10 of the Act of June 11, 1942, referred to in § 212.2 of this part, are hereby designated, subject to the provisions of this part, as depositaries and financial agents of the Government for receiving from employers or other persons, hereinafter referred to as employers, funds withheld as taxes pursuant to the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943; Provided, That no insured bank shall perform any of the acts covered by this designation until it has qualified so to act in the manner herein prescribed.

Banking institutions which have heretofore been designated as depositaries and financial agents of the Government for the performance of certain classes of fiscal duties will be required to qualify under the terms of this part in order to act as Depositaries for Withheld Taxes.

Incorporated banks or trust companies located in the territories and insular possessions of the United States, which are not insured banks within the meaning of section 10 of the Act approved June 11, 1942, but which are otherwise eligible for designation as depositaries or financial agents of the United States, may be specifically designated by the Secretary of the Treasury under other applicable statutes governing depositaries outside of the continental United States, to act as depositaries for withheld taxes upon qualification substantially in accordance with the provisions of § 212.5 hereof. Applications for such designation should be transmitted to the Federal Reserve bank of the district through which clearances and settlements for the account of the Treasurer of the United States are customarily made.

§ 212.5 Qualification of Government depositaries in connection with payment of taxes. Any designated bank which desires to qualify, under the terms of this part, for receiving from employers funds withheld as taxes pursuant to the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943, should apply for qualification through the Federal Reserve bank of the district in which the insured bank is located. Such application shall be made on Application-Agreement, Depositary for Withheld Taxes (Form No. 411) shown as Exhibit A of this part.[2] Copies of this form and instructions regarding the application may be obtained from the Federal Reserve bank. No designated bank which has made application for qualification shall act as a Government depositary and financial agent under the terms of this part until it receives from the Federal Reserve bank notice of approval of the application. Upon receipt of such notice each designated bank is hereby authorized to receive funds withheld as taxes pursuant to section 1622 of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943. Depositaries and financial agents qualified pursuant to the terms of this part will be known as "Depositaries for Withheld Taxes" and will hereinafter be referred to as depositaries.

§ 212.6 Accounts, forms, and procedure of depositaries for withheld taxes. Each depositary shall open and maintain on its books a special account entitled "Withheld Taxes" in the name of the Federal Reserve bank of the district in which the depositary is located, as fiscal agent of the United States. Such Federal Reserve bank will hereinafter be referred to as the Federal Reserve bank. To this special account on the books of the depositary shall be credited all withheld taxes received by the depositary from employers.

Deposits in the special account will be permitted to accumulate until a balance of $5,000 is reached, at which time the depositary must remit, not later than the following business day, the entire balance to the Federal Reserve bank for credit to the account of the Treasurer of the United States. Remittances to the Federal Reserve bank, however, are not required to be made more frequently than once each day. The entire balance in the special account on the last business day in each month, regardless of the size of the balance, must be remitted to the Federal Reserve bank not later than the following business day. Each remittance to the Federal Reserve bank must be accompanied by the first carbon copies of the depositary receipts for withheld taxes, issued by the depositary as hereinafter provided, with regard to the funds constituting the remittance. When a remittance to the Federal Reserve bank is made, it is essential that the accompanying depositary receipts be in the exact aggregate amount of such remittance and that they relate exclusively to the withheld taxes thus remitted. All remittances must be made in funds immediately available at the Federal Reserve bank point.

The depositaries will receive through the Federal Reserve Banks more detailed information regarding the procedure to be followed in connection with the remittance of, and accounting for, withheld taxes received by the depositaries under the provisions of this part.

The depositary shall issue to each employer for each payment of withheld taxes received by the depositary from such employer a Depositary Receipt for Withheld Taxes (Form No. 410), hereinafter referred to as the depositary receipt. The prescribed form of depositary receipt is shown as Exhibit B of this part. All depositary receipts issued must be in this form and no other. Each depositary receipt will be executed by the depositary in triplicate and disposition of the original and copies shall be made by the depositary as follows:

Original: delivered to the employer to evidence the payment of withheld taxes to the depositary;

First copy: forwarded to the Federal Reserve bank at the time the funds represented by the receipt are remitted to the Federal Reserve bank;

Second copy: retained by the depositary, as its record of the payment of the withheld taxes by the employer to the depositary.

[1] Sections 212.1 to 212.11, inclusive, correspond respectively with sections 2 to 12, inclusive, of Treasury Department Circular No. 714, dated June 25, 1943.

[2] Copies may be obtained by addressing the nearest Collector of Internal Revenue, requesting Circular WT.

[2] Filed as part of the original document.

Supplies of the printed form of depositary receipt will be furnished to, or procured by, each depositary, and will be controlled, under instructions issued through the Federal Reserve bank.

The depositary will not be required to accept from employers, as payment of withheld taxes, funds which are not immediately available to the depositary at the time of such payment. Treasury Notes, Tax Series, or other public debt securities of the United States, will not be accepted by depositaries from employers as payment of withheld taxes under this part. Each depositary receipt will be dated as of the day the funds are credited in the special account "Withheld Taxes" in the name of the Federal Reserve bank as fiscal agent of the United States.

The original and Federal Reserve bank copy of each depositary receipt must be signed by a duly authorized officer or employee acting on behalf of the depositary. This signature may be in any one of the following forms: (1) a manual signature of a duly authorized officer or employee followed by the title of such officer or employee; (2) a rubber stamp impression containing the name of the depositary supported by the manual initial of the receipting officer or employee and followed by his title; (3) facsimile or rubber stamp impression signature of a duly authorized officer over his official title, supported by the manual initial of such officer or the employee receiving the deposit; or (4) a facsimile or rubber stamp impression signature of a duly authorized employee over his official title, supported by the manual initial of such employee. All initials or manual signatures should be in ink.

In the event the original of a depositary receipt is lost, stolen, or destroyed before it is forwarded to a collector of internal revenue, the employer concerned will be issued a duplicate receipt upon proper application and the submission of required evidence to the Federal Reserve bank of the district in which the depositary which issued the original receipt is located. Such issuance of duplicate receipts will be governed by requirements and procedure to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 212.7 Provision for offsetting costs of depositaries for withheld taxes. For the purpose of offsetting additional costs incurred by depositaries in receiving from employers payments of withheld taxes and remitting the funds thus collected to Federal Reserve banks as required herein, two alternative methods are provided by which a depositary may purchase 2% depositary bonds issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 660, First Supplement.

Under one method, the depositary will be permitted to purchase 2% depositary bonds with its own funds. Such bonds will be issued in the name of the Federal Reserve bank as fiscal agent of the United States in trust for the depositary, and will be required to be held by such Federal Reserve bank in safekeeping while the depositary is qualified for receiving payments of withheld taxes.

Under the other method, the Treasury will agree to place with the depositary a balance to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, provided that such balance will be used by the depositary for the purchase of an equal amount of 2% depositary bonds. Such bonds will be issued in the name of the Federal Reserve bank as fiscal agent of the United States, in trust for the depositary, and will be held as collateral security for such deposit balance.

The amount of 2% depositary bonds which the depositary will be permitted to purchase under either of the alternative methods will be in proportion to the business transacted under this part, as set forth in the attached schedule of 2% depositary bond allotments and Treasury balances (Exhibit C).[1]

In case an insured bank qualifies as a depositary for withheld taxes on or before July 31, 1943, its initial 2% depositary bond allotment or Treasury balance under the method elected by the depositary will be calculated on the basis of the business transacted under this part by the depositary during the month of August 1943. The same general rule will be applied in the case of insured banks qualifying during each month after July 1943. For example, in the case of an insured bank qualifying as a depositary during the month of August 1943, the initial 2% depositary bond allotment or Treasury balance will be based upon the business such depositary transacts under this part during the month of September 1943.

Appropriate adjustments in 2% depositary bond allotments or Treasury balances will be considered periodically on the basis of fluctuations in the business transacted after the initial allotments or Treasury balances are established. The first of such adjustments will be made at the close of the three-month period of operations of a depositary after its initial allotment or Treasury balance is established. Thereafter, appropriate adjustments will be made at the close of each six-month period ending on June 30 and December 31. The adjustments will be considered on the basis of the average business transacted monthly during the period under review, in relation to the schedule of 2% depositary bond allotments and Treasury balances then in effect. A depositary will be permitted to change from one alternative method to the other on the adjustment dates of June 30 and December 31.

Matters concerning the allotment of 2% depositary bonds under the terms of this part will be handled by the Treasury Department through the Federal Reserve banks.

§ 212.8 Termination of the qualification of a depositary for withheld taxes. The Secretary of the Treasury, upon notification through the Federal Reserve banks, may terminate at any time the qualification of any depositary for withheld taxes. Likewise, any depositary for withheld taxes may terminate its qualification upon 30 days' notice to the Secretary of the Treasury, through the Federal Reserve bank. Upon termination of the qualification of a depositary the amount of 2% depositary bonds purchased by it pursuant to these regulations will be redeemed on not less than 30 days' or more than 60 days' notice by the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 212.9 Treatment by collectors of internal revenue of withheld taxes received by depositaries. The receipt of withheld taxes by depositaries shall be treated as payment of such taxes to collectors of internal revenue upon the filing of the return for the withheld taxes and the presentation therewith to such collectors of properly executed depositary receipts. Collectors of internal revenue will promptly deposit all such depositary receipts as internal revenue collections with the Federal Reserve bank of the district in which the collector's head office is located. Each such deposit shall be accompanied by an appropriate certificate of deposit which shall not include any other class of remittances.

In any case in which a depositary receipt is received by a Federal Reserve bank and it is determined that the employer failed to pay to the depositary the amount stated therein, the Federal Reserve banks may return such item to the collector of internal revenue, under procedure prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

§ 212.10 Functions of Federal Reserve Banks regarding withheld taxes. In accordance with instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, the Federal Reserve banks, as fiscal agents of the United States, will perform the following functions:

The Federal Reserve banks will receive from depositaries remittances of withheld taxes and from collectors of internal revenue depositary receipts for appropriate credit and clearance in the account of the Treasurer of the United States.

The Federal Reserve banks will maintain such records and perform such other functions as may be necessary for the purpose of: (a) Determining that the required copies of depositary receipts are received from the depositaries in support of all remittances by such depositaries of withheld taxes; and (b) properly balancing or matching the depositary receipts deposited by the collectors of internal revenue with the corresponding copies of the depositary receipts received from the depositaries, in order to prove or reconcile credits allowed employers by the collectors of internal revenue with the depositaries' remittances of withheld taxes.

The Federal Reserve banks will perform such additional functions relating to withheld taxes, including the rendition of reports, as may be required by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The Federal Reserve banks are authorized to utilize the facilities of their branches in performing the functions required under this part.

§ 212.11 Amendment of regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury may withdraw or amend at any time or from time to time any or all provisions of this part.

Secretary of the Treasury.

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

S. & J. PALDER

S. & J. Palder is a partnership which operates a service station at 1207 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. During the months of April, May and June, 1942, and while its regular supplier was delivering its full quota, S. & J. Palder accepted the delivery of approximately 27,000 gallons of motor fuel in excess of the amount it was permitted to accept by the provisions of Limitation Order L-70. S. & J. Palder received these excessive amounts from another supplier, although it knew that its regular supplier was delivering motor fuel to it pursuant to an L-70 quota and that in all probability its purchases from the other supplier were improper. These excess receipts of motor fuel were made under such circumstances as to constitute wilful violations of the order.

These violations have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting motor fuel in a manner unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.357 Suspension Order No. S-357. (a) During each of the months of July, August, September and October, 1943, S. & J. Palder, its successors or assigns, shall not accept from any source the delivery of more than 5000 gallons of motor fuel, as defined in Limitation Order L-70, at its said service station.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve S. & J. Palder, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect July 1, 1943.

PART 1023—JEWEL BEARINGS

[Conservation Order M-50, as Amended July 1, 1943]

Whereas, national defense requirements have created a shortage of jewel bearings (as hereafter defined) for the combined needs of defense and private account, and the supply of jewel bearings now is and will be insufficient for defense and essential civilian requirements, unless the supply of jewel bearings and jewel bearing material (as hereinafter defined) is conserved and their use in certain products manufactured for civilian use is curtailed; and it is necessary in the public interest to promote the defense of the United States, to conserve the supply and direct the distribution and use thereof.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1023.1 Conservation Order M-50—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Jewel bearing material" means any natural sapphire or ruby of industrial quality, any synthetic sapphire, ruby, or spinel, or any other material of similar chemical composition and physical properties. Natural spinel is not included.

(2) "Jewel bearing" means any jewel bearing material which has been processed in any manner for use where friction occurs, including vees, rings, cups, endstones, pallet stones, roller pins, needles, stylii, cutters, nozzles, supports, tool bits, and dies.

(3) "Substitute jewel bearing" means a metal, agate, garnet, glass, or other bearing designed to replace or to substitute for a large ring bearing or a vee bearing of sapphire, ruby, or synthetic spinel.

(4) "Large ring bearing" means any jewel bearing or substitute jewel bearing through which a hole has been pierced from one parallel face to the other which has the following dimensions:

Outside diameter greater than	0.050 inch (1.270 mm.)
Thickness greater than	0.012 inch (.305 mm.)
Hole diameter greater than	0.006 inch (.152 mm.)

(5) "Vee bearing" means any jewel bearing or substitute bearing which has a conically shaped cavity in one of the parallel faces.

(6) "Supplier" means any person who has engaged in the importation or processing of jewel bearings, substitute jewel bearings, or jewel bearing material, since January 14, 1942.

(7) "Consumer" means any person who uses jewel bearings or substitute jewel bearings in the manufacture of any article

(8) "Processing" means manufacturing, fabricating, polishing, or modifying in any manner jewel bearing material or material designed to substitute therefor.

(9) "Blank" means preparage, rondel, cylinder, or prism made from jewel bearing material for the purpose of fabrication of a jewel bearing but which has not been drilled or formed.

(10) "Use" of a jewel bearing or substitute jewel bearing means to mount the jewel bearing in a screw or other setting, or to incorporate physically the mounted or unmounted bearing in a device where its normal bearing surface may be subjected to friction from a moving part or object.

(11) "Semi-fabricated jewel bearing" means any jewel bearing processed beyond the blank stage but on which additional processing is necessary before it is ready to be used by a consumer.

(12) "Finished bearing" means any jewel bearing or substitute jewel bearing which has been processed to a point where it can immediately be used by a consumer.

(13) "Implements of war" means combat end products, complete for tactical operations (including, but not limited to, aircraft, ammunition, armament, weapons, ships, tanks, and military vehicles), and any parts, assemblies, and materials to be incorporated in any of the foregoing items. This term does not include facilities or equipment used to manufacture the foregoing items.

(b) Restrictions on delivery, processing, use, and sale. (1) On and after November 2, 1942, each supplier shall set aside his entire stock, receipts, and production of finished jewel bearings, jewel bearing material, semi-fabricated jewel bearings, and blanks as a reserve for the fulfillment of present and future defense orders, and such other orders and uses as may be authorized from time to time by the War Production Board.

(2) No supplier shall make deliveries or withdrawals from such reserve either to his customers or for purposes of his own use, except as authorized by the War Production Board. The War Production Board will from time to time allocate the supply of finished jewel bearings, of semi-fabricated jewel bearings, of blanks, and of jewel bearing material; and may specifically direct the manner and quantities in which deliveries to or by particular persons or for particular uses shall be made or withheld. It may also direct, limit, or prohibit processing of jewel bearing material, blanks and semi-fabricated jewel bearings. It may also direct, limit, or prohibit deliveries, withdrawals from inventories, and particular uses of jewel bearings in the hands of consumers. It may also allocate the supply of finished substitute jewel bearings, or any particular kind thereof, in the hands either of suppliers or consumers, and may direct, limit, or prohibit deliveries, withdrawals from inventories, and particular uses of substitute jewel bearings. Such allocations and directions will be made to insure the satisfaction of the defense requirements of the United States, both direct and indirect, and they may be made, in the discretion of the War Production Board, without regard to any preference ratings assigned to particular contracts or purchase orders.

(3) Unless specifically directed or authorized by the War Production Board, no person shall sell or deliver to any person for any purpose vee bearings or large ring bearings of sapphire or ruby, except:

(i) That any person may sell such bearings to the person from whom he originally acquired them; and

(ii) That a wholesaler or distributor (but not a supplier) may sell or deliver large ring bearings to persons who will use such large ring bearings solely in the repair of watches or aeroplane instruments.

(c) Additional restrictions on consumers—(1) Use of vee bearings and large ring bearings. Unless specifically directed or authorized by the War Production Board, no person shall use vee bearings or large ring bearings of sapphire or ruby in the manufacture of any article other than:

(d) General exception. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall not apply to any jewel bearing which on or after November 2, 1942, without violating any order of the War Production Board, had been physically incorporated in a device in which, without further assemblage, its normal bearing surface was subjected to friction from a moving part or object.

(e) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of jewel bearings conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or other written communication, in triplicate, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

PART 3046—LOW PRESSURE CAST IRON BOILERS

[Limitation Order L-187 as Amended July 1, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of metals for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3046.1 General Limitation Order L-187—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Low pressure cast iron boiler" means any boiler designed for the purpose of heating water so as to provide heat for the interior of a building by means of circulating steam or hot water, which boiler:

(i) Operates at a maximum working pressure not exceeding fifteen pounds per square inch of steam pressure or thirty pounds per square inch of water pressure, and

(ii) Is composed preponderantly of cast iron.

(2) "Parts" includes all materials used as repair parts for low pressure cast iron boilers.

(3) "Military low pressure cast iron boiler" means any low pressure cast iron boiler which is manufactured for delivery to or for the account of the Army,

Navy, War Shipping Administration or the Maritime Commission of the United States or the Defense Plant Corporation.

(4) "War housing low pressure cast iron boiler" means any low pressure cast iron boiler which is manufactured on a specific contract or order for use in a building rated under Preference Rating Order P-55, P-110, or any order in the P-19 series.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall manufacture, fabricate or assemble any low pressure cast iron boiler, and no person shall manufacture or fabricate any component parts of such boilers, except that:

(i) The manufacture, fabrication or assembly of military or war housing low pressure cast iron boilers built to use solid fuel, or of low pressure cast iron boilers built to use solid fuel for use in a hospital constructed, to be constructed or under construction, may be specifically authorized by the War Production Board on Form PD-704; and

(ii) During the first six months of 1943, any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may manufacture or fabricate such component parts as he can manufacture or fabricate by using an aggregate weight of iron and steel not in excess of 13% of the total weight of iron and steel which he put into process in the manufacture or fabrication of such component parts during the calendar year 1940; and

(iii) Any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may, in addition, manufacture or fabricate such component parts as may be necessary to replace in his inventory component parts manufactured pursuant to (ii) above which were used to manufacture low pressure cast iron boilers pursuant to (i) above; and

(iv) Any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers who shall not have used the weight of iron and steel permitted under (ii) and (iii) above, or any portion thereof, during the first six months of 1943, may use that weight or such unused portion during the remainder of 1943; and

(v) Any person may assemble such boilers shipped or to be shipped in accordance with paragraphs (2) (ii) and (iii) below, and

(vi) During the month of July and each succeeding month thereafter of 1943 any manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may manufacture, fabricate or assemble such component parts as he can manufacture or fabricate by using an aggregate weight of iron and steel not in excess of 100% of the total weight of iron and steel which he put into process in the manufacture or fabrication of such component parts during the corresponding calendar month of 1940.

(2) No manufacturer of low pressure cast iron boilers may ship any low pressure cast iron boilers built to use solid fuel, whether assembled or in sets of component parts, except that;

(i) Any such manufacturer may ship any such boilers authorized under paragraph (b) (1) (i); and

(ii) Any such manufacturer may ship in the first six months of 1943 a number of such boilers the total weight of iron and steel of which will not exceed 4½% of the weight of iron and steel which he put into process in the manufacture, fabrication or assembly of component parts of low pressure cast iron boilers during the calendar year 1940; provided that nothing in this order shall restrict the shipment of such boilers as have been or may hereafter be assembled from parts in the inventory of any manufacturer on January 1, 1943; and

(iii) Any such manufacturer who shall not have shipped in the first six months of 1943 boilers permitted under (ii) above may ship those boilers or any unshipped number thereof during the remainder of 1943; and

(iv) Any such manufacturer may ship any such boilers authorized under paragraph (b) (1) (vi).

(c) Manufacture of parts. Nothing in this order shall restrict the use of iron and steel in the manufacture of parts designed for converting low pressure cast iron boilers to solid fuel burning from oil or gas burning, or of repair parts for military or hospital low pressure cast iron boilers.

(d) Avoidance of excessive inventories. No person shall accumulate, for use in the manufacture of low pressure cast iron boilers, inventories of any materials (whether raw, semi-processed or processed) in the excess of the minimum amounts necessary to maintain production at the rates permitted by this order.

(e) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(f) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board on or before the tenth day of each calendar month a report on Form PD-639, and shall keep a copy of such monthly report in their own files for a period not less than two years.

(h) Violations and false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The War Production Board may thereupon take such action as it deems appropriate.

(j) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(k) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the War Production Board, or to be issued by it hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limitations imposed by this order, the restriction of such other order shall govern unless otherwise specified therein.

(l) Communications. All reports, to be filed, appeals and other communications concerning this order, shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington, D. C., Ref.: L-187.

Issued this 1st day of July 1943.

[Limitation Order L–299]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3262 Limitation Order L–299—(a) Definition. For the purposes of this order "power boiler" means any vessel or pressure part thereof, constructed of steel for a design pressure exceeding 15 pounds per square inch, in which steam is generated by the application of heat resulting from the combustion of fuel, except boilers for locomotives or marine service, or miniature boilers as defined in Section V "Miniature Boiler" of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Boiler Construction Code.

(b) Restrictions on specifications. No person shall produce, fabricate, or deliver any power boiler except as permitted by paragraph (d) hereof, having a greater metal thickness or quantity of steel than needed to meet the minimum thickness requirements of Section I (Edition 1940) of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Boiler Construction Code, Addenda thereto and Interpretations thereof (including Case No. 968) issued prior to July 1, 1943.

(c) Acceptance of delivery. No person shall accept delivery of any power boiler which he knows or has reason to believe was produced, fabricated or delivered in violation of the provisions of paragraph (b) of this order.

(d) Exceptions. (1) The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to any power boiler:

(i) Which has been produced or fabricated before July 1, 1943, or which before such date has been processed in such manner and to such extent that processing to conform to such provisions would be impracticable, or

(ii) To the extent that any of the materials have been procured, or approved by the War Production Board for entry on a mill schedule, prior to July 1, 1943.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (b) shall not apply to any power boiler to the extent:

(i) That, to promote plate thickness simplification, the ordered thickness of any plate may be greater than the thickness established by paragraph (b), but in no case to exceed 1/32 inch greater, or

(ii) That the thickness of any plate having a hole into which a tube is rolled may be increased to the thickness necessary to secure satisfactory seating of the tubes, or

(iii) That the wall thickness of any tube may be increased to the thickness needed to meet the service conditions or the construction requirements.

(e) Records. Each person fabricating a power boiler shall retain records including detail of exceptions as provided in paragraph (d). Such records shall be available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining any further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Supplementary Order L–103–b]

GLASS CONTAINER QUOTAS

§ 3270.36 Supplementary Order L–103–b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this supplementary order:

(1) "Glass container" means any machine made bottle, jar or tumbler which is made of glass and which is suitable for packing any product.

(2) "Commercial user" means any person who uses glass containers for commercially packing any class of listed products in the continental United States (the 48 States and the District of Columbia).

(3) "Class of listed products" means any class of products listed in Schedule I of this order. Food and drug products listed in Schedules I and II of Order M–104 are not included in Schedule I of this Order, and therefore glass containers for such products are not subject to the restrictions of this order.

(4) "Quota period" means the 4-month period from July 1 through October 31, 1943, inclusive. This is the period during which the restrictions below will operate.

(5) "Base period" means whichever of the following two periods a commercial user chooses: Base Period A (July 1–October 31, 1942, inclusive), Base Period B (January 1–December 31, 1942, inclusive). The number of empty new glass containers and metal cans accepted during this period will be used in computing quotas under the restrictions below.

Quota and Related Restrictions

(b) Quota restriction. During the quota period (July 1–October 31, 1943), no commercial user shall accept delivery of, have manufactured, or have set aside by suppliers for his account, more empty new glass containers for packing any class of listed products than his quota for that purpose. The amount of the quota shall be computed by applying the appropriate quota percentage (as specified in Schedule I for that class) to the amount of his base quantity. The amount of the base quantity shall be computed in accordance with paragraphs (c) or (d) below:

(c) Computing base quantity (except for beverages). A commercial user's base

quantity for any class of listed products other than beverages (as defined in Schedule I of this order) shall be whichever of the following two amounts he chooses:

(1) Choice #1. The number of new glass containers and metal cans accepted by him during Base Period A (July 1–October 31, 1942) for packing that class of products; or

(2) Choice #2. One-third of the number of new glass containers and metal cans accepted by him during Base Period B (January 1–December 31, 1942) for packing that class of products.

(d) Computing base quantity for beverages. A commercial user's base quantity for beverages (as defined in Schedule I of this order) shall be whichever of the following two amounts he chooses:

(1) Choice #1. The number of new returnable glass containers accepted by him during Base Period A (July 1–October 31, 1942) for bottling beverages plus 5% of the number of new non-returnable glass containers and metal cans accepted by him during that period for bottling beverages; or

(2) Choice #2. One-third of the number of new returnable glass containers accepted by him during Base Period B (January 1–December 31, 1942) for bottling beverages plus 5% of one-third of the number of new non-returnable glass containers and metal cans accepted by him during that period for bottling beverages.

(e) Restrictions on July–August acceptances. During July 1943, no commercial user shall accept delivery of more than 35% of his quota for any class of listed products. During August 1943, no commercial user shall accept delivery of more than the following portion of that quota: 60% of that quota minus the number of containers accepted by him against that quota during July 1943. During September and October 1943, he may accept delivery of whatever portion of that quota he did not accept during July and August 1943. If the amount permitted for acceptance during either July or August 1943 is less than a carload, he may accept up to a carload during such month, provided that amount is within his quota for the class of listed products. This paragraph shall not be construed as in any way increasing the amount of any quota.

Restrictions on Using Larger Sizes

(f) Maximum capacity increase. The total capacity of all empty new glass containers accepted by any commercial user during the quota period for packing any class of listed products shall not exceed the following maximum: (1) 140% of the total capacity of the number of empty new glass containers and metal cans accepted by him for that class of listed product during Base Period A or, if he has chosen Base Period B for computing his quota, (2) 140% of the total capacity of one-third of the number of empty new glass containers and metal cans accepted by him for that class of listed product during Base Period B. Capacity shall be computed in terms of gallons or pounds, whichever is the customary measure for the particular class of products.

(g) Restriction on large sizes. No commercial user shall accept delivery of more ½-gallon or larger empty new glass containers for packing any class of listed products than the following maximum: (1) the total number of all such sizes of empty new glass containers and metal cans accepted by him for that class of listed product during Base Period A or, if he has chosen Base Period B for computing his quota, (2) one-third of the total of all such sizes of empty new glass containers and metal cans accepted by him for that class of listed product during Base Period B. The amount of such glass containers which he may accept is subject to the other restrictions of this order, including those of paragraph (f) above.

Applicability of Order L–103–a

(h) Applicability of Order L–103–a. In addition to the restrictions of this order, every commercial user shall comply with the maximum inventory restrictions (60-day supply) of Supplementary Order L–103–a.

Exceptions

(i) Small-user exception. The restrictions of this order shall not apply to any commercial user who accepts no more than a total of $1,000 worth (cost price to him) of empty new glass containers for all classes of listed products for the entire quota period.

(j) Exception for stocks in transit. The restrictions of this order shall not apply to any empty new glass containers placed in transit to a commercial user before July 1, 1943, even though received by him on or after July 1, 1943. This exception shall not apply to any empty new glass containers set aside for a commercial user before July 1, 1943 by a supplier but not placed in transit to him until on or after that date.

(k) Assignment of special quota (malt beverages). A special quota may be assigned by the War Production Board to any malt beverage bottler if the new containers accepted by him during his base period were principally non-returnable bottles, and if the quota computed on the resulting base quantity is inadequate for his operations at a rate consistent with the reductions generally contemplated by the quota restrictions of this order.

(l) Multiple-unit users. Any commercial user who uses glass containers at more than one plant may choose to compute and apply a separate quota for each plant (or groups of plants) or a collective quota for all such plants.

Quota-Exemptions

(m) Quota-exemptions (except for beverages). In addition to his quota of glass containers for any class of listed products (other than beverages as defined in Schedule I) and free of the restrictions of paragraphs (e) and (f) above, any commercial user may accept delivery of the number of glass containers used, or actually to be used, during the quota period for delivering that class of listed products to or for any of the following persons:

(1) Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration of the United States (including persons operating vessels for such Administration or Commission for use thereon).

(2) Any person for packing products for retail sale or distribution through post-exchanges, sales commissaries, officers' messes, servicemen's clubs, ship service stores, or outlets; provided same are located at Army or Navy camps, are not operated for private profit and are established primarily for the use of Army or Navy enlisted personnel within Army or Navy establishments or on Army or Navy vessels.

(3) American Red Cross, United Service Organizations, or such other nonprofit Defense Recreation Committees, engaged in the operation of recreation centers in the forty-eight states of the United States or the District of Columbia solely for military personnel, as are certified to be within the exemption provided by this paragraph by the Office of Defense Health and Welfare Services, OEM.

PART 3274—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES [1]

MANUFACTURED CRUDE ABRASIVE AND ABRASIVE GRAIN

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of manufactured crude abrasive and abrasive grain for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 3274.91 Conservation Order M–319 [1]—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Manufactured crude abrasive" means silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide. Unfused or levigated alumina, and natural abrasives such as emery, garnet, corundum, and flint are not subject to this order.

(2) "Silicon carbide" means that product which results from combining silica and coke in a resistance-type electric furnace.

(3) "Fused aluminum oxide" means that product resulting from the fusion of alumina, or the fusion and purification of bauxite in an electric furnace, reduced by sledging or crushing to ungraded lumps or fine particles.

(4) "Abrasive grain" means:

(i) Any manufactured crude abrasive which has been classified as to particle size by mechanical, hydraulic, pneumatic, or other methods, and

(ii) Abrasive optical finishing powders, abrasive flours, blasting grain, reclaimed grain, refractory grain, firesand, and other manufactured abrasive and refractory grain specialties, whether or not classified as to particle size.

(5) "Abrasive optical finishing powders" means abrasive grain classified in standard sizes containing a maximum concentration of particles of a particular size within the over all range of 22½ to 4 microns inclusive, which produces a uniform grain depth pattern or mat finish on glass so that successive operations with rouge produce an optical finish.

(6) "Reclaimed grain" means:

(i) Any abrasive grain recovered from wheel stubs or other baked or fired abrasive or refractory stock, including lathe room turnings and dressings. The term does not include green shavings,

(ii) Any abrasive grain recovered from coated abrasive products,

(iii) Any abrasive grain previously used in grain form or on wheels, in blasting, grinding, or polishing operations.

NOTE: Paragraphs (7) through (12) redesignated July 1, 1943.

(7) "Producer" means any person who produces manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain.

(8) "Importer" means any person who imports manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain from sources outside the United States.

(9) "Branch outlet" means any branch store, branch warehouse, or other direct agent of a producer or importer, used for purposes of distributing manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain.

(10) "Distributor" means any purchaser of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain for purposes of resale without further processing.

(11) "Ultimate consumer" means any purchaser of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain other than a distributor.

(12) "Period of authorization" means the period in which any producer or importer is authorized to use, and any person is authorized to accept delivery of manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain pursuant to authorization on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] (manufactured crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain). Each period of authorization shall be of two calendar months' duration. The first period of authorization shall be for the months of July and August, 1943; the second period shall be for the months of September and October, 1943, etc.

(b) Restrictions on use and delivery of manufactured crude abrasive and abrasive grain. (1) Except as permitted by paragraph (d) of this order, on and after July 1, 1943, notwithstanding any contract, agreement or preference rating to the contrary:

(i) No producer or importer shall himself use, and no producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor shall deliver to any person any manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain except pursuant to specific authorization granted by the War Production Board on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] (manufactured crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain); and

(ii) No person shall accept delivery of any manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain, except pursuant to specific authorization granted by the War Production Board on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] (manufactured crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain).

(2) An order which has been authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD–888] (manufactured crude abrasive) or Form WPB–2781 [PD–886] (abrasive grain) must be accepted by the producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, and the producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor must make delivery under it unless it does not meet his regularly established prices and terms (in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 1): Provided, however, That within any given two-month period of authorization, delivery of orders for manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain may be scheduled without regard to preference ratings in the sequence best suited to maximum production and customers' needs. For the purposes of this order, delivery shall be deemed to have been made when the bill of lading covering the particular shipment has been signed by the carrier.

(3) No producer or importer authorized to use, and no person authorized to accept delivery of abrasive grain by an authorization on Form WPB–2781 [Form PD–886] shall use such abrasive grain for any purposes other than the purposes authorized on said Form WPB–2781 [Form PD–886] except as otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board.

(b) (4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, on and after July 1, 1943, no person shall purchase or accept delivery of any abrasive grain manufactured from fused aluminum oxide (other than reclaimed grain) of any grit size 80 or coarser for use as loose grain for any of the purposes listed on Schedule A hereto attached, nor shall any person sell, transfer, or deliver any such abrasive grain which he knows or has reason to believe is intended for use as loose grain for any of the purposes listed on said Schedule A.

(c) Applications for authorization. (1) Any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of, manufactured crude abrasive during the months of July and August, 1943, (which constitute the first period of authorization), shall apply on or before June 15, 1943, for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of manufactured crude abrasive which will be required by the applicant during the months of July and August, 1943. Thereafter, on or before August 15, 1943, and on or before the 15th day of the month preceding each subsequent two-month period of authorization, any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of manufactured crude abrasive during such subsequent two-month period of authorization, shall apply for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of manufactured crude abrasive which will be required by the applicant during such subsequent period of authorization. All applications for authorization to use or accept delivery of manufactured crude abrasive shall be made on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] in the manner prescribed therein. Copies of Form WPB 2779 [Form PD 888] may be obtained at local Field Offices of the War Production Board.

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (c) (3), (d) (1), and (d) (2) of this order, any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of, abrasive grain during the months of July and August, 1943 (which constitute the first period of authorization), shall apply on or before June 10, 1943, for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of abrasive grain which will be required by the applicant during the months of July and August, 1943. Thereafter, except as provided in paragraphs (c) (3), (d) (1), and (d) (2) of this order, on or before August 10, 1943, and on or before the 10th day of the month preceding each subsequent two-month period of authorization, any producer or importer who desires to use, and any person who desires to accept delivery of, abrasive grain during such subsequent two-month period of authorization, shall apply for authorization to use or accept delivery of that quantity of abrasive grain which will be required by the applicant during such subsequent period of authorization. All applications for authorization to use, or accept delivery of, abrasive grain shall be made on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] in the manner prescribed therein. Copies of Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] may be obtained at local Field Offices of the War Production Board.

(3) In the event that an ultimate consumer desires to buy abrasive grain from a distributor or branch outlet during any period of authorization, the ultimate consumer shall apply on or before the first day of the month preceding the period of authorization in which delivery is required in the manner prescribed in Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886]. No further application by the distributor or branch outlet shall be required for such abrasive grain, but the War Production Board, when acting on such ultimate consumer's application, will simultaneously grant or deny to such distributor or branch outlet authorization to accept delivery for, and to redeliver to, such ultimate consumer.

(4) Failure by any person to file an application pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (c) may be construed as notice to the War Production Board that such person does not desire authorization to use, or accept delivery of, manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain, as the case may be, in the period of authorization for which such application is required.

(5) Whenever any order for manufactured crude abrasive or abrasive grain, previously authorized on Form WPB 2779 [Form PD–888] (manufacturer crude abrasive), or Form WPB 2781 [PD 886] (abrasive grain), is cancelled, the producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, with whom such order was placed, shall immediately notify the War Production Board of such cancellation.

(d) Small grain order exemptions. (1) Any producer or importer who has not been specifically authorized on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] to use, and any ultimate consumer who has not been specifically authorized on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] to accept delivery of, abrasive grain during any given two-month period of authorization may use or accept delivery of a small quantity of abrasive grain during such two-month period of authorization without specific authorization on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886]: Provided, however, That in no event shall the total quantity of abrasive grain used by such producer or importer, or accepted by such ultimate consumer from all sources during such two-month period of authorization without authorization on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886], exceed the following maximum amounts:

(i) A quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from silicon carbide (other than abrasive optical finishing powders) having a value of $350 list price; and/or

(ii) A quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from fused aluminum oxide (other than abrasive optical finishing powders) having a value of $225 list price, and/or

(iii) A quantity of abrasive optical finishing powders manufactured from silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide having a value of $100 list price.

(2) Subject to the inventory limitations contained in paragraph (f) of this order, any branch outlet or distributor may accept delivery of abrasive grain for stock to fill small orders therefor, pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) of this order. No specific authorization on Form WPB 2781 [Form PD 886] shall be required for such branch outlet or distributor to accept delivery of such abrasive grain, but each order for such abrasive grain placed by a branch outlet or distributor with a producer, importer, or another branch outlet, must be accompanied by a certification by such branch outlet or distributor, signed manually, or as provided by Priorities Regulation No. 7, substantially as follows:

> The abrasive grain specified on this purchase order is required by the undersigned for stock to fill small orders pursuant to paragraph (d) (1) of Conservation Order M–319, with the terms of which the undersigned is familiar. Delivery of this order will not increase the undersigned's inventory of the specified sizes and types of abrasive grain beyond a supply required under the undersigned's current practices for resale on such small orders during a period of sixty days.

(3) Any producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, may deliver a quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from silicon carbide, other than abrasive optical finishing powders, not to exceed $350 list price in value, and/or a quantity of abrasive grain manufactured from fused aluminum oxide, other than abrasive optical finishing powders, not to exceed $225 list price in value, and/or a quantity of abrasive optical finishing powders manufactured from silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide not to exceed $100 in value, to any person without specific authorization on Form WPB–2781 [Form PD–886], and any producer, importer, or branch outlet may deliver to any branch outlet or distributor abrasive grain on orders placed pursuant to paragraph (d) (2) of this order and accompanied by the certification required by said paragraph: Provided, That:

(i) The total quantity of abrasive grain (other than abrasive optical finishing powders), delivered by any producer or importer without specific authorization pursuant to this paragraph (d) (3) during any two-month period of authorization, shall not exceed 5 per cent of such producer's or importer's estimated total tonnage production and/or purchases of such abrasive grain for such period, and

(ii) The total quantity of abrasive optical finishing powders manufactured from silicon carbide or fused aluminum oxide delivered by any producer or importer without specific authorization pursuant to this paragraph (d) (3), during any two-month period of authorization, shall not exceed 5 per cent of such producer's or importer's estimated total tonnage production and/or purchases of such abrasive optical finishing powders for such period.

The percentage limitations established above may be applied by any producer or importer on a size by size or an overall basis at his election.

(e) [Revoked July 1, 1943]

(f) Limitation on inventories. On and after June 1, 1943, no person other than a producer or importer shall purchase or accept delivery of any size and type of abrasive grain if his inventory thereof is, or will by virtue of such purchase or acceptance become, greater than the quantity of such size and type of abrasive grain which will be required under his current practices for use or resale during a period of sixty days: Provided, however, That the delivery of abrasive grain pursuant to the following designated types of purchase orders shall be permitted to effect such an increase;

(1) Purchase orders placed by any procurement agency of the United States pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(j) Notification to customers. Each producer, importer, branch outlet, or distributor, shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of his regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give or receive such notice shall not excuse any such person from complying with the terms hereof.

(k) Reports. All producers, importers, branch outlets, or distributors, affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time request, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF FOOTWEAR

[RO 17,[1] Amdt. 24]

SHOES

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1.7b is added to read as follows:

SEC. 1.7b Operators of recreational facilities may obtain athletic shoes for rental. (a) Any person operating a bowling alley open to the general public or operated primarily for use by members of the armed services may obtain sufficient certificates to enable him to have in stock, for loan or rental to his patrons, ten pairs of bowling shoes per alley for the first four alleys and seven pairs of bowling shoes per alley for every alley above four.

(b) A person operating any other recreational facility open to the general public or operated primarily for use by members of the armed services may obtain certificates to acquire the number of pairs of athletic shoes of a particular type needed to maintain the supply of such shoes which he had on February 7, 1943 for loan or rental to his patrons.

(c) Application should be made (on OPA Form R-1702) to the District Office for the area in which the shoes are to be used and should contain all information needed to establish eligibility under paragraph (a) or (b) above and the number of pairs for which he is eligible. Shoes acquired with certificates in this manner and shoes held for loan or rental on February 7, 1943, may be loaned or rented without collecting ration currency. However, they may not be loaned or rented to any person for use off the applicant's premises nor for a period longer than twelve hours at a time to the same person. The applicant must keep title to the shoes and they may not be transferred as "used" shoes under section 1.13.

This amendment shall become effective July 7, 1943.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1444—ICE BOXES

[MPR 399,[1] Amdt. 1]

NEW ICE BOXES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment is issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 399 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. What ceiling prices are fixed by this regulation. This regulation fixes ceiling prices for sales of new ice boxes at retail (including sales by mail order houses and ice companies) and at wholesale. A sale at retail is a sale by a person other than the manufacturer to a person who buys for use. A sale at wholesale is a sale by a person other than the manufacturer to a person who buys for resale. Sales by manufacturers are covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Ice boxes not listed in the table below (except those whose ceiling price is fixed by the General Maximum Price Regulation as explained below) may not be sold at wholesale or retail unless an order has been issued under this section establishing ceiling prices for such sales. Orders will be issued by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., upon application.

Ceiling prices for ice boxes which were in the hands of wholesalers or retailers on June 8, 1943, and which are models of ice boxes not now being offered for sale by the manufacturer of such ice boxes are fixed by the General Maximum Price Regulation.

2. Section 3 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices for wholesalers. Ceiling prices for sales at wholesale are 60% of the retail base price as shown in Column I of Table C plus the difference between the base price and the retail ceiling price for the state in which the wholesaler's warehouse is located. The wholesale ceiling price is f. o. b. the distributor's city.

3. Section 14, Table A, "Retail Ceiling Prices in Each State for Sales of Ice Boxes by Ice Companies and Retail Establishments Controlled by Ice Companies," is amended by changing the ceiling prices shown therein for The Coolerator Company's Model V-6 ice box, and by adding ceiling prices for eight new models of ice boxes, as set forth below.

[Docket No. A-2044]

DEBARDELEBEN COAL CORP.

ORDER GRANTING TEMPORARY RELIEF AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the petition of DeBardeleben Coal Corporation for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for Size Group No. 5 coals of the Hull Mine, Mine Index No. 44, District No. 13.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, has been filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals in Size Group No. 5 produced at the Hull Mine, Mine Index No. 44, of DeBardeleben Coal Corporation, in Sub-District No. 1 of District No. 13, for shipment by railroad, applicable for all uses, except railroad locomotive fuel, steamship vessel fuel and blacksmithing.

The prayer of the original petition requested the establishment of a minimum price of $2.80 for Size Group No. 5 coals produced at Mine Index No. 22. All the allegations and facts set forth in the petition, however, refer to the establishment of minimum prices for the coals of the Hull Mine, Mine Index No. 44. The reference to Mine Index No. 22 in the prayer of the petition appears, therefore, to be a typographical error and it is presumed, in accordance with information submitted to the Division by the petitioner, that the petition intended to request relief for the coals produced at the Hull Mine, Mine Index No. 44.

The petition requests specifically that a minimum price be established for coals in Size Group No. 5. Size Group No. 5 includes coals of a top size of 4" and larger than 3", and a bottom size of 1½" and larger than ½", and is applicable solely to coals produced at Mine Index Nos. 9, 11 and 17. Coals of the same size dimensions produced at other mines of District No. 13 are included in Size Group No. 4. Since no minimum prices or price classifications have been heretofore established for the coals of Mine Index No. 44 in Size Groups Nos. 4 or 5, relief granted herein pertains to coals of the said mine in Size Group No. 4, thereby including coals of the size dimensions embraced in Size Group No. 5.

The particular minimum price requested for the coals involved for rail shipments into Market Area No. 147 is $2.80 per net ton, and into all other market areas "to bear the same relation to Size Group No. 2 coals" produced at Mine Index No. 44. The temporary minimum prices established in each price table for Size Group No. 4 coals produced at Mine Index No. 44 are 10 cents per ton less than the minimum prices established for coals of said mine in Size Group No. 2. These minimum prices are uniformly 10 cents per net ton less than the minimum prices requested by petitioner for the reason that minimum prices established for comparable and analogous coals produced by the other mines in District No. 13 in Size Group No. 4 are 10 cents per net ton less than the minimum prices established for Size Group No. 2 coals.

Reasonable showing of necessity having been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; no petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and the following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That, pending further order, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, coals in Size Group No. 4 produced at the Hull Mine, Mine Index No. 44, of the DeBardeleben Coal Corporation in Sub-District 1 of District No. 13 shall have in each respective price table for shipment by rail, applicable to all uses except railroad locomotive fuel, steamship vessel fuel, and blacksmithing, a minimum price of 10 cents per net ton less than the minimum prices heretofore established for the coals in Size Group No. 2 produced at the said Mine Index No. 44.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division pursuant to the rules and regulations governing practice and procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and the rules of the Division be held on August 3, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street NW., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Travis Williams, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminus Coal Division on or before July 29, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the petition of DeBardeleben Coal Corporation, a code member, for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for coals in Size Group No. 5 produced at Hull Mine, Mine Index No. 44, for rail shipments to all market areas the same as the price classifications and minimum prices established for the coals of the said Mine Index No. 44 in Size Group No. 2 for such shipments.

Dated: June 30, 1943.

All interested persons are referred to said Plan, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed, which fall into four principal parts, each of which may be summarized as follows:

Part I

Part I of the Plan provides for the consolidation of Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern Power Corporation, its four direct subsidiary companies, The Niagara Falls Power Company, Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, Niagara, Lockport and Ontario Power Company, The Lockport and Newfane Power and Water Supply Company, and Central New York Power Corporation and New York Power and Light Corporation, both direct subsidiaries of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, into The Niagara Falls Power Company under the name of "The Niagara Hudson Company, Incorporated" (hereinafter referred to as "The Operating Company"). Holders of Preferred Stock are accorded no preemptive rights in respect of shares of the stock, or any rights or options to, or of any securities convertible into any stock, of The Operating Company which it may issue or sell. It is stated that the detailed provisions of the Preferred and Common Stocks of The Operating Company will include certain additional protective provisions for the benefit of the Preferred Stock, as set forth in the Certificate of Consolidation which will be filed by amendment; preliminary copies are available for inspection at the office of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, 15 Broad Street, New York, N. The principal amount of such mortgage debt at December 31, 1942, excluding the principal amount maturing or called for redemption in 1943, is $208,912,500. Application has been made for exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 in respect of the issuance or sale of all securities under the Plan.

In this connection, the Plan reserves to Niagara Hudson Power Corporation the right to acquire any one or more of the foregoing items, and, in connection with the properties described in paragraphs (a), (c) and (f) above, to deliver such properties directly to The Operating Company or to segregate such properties into separate subsidiaries and deliver the stocks of such subsidiaries to The Operating Company. It is contemplated that any assets or stocks not acquired by The Operating Company will be acquired or retained by Northern Development Corporation, as set forth in Part III of the Plan.

Part III

The Certificate of Consolidation in respect of Part III of the Plan, copies of a preliminary draft of which are available for inspection in the office of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, will be filed by amendment.

NORTH AMERICAN LIGHT & POWER HOLDING-COMPANY SYSTEM, ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 29th day of June, A. D. 1943.

In the matter of North American Light & Power Company Holding-Company System and The North American Company, File No. 59–39; North American Light & Power Company, File No. 54–50; The North American Company, et al., File No. 59–10.

APPEARANCES

Frederick Zazove, for the Public Utilities Division of the Commission.

Sydney K. Schiff of Pam, Hurd & Reichman, and M. B. Kennedy of Mayer, Meyer, Austrian & Platt, for Illinois Iowa Power Company.

Lawrence R. Condon, for Nellie B. Walters and others, holders of preferred stock of North American Light & Power Company.

Clayton E. Kline, for North American Light & Power Company.

Stoddard M. Stevens, Jr., and Houston H. Wasson of Sullivan & Cromwell, for The North American Company.

On December 28, 1942, we entered an interim order suspending the payment of interest due January 1, 1943, by North American Light & Power Company (Light & Power) on $5,623,500 principal amount of Light & Power's debentures owned by its parent, The North American Company (North American). Said debentures represent all the outstanding debentures of Light & Power. The reasons which necessitated the entry of the interim order were fully stated in our opinion accompanying such order. (Holding Company Act Release No. 4023.)

The next regular date for the payment of interest on the debentures is July 1, 1943, and, therefore, we are again presented with the question of whether this interest payment and all subsequent payments that may become payable during the pendency of the liquidation of Light & Power should likewise be prohibited. Accordingly, a hearing was held pursuant to appropriate notice to determine whether a further interim order should issue and, if so, whether Light & Power should again be required to segregate from its other funds a sum equal to the amount of such interest, such sum to be held subject to the further order of the Commission.[1]

The extent of North American's right to receive either principal or interest on the debentures is still an open question; and, similarly, various claims asserted against Light & Power and North American by their subsidiary, Illinois Iowa Power Company, have not, as yet, been determined either as to their validity or their amount, if any.[2] Hearings on these questions are proceeding but are not completed. It is obvious that, since the same reasons presently exist which required the entry of our previous order, a further interim order prohibiting Light & Power from paying to North American the interest due on July 1, 1943 is necessary. Since it is impossible to determine at this time when the proceedings will be ultimately concluded, our order will also be directed to all interest on said debentures that may become payable during the pendency of the liquidation proceedings of Light & Power. We will again require that such funds be segregated from the other funds of Light & Power and held subject to our further order.

In accordance with the requirement of our previous order prohibiting the payment of the interest due January 1, 1943, Light & Power has deposited approximately $154,000 in a non-interest bearing special deposit. Light & Power now requests that it be permitted, in the alternative, to pay the interest due on its debentures to North American with the proviso that North American will repay the same if it is ultimately determined that North American is not entitled thereto; or, that it be permitted to invest the segregated funds in interest bearing securities. We deem it advisable and in accordance with the standards of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 11 (b), 11 (d), 11 (e), and 12 (f) thereof, to permit Light & Power to invest the segregated funds in obligations of the United States Government.

It is therefore ordered, That North American Light & Power Company be, and it hereby is, (a) prohibited until further order of the Commission, from paying to The North American Company, its agents, representatives, assigns, or transferees, the interest due on July 1, 1943, and also all interest which may thereafter become payable on the debentures of North American Light & Power Company now held by The North American Company; and (b) required to segregate from its other funds a sum equal to the interest so to be withheld, which funds together with the funds heretofore segregated by virtue of our previous order of December 28, 1942, may be invested by North American Light & Power Company in obligations of the United States Government, such funds or securities to be held subject to the further order of the Commission.

By the Commission.

4. Generally, whether the proposed transactions meet the appropriate provisions of the Act and Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder.

NORTH CONTINENT UTILITIES CORP., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AMENDMENT AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 30th day of June A. D. 1943.

In the matter of North Continent Utilities Corporation and subsidiary companies, File No. 54–74; in the matter of North Continent Utilities Corporation and subsidiary companies, File No. 59–69.

Notice is hereby given that North Continent Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed an amendment to its application heretofore filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of a plan to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Act. This Commission on May 20, 1943 instituted proceedings directed to North Continent and its subsidiary companies pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of the Act, which proceedings were consolidated by order dated May 20, 1943 with the proceedings relating to the plan filed under section 11 (e).

All interested persons are referred to said amendment which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

North Continent proposes the disposition of its interests in its subsidiary companies, either through the sale of their securities or their assets, and the liquidation and dissolution of North Continent. The proceeds of such sales are first to be used to retire or redeem its First Lien Collateral and Refunding 5½% Bonds, due 1948, and thereafter, to retire, on a fair and equitable basis, its $7 non-cumulative convertible preferred stock. If, when all of the outstanding bonds and preferred stock shall have been retired, there should be any remaining assets, such remaining assets will be distributed (either in kind or after sale, the proceeds thereof) pro rata among the holders of the common stock.

In connection with the said sale of subsidiary securities or assets and the retirement of the said bonds, North Continent proposes in the said amendment to its plan to deposit the proceeds of any such sales with the trustee under the bond indenture. The trustee, within forty-five days thereafter, is to apply said proceeds towards making ratable payments in the amount of $5.00 or any multiple thereof, from time to time, on the principal of the bonds or to the payment of accrued interest to the extent hereinafter provided. In the event that the amount of the proceeds of such sales deposited with the trustee is insufficient to make a ratable payment in the amount of $5.00 or any multiple thereof, North Continent may deposit other funds available therefor with the Trustee for the purpose of making possible a ratable payment as above stated.

Interest shall continue to accrue on the unpaid principal of the bonds at the rate of 5½%, which is the present coupon rate of the bonds. Interest shall cease to accrue (1) on the paid-up principal amount of the bonds, and (2) as of the date set for the distribution to bondholders, on that portion of the unpaid principal amount with respect to which funds have been deposited with the Trustee for the said distribution.

If North Continent should be in default of its obligation to deposit with the Trustee, on or prior to January 1st and July 1st, respectively, in each year, funds for the payment of accrued interest to said dates, the Trustee is to apply the proceeds of such sales deposited with it, first, to the payment of accrued interest, and, secondly, to the payment of unpaid principal. Any sinking fund moneys deposited with the Trustee shall be applied to the payment of principal of the bonds through the medium of ratable payments as provided by the plan as amended, except that such sinking fund moneys shall not be applied to the payment of accrued interest.

Within ten days after the plan becomes effective, North Continent proposes that notices be published in both Chicago and New York newspapers stating that the plan has become effective, that ratable payments on principal and accrued interest will thereafter be made to the registered owners of the North Continent bonds, and requesting that the bonds be temporarily surrendered to the trustee for registration. After such registration no transfer of the bonds shall be valid unless made on the registration books and similarly noted upon the bonds. Each bond so surrendered shall have stamped or affixed thereto by the trustee under the bond indenture, an appropriate legend and/or certificate setting forth a summary of the terms and provisions of the plan.

It is proposed that all payments of principal or interest will thereafter be made by check, at the office of the trustee, payable to the registered owners, as of the date on which such distribution is payable, without presentation of bonds for endorsement of payments thereon; however, the final payment of the principal and interest shall be made only upon surrender of the bonds.

The net proceeds from sales of the unpledged assets of North Continent shall be deposited with the trustee and applied ratably as above provided.

No premiums are to be paid on account of the retirement of the bonds prior to the maturity date thereof.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the hearing be reconvened with respect to the said plan, as amended, and the said proceedings instituted under sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) of the Act;

It is therefore ordered, That the hearing in these proceedings shall be reconvened on July 13, 1943 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of this Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On that date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty, or any other officer or officers designated by the Commission to preside at such hearing, shall exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues otherwise to be considered in these proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the reconvened hearings, in addition to the matters specified in the notice of hearing dated May 20, 1943, to the following questions:

(1) Whether the terms of the amended plan are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby.

(2) Whether the proposed method of satisfying and retiring the said bonds is feasible and practical;

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to North Continent Utilities Corporation and each of its subsidiary companies, City National Bank and Trust Company, Trustee of the said North Continent bonds, and to any other person whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall notify the Commission to that effect by letter or telegram received by the Commission on or before July 10, 1943.

By the Commission.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter X—War Food Administration

[Amdt. 3 to FPO 3 as Amended May 6, 1943]

PART 1202—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

NEW FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

A change is made in § 1202.214 of Food Production Order 3 as amended May 6, 1943 (8 F.R. 5963), and the provisions of that order relating to metal milk cans and covers are revised.

Section 1202.214 is amended by adding to paragraph (b) thereof the following: "Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall apply to metal milk cans and covers only to the extent provided for in subparagraphs (6) (ii) and (6) (vii) of Part A of Schedule I."

Paragraph (b) will then read as follows:

(b) No Federal Government agency desiring any Schedule I equipment or person desiring to acquire Schedule I equipment for export from and consumption or use outside the continental United States may acquire Schedule I equipment which is rationed or otherwise allocated under this order for both farm and nonfarm use, unless such person applies to the Deputy Administrator for authority to acquire such equipment and is granted such authority pursuant to the provisions of § 1202.232: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall apply to metal milk cans and covers only to the extent provided for in subparagraphs (6) (ii) and (6) (vii) of Part A of Schedule I.

The special provisions of Food Production Order 3 which relate to milk cans and covers are revised and incorporated in Part A of Schedule I. To this end:

Section 1202.213 is deleted from Food Production Order 3 as amended May 6, 1943.

Schedule I of Food Production Order 3 as amended May 6, 1943, is amended by deleting subparagraph (6) of Part A thereof and inserting in its place the following:

(6) Metal milk cans and covers are hereinafter referred to as milk cans. The words "milk cans" shall not refer to milk can covers which are transferred apart from the cans but shall refer to milk cans transferred apart from the covers.

Milk cans are subject to the provisions of this order, regardless of whether they are for farm or non-farm use.

The Deputy Administrator hereby authorizes any manufacturer to transfer milk cans in accordance with the following regulations.

(i) Any manufacturer of milk cans is authorized to transfer during each calendar quarter named below the designated percentage of such manufacturer's production of milk cans authorized to be produced during such period under applicable War Production Board regulations. The percentage of such manufacturer's authorized production which is not hereby authorized for transfer shall hereinafter be referred to as his reserve.

Calendar quarter commencing—	Authorized for distribution	Reserve
	Percent	Percent
July 1, 1943	85	15
Oct. 1, 1943	85	15
Jan. 1, 1944	70	30
Apr. 1 1944	70	30

Any manufacturer of milk cans shall transfer his reserve pursuant to orders which may be subsequently issued by the Deputy Administrator: Provided, That if the Deputy Administrator has not, by the fifteenth day before the end of any calendar quarter, authorized the distribution or specifically prohibited the distribution of any manufacturer's reserve, such manufacturer may transfer his reserve, without further authorization from the Deputy Administrator, in accordance with the distribution pattern set forth in subparagraph (6) (iii).

(ii) Any person who wishes to transfer or to receive a transfer of milk cans for the purpose of handling milk or milk products in the United States shall, if such milk cans comprise part of a manufacturer's reserve, appeal to the Deputy Administrator through the State board for the State in which such person resides for permission to make such transfer. The Deputy Administrator in his discretion may grant or deny such application. No Federal government agency desiring any milk cans or person desiring to acquire or transfer milk cans for any purpose other than handling milk or milk products in the United States may acquire or transfer such milk cans unless such government agency or person applies to the Deputy Administrator for authority to acquire or transfer such equipment and is granted such authority pursuant to the provisions of § 1202.232.

(iii) Each manufacturer may transfer in each State during each calendar quarter a percentage of the milk cans which he is authorized by this order to distribute; such percentage shall not be greater than the percentage of his aggregate production of milk cans in the calendar years 1941 and 1942 transferred by him in such State. In order to determine the maximum number of milk cans which he may transfer in any particular State during any calendar quarter, a manufacturer shall make the following calculations:

(1) Determine his total production of milk cans in the calendar years 1941 and 1942.

(2) Calculate the percentage of his total production which he transferred in such State in 1941 and 1942.

(3) Determine the number of milk cans which he is authorized under applicable War Production Board regulations to produce during the calendar quarter.

(4) Multiply the answer to (3) above by the percentage of his production which, according to subparagraph (6) (i) above, he may transfer during the calendar quarter.

(5) Multiply the percentage found in (2) by the answer to (4) in order to determine the maximum number of milk cans which he is hereby authorized to transfer in such State during the calendar quarter. If a manufacturer during any calendar quarter is unable to distribute to any State all the milk cans which he is authorized by this order or subsequent orders to distribute to such State, he may transfer such milk cans to such State during the following calendar quarter.

(iv) Each manufacturer of milk cans shall, within 10 days after the commencement of any calendar quarter, furnish the Deputy Administrator with a report in the form indicated below. The first such report shall be filed on or before October 10, 1943, and shall cover the calendar quarter commencing July 1, 1943. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by or to enforce any violation of any provision of this order.

(j) Authority to release beans or peas. The Director is hereby authorized, notwithstanding any of the provisions hereof, to release by general order or by written notices, any or all of the beans or peas set aside by any country shipper pursuant to the provisions of this order.

RESTRICTIONS ON DELIVERY

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage in the supply of meat for defense, for private account, and for export; and it is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense that Restriction Order 1,[1] which shall hereafter be known and referred to as Food Distribution Order 61, be amended to read as follows:

(iv) In the case of lamb and mutton, with pluck out.

(6) The term "slaughterer" includes (i) "commercial slaughterer" as herein defined, and (ii) "local slaughterer", "butcher", and "farm slaughterer" as those terms are defined in Food Distribution Order 27, as amended.[2]

(7) The term "commercial slaughterer" means:

(i) Any person whose four quota bases, as established under this order (Restriction Order 1) as originally issued or subsequently amended, total 2,000,000 pounds or more;

(3) Any slaughterer who, during any quota period, does not deliver his entire quota of controlled meat of any type as authorized for such quota period, may carry over an amount of such unused quota, not to exceed 5 percent of his entire quota for such period, to the next succeeding quota period, and his authorized deliveries for that period shall be increased in that amount.

(d) Quotas for commercial slaughterers. The quota of any commercial slaughterer for each type of controlled meat for any quota period shall be the conversion weight obtained by multiplying the quota base for such type of meat by such percentages as are specified from time to time by the Director, and by adjusting the result by deductions or additions as required or authorized by (c) (2) and (c) (3) hereof, and by any adjustments, exemptions, or authorizations granted by the Director.

(ii) Any governmental agency where such delivery is not covered by a written contract, any authorized purchaser, or any owner of livestock which is custom slaughtered: Provided, That the person or agency receiving such controlled meat executes a certificate in accordance with the provisions of (j) (3) hereof and submits the same to such slaughterer within ten (10) days after delivery.

(2) Any commercial slaughterer may deliver controlled meat without charge against his quota to any other commercial slaughterer who executes a certificate in accordance with the provisions of (j) (3) hereof and submits the same to such commercial slaughterer within ten (10) days after delivery.

(3) Certificates executed by governmental agencies, authorized purchasers, or owners of livestock which has been custom slaughtered, who receive deliveries of controlled meat under (j) (1) (ii) hereof, or by commercial slaughterers who receive deliveries of controlled meat under (j) (2) hereof, may be signed by the governmental agency, authorized purchaser, owner, or commercial slaughterer, as the case may be, or an authorized representative of any of them, and shall contain the following:

(vi) In the case of an authorized purchaser as defined in (a) (12) (ii) hereof, a statement that the authorized purchaser has delivered controlled meat, or products prepared in whole or in part therefrom, to a governmental agency, and has not replaced such controlled meat by a purchase without charge against the quota of the deliverer under the provisions of (j) hereof;

Any such person who, in the absence of a written contract, makes deliveries of controlled meat to a governmental agency, may obtain the applicable certification in accordance with the provisions of (j) (3) hereof. Certificates so executed or obtained may be passed through one or more persons to a slaughterer, who may, in exchange for such certificate, deliver to the holder thereof, without charge against quota, an amount of controlled meat of the same type and grade equivalent, on a conversion weight basis, to the controlled meat described in such certificate.

(l) Slaughterers owning retail establishments. A retail establishment, owned by a commercial slaughterer who owns 5 or more establishments selling controlled meat principally at retail, shall, for the purposes of this order, be deemed to be a separate person or entity.

(3) The conversion weight of controlled meat of any type used in the preparation of sausage, or in the preparation of canned meat or any other meat product not specified above, shall be computed by determining, on the basis of the manufacturing formula, the net weight of controlled meat of such type used in the processing thereof, and multiplying such net weight by the applicable conversion factor set forth above for such type of controlled meat. The net weight of controlled meat which is cooked and used in the preparation of canned meat not specified above shall be the weight thereof before cooking.

(n) Markings required on meat. (1) Every slaughterer shall, prior to delivery, mark each accessible wholesale cut of meat, whether in the entire carcass or detached therefrom, in a plain and conspicuous manner one or more times as hereinafter directed. This requirement shall not apply to meat transferred by a slaughterer to a unit or department of the slaughterer for use in the preparation, manufacture, or production of any product or commodity other than controlled meat. In the case of veal carcasses delivered with the skin on, marks shall be placed on the hind shanks and brisket. Marks may be made with a pencil approved for Kosher marking or with a stamp or stencil and marking fluid conforming to the approved formula for violet branding fluid, which is as follows:

	Ounces
Water	3.5
Grain alcohol—95%	2.5
Methyl violet	0.1

The methyl violet is dissolved in the alcohol and a portion of the water; the sugar is dissolved in the remaining portion of the water and added to the methyl violet solution. Thorough stirring facilitates solution of the methyl violet.

(2) Where the slaughterer's establishment has been assigned an establishment number by a federal, state, county or city inspecting authority, he may use the number so assigned.

(3) Where a commercial slaughterer's establishment has no establishment number assigned by an inspecting authority, marks shall be made, in letters at least one-quarter inch in height and width, with a number which will be assigned to him upon application by him to the War Food Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

(4) Where the slaughterer is subject to Food Distribution Order 27, as amended, he shall comply with the marking requirements of that order, and such compliance shall be deemed to satisfy the marking requirements of this order.

(o) Adjustments, exceptions, consolidation. (1) Any person who considers that an adjustment or exception should be made in his case to facilitate procurement by governmental agencies, or to prevent spoilage of meat, relieve transportation facilities, promote greater efficiency and dispatch in the war effort, may apply, in writing, to the Director, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers that an adjustment or exception should be made, and the precise nature of the adjustment or the exception desired. In cases of emergency, application may be made by the most convenient means of communication and a written application shall be filed within ten (10) days thereafter. Upon receipt of such application, the Director may take such action as he shall deem necessary or appropriate, which action shall be final.

(2) Any incorporated slaughterer may apply to the Director for consolidation of its quotas with the quotas of any one or more of its wholly owned subsidiaries.

(p) Quotas; quota bases; establishment, revision, suspension or revocation by the Director. (1) The Director, upon application, may fix for any slaughterer a quota base for a quota period for any type of controlled meat not delivered by such slaughterer during the corresponding base period.

(2) The Director is authorized, if he deems it necessary to assure efficient distribution of meat for essential war and civilian needs, to establish, adjust, or revise quotas or quota bases for any individual slaughterer or for any class or group of slaughterers, at any time, within any area, and with respect to any type or grade of controlled meat.

(3) Any quota base or quota heretofore or hereafter granted may be suspended, revoked, or adjusted by the Director upon a determination that such quota base or quota has been erroneously granted or is based upon false or erroneous information.

(q) Records and reports. (1) Every commercial slaughterer shall forward to the Director, within 10 days after the close of each monthly accounting period, a report showing deliveries made during such monthly accounting period. Such report shall contain the information provided for in, and shall be in accordance, with Form FDO 61–1.

(2) The registration number of every commercial slaughterer shall appear on all reports required to be submitted to the Director under this order.

(3) Every slaughterer shall keep accurate records substantiating all information contained in any report required to be submitted under this order.

(4) All records required to be kept under this order shall be preserved for a period of not less than two years or for such other periods of time as the Director may designate.

(5) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such information from, and to require the submission of such reports and the keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(r) Contracts. The provisions of this order, or of any order or instruction issued pursuant thereto, shall be observed without regard to contracts heretofore or hereafter entered into, or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder.

(s) Bureau of the Budget approval. The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent specific record-keeping or reporting requirements by the Director will be subject to approval by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(t) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or stocks of meat of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in his discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(u) Prohibited acts. No person shall deliver, or offer to deliver, to any person, and no person shall accept or offer to accept delivery from any person, or use, any controlled meat with knowledge or reason to believe that such delivery or use is or will be in violation of this order, or in violation of or contrary to any statement contained in any certificate or authorization furnished or provided pursuant to this order.

(v) Violations. The War Food Administrator may, by suspension order, prohibit any person who violates any provision of this order from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using meat or meat products, or any other material subject to priority or allocation control by the War Food Administrator, and may recommend that any such person be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using material subject to the priority or allocation control of other governmental agencies. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime, and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(w) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may apply, in writing to the Director for relief, setting forth in such petition all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Director may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate, which action shall be final.

(x) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order, and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate to any person within the War Food Administration any or all of the authority vested in him by this order.

(y) Territorial scope. The provisions of this order shall apply within the 48 States and the District of Columbia.

It is ordered, That the respondent, Freedom Chemical Company, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of its anti-freeze solution designated "60 Below," or any other anti-freeze solution of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar chemicals or ingredients, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's product, "60 Below," is a perfect permanent anti-freeze; that it is non-corrosive to automotive metals; that it is non-gelatinous, non-gummous, and will not crawl or seep; that "60 Below" is not corrosive to iron, steel, bronze, solder, copper, brass, or aluminum; that "60 Below" is less corrosive than tap water, that "60 Below" anti-corrosion performance compares favorably with any known premium quality anti-freeze marketed in the United States; that "60 Below" is superior to anti-freeze products which have proven ruinous and costly in use.

2. Representing, directly or by implication, that tests conducted by the United States Bureau of Standards show that respondent's product, "60 Below," is non-corrosive to cooling systems, metals, pumps, gaskets or rubber.

3. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's anti-freeze product, "60 Below," has been approved by the laboratories of Northwestern University, Purdue University, Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, or Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, as a result of tests of respondent's product; or that said product has been approved by any commercial or university laboratory, when such is not the fact.

4. Representing, directly or by implication, that respondent's product, "60 Below," contains a chemical called "calcium bichlorinate."

5. Representing "60 Below" as an anti-freeze preparation for use in the cooling systems of automotive engines, without disclosing that said product is highly corrosive when in contact with metals such as iron, steel, bronze, solder, copper, brass, and aluminum.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration

[Docket No. FDC-21(a)]

PART 15—WHEAT FLOUR AND RELATED PRODUCTS

AMENDMENTS TO DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

In the matter of amended definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, enriched self-rising flour, and enriched farina.

NOTE: A supplemental order will issue with respect to the proposal for an amended definition and standard of identity for enriched farina.

Order

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371, 1940 ed.); the Reorganization Act of 1939 (53 Stat. 561 ff.; 5 U.S.C. 133–133v (Supp. V, 1939)); and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234); upon the basis of evidence of record herein; and upon consideration of exceptions filed to the proposed order issued by the Acting Federal Security Administrator on June 4, 1943 (8 F.R. 7511), the following order is hereby promulgated:

Findings of Fact

1. Since the hearings were held upon which were based the findings contained in the order prescribing the present definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, enriched self-rising flour, and enriched farina, reports of extensive investigations have become available on the content of nutritive factors in the diets of various income groups and of the population as a whole, and on the daily allowances of various vitamins and minerals needed for adequate nutrition. This new information shows that the consumption of enriched flours complying with the present requirements will not result in the degree of nutritional improvement expected by nutritionists at the time the prior hearings were held and which consumers are entitled to expect from publicity regarding such products.

2. Based upon all available results of investigations into the daily quantities of the various nutritional factors required by man, including clinical investigations of deficiency diseases, it is the consensus of opinion of qualified experts in nutrition that the average per capita daily food supply should contain, in the products actually consumed, the quantities specified for the vitamins and minerals indicated in the table below under "Recommended Daily Allowances." In this table are also given the amounts of the same nutritional factors in the average of the daily per capita food supply purchased for home consumption, as shown by a nation-wide survey in the spring of 1942; they are not adjusted for losses in preparation and cooking or through discarding uneaten portions (see Finding 6). The foods containing the amounts of nutritional factors shown by the figures under "As Purchased" include an average of 0.27 pound flour, bromated flour, and self-rising flour purchased as such or as yeast-raised bread or rolls, some of which was enriched to the present required levels; those under "Present Enrichment" are based on the assumption that all such flours are enriched to the minimum levels of thiamine (vitamin B_1), niacin, or niacin amide (nicotinic acid or nicotinic acid amide), riboflavin, and iron required by the present definitions and standards of identity; and those under "Proposed Enrichment" are based on the assumption that all such flours are enriched to the minimum levels prescribed by the proposed amendments to such definitions and standards upon which the hearing was held, including the proposal that calcium be a required ingredient. All amounts shown in the table are expressed as milligrams.

Thiamine	1.6	1.76	2.04	2.14
Niacin	16.0	15.6	15.9	18.7
Riboflavin	2.3	2.08	2.3	2.3
Calcium	900.0	1000.0	1000.0	1061.0

3. The survey made in the spring of 1942 was preceded by a similar but more comprehensive survey in 1936, when income levels generally were lower than in 1942. The following table, based on the 1936 survey, is directly comparable with the table in finding 2; however, enriched flours and bread were not then available:

	Recommended daily allowances	As purchased	Present enrichment	Proposed enrichment
Thiamine	1.6	1.6	2.04	2.15
Niacin	16.0	15.0	15.4	18.6
Riboflavin	2.3	1.85	2.17	2.17
Calcium	900.0	870.0	870.0	936.0

4. The average amounts of these nutritional factors in the foods of the low-income groups are less than the average amounts in the foods of the population as a whole, and the low-income groups need a greater supplementation of such nutritional factors. However, flour, bromated flour, and self-rising flour constitute a larger proportion of the diet of the low-income groups and such flours, if enriched to the levels proposed, will not only tend to satisfy the more urgent needs of such groups, but will be almost as effective in correcting their deficiencies of these factors as in correcting such deficiencies for the average of the population. For example, in the spring of 1942 the average per capita daily consumption of such flours by the group with annual family incomes of $500 to $1,000 was 0.33 pound, and the following table shows, along with the recommended daily allowances, the amounts of the specified nutrients in the daily per capita food supply, as purchased, when only part of the flours were enriched, when they are enriched to the present minimum levels (including that for riboflavin), and when they are enriched to the proposed minimum levels:

	Recommended daily allowances	As purchased	Present enrichment	Proposed enrichment
Thiamine	1.6	1.59	1.97	2.06
Niacin	16.0	13.5	14.1	17.3
Riboflavin	2.3	1.63	1.91	1.91
Iron	12.0	14.5	14.8	17.0
Calcium	900.0	940.0	940.0	1027.0

5. The following table, based on the 1936 survey of families in the $500 to $1,000 income group, is directly comparable with the table in Finding 4:

	Recommended daily allowances	As purchased	Present enrichment	Proposed enrichment
Thiamine	1.6	1.42	1.87	1.98
Niacin	16.0	12.8	13.3	16.6
Riboflavin	2.3	1.64	1.97	1.97
Calcium	900.0	793.0	793.0	868.0

6. Some of the vitamins and minerals specified in the above tables are lost in preparing and cooking foods and through discarding uneaten portions. In the case of thiamine, an additional loss occurs through baking and toasting. Although the average diet containing no enriched flour supplies somewhat more than the recommended daily allowance of iron, there is strong evidence from recent clinical observations that nutritional anemia (caused by a deficiency in iron) is more widespread than previously believed. A factor contributing to this situation is the variation in assimilability of the iron naturally present in foods. If all such flours are enriched to the levels proposed, the excesses of thiamine, niacin, and iron over the recommended daily allowances are reasonable factors of safety to insure that the diet of most persons who consume enriched flour will contain adequate quantities of these nutrients.

7. The surveys, especially that of 1936, show that the calcium content of the food consumed by a large proportion of the population is less than the recommended daily allowance. Although clinical evidence of disease caused by calcium deficiency is not impressive, this may be due to insufficient clinical studies and to the inadequacy of diagnostic methods for relating disease conditions to insufficiency of calcium intake. Deficiency in calcium contributes to osteoporosis, dental caries, and retardation of growth. Nutritionists generally recommend that calcium deficiency be corrected through greater consumption of milk and its products, particularly since this will supply other needed nutritional factors. However, there is no prospect of any early increase in milk production to levels that will furnish adequate calcium for all segments of the population. Flours enriched with calcium would tend to correct the deficiency in the diet of those segments which, because of insufficient milk supplies or for other reasons, do not obtain enough calcium.

8. In both home baking and commercial baking of white bread calcium may be added through the use of milk and milk products in making the dough, or, in certain areas, through the use of water from supplies which are high in calcium. In many commercial bakeries so-called dough improvers, yeast foods, and rope inhibitors containing calcium are used in such quantities that the calcium content of the finished bread prepared with skim milk solids usually exceeds 200 milligrams per pound, and frequently approaches and may exceed 300 milligrams per pound, which is about the minimum that results from baking bread from a dough made of yeast, salt, low-calcium water, and flour containing 500 milligrams of calcium per pound. If such calcium-enriched flour is used with the other calcium-bearing ingredients commonly employed in commercial baking, the calcium content of the finished bread will approximate 600 milligrams per pound, or even 700 milligrams per pound.

9. The use of calcium at these higher levels, in the form of some of its available salts, presents certain technological problems in baking yeast-leavened bread. Some of these salts affect the gluten of the flour to an extent that causes difficulties in handling the dough and impairment of quality of the finished bread. Some lower the hydrogen-ion concentration (expressed as a higher pH) and thus increase the possibility of losses from "rope" (spoilage by certain bacteria). Many bakers are familiar with the action of monocalcium phosphate in bread through its use as a yeast food and rope inhibitor; this salt of calcium and dicalcium or tricalcium phosphate, in appropriate mixtures that produce a desirable hydrogen-ion concentration, are the calcium salts most suitable for enriching flour but because of present military needs for large quantities of phosphates there is now available only about one-tenth of the quantity that would be needed for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, and enriched white bread if calcium is a required ingredient, since all white bread is now required to be enriched by Food Distribution Order No. 1, and a requirement that all family flour be enriched is in prospect. Large bakeries ordinarily use plain flour and add enriching ingredients to the dough, whereas small bakeries may depend largely on the use of enriched flour to make enriched bread. The difficulties involved in using at the higher levels the calcium salts now available are more likely to occur in small bakeries and in home baking than in large bakeries. Technical control such as is generally available only to large bakeries is necessary to the use at the higher levels of those calcium salts that can now be obtained in adequate quantities. It would be unreasonable to require calcium in enriched flour and enriched bromated flour under present conditions because such a requirement would place an undue burden on small bakeries and might also cause difficulties in home baking of yeast-leavened bread. The evidence does not show that the same or comparable burdens or difficulties would be involved in baking the products for which self-rising flour is used. The leavening agent in self-rising flour usually consists of a mixture of sodium bicarbonate and monocalcium phosphate (Finding 24, order prescribing definitions and standards of identity for wheat flour and related products, 6 F.R. 2575). There is no evidence that the available supply of monocalcium phosphate is insufficient for this purpose.

10. The quality of each of the various vitamins and minerals naturally present in flour varies to some extent, depending on the variety of wheat used, the milling process, and other factors. In the usual mill practice of adding sufficient enriching ingredients to insure compliance with the prescribed minima, the total quantity of any such ingredient does not usually exceed the required minimum by as much as 25 percent, except that in the case of calcium in enriched self-rising flour, some of the leavening ingredients may raise the calcium content to nearly 1500 milligrams per pound. An unnecessarily wide spread between minima and maxima would likely lead to competitive increases between manufacturers, accompanied by such advertising claims as would confuse consumers as to their nutritional needs and the value of enriched flours in supplying those needs. Consumer understanding of the value of enriched flour will be promoted by requiring its composition to be as nearly uniform as practicable as to both quantities and kinds of nutritional factors present.

11. The following are reasonable limits, expressed as milligrams per pound, for thiamine, niacin, and iron as required ingredients in enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, and enriched self-rising flour:

	Minimum	Maximum
Thiamine	2.0	2.5
Iron	13.0	16.5

A reasonable maximum limit for riboflavin as a required ingredient in enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, and enriched self-rising flour is 1.5 milligrams per pound. A reasonable maximum limit for calcium as an optional ingredient in enriched flour and enriched bromated flour is 625 milligrams per pound, and reasonable minimum and maximum limits for calcium as a required ingredient in enriched self-rising flour are, respectively, 500 and 1500 milligrams per pound.

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact it is concluded that each of the following amendments to the definitions and standards of identity for enriched flour, enriched bromated flour, and enriched self-rising flour, will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, and such amendments are hereby promulgated:

Section 15.010 is amended by changing paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) It contains in each pound not less than 2.0 milligrams and not more than 2.5 milligrams of thiamine, not less than 1.2 milligrams and not more than 1.5 milligrams of riboflavin, not less than 16.0 milligrams and not more than 20.0 milligrams of niacin or niacin amide, not less than 13.0 milligrams and not more than 16.5 milligrams of iron (Fe);

Section 15.010 is further amended by changing the maximum content of calcium prescribed by paragraph (c) from 2,000 milligrams to 625 milligrams.

Section 15.030 is amended by inserting after "§ 15.010," the words "as amended,".

Section 15.060 is amended by changing paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) It contains in each pound not less than 2.0 milligrams and not more than 2.5 milligrams of thiamine, not less than 1.2 milligrams and not more than 1.5 milligrams of riboflavin, not less than 16.0 milligrams and not more than 20.0 milligrams of niacin or niacin amide, not less than 13.0 milligrams and not more than 16.5 milligrams of iron (Fe), not less than 500 milligrams and not more than 1,500 milligrams of calcium (Ca);

Section 15.060 is further amended by striking out paragraph (c), and by changing the designations of paragraphs (d), (e), and (f) to (c), (d), and (e), respectively.

The regulations hereby promulgated shall become effective on the ninetieth day following the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: July 1, 1943.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Amdt. 2 to Suspension Order S-268]

JAMES A. KENNY

James A. Kenny, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order S-268 issued April 20, 1943 and amended May 14, 1943. After a review of the case it has been determined that the appeal be denied, but that Suspension Order S-268 as amended May 14, 1943 be modified to permit an increased production by the Company.

In view of the foregoing facts, paragraph (a) of § 1010.268 of Suspension Order S-268 as amended May 14, 1943, is amended to read as follows:

(a) James A. Kenny, his successors and assigns, shall not use any metal whatsoever in the production of more than 565 caskets and 375 shipping cases and burial vaults during any calendar month except as hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

PENNSYLVANIA INDEPENDENT OIL COMPANY

Pennsylvania Independent Oil Company, Allentown, Pennsylvania, has appealed from the provisions of Suspension Order S-297, issued April 30, 1943. After a review of the case it has been determined that the appeal be denied but that Suspension Order S-297 be modified so as to remove the restriction upon the Company's accepting delivery of motor fuel and to increase the amounts which it is permitted to deliver to its service stations. It was further determined that the stay of the provisions of Suspension Order S-297, granted May 6, 1943, be lifted and the Suspension Order as modified become effective July 1, 1943.

In view of the foregoing, § 1010.297 Suspension Order S-297, issued April 30, 1943, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Pennsylvania Independent Oil Company, its successors and assigns, shall make no deliveries of motor fuel, as defined in Limitation Order L-70, to its twenty-five service stations in excess of the total amount of 188,500 gallons during the month of July, 1943; 188,500 gallons during the month of August, 1943; and 175,500 gallons during the month of September, 1943; the said Company to allocate these totals among its twenty-five service stations at its own discretion. The aforesaid service stations shall not accept delivery of any motor fuel in excess of those amounts.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Pennsylvania Independent Oil Company, its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 1, 1943 and shall expire on September 30, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect.

Issued this 1st day of July 1943.

GEORGE DERBES

Georges Derbes is the owner of the premises situated at 402 Mahantongo Street, Pottsville, Pennsylvania. Subsequent to December 5, 1942, he began construction on the remodeling of these premises into apartments at an estimated cost in excess of $200.00 without authority from the War Production Board and in violation of the order. At the time he began construction, he either had knowledge that such construction work was restricted or from frequent contact with the orders of the War Production Board he should have had such knowledge. These acts must therefore be deemed to constitute a wilful violation of Conservation Order L-41.

This violation of Conservation Order L-41 has diverted scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.356 Suspension Order S-356. (a) Neither George Derbes nor any other person shall order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory, or in any manner secure or use material or construction plant in order to continue or complete construction on the remodeling of the premises situated at 402 Mahantongo Street, Pottsville, Pennsylvania, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve George Derbes from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on July 6, 1943.

Issued this 1st day of July 1943.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1157—CONSTRUCTION MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L–192 as Amended July 2, 1943]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export, of rubber and other materials used in the production of construction machinery and equipment and repair parts; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1157.10 Limitation Order L–192—(a) Revocation of Limitation Order L–82 and L–82–a. This order, as of November 30, 1942, supersedes Limitation Orders Nos. L–82 and L–82–a. Notwithstanding the revocation of Limitation Orders Nos. L–82 and L–82–a issued November 7th, 1942, every person subject to the terms thereof immediately prior to such date shall abide by the terms of such orders until November 30, 1942, as though their text were fully incorporated in this order.

(b) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(c) Definitions. (1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture of equipment.

(3) "Equipment" means that construction machinery and equipment listed in Schedules A, B, C, and D attached hereto, but shall not include any equipment on rubber tired chassis or running gear built for or usable for the transportation of commodities or persons.

(4) "New", when applied to equipment, means any equipment which has never been received or accepted by any person acquiring it for use.

(5) "Repair part" means any part manufactured for use in the repair and maintenance of equipment; but does not include components or attachments which change the functional operations of the equipment as originally shipped.

(6) "War agency" means the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Canadian Department of Munitions and Supply, and the government of any foreign country receiving aid pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(7) "Essential project" means a construction project undertaken by, or contracted by or for the account of a war agency or the Defense Plant Corporation, or any other construction project granted a preference rating of A–1–k or higher under any order in the P–19 series; but does not include any mine operating under a serial number of Preference Rating Order P–56.

(8) "Rubber" means all kinds of natural, reclaimed and synthetic rubber.

(9) "Dealer or distributor" means any person located within the forty eight states of the United States or the District of Columbia who is engaged in the business of purchasing equipment or repair parts for the purpose of resale.

(d) Procedure for placing and receiving equipment orders—(1) For Schedule A equipment. No person shall place or accept any order for new equipment listed in Schedule A, except according to the following procedure:

(i) Every person, except a war agency, desiring to place such an order shall file an application for authorization to purchase on Form PD–556 in quintuplicate with the War Production Board regional office in the region in which such person desires to use such equipment. Such application when approved by the War Production Board shall establish all conditions under which such order may be placed with the supplier including the assignment of preference ratings if not previously granted.

(ii) Every person, except a war agency, who applies for such equipment by filing Form PD–556, thereby makes representation that he has complied with all the terms of Limitation Order L–196 as amended.

(iii) A war agency shall furnish the Construction Machinery Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. with Form PD–556 made out in duplicate at the time that any order for such equipment is placed with a producer.

(iv) No person shall accept an order for such equipment from any person except a war agency, unless such order is accompanied by such authorization on Form PD–556.

(2) For Schedule B equipment. Nothing in this order shall prevent any person from placing or accepting an order for new equipment listed in Schedule B, subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board.

(3) For Schedule C equipment. (i) No person, except a war agency, may place an order for new equipment listed on Schedule C, and no person may accept such an order unless it is placed by a war agency and accompanied by an authorization to purchase on Form PD–556.

(ii) A war agency must file an application for authorization to purchase such equipment on Form PD–556 in quadruplicate with the Construction Machinery Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. A war agency may also file such an application for such equipment for use by a prime contractor on a construction project for such agency.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (e) (2), nothing in this order shall prevent any person from placing or accepting an order for new equipment listed in Schedule D, subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board.

(e) Restrictions on production of equipment. (1) No producer shall use or put into process any materials for the production or assembly of

(i) Any new equipment except in accordance with such production schedules as may be approved by the War Production Board as provided in paragraph (f) hereof;

(ii) Any new equipment designed for or requiring rubber tires except to fill an order placed by a war agency or unless the authorization on Form PD–556 required by paragraph (d) hereof specifically so provides;

(iii) Any parts to be physically incorporated into new equipment in excess of those required by approved production schedules: Provided, That this subparagraph (e) (1) (iii) shall not apply to the production of repair parts or components or attachments;

(iv) Any new equipment listed in Schedule C, except to fill an order authorized by the War Production Board on Form PD–556 pursuant to paragraph (d) (3) hereof.

(2) In addition to such limitations and prohibitions as may be imposed by Order L–217 and all schedules thereto, on and after May 1, 1943, no producer shall use or put into process any materials for the production or assembly of any equipment listed in Schedule D.

(f) Production schedules. (1) On or before November 25, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month, every producer shall file in quadruplicate on Form PD–697 a statement of his production for the previous month and his proposed production schedule of all new equipment projected for all additional monthly periods for which production may be planned. Approval or modification of such production schedule of all new equipment for the three calendar months succeeding such filing, or for such shorter time as production may be planned, will be indicated on an approved copy of said Form PD–697 returned to such producer prior to the first day of the calendar month succeeding such filing. Except as provided in paragraph (f) (2) hereof, no producer shall change his production schedules as approved or changed by the War Production Board without specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(2) Any producer of new equipment listed in Schedule B may produce all or any one or more items of such equipment appearing on his approved production schedules on Form PD–697 at any time during the months for which the schedules were approved, and need not therefore in that regard produce in strict accordance or sequence with the individual monthly production schedules approved: Provided, That the total quantity of each item produced during such period shall not exceed that authorized on such approved schedules.

(g) Inventory reports. On or before November 25, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month, every producer shall file in quadruplicate on Form PD–697, a statement of finished unsold inventory, as of the last day of the preceding calendar month, of new equipment including that in the possession of his dealers and distributors. Every dealer and distributor, on the fifth day of the month, shall report his inventory of new equipment as of the last day of the preceding calendar month to the producer from whom such equipment was purchased, or, if not purchased, to the producer for whom the distributor or dealer is acting as agent.

(h) Prohibiting transfer and use of new equipment. On and after November 30, 1942, no producer shall use for other than experimental or demonstration purposes, or sell, lease, trade, lend, deliver, ship or transfer, any new equipment and no person shall accept the same unless

(1) Such equipment is then in transit to such person, or

(2) Such use, sale, lease, trade, loan, delivery, shipment or transfer has been specifically approved by the War Production Board as follows:

(i) On or before November 25, 1942, and on or before the 15th day of each succeeding calendar month, every producer shall file in quadruplicate on Form PD–697 a statement showing his proposed delivery schedule of all unfilled orders of new equipment, his shipments made during the calendar month previous to filing, and also his shipments during the current month to the date of filing. Approval of a delivery schedule of all new equipment for the calendar month succeeding such filing, whether or not such equipment is actually shipped during that month, will be indicated on an approved copy of said form returned to such producer prior to the first day of that month.

(ii) The delivery of all new equipment as scheduled for delivery on or before November 30, 1942, and previously authorized under Limitation Orders L–82 and L–82–a, shall be deemed to be authorized, unless the War Production Board shall otherwise direct.

(iii) The War Production Board may at any time revoke any delivery authorization provided for in subparagraphs (h) (2) (i) or (h) (2) (ii) above as to any or all new equipment included therein, direct or change the schedule for deliveries of any new equipment, allocate any order for any new equipment listed on a producer's Form PD–697 to any other producer, or direct the delivery of any new equipment to any other person, at regularly established prices and terms.

(iv) Except as provided in subparagraph (h) (2) (v) hereof, and notwithstanding any preference rating heretofore or hereafter granted, no producer shall change his schedule of deliveries of any new equipment as approved or changed by the War Production Board, without specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(v) Any producer may deliver any item of new equipment listed in Schedule B to the amount permitted by approved production schedules regardless of his schedule of deliveries of such equipment as listed on his current Form PD–697. Such deliveries shall be subject to all applicable Regulations of the War Production Board.

(i) Restrictions on resale, rental and use. (1) Every person, except a war agency, to whom delivery of any new equipment listed in Schedule A or C has been authorized pursuant to this order, must use such equipment on the project described in the authorization to purchase and will be subject to the provisions of paragraphs (i) (2) and (i) (3) hereof.

(2) Every person except a war agency, thirty days prior to the sale, lease or use on any other project of such equipment, shall complete, sign and return Form WPB 1333 to the Used Construction Machinery Regional Specialist in the War Production Board Regional office in the region in which the PD–556 was originally approved for such equipment.

(3) The War Production Board at any time on two weeks' written notice, may require any such person who owns such equipment to sell, lease, or use such equipment as directed.

(4) Nothing in this order shall be deemed to affect the applicability of Limitation Order L–196.

(j) Procedure and restrictions on sale and delivery of repair parts—(1) Re- pairs for actual or impending breakdown or maintenance. (i) No producer, dealer, or distributor shall sell or deliver repair parts for actual or impending breakdown or for maintenance of equipment in sound working condition to any person other than another producer, dealer, or distributor, unless such person has furnished the information and certification called for below in a writing signed by such person and in substantially the following form:

This order covers Repair Parts needed for actual or impending breakdown or maintenance of _____ which has been registered under L–196. Model Number _____ Serial Number _____ Rating _____ Project Identification _____ (Under project identification, if for War Agency give prime contract number of project otherwise state type of work for which parts are intended, e. g., mining, highway construction, housing, etc.)
in accordance with Limitation Order L–192 with the terms of which I am familiar.
Date_____ _____

By: _____

Such certification shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board that such repair parts are required for the purpose of repair of actual or impending breakdown or maintenance of the particular equipment, and, unless the applicant is a war agency, that the applicant does not have parts available or on order for this purpose and that such applicant has registered the equipment for which the repair parts are sought in accordance with the provisions of Limitation Order L–196 providing for registration of used construction equipment. This certification shall, for the purposes of this order, supplant the certification required in Preference Rating Order P–100.

(ii) No person, except a producer, dealer, distributor, or a war agency, shall purchase for stock or inventory repair parts (in excess of that required for the purpose of repair of impending breakdown or for maintenance of equipment in sound working condition on the current job), without specific authorization of the War Production Board on Form PD–556, submitted in duplicate. On such Form PD–556 the applicant must supply under section 5 thereof, adequate reasons why this stock or inventory must be acquired, which shall include the following information: quantity, make and model number of equipment for which parts are intended, present inventory of such parts, duration and preference rating of project on which such equipment is now working, and the distance from normal source of supply for such repair parts.

(iii) All orders for repair parts for actual or impending breakdown or maintenance of equipment in use on essential projects, as defined in paragraph (c) (7) hereof, shall carry the highest preference rating of such project. However, this subparagraph (j) (1) (iii) shall not be construed to prevent the use of any higher individual rating which may be authorized for emergency repairs pursuant to any regulation, order, or directive of the War Production Board.

(2) Repair parts for reconditioning or rebuilding used equipment. No producer, dealer, or distributor shall sell or deliver repair parts for purposes of reconditioning or rebuilding used equipment (except to a war agency, or to a person who has contracted to recondition or rebuild equipment owned by a war agency and to whom such war agency has properly extended a preference rating, or to a mine operating under a serial number of preference rating Order P–56), unless the order for such repair parts is accompanied by an authorization of the War Production Board, application for which shall be on Form PD–556 submitted in duplicate listing individually the repair parts requested and their approximate value.

(3) Spares. Orders for repair parts intended to be used as spares for new equipment listed in Schedules A and C shall be placed with the producer at the same time as the order for such new equipment, and shall be listed on the Form PD–556 on which such new equipment is requested.

(4) No producer shall deliver to war agencies in any one month, any repair part whatsoever in excess of seventy-five (75) percent of his combined production and inventory of such repair part during such month if such delivery would prevent deliveries of such repair part to fill orders properly placed by other persons, pursuant to provisions of paragraphs (j) (1), (2), and (3) above, without specific authorization of the War Production Board on Form PD–556. "Other persons" as used in this paragraph (j) (4) shall not include dealers or distributors who have ordered such repair part for their stock or to fill orders not yet sold.

(k) Substitution and conservation of critical materials. In the manufacture of any item of equipment or repairs parts, no producer shall use any alloy steel, stainless steel, aluminum, magnesium, copper, brass, bronze, zinc, nickel, tin, cadmium, or fabricated rubber products where the use of other less critical materials will not impair the efficiency of operation of such item.

(l) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two (2) years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, purchases, production and sale.

(m) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(n) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(o) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(p) Communications. All communications concerning this order, except where specific reference is made therein to the contrary, shall be addressed to Construction Machinery Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–192.

Issued this 2d day of July 1943.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for manufacturers of certain women's, girls', children's, and toddlers' outerwear garments. Article I—Introduction

SECTION 1. Scope of this regulation. This regulation tells manufacturers how to find their ceiling prices for the women's, girls', children's and toddlers' outerwear garments which are described and identified by a category number in Appendix A (Sec. 27). A "manufacturer" is a person who sells a garment fabricated by him or by an agent or contractor for him. (Note, however, that the regulation does not apply to sales by custom tailors or dressmakers, who continue to price under sections 2 and 3 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.[2] A "custom tailor" or "dressmaker" is a manufacturer who sells to ultimate consumers, from his own regular establishment, garments he has fabricated to the individual specifications and at the special order of the consumers.)

SEC. 2. How to use this regulation. If you have been operating under Maximum Price Regulation 287 prior to June 29, 1943, Article II (below) will tell you about pricing charts for garments which were covered by the regulation prior to that date. If you manufacture toddlers' garments, or blouses under size 30, or slacks and slack suits, you will find information about these garments in Article III. Article IV contains pricing rules and other provisions applicable to all manufacturers.

If prior to June 29, 1943 you did not deliver any garments covered by this regulation, you must not make sales or deliveries until you have received authorization from the OPA to establish your ceiling prices. Section 12 tells how to apply for this authorization.

Article II—Manufacturers of Garments Which Were Covered by MPR 287 Prior to June 29, 1943

SEC. 3. Spring Pricing Chart. If you have been pricing under Rules 1, 2, 3, 5 or 7 of MPR 287, the pricing chart you filed pursuant to § 1389.353 (a), together with any supplement filed pursuant to Rule 11 (§ 1389.356a (c)), is now called your "Spring Pricing Chart" and is to be used throughout the year. (If you were authorized to establish ceiling prices under Rule 6 or Rule 9 of MPR 287, your Spring Pricing Chart is the OPA order of authorization.)

SEC. 4. Fall Pricing Chart. You may have delivered garments during the period between July 1 and November 1, 1942 at selling price lines higher than those listed in your Spring Pricing Chart, or in category numbers not listed in your Spring Pricing Chart. If so, you are permitted to use those Fall selling price lines after June 29, provided you first prepare a Fall Pricing Chart showing each selling price line delivered during that Fall period which is (a) higher than those listed in your Spring Pricing Chart, or (b) in a category number not listed in your Spring Pricing Chart. (Note that "selling price line" is defined in section 7 (a).)

This privilege to use Fall selling price lines does not apply to garments put into process after December 15th (except recuts and reorders of garments put into process prior to December 15th) or to any garments delivered after February 1st. (Manufacturing-retailers may substitute March 1st for February 1st.)

The maximum allowable margins for the selling price lines shown on your Fall Pricing Chart are found by selecting either of the following options. (Note, however, that the option selected must be used for all selling price lines and all category numbers in the Fall Pricing Chart. You must also state on the chart the option selected):

Option 1: Calculate your maximum allowable margin for each of the higher selling price lines in each category number by adding together all the maximum allowable margins which are listed for that category number on your Spring Pricing Chart and dividing the total by the number of selling price lines listed on the Spring Pricing Chart for that category number.

For example: You listed misses' and juniors' suits (Category No. 7) at $10.75, $14.75 and $16.75 on your Spring Pricing Chart, with maximum allowable margins of 32%, 37% and 36%, respectively. During the period from July 1 to November 1, 1942 you delivered misses' and juniors' suits at $10.75, $16.75 and $22.75. To calculate the maximum allowable margin for $22.75 suits on your Fall Pricing Chart, you add the maximum allowable margins on the three Spring selling price lines (32%+37%+36%) and divide the sum (105%) by 3. Applying the result (35%) to the $22.75 selling price line, you find that the minimum allowable cost for your $22.75 suit is $14.79 ($22.75×35%=$7.96; $22.75−$7.96=$14.79).

If during the period between July 1 and November 1, 1942 you delivered garments in a category number not listed on your Spring Pricing Chart, calculate your maximum allowable margin for that category number under this option by adding together all the maximum allowable margins for all category numbers listed on your Spring Pricing Chart and dividing the total by the number of selling price lines.

For example: On your Spring Pricing Chart you listed Category No. 24 (girls' dresses) in three selling price lines having maximum allowable margins of 32%, 29% and 41%; you also listed Category No. 8 (teen-age suits) in two selling price lines having maximum allowable margins of 34% and 37%. You listed no other category numbers on your Spring Pricing Chart. However, in August 1942 you delivered teen-age dresses (Category No. 23) at $7.75. Under Option 1 you calculate your maximum allowable margins for these teen-age dresses by adding together all the maximum allowable margins listed on your Spring Pricing Chart for every category number (32%+29%+41%+34%+37%) and dividing the sum (173%) by 5. The result (34.6%) is the maximum allowable margin on your teen-age dresses. Therefore, applying the 34.6% margin to your $7.75 selling price line, you find that the minimum allowable cost for your $7.75 teen-age dresses is $5.07 ($7.75×34.6%=$2.68; $7.75—$2.68=$5.07).

Option 2: First calculate the average initial percentage margin taken on each of the Fall selling price lines in each category number (substituting the period between July 1 and November 1, 1942 for March 1942) and then calculate the maximum allowable margins, in accordance with the instructions contained in section 7.

In Appendix B (section 28) you will find forms showing the information which must appear on the Fall Pricing Chart. Two signed copies must be filed with the appropriate district or state office of the OPA; an additional copy must be preserved for your own use.

SEC. 5. Special provisions—(a) Changed category numbers. The following manufacturers, before preparing their Fall Pricing Charts, are required to amend their Spring Pricing Charts. Two signed copies of the amended chart must be filed on or before August 5, 1943 with the appropriate district or state office of the OPA; an additional copy must be preserved by the manufacturer for his own use:

(1) Two-piece dresses. Every manufacturer who included in his Spring Pricing Chart, in Category Numbers 6 to 10, garments which are properly "two-piece dresses" as defined in Appendix A (section 27) must file an amended Spring Pricing Chart in which two-piece dresses are omitted from Category Numbers 6 to 10 and are included in Category Numbers 21 to 25. These manufacturers must recalculate the average initial percentage margins, maximum allowable margins, and minimum allowable costs of selling price lines in Category Numbers 6 to 10 and 21 to 25 accordingly, by including in their calculations for Category Numbers 6 to 10 only those styles of garments which are properly "suits" as defined in Appendix A (section 27) and by including in their calculations for Category Numbers 21 to 25 those styles of garments which are properly two-piece dresses.

(2) Snowsuits. Every manufacturer whose Spring Pricing Chart did not include, in Category Number 27, all snowsuits in sizes 1 to 6 and in Category Number 28, all snowsuits in sizes 7 to 16 (excluding misses' and junior misses' sizes) must file an amended Spring Pricing Chart in which all those snowsuits are included and appropriate recalculations are made.

(b) Couturier manufacturers. Couturier manufacturers are entitled to use maximum allowable margins calculated in accordance with section 7 (c) (3).

(c) Manufacturers who priced under Rule 5, 6, or 9 of MPR 287 and who during the period between July 1 and October 1, 1942 did not deliver garments which were covered by MPR 287 prior to June 29, 1943. If you have been pricing under Rule 5, 6, or 9 of MPR 287, and if during the period between July 1 and October 1, 1942 you did not deliver any garments covered by MPR 287 prior to June 29, 1943, you may apply to the appropriate district or state office of the OPA for authorization to establish higher Fall selling price lines. Three copies of this application should be filed, setting forth the following:

(1) Your name and address.

(2) Category numbers of garments for which you wish to establish higher Fall selling price lines.

(3) Highest Fall selling price lines desired for garments in each category number listed in (2).

The application should also state under which rule of MPR 287 you have been pricing prior to June 29, 1943, and, if you have been pricing under Rule 5, should contain a list of the names and addresses of your five closest competitors.

Article III—Manufacturers of Toddlers' Garments, or Blouses Under Size 30, or Slacks and Slack Suits

SEC. 6. Spring Pricing Chart. Before delivering any garments of Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b or 32–39, you must prepare a Spring Pricing Chart for those garments which contains the following:

(a) A list of the category numbers delivered during March 1942.

(b) A list of each of the "selling price lines" delivered during March 1942, in each category number.

(c) The "average initial percentage margin" taken on each selling price line listed in (b).

(d) The "maximum allowable margin" for each selling price line listed in (b).

(e) The "minimum allowable cost" for each selling price line listed in (b).

(f) Your terms of sale for each selling price line listed in (b) (that is, your customary discounts, allowances and trade differentials for each class of purchaser).

NOTE: If a style was actually delivered during March 1942 at a price to your general trade exceeding your selling price line (which is defined in section 7 (a) as the price at which you first offered the style to your general trade on the occasion of its first cutting), you may also list that March price as a selling price line on your Spring Pricing Chart. To distinguish the March price from your first cutting price, you must write the symbol "(M)" in front of it. For a maximum allowable margin you use the maximum allowable margin for the next lower selling price line listed in (b) for the same category number.

For example: You listed under (b) and (d) women's slack suits (Category No. 36) at the following selling price lines and maximum allowable margins: $14.75 with a 46% margin, $10.75 with a 32% margin, $8.75 with a 41% margin, and $5.75 with a 20% margin. You also sold women's slack suits in March 1942 at $13.75, $11.75, $9.75 and $7.75. Each of these prices may be listed on your Spring Pricing Chart, preceded by the symbol "(M)". The maximum allowable margins for the $13.75, $11.75, $9.75 and $7.75 selling price lines are 32%, 32%, 41% and 20%, respectively.

You will find a form showing the information which must appear on the Spring Pricing Chart in Appendix B (section 28). Two signed copies must be filed before August 5, 1943 with the appropriate state or district office of the OPA; an additional copy must be preserved for your own use.

SEC. 7. Explanation of terms used in section 6—(a) "Selling price line" means the price at which a manufacturer first offered for sale to his general trade a style of garment on the occasion of its first cutting. Subsequent offers to sell, or sales, of the same style at higher or lower prices are not to be considered as establishing separate selling price lines. Selling prices which differ from the prices customarily established for the general trade because of discounts, allowances, or price differentials for different classes of purchasers do not constitute selling price lines. Sample sales or accommodation sales shall not be considered as establishing a selling price line.

(b) "Average initial percentage margin" is calculated in the following manner:

Step 1: Take all styles delivered during March 1942 in each category number and find the "selling price line" (as defined above) for each style.

Step 2: Group together all styles which belong in the selling price line for which you are calculating a margin and find the direct cost of each style. "Direct cost" means the cost of materials, trimmings and direct labor, at the time of the first cutting, calculated in accordance with the instructions contained in Appendix D (section 30). Note that the direct cost of each style delivered during March 1942 must be calculated as of the time of the first cutting even if the first cutting of the style was prior to March 1942.

Step 3: Find the total direct cost of all styles in the selling price line by adding together the direct costs (Step 2) of each style.

Step 4: Find the average cost of garments in the selling price line by dividing the total direct cost (Step 3) by the number of styles in the line.

Step 5: Find the average initial dollar margin of garments in the selling price line by subtracting the average cost (Step 4) from the selling price line.

Step 6: Divide the average initial dollar margin (Step 5) by the selling price line. The result is the average initial percentage margin.

Example: A manufacturer during March 1942 delivered three styles in his $10.75 selling price line for Category No. 1. After calculating material, trimmings and direct labor costs in accordance with the instructions contained in Appendix D (section 30) he finds that the direct cost of Style 1 was $8.60, Style 2, $8.91, and Style 3; $9.10. The total direct cost of all styles in the selling price line is, therefore, $26.61. The average cost is $8.87 ($26.61 divided by 3). The average initial dollar margin is $1.88 ($10.75 less $8.87), and the average initial percentage margin is 17½% ($1.88 divided by $10.75).

(c) "Maximum allowable margin" where the selling price lines have an 8% or higher discount to the general trade. (1) If a manufacturer's average initial percentage margin on a selling price line is 22% or less, then his maximum allowable margin for that selling price line shall be the same as his average initial percentage margin.

(2) If a manufacturer's average initial percentage margin on a selling price line is higher than 22%, then his maximum allowable margin for that selling price line shall be 90% of his average initial percentage margin or 22%, whichever is higher: Provided, That in no event shall his maximum allowable margin for any selling price line be higher than 46%.

(3) Special provision for couturier manufacturers. A manufacturer is a "couturier manufacturer" if he meets both of the following conditions: (i) the average of all the average initial percentage margins listed on his Spring Pricing Chart is higher than 51.1%; (ii) 70% of the selling price lines listed on his Spring Pricing Chart are equal to or higher than the selling price lines listed below:

Category number:	Selling price line
1 and 2	$39.75
3	18.75
4	16.75
5	14.75
6 and 7	22.75
8	16.75
9	14.75
10	10.75
11 and 12	16.75
13	8.75
14	7.75
15	5.75
16 and 17	12.75
18	6.75
19	4.75
20	3.00
23	8.75
26	6.75
27	10.75
29	18.75
30	8.75
32 and 33	14.75
34	6.75

If a manufacturer is a couturier manufacturer, as above defined, the limitation of all maximum allowable margins to 46% or less shall not apply to his margins; and his maximum allowable margin for each selling price line shall be 90% of the average initial percentage margin for that selling price line.

Example 1: If a manufacturer listed five selling price lines on his Spring Pricing Chart, $45 and $39.75 for women's coats (Category No. 1), and $22.75, $18.75 and $16.75 for misses' suits (Category No. 7), he is not a couturier, since only 60% of his selling price lines are equal to or higher than the prices listed above for category numbers 1 and 7; and this subparagraph does not apply. None of his maximum allowable margins, therefore, may exceed 46%.

Example 2: If a manufacturer has listed on his Spring Pricing Chart average initial percentage margins of 47%, 43%, 56%, 39%, 44%, and 54%, the average of all his average initial percentage margins is only 47.2%, and this subparagraph does not apply to him. Therefore, none of his maximum allowable margins may exceed 46%. His maximum allowable margins are, respectively, 42.3%, 38.7%, 46%, 35.1%, 39.6% and 46%.

Example 3: If a manufacturer listed eight selling price lines on his Spring Pricing Chart, $29.75, $25, and $18.75 for women's suits (Category No. 6), $18.75 and $16.75 for women's separate jackets (Category No. 11) and $9.75, $6.75 and $5.75 for misses' blouses (Category No. 26), 75% of all his selling price lines are equal to or higher than the selling price lines listed above for the respective category numbers. Therefore, he is a couturier. If, in addition, his average initial percentage margins were 42%, 57%, 39%, 62%, 52%, 49%, 54%, and 59%, then the average of all his average initial percentage margins is 51.75%, and this subparagraph applies. His maximum allowable margins even in those selling price lines whose average initial percentage margins were higher than 51.1% are, therefore, equal to 90% of the average initial percentage margins. Thus, his maximum allowable margins are, respectively, 37.8%, 51.3%, 35.1%, 55.8%, 46.8%, 44.1%, 48.6%, and 53.1%.

(d) "Maximum allowable margin" where the selling price lines are on a discount less than 8% to the general trade. The percentage margins stated in subparagraph (c), (1) and (2) namely 22% and 46%, are to be used only where the selling price lines have an 8% or higher discount to the general trade. If the selling price line is on a net basis or on any discount less than 8%, the percentage margins stated in subparagraph (c), (1) and (2) shall be adjusted as explained in Appendix C (section 29).

(e) "Minimum allowable cost" is calculated by multiplying the selling price line by the maximum allowable margin and subtracting the result from the selling price line.

Example: If a manufacturer's maximum allowable margin on his $10.75 selling price line is 30%, he multiplies $10.75 by 30% and subtracts the result ($3.23) from $10.75. The difference, $7.52, is the minimum allowable cost.

SEC. 8. Fall Pricing Chart. Before delivering any garments of Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, or 32–39, you must also prepare a Fall Pricing Chart for those garments, following the instructions contained in section 4.

SEC. 9. Manufacturers who did not deliver any toddler garments, or blouses under size 30, or slacks and slack suits during March 1942—(a) Manufacturers who made no deliveries prior to April 1, 1943 but did make deliveries between April 1 and June 29, 1943. If you did not deliver any garments in Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, or 32–39 prior to April 1, 1943, but did deliver garments in those category numbers between April 1 and June 29, 1943, you may, at your option, either file a Spring Pricing Chart or apply to the OPA for authorization to establish maximum prices under section 12.

If you elect to file a Spring Pricing Chart, you use as your base period in preparing the chart the period between (1) the date of your first delivery of garments in a particular category number and (2) June 29, 1943. You must file two signed copies of this Spring Pricing Chart with the appropriate district or state office of the OPA on or before August 5, 1943 and keep an additional copy for your own use. You must also file two signed copies of a statement showing the date of commencement of business, the dates of the first delivery of garments in each category number, and a list of the names and addresses of your five closest competitors.

Even if you have elected to file a Spring Pricing Chart pursuant to the above paragraph, you may still file an application under section 12 for authorization to establish maximum prices, provided you file the application prior to August 15, 1943. The application should contain a statement that the Spring Pricing Chart previously filed is rescinded.

(b) Manufacturers who delivered garments in March 1943—(1) Spring Pricing Chart. If you did not deliver any garments in Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, or 32–39, during March 1942, but did deliver garments in those category numbers during March 1943, you use March 1943 as the base period in preparing your Spring Pricing Chart.

(2) Fall Pricing Chart. If you did not deliver any garments in Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, or 32–39 during March 1942, but did deliver garments in those category numbers during the period between July 1 and November 1, 1942, you use that period in preparing your Fall Pricing Chart.

(c) Manufacturers who did not deliver garments prior to October 1, 1942. If you did not deliver any garments in Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b, or 32–39 prior to October 1, 1942, you may apply to the appropriate district or state office of the OPA for authorization to establish higher Fall selling price lines. You should include in the application the information required in applications made pursuant to section 5 (c).

(d) Adjustments of pricing charts. At any time within 6 months after the filing of a pricing chart prepared pursuant to (a) or (b) above, the OPA may adjust the selling price lines or maximum allowable margins listed thereon.

Article IV—General Provisions

SEC. 10. Pricing rules—(a) Rule 1: Sales at selling price lines listed on the pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery. A manufacturer may sell garments in any selling price line listed on his pricing chart for garments of the same category number, but he may not sell in a selling price line higher than the highest listed on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery for garments of the same category number.

Garments of a category number and in a selling price line listed on a manufacturer's pricing chart must contain a direct cost no less than the minimum allowable cost for that category number and selling price line.

For example, if a manufacturer's minimum allowable cost for his $4.75 selling price line in Category No. 22 is $3.60, then every garment in Category No. 22 sold in a $4.75 selling price line must contain a direct cost of $3.60 or more.

However, a garment which contains the minimum allowable cost may be sold at a lower price than the selling price line.

For example, this same manufacturer may sell a garment in Category No. 22 which contains a direct cost of $3.60 or more at $4.50, or at any other price lower than $4.75. Customary discounts, allowances and trade differentials may not be changed, however, if the change would result in a higher net price.

(b) Rule 2: Sales at selling price lines different from those listed on the pricing chart. A manufacturer may, at his option, sell a garment in a selling price line different from those listed on his pricing chart: Provided, The garment contains the minimum allowable cost for the selling price line: And provided also, That the selling price line is not higher than the highest selling price line listed on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery for a garment of the same category number. The maximum allowable margin for the optional selling price line is the maximum allowable margin listed on the pricing chart for a garment of the same category number in either the next higher or the next lower selling price line, whichever margin is lower. The minimum allowable cost is calculated by multiplying the optional selling price line by the lower maximum allowable margin thus selected and subtracting the result from the optional selling price line.

For example: A manufacturer's Fall Pricing Chart contains selling price lines for misses' coats (Category No. 2) of $16.75 and $18.75, having maximum allowable margins of 32% and 36% respectively. If, in October, he chooses to sell misses' coats at $17.50, he calculates his maximum allowable margin for these $17.50 coats by taking the lower of the maximum allowable margins listed on his Fall Pricing Chart for his $16.75 and $18.75 selling price lines. The maximum allowable margin on his $17.50 coats is, therefore, 32%; and the minimum allowable cost for such coats is $11.90 ($17.50×32% = $5.60; $17.50 − $5.60 = $11.90).

If the manufacturer selects a selling price line lower than the lowest selling price line listed on his Spring Pricing Chart for a garment of the same category number, he must use, as his maximum allowable margin, the maximum allowable margin of that lowest selling price line.

For example: A manufacturer wants to sell misses' dresses (Category No. 22) at $2.75. The lowest selling price line for misses' dresses listed on his Spring Pricing Chart is $3.75, and the maximum allowable margin for $3.75 dresses is 20%. Misses' dresses which he now sells at $2.75 must contain a minimum allowable cost of $2.20. ($2.75×20% = $.55; $2.75 − $.55 = $2.00.)

(c) Rule 3: Pricing garments of a category number not listed in the pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery. A manufacturer who wishes to sell garments of a different category number from those listed on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery must price by this rule.

He finds the highest selling price line in which he may sell garments of a new category number by referring to the instructions in Appendix E (section 31). He may then sell garments in the new category number at any selling price line equal to or lower than the highest selling price line so found. He fixes maximum prices for the garments by taking a margin over direct cost no higher than the average of the maximum allowable margins for every selling price line in every category number listed on his Spring Pricing Chart. (The average of the maximum allowable margins is determined by finding the total of all the maximum allowable margins for all selling price lines listed on the Spring Pricing Chart and dividing the total by the number of selling price lines.)

For example: (a) A manufacturer listed on his Spring Pricing Chart 6 selling price lines, 3 for women's dresses (Category No. 21) having maximum allowable margins of 35%, 32%, and 41%, and 3 for misses' dresses (Category No. 22) having maximum allowable margins of 44%, 37%, and 30%. His maximum allowable margin for garments in a new category number is 36.5%. This is calculated by adding together all the maximum allowable margins on his Spring Pricing Chart (35% + 41% + 44% + 32% + 37% + 30% = 219%) and dividing the sum by 6 (219% ÷ 6 = 36.5%).

(b) If the selling price lines listed by the manufacturer in the above example were $7.75, $6.75 and $4.75 for women's dresses, and $6.75, $5.75 and $4.75 for misses' dresses, and he now wishes to make women's coats (Category No. 1), the Table in Appendix E indicates that he would use Group I. He could then sell women's coats in a $16.75 selling price line. Thus, his minimum allowable cost in that selling price line would be $10.64. This is calculated by taking a maximum allowable margin of 36½% on the $16.75 selling price line ($16.75×36.5 = $6.11; $16.75 − 6.11 = $10.64). He may also sell women's coats at any price lower than $16.75.

SEC. 11. Special provisions for manufacturing-retailers. A "manufacturing-retailer" is a manufacturer who maintains one or more establishments selling at retail, or who otherwise sells substantially all of the garments that he manufactures to ultimate consumers. Manufacturing-retailers must prepare special pricing charts for garments which they sell to ultimate consumers. These charts should include only garments which were delivered to ultimate consumers during the base period. (If other garments were delivered, they are the basis of pricing charts which must be used for sales to persons who are not ultimate consumers.)

In preparing special pricing charts for garments which are sold to ultimate consumers, manufacturing-retailers calculate their maximum allowable margins as follows:

(a) If the average initial percentage margin for a selling price line is 30% or less, the average initial percentage margin is also the maximum allowable margin.

(b) If the average initial percentage margin is higher than 30%, the maximum allowable margin is 97% of the average initial percentage margin or 30%, whichever is higher.

However, a manufacturing-retailer may not under any circumstances sell any garment manufactured by him at a selling price line higher than the highest selling price line listed for a garment of the same category number on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery.

No retail establishment maintained by a manufacturing-retailer may sell any garment manufactured by him at a selling price line higher than (1) the highest selling price at which that retail establishment during the appropriate base period under this regulation, delivered a garment of the same category number manufactured by the manufacturing-retailer, or (2) the highest selling price at which that retail establishment may deliver a garment of the same category number under Rules 1, 2 or 3 of MPR 330, whichever selling price is higher.

SEC. 12. Manufacturers who cannot price by Rules 1, 2 and 3. (a) Manufacturers not in business prior to June 29, 1943. Except in the case of transfers of business as provided in section 18, a manufacturer who, prior to June 29, 1943, did not deliver garments covered by this regulation may not sell or deliver garments until he has received authorization from the OPA to establish maximum prices. Three signed copies of an application for authorization to establish maximum prices shall be filed with the appropriate district or state office of the OPA, setting forth the following:

(1) Applicant's name and address.

(2) Date of commencement of business.

(3) Names of all owners, officers or principals of applicant.

(4) Previous business connections of all owners, officers or principals of applicant.

(5) Category numbers of garments desired to be sold.

(6) Highest selling price lines for each category number of garments desired to be sold. (These may not be higher than those listed in Appendix E (section 31)).

(7) Maximum margins desired for each category number and terms of sale.

(8) A list of the names and addresses of five manufacturers whose methods of operation are most nearly like the methods of operation by which applicant intends to operate.

(9) Information with regard to the following:

(i) Type of trade to which garments are to be distributed (retail stores, mail order houses, etc.).

(ii) Proposed method of distribution (showroom sales, traveling salesmen, advertising, etc.).

(iii) Proposed methods of manufacturing (contractors, inside shop, section work, piece work, etc.).

(iv) Methods of styling (number of designers, etc.). If authorization is given, it will be accompanied by instructions as to a method for establishing maximum prices of the garments to be sold. These instructions may be revised at any time by the OPA.

A maximum allowable margin will not be authorized to any manufacturer, other than a manufacturing-retailer, that is higher than the maximum allowable margins listed in Appendix F (section 32).

(b) Other manufacturers who cannot price by Rules 1, 2 and 3. A manufacturer who cannot determine his maximum price under any of the previous sections shall not sell or deliver any garments until he has received specific authorization from the OPA. He shall file with the appropriate district or state office of the OPA three signed copies of an application setting forth in detail the reasons why he cannot price under any of the rules set forth in this regulation, and a statement of the category numbers and the highest selling price line and maximum allowable margin for each category number that he requests permission to sell.

If the authorization is given it will be accompanied by instructions as to the method of establishing maximum prices. These instructions may be revised at any time by the OPA.

(c) Changes in ownership of manufacturers who have been granted orders under this section or Rule 6 of Maximum Price Regulation 287. A manufacturer who has received an order under this section, or under Rule 6 of Maximum Price Regulation 287, authorizing him to establish maximum prices must report any change in ownership to the district or state office of the OPA which granted the order. This report should include the names of any new owners or principals and their previous business connections.

SEC. 13. Special provision for manufacturers who have not received acknowledgment of the filing of their pricing charts—(a) Required pricing charts. This paragraph applies on and after June 29, 1943 to manufacturers who have not received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the filing of any pricing chart which should have been filed under Maximum Price Regulation 287 prior to June 29, 1943. It also applies on and after August 15, 1943 to manufacturers of garments in Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b and 32–39 who have not received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the filing of both their Spring and Fall Pricing Charts.

These manufacturers must use the appropriate pricing rule in Article IV, except that the maximum allowable margin on every selling price line shall be 15% until the manufacturer has received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the filing of the required pricing charts.

(b) Optional pricing charts. This paragraph applies on and after August 1, 1943 to manufacturers who prior to June 29, 1943 received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the filing of their Spring Pricing Charts but have not received an acknowledgment of the filing of their Fall Pricing Charts. Until this acknowledgment has been received, these manufacturers may not sell or deliver any garments (except those in Category Numbers 5a, 10a, 15a, 20a, 25a, 26a, 26b and 32–39 which are provided for in paragraph (a) above) in selling price lines higher than the highest selling price line listed for a garment of the same category number on their Spring Pricing Charts.

SEC. 14. How to amend a pricing chart. Any manufacturer who has filed a pricing chart and then finds that the pricing chart filed was incorrect may file two signed copies of an amended pricing chart setting forth the inaccuracies and the reasons therefor. Until he has received an acknowledgment from the OPA of the receipt of this amended pricing chart, however, he shall not sell in a higher selling price line or take a higher maximum allowable margin than those previously reported.

SEC. 15. Prohibition. On and after June 29, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(a) No manufacturer shall deliver any garments in a selling price line higher than the highest selling price line listed for a garment of the same category number on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery.

(b) No manufacturer shall sell or deliver garments on which he obtains a margin higher than the maximum allowable margins permitted by this regulation.

(c) No manufacturer shall sell or deliver garments at a price higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation.

(d) No manufacturer shall change his customary discounts, allowances, or other price differentials if the change would result in a higher net price.

(e) No manufacturer shall make a sale of garments which is conditioned directly or indirectly on the purchase of any other commodity or service. (Matched sets, however, may be sold at a unit price unless the sale is prohibited by any order of the War Production Board.)

(f) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any garment which was sold in violation of paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of this section.

(g) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of this section.

(h) No person shall, for the purposes of evading the price limitations set forth in this regulation, sell, purchase, deliver, contract, deal or otherwise operate with or through any other person under common control with, controlled by, controlling or otherwise affiliated with the seller. No person shall do any other act which directly or indirectly increases the consideration paid for any garment. Any practice which is a device to secure the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price is as much a violation as an outright raising of the maximum price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and all similar practices.

SEC. 16. Posting of selling price lines by manufacturers. On or before July 10, 1943, every manufacturer must display a statement in a prominent place in his showroom which lists separately the highest selling price lines for each category number shown on his Spring Pricing Chart and on his Fall Pricing Chart, and each category number priced under Rule 3.

SEC. 17. Records. Every manufacturer shall maintain and keep available for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect the records required by § 1389.8 of Maximum Price Regulation 153, as amended, and by Maximum Price Regulation 287, and also the following records:

(a) Cutting ticket. A separate cutting ticket shall be prepared for each cutting of materials which shall contain the following information: (1) date of cutting, (2) style number of garment, (3) number of garments cut, (4) sizes cut, (5) actual yardage used, and (6) piece goods number of the materials used or, if the materials had no piece goods number, the name or quality of materials used and the number of the invoice on which the material was billed.

(b) Cost record. Upon each cutting of a style of garment, a manufacturer shall prepare a record showing his cost. This record shall contain at least the information provided for in Appendix D (section 30) and shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions therein set forth.

A manufacturer may, at his option, continue to maintain his records in his customary form: Provided, That they contain, on a single record, a summary of all of the information required in Appendix D.

(c) Purchase record. A separate record of all purchases by type of material or trimming shall be kept which will indicate the following: (1) firm name of the supplier of materials and trimmings, (2) the date the materials and trimmings were received, (3) invoice number, (4) number of yards, dozens or units received, (5) cost of freight, if freight is borne by manufacturer of garment, (6) gross price of materials and trimmings received, (7) percent and dollar discounts, (8) net price of materials and trimmings received, and (9) net price per yard, dozen or unit of materials and trimmings received.

SEC. 18. Transfers of business. (a) If a subtantial part of the business, assets or stock in trade of any business shall be or shall have been sold or otherwise transferred after April 28, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities or services, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his tranferer would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, except as provided in pargraphs (b) and (c) of this section, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferer shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer, which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

(b) No person shall buy, sell, transfer, lease or exchange the business, assets or stock in trade of a business for the purpose of securing higher or different selling price lines, higher or more advantageous margins, or for the purpose of securing any other benefit which may be prohibited to him by this regulation.

(c) If after December 14, 1942 two or more manufacturers merge or combine and continue to operate as one manufacturer, the manufacturer who continues to operate shall establish his price under this regulation as if he were the manufacturer who had the largest dollar volume of sales during the twelve months immediately preceding the combination or merger.

SEC. 19. Invoices, sales slips and receipts—(a) Manufacturers selling to others than ultimate consumers. Every manufacturer shall, in connection with every sale of garments, except sales to ultimate consumers, deliver an invoice showing: (1) the date, (2) the name and address of the seller and purchaser, (3) the style number of each of the different styles of garments sold, (4) the quantities of each different style of garment sold, (5) the price contracted for or charged by the seller for each different style of garment sold, and (6) all discounts, allowances and other price differentials. Each style sold must be separately itemized. The manufacturer shall keep a duplicate copy of each invoice delivered.

(b) Manufacturers selling to ultimate consumers. Every manufacturer selling to ultimate consumers who has customarily given to the ultimate consumer a sales slip, receipt or similar evidence of purchase, shall continue to do so. Upon request from an ultimate consumer, any such seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing: (1) the date, (2) the name and address of the seller, (3) the name or description of each garment sold, and (4) the price received for it.

Duplicate copies of all such sales slips, receipts, or similar evidences of purchase shall be kept by the manufacturer.

SEC. 20. Licenses—(a) Licenses required. A license, as a condition of selling, is hereby required of every manufacturer now or hereafter making a sale of a garment for which a maximum price is established by this regulation. The person whose license is suspended in proceedings under section 205 (f) (2) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall not, during the period of suspension, sell any garment as to which his license to sell is suspended.

(b) Licenses granted. Every person now or hereafter making a sale of any garment for which a maximum price is established by this regulation or by any amendment thereto (except manufacturing-retailers who are licensed under the General Maximum Price Regulation), is hereby granted a license as a condition of selling such garment. The provisions of this regulation shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of the provisions of said license. Such license shall be effective on the effective date of this regulation, or when any such person becomes subject to the provisions of this regulation, and shall unless suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, continue in force as long as such regulation or any amendment or supplement thereto remains in effect.

SEC. 21. Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for the suspension of licenses, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation or order, issued by the OPA, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state or regional office of the OPA.

SEC. 22. Relation of this regulation to other maximum price regulations.—(a) Maximum Price Regulation 287[3] and 153, as amended.[4] This regulation shall be considered as an amendment to Maximum Price Regulation 287 and Maximum Price Regulation 153, as amended, for all purposes, except that it shall be known as Revised Maximum Price Regulation 287.

SEC. 30. Appendix D: Cost records.—(a) Instructions for preparing cost records. A separate cost record must be kept for each cutting of any garment covered by this regulation. A "cutting" is considered a group of garments of the same style that are put into production as one lot, or on one order, and are completed at approximately the same time. Garments may be considered as in the same cutting even though the size of the lot or order requires the fabric to be physically cut in two or more lays. On second and subsequent cuttings detailed entries are not necessary, except to specify changes in cost which have occurred.

The following items are to be included in the required records:

(1) Category number. Section 20 lists forty-six categories. State the number of the category which describes the garment.

(2) "Selling price line" should be determined in accordance with section 7 (a).

(3) Terms of sale. State the customary discounts offered to each class of trade.

(4) "Maximum allowable margin" and "minimum allowable cost" are to be calculated as required in section 7.

(5) Price rule used. This regulation provides 3 rules for pricing. Record the number of the pricing rule used.

(6) "Style number of garment and description" must include an identification of the style and type of garment.

(7) "Date first cut for stock or order" shall be the date of the first cutting of the style, excluding the cutting of samples or duplicate samples.

(8) Cost of materials. The following data relating to materials cost must be recorded: cutting ticket number or other identification, description of materials used, total number of yards used, net cost per yard, total cost of materials in all garments cut, and the average cost per unit or per dozen garments.

The following instructions relate to calculations of costs of materials:

(i) Total cost of materials shall be calculated at (a) actual net cost of materials, or (b) the maximum price, at the time of cutting, that the regulations of the OPA permit your customary source of supply to charge for the materials, whichever of the two is lower.

(ii) Only net cost of materials shall be used in your calculations. Net cost is the amount paid for the materials after deducting all discounts. Incoming transportation on uncut yard goods may be added to net cost if paid by you. Storage, warehousing and insurance charges shall not be included in the cost of materials.

(iii) In no case shall you include in your cost any amount charged or expense established by means of or resulting from a fictitious sale, fictitious billing or fictitious valuation of materials.

(iv) On a cutting where materials consist of lots purchased at different costs, the quantities of materials at each cost shall be calculated in determining the net cost of materials used.

(v) When woolen materials are used, you may add to the cost of materials the actual net cost of shrinking and examining paid by you, but not included as part of the purchase price of the woolens. If the woolen fabrics used in the garments were shrunk after purchasing, state the number of yards used and the net cost on the basis upon which you purchased the fabric from your supplier of the material.

(9) Cost of trimmings. The following data relating to trimmings cost must be recorded: a description sufficient to identify accurately each trimming and accessory used in the manufacture of the garments (including all work such as pleating, embroidery, fagoting, etc., not performed in your plant), the total quantity used in yards, dozens or units, the net cost per yard, dozen or unit, the total cost of trimmings in all garments cut, and the cost per unit or dozen garments.

The instructions for calculating the net cost of materials shall apply to the calculation of net trimming cost.

(10) "Direct labor costs" shall be calculated on the basis of wage rates paid by you on March 31, 1942, plus any subsequent increase thereto pursuant to a collective bargaining contract or other wage agreement, which contract was entered into on or before July 1, 1942, and provides for an unconditional increase of wage rates of a fixed amount or per cent. If you paid wage rates at the time of cutting in excess of the above basis, proper downward adjustments shall be made in calculating the labor costs for the garments. The following additional instructions relate to calculations of direct labor costs:

(i) No make-up or overtime shall be included in calculating labor costs.

(ii) The following operations are examples of what shall be considered direct labor: cutting, pattern grading, marking, assorting or dividing, operating or sewing, pressing or ironing, finishing by hand, factory examining of garments and similar costs.

(iii) Items of indirect labor or overhead costs shall not be included in calculating the direct labor cost of the garments. Examples of what shall be considered indirect labor are: foremen, floor men, supervisory examination of garments, repairing and maintenance personnel, designers, sample room employees, porters, watchmen, piece goods clerks, buyers, receiving room employees, clerical employees, shipping room employees, etc.

(iv) The following are examples of overhead costs: unemployment insurance, social security, pension contribution, contributions to welfare funds, health or accident insurance, workmen's compensation, and any present or future tax upon, or measured by, wages, etc.

(v) Overhead, administration expenses or factory burden shall not be included in direct cost of the garments. Examples of these are: insurance, storage, warehousing, outgoing freight, transportation to and from contractors, factory supplies, light, power, machine supplies, machine part replacements, and repairs, rent, taxes, etc.

(vi) General administrative expenses shall not be included. Examples of these are: executive and officers' salaries, telephone, telegrams, stationery, printing, postage, traveling expenses, legal and professional fees, donations, etc.

(vii) Contractor's overhead and profit allowance shall not be included in the direct labor cost of the garments. If you have garments produced by contractors, you shall maintain complete records at your principal place of business showing the contractor's costs of direct labor. At manufacturers' request, contractors are required to furnish all data on labor and trimmings costs necessary to enable the manufacturer to prepare the records required by this regulation.

(11) "Direct cost of each garment" shall be the total of the material, trimming, and direct labor costs specified above. If the total direct cost of all the garments in a cutting shall be equal to or greater than the sum of the minimum allowable cost for the garment multiplied by the number of garments cut, then for the purpose of this regulation, every garment in that cutting shall be considered to have the minimum allowable cost.

(12) Size differences. If a style is manufactured to sell in a size range and garments of the average size in that size range contain the minimum allowable cost, then on subsequent cuttings of that style, garments which are lower in cost than the average size, only because different sizes are cut, shall be considered to have the minimum allowable cost.

(13) Tolerance. If a manufacturer finds that his estimated calculations of the direct cost in a cutting are inaccurate, then for the purposes of this regulation, each garment in that cutting will be deemed to have the minimum allowable cost, if the direct cost is no less than 97% of the minimum allowable cost for that selling price line in that category number.

(14) Privilege to estimate week-work costs. A manufacturer may use estimates in calculating the cost of any direct labor operation paid on a time basis if a week-work chart is prepared and kept with the manufacturer's cost records. The estimates shown in the chart are the maximum amounts which may be used in calculating the minimum allowable cost. If a manufacturer finds that his estimates are too low, he may amend his chart by means of a notation on the chart showing the revised estimates and the date of the notation: but the revised estimates may not be regarded as effective for any period prior to the date of the notation.

If the estimate for any craft exceeds the manufacturer's actual direct labor cost, determined by reference to the records of (i) total wages paid to employees in the craft, and (ii) total garments manufactured during an accounting period chosen by the manufacturer and shown on the chart, the manufacturer's actual direct labor cost must be used in determining whether garments contain the minimum allowable cost.

(15) Week-work chart. The week-work chart required by the above provision must be prepared in accordance with the following instructions:

(i) Select an accounting period which will enable you reasonably to test the accuracy of your estimates, by reference to records showing your total payroll and total production. This period may not exceed five months. The first period may begin on any date after December 14, 1942; but if the chart is prepared after April 24, 1943, the first period must begin on the date of preparation.

(ii) Then list the crafts which you pay on a time basis and determine what a fair estimate of your direct labor cost (per unit or per dozen), by craft, would be for the accounting period specified. For example, your past experience may show that for such a period your cutting averages 10¢ per unit, your sewing 65¢, your finishing 20¢ and your pressing 15¢.

(iii) The use of one estimate for each craft, regardless of category numbers and selling price lines, is permissible. For example, your past experience may show that an estimate of 10¢ for cutting could be used for all your garments. However, estimates for different category numbers and selling price lines, are also permissible.

For example: Your past experience may show that cutting for women's suits (Category No. 6) costs more than for women's dresses (Category No. 21), and that cutting for $8.75 dresses costs more than for $3.50 dresses. Your cutting estimates might be 14¢ for suits, 12¢ for $8.75 dresses and 7¢ for $3.50 dresses.

(iv) Your week-work chart must be kept with your cost records and must show each estimate, the length of your accounting period and the date set as the beginning of the first period. The amounts shown in the chart are the most that can be used for the crafts listed in determining whether your garments contain the minimum allowable cost.

For example: If your week-work chart shows a 10¢ estimate for cutting, and if your minimum allowable cost on a certain line is $3.12, garments in that line must contain at least $3.02 in addition to the cutting cost. If you find that your estimate was too low, and that 12¢ would be a fairer figure for cutting, you may not use 12¢ in your cost records until you have amended your chart by means of a notation in the chart showing the revised estimate (12¢) and the date of the notation. The revised estimate may be used only for garments cut after the date of the notation.

(v) At the close of each accounting period you must calculate and record in the chart your actual direct labor cost, determined by reference to the records of (a) total wages and (b) total garments manufactured. The records must be broken down in the same way as your estimates.

For example: If you have used only one cutting estimate for all category numbers and all selling price lines, you merely divide your cutters' payroll by the number of garments cut. On the other hand, if you have used cutting figures of 14¢ for suits, 7¢ for $3.50 dresses and 12¢ for $8.75 dresses, your records must show the relation between the cutters' payroll and the number of suits, $3.50 dresses and $8.75 dresses produced.

(vi) At the close of each accounting period you must also record your estimate for the next accounting period, on a different line in the chart, or on a new chart. If your payroll and production records for the old period show that your estimate for that period was too high, you should revise your estimate for the new period accordingly.

(vii) You may alter the length of your accounting period if the new period begins on the day following the last day of the period specified in your chart and does not exceed five months, and if you prepare a new chart. The old chart must be preserved.

(viii) Your week-work chart must be prepared in the following form: (Copies will not be furnished by the OPA).

SEC. 31. Appendix E: How manufacturers pricing under Rule 3 find their highest permissible selling price lines for new category numbers—(a) Instructions. (1) The table in paragraph (b) of this appendix contains several groups of selling price lines. Each group includes one selling price line for each category number covered by the regulation.

To find your highest permissible selling price line for garments of a category number not listed on your pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery, you start with the selling price line included in Group A for that category number and run your finger across the table until you come to the group which gives you the highest price for that new category number but still includes a selling price line for an old category number listed on your pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery. You may price a garment in a new category number at the selling price line shown in the proper group or at any lower selling price line.

For example: a dress manufacturer wants to go into the coat business. The highest selling price lines listed on his Spring Pricing Chart are $5.50 for women's dresses (Category No. 21) and $3.75 for misses' and juniors' dresses (Category No. 22). To find his highest permissible selling price line for women's coats (Category No. 1), he starts with the $4.75 selling price line included in Group A for women's coats and runs his finger across the table until he comes to Group H. Group H gives him a women's coat price of $14.75 to correspond with his women's dress price of $5.50. He may not go higher than $14.75 because none of the groups above Group H includes a selling price line listed on his pricing chart for an old category number. Note, however, that he doesn't have to stop at Group F, which includes his $3.75 price for misses' and juniors' dresses, because he is entitled to use the highest group which includes any of his category numbers. He may use Group H for misses' and juniors' coats (Category No. 2) and for any other category number not listed on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery. He may also sell garments in new category numbers of any price lower than those listed in Group H.

Suppose this manufacturer had a $8.75 selling price line for women's dresses on his Fall Pricing Chart. In that case he would be permitted to go to Group J, which gives him a women's coat price of $10.75, during the period when his Fall Pricing Chart is in effect.

There are two exceptions: (i) If the selling price line (for an old category number) which gives you the highest selling price line for the new category number is not listed in the table, you use the group which has the next lower selling price line for an old category number.

For example, if the dress manufacturer discussed in the previous example had a $5.75 selling price line listed in his Spring Pricing Chart for women's dresses, he still uses Group H (because no group contains a $5.75 price for women's dresses, and Group H has the next lower price).

Similarly, if a manufacturer of better dresses wants to go into the coat business, he cannot go beyond Group O even though his chart contains selling price lines for women's dresses higher than $19.75.

(ii) If the selling price line (for an old category number) which gives you the highest selling price line for the new category number appears in more than one group, you use the lowest group.

For example, a children's dress manufacturer wants to go into the blouse business. The highest selling price line listed in his pricing chart is $1.87½ for children's dresses. He uses Group F, which gives him a girls' blouse price of $1.31¼. He cannot use Group G or Group H, although children's dresses at $1.87½ appear in both of those groups, because Group F is lower.

(2) Use Column II in each group for all garments except suits, jackets, skirts or slacks which are fabricated from materials other than pile fabrics or woolens. For those garments use Column I. ("A "pile fabric" is a three dimensional fabric composed of backing warp, filling and pile warp woven at right angles to the backing warp and filling. A "woolen" is a fabric containing 25% or more new, reused or processed wool.)

(3) Any manufacturer may use the selling price lines included in Group A for category numbers not listed on his pricing chart in effect on the date of delivery.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 417]

FEED SCREENINGS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, that maximum prices for the sale or delivery of feed screenings be established by a maximum price regulation to replace the maximum prices established for the sale or delivery of said commodity under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

The maximum prices established by this maximum price regulation are generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the said Act, as amended, and of said Executive Orders. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* So far as practicable the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

(b) This regulation in speaking of sales or purchases at a given point means that the purchaser shall receive manual delivery of the feed screenings in question at said point. If the feed screenings in question is physically located at said point at the time of sale and there delivered to said purchaser (sometimes referred to as a sale f. o. b. said point), the purchaser may thereafter arrange and pay (in addition to the maximum price for the feed screenings at said point) for its transportation elsewhere; and the purchaser may engage the seller as his agent to procure such transportation. If the feed screenings in question is not physically located at said point at the time of the sale, the maximum price shall include and cover all transportation charges required to effectuate such a delivery of said feed screenings to the purchaser at said point. Thus if the buyer pays the seller the full maximum price, the seller must secure and pay all said transportation charges required to effectuate such a delivery to said purchaser at said point; and if this is not done, there has been a violation of this regulation. If the buyer pays any part of said transportation charges required to effectuate such a delivery as aforesaid, all said transportation charges so paid by the buyer must be deducted from the said maximum price to determine the amount the seller may actually receive in such a case; and if such deduction is not made, there has been a violation of this regulation.

(c) The weights per bushel mentioned in section 5 hereof are to be determined in the manner prescribed in the Handbook of Official Grain Standards of the United States prepared by the Agricultural Marketing Service of the United States Department of Agriculture as the standard method of making test weight-per-bushel determination.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices of producers. (a) The maximum price for a sale by any producer of unground feed screenings, bulk, shall be as follows:

(1) At Minneapolis and Duluth:

$17.50 per ton for feed screenings weighing up to and including 20 pounds per bushel.

$21.50 per ton for feed screenings weighing over 20 pounds and up to and including 35 pounds per bushel.

$24.50 per ton for feed screenings weighing over 35 pounds.

(2) At any given point in Area A, to wit: the States of Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, or Minnesota (except Minneapolis and Duluth), the maximum price at Minneapolis less the lowest carload flat rail rate transportation charges from said point to Minneapolis or Duluth, whichever is lower: Provided, (i) Where the point in question is a non-rail point, the maximum price shall be the maximum price at the rail point nearest thereto; and (ii) that the maximum price for a sale to any mixed feed manufacturer for use at his production plant located in this Area A shall be the maximum price at Minneapolis less the transit balance on a shipment of a carload quantity of feed screenings from said plant to Minneapolis or Duluth, whichever is lower.

(3) At any given point in Area B, to wit: the States of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming and Utah, the maximum price at Minneapolis plus transportation charges actually incurred for the distance transported within Area B to the point of destination. As used in this subparagraph (3), the "point of destination" is a point in Area B, either the buyer's receiving point or a rate point selected to secure favorable transit balances.

(4) At any given point in Area C, to wit: any area not hereinbefore mentioned, the maximum price at Minneapolis plus the lowest domestic carload proportional all rail rate (or if none, the lowest carload flat all rail rate) from Minneapolis to the point of destination. As used in this subparagraph (4) the "point of destination" is any point other than a point in Area A or B, either that rail point constituting or nearest to the buyer's receiving point or a rate point selected to secure favorable transit rates. Further, whenever feed screenings purchased under this subparagraph (4) (or purchased with reference to this subparagraph where said subparagraph is a part of a formula to fix a maximum price for a sale by a person other than a producer) has moved from the immediate seller (either producer or other person where this subparagraph (4) is a part of a formula to fix a maximum price for a sale by a person other than a producer) to said point of destination in whole or in part by water, the foregoing maximum price shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the actual water rate and said rail rate for the distance so moved by water.

(b) The foregoing maximum prices may be increased for a sale by a producer of ground feed screenings, bulk, at the rate of $4.00 per ton.

SEC. 6. Maximum grinder's service charge. (a) The maximum service charge of a grinder for the grinding of a ton of unground feed screenings into ground feed screenings shall be $4.00.

(b) All regulations or parts thereof establishing a maximum price for such service are hereby superseded and repealed.

SEC. 7. Maximum commission merchant's service charge. (a) The maximum service charge for the services of a commission merchant in connection with a first sale of feed screenings as above provided shall be 50 cents per ton. This service charge shall be in addition to the appropriate maximum price of the feed screenings so sold.

(b) All regulations or parts thereof establishing a maximum price for such service are hereby superseded and repealed.

SEC. 8. Maximum price for jobbers. The maximum price for the sale of feed screenings, bulk, by a jobber shall be one of the following maximum markups:

(a) 50 cents per ton for ground feed screenings; and

(b) $1.00 per ton for unground feed screenings, over the maximum price for a like sale at a like point by a producer or commission merchant from whichever he purchased the lot so sold by him.

SEC. 9. Maximum prices for wholesalers. The maximum price for the sale of ground or unground feed screenings, bulk, by a wholesaler shall be $2.50 per ton (maximum markup) over: (a) the maximum price of the producer, commission merchant or jobber (from whichever he purchased the lot from out of which the sale is made) for a like sale at the wholesaler's place of unloading plus transportation charges actually incurred from said place of his unloading to his buyer's receiving point not exceeding a distance of 100 miles; or (b) in the case of sales in carload quantities for delivery within Area C, the maximum price of a producer for the lot in question at Minneapolis plus the lowest domestic carload proportional rate (or if none, the lowest carload flat all rail rate) from Minneapolis to the buyer's receiving point.

SEC. 10. Maximum prices for retailers. The maximum price for the sale of ground or unground feed screenings, bulk, by a retailer shall be $3.00 per ton (maximum markup) over the maximum price of the producer, commission merchant, jobber or wholesaler (from whom he purchased the lot from out of which the sale is made) for a like sale at his store or place of business plus transportation charges actually incurred from said retailer's store or place of business to the buyer's receiving point not exceeding a distance of 100 miles.

SEC. 11. Maximum prices for truckers. (a) The maximum price for any sale or delivery by any trucker of any feed screenings owned by him shall be the maximum price for a like sale by the person from whom he purchased.

(b) This section is the exclusive mode of sale of feed screenings by a trucker.

SEC. 12. Sales sacked. Whenever any seller sacks feed screenings, the foregoing maximum prices may be increased as follows:

(a) In seller's new or used sacks, by the reasonable market value (not exceeding any maximum price thereon) of the sacks, plus 50 cents per ton.

(b) In buyer's new or recleaned sacks by 50 cents per ton.

(c) In buyer's sacks of any other kind by $1.00 per ton.

SEC. 13. Calculations by mixed feed manufacturers. (a) Hereafter feed screenings shall be deemed to be a commodity listed in sections 6 (a) (1) and 7 (a) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 378 with like effect as if specifically named therein.

(b) Whenever oleaginant screenings are used in mixed feed, the same shall be deemed to be feed screenings and subject to like calculation as to "cost" by a mixed feed manufacturer as provided in paragraph (a) hereof with respect to other feed screenings.

SEC. 14. Prohibition on cumulative markups. (a) For one and the same transaction, no commission merchant shall also receive a markup as a jobber, wholesaler or retailer on any lot of feed screenings.

(b) The maximum price of any lot of feed screenings to any ultimate consumer (either processor or feeder) shall never include more than one each of a commission merchant's, jobber's, wholesaler's and retailer's permitted markups, respectively, irrespective of the number of said persons of each class who may have handled the lot in question.

SEC. 15. Records. (a) Every seller subject to this regulation shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, remains in effect his customary records including, if any, all bills, invoices and other documents relating to every sale or delivery of feed screenings after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) Upon demand every such seller shall submit such records to the Office of Price Administration and keep such further records as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.[1]

SEC. 16. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the licenses revocation or suspension provisions, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages, and criminal penalties as provided in the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended.

SEC. 17. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be granted by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 18. Protests and petitions for amendment. Any person desiring to file a protest against or seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may do so in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.[2]

This Maximum Price Regulation No. 417 shall become effective July 8, 1943.

NOTE: The record keeping provisions of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 1st day of July 1943.

7. An undesignated center headnote is added preceding § 1394.5680, to read as follows: "Ration Banking."

8. Sections 1394.5680 to 1394.5688 are added, as follows:

§ 1394.5680 What a ration bank account is. A fuel oil ration bank account (for convenience called a "ration bank account") is similar to an ordinary dollar checking account. It is an account opened in a regular commercial bank and coupons, ration checks and other evidences and fuel oil deposit certificates are deposited in the account and ration checks are drawn against it. (General rules for the opening, closing and use of a ration bank account are given in General Ration Order 3A.[2])

§ 1394.5681 The number of accounts in one bank or for one establishment is limited. (a) Not more than one account may be opened for any one establishment. (The term "establishment" is explained in § 1394.5001 (a) (12A)).

(b) Any primary supplier, dealer or consumer who wishes to open more than one ration bank account for any one establishment or an account for a related activity of an establishment or an account in a bank other than one in which he has a dollar checking account may forward an application to the Fuel Oil Rationing Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authority to open such ration bank accounts. He must state in his application all the facts he claims show his need for such ration bank accounts.

§ 1394.5682 Who must open a ration bank account—(a) Primary suppliers. Every registered primary supplier must, during the month of July 1943 (or if he applies for registration after July 31, 1943, within 10 days after the date of application), open at least one ration bank account for all the establishments included in each primary supplier registration. He may open a separate account for each establishment or for any group of them included in the same registration.

(b) Dealers. (1) Every registered dealer who during any consecutive 12 month period after June 1, 1942 has sold at least 250,000 gallons of fuel oil must, during the month of July 1943, open at least one ration bank account for all his dealer establishments. If he is not eligible during the month of July 1943, he must open the account within 30 days after he becomes eligible. If he has more than one establishment, he may open a separate account for each or for any group of them; however, no separate account may be opened for any single establishment, or for any group of them, at which less than 250,000 gallons of fuel oil was sold during any consecutive 12 month period after June 1, 1942.

(2) Any person who becomes a registered dealer after October 1, 1942, and who is not required to become a depositor under the preceding paragraph, may, on or after July 1, 1943, open a ration bank account for each one of his dealer establishments, or for any group of them, at which he has sold at least 35,000 gallons of fuel oil during any period of 30 consecutive days. If he opens an account, he must become a depositor as to all his dealer establishments.

(c) Consumers. Every consumer who receives a fuel oil deposit certificate from his Board must, on or after July 1, 1943, open a ration bank account for the establishment. If he receives fuel oil deposit certificates for more than one establishment, he may open a separate account for each establishment or for any group of them. However, no additional account may be opened for an establishment for which the consumer has a dealer or primary supplier account.

(d) Exemptions. If no bank is accessible to a person who is required to open a ration bank account, or if the use of ration banking would impose a hardship upon a dealer, he may obtain an exemption from the requirements of this section from the appropriate District Director.

§ 1394.5683 Where primary suppliers and dealers must deposit evidences—(a) Primary suppliers. Every evidence received by a primary supplier who is a depositor, in exchange for a transfer, or as a refund in connection with a transfer, of fuel oil, may be deposited only in the ration bank account carried for the establishment at or from which he made the transfer or in the account carried for any establishment included in the same registration.

(b) Dealers. Every evidence received by a dealer who is a depositor, in exchange for a transfer, or as a refund in connection with a transfer, of fuel oil, must be deposited in the ration bank account carried for the establishment at or from which he made the transfer.

§ 1394.5684 When primary suppliers and dealers must deposit evidences. (a) Unit value coupons of Class 4, 5 and 6 coupon sheets may be deposited at any time after the date they become valid, but not after the following dates:

Coupons numbered:	Last day for deposit
1	February 2, 1944.
2	March 8, 1944.
3	April 13, 1944
4	October 30, 1944.
5	October 30, 1944.

(b) Definite value coupons, ration checks, exchange certificates, export certificates, and acknowledgments of delivery may be deposited at any time.

(c) No delivery receipts or unit value coupons of Class 1 or Class 2 coupon sheets may be deposited in any ration bank account.

§ 1394.5685 Where consumers deposit fuel oil deposit certificates. (a) A consumer must endorse and deposit every fuel oil deposit certificate issued as a ration (and each ration check received as a refund) for a specified establishment in the ration bank account for that establishment.

(b) No coupons or other evidences or delivery receipts may be deposited in a consumer's ration bank account.

§ 1394.5686 To whom ration checks may be issued. A depositor may not issue a ration check except to the following persons:

(a) To the person who transfers fuel oil to him, in exchange for the fuel oil transferred.

(b) To a person from whom he has received evidences to make any necessary adjustment between the amount of evidences received and the amount of fuel oil transferred to such person in exchange for such evidences. However, no ration check may be issued to make an adjustment to a consumer who is not a depositor.

(c) To the Office of Price Administration or to any Office or Board thereof.

§ 1394.5687 Issuance of checks. (a) Whenever a dealer or primary supplier issues a ration check to the Office of Price Administration or to any office or board thereof to accompany a report required by this order, or to any person in exchange for a transfer of fuel oil, the check must be drawn upon the account carried for the establishment included in the report or receiving the transfer, as the case may be, except that a primary supplier may draw his check upon the account carried for any establishment included in the same registration.

(b) A transfer of fuel oil may be made to a consumer who is a depositor in exchange for a ration check issued by the transferee in an amount equal to the fuel oil transferred. The check must be issued at the time of, or at the option of the transferor within 72 hours after, the transfer, except that where a transfer of 2,000 gallons or more of fuel oil is made to a consumer in a single transportation facility generally used for such purpose, the transferor may, at his option, permit the consumer to issue his check for such fuel oil within a period not exceeding 15 days from the date of transfer.

(c) If a transfer is made to a consumer who is a depositor, in the absence of the consumer or his agent, or by common or contract carrier or pipeline, the consumer shall, within 72 hours after the transfer, issue a ration check to the transferor for the fuel oil transferred. However, if the transfer is 2,000 gallons or more in a single transportation facility, the transferor may, at his option, permit the consumer to issue his check for such fuel oil within a period not exceeding 15 days.

(d) When a person issues a ration check, he must, in addition to making all other proper entries, indicate on his check stub, check register or similar record, the amount of fuel oil for which it is issued, the address where the fuel oil was delivered, and if he is a consumer, the ration against which the check is issued.

§ 1394.5688 Acceptance of ration checks. (a) When a ration check is received by a person who neither is nor is required to be a depositor, he may use it only to acquire fuel oil in the amount for which the check has been drawn. In such case, he must endorse the check and transfer it to the person from whom the fuel oil is acquired.

(b) A ration check may be accepted by a transferor of fuel oil either if it is made payable to him and is drawn by his transferee, or if the transferee is not a depositor, if it is endorsed both by his transferee and the person to whom the check is issued.

9. Section 1394.5507 (a) is amended by inserting the phrase "ration checks, fuel oil deposit certificates" between the phrase "export certificates" and the phrase "and delivery receipts", and by inserting the phrase "ration check, fuel oil deposit certificate" between the phrase "export certificate" and the phrase "and delivery receipt".

This amendment shall become effective on July 1, 1943.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, It is ordered:

§ 1499.1847 Adjustment of maximum prices for men's shirts sold by Butler Brothers. (a) Butler Brothers, of Randolph and Canal Streets, Chicago, Illinois, may sell and deliver and any person may buy and receive from that corporation men's shirts in white and fancy patterns at prices not in excess of the following:

$14.35 per dozen net for Valor DeLuxe and Big Brother DeLuxe shirts for shipment from factory.

Nothing contained in this order shall deprive the applicant of the right to charge a higher maximum price than the prices contained in this order where such higher maximum price has been established under the General Maximum Price Regulation for shipments of the Valor and Big Brother shirts from its distribution houses at Dallas, Texas and San Francisco, California, and of the Valor DeLuxe and Big Brother DeLuxe shirts from any distribution house other than the factory.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the rental prices for construction and road maintenance equipment have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has further ascertained and given due consideration to the rental prices of construction and road maintenance equipment prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum rental prices established by this Regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations[2] involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 134 is hereby issued.

(3) Which remains in the possession of the lessee for a part of a monthly period beyond one or more full monthly periods, the maximum rental price for such part of the monthly period shall be the rental price calculated upon the basis of the higher of the following:

(i) $\frac{1}{30}$ of the applicable rate "per month" for each daily period, or part thereof, of possession, or (ii) $\frac{1}{240}$ of the applicable rate "per month" for each hour, or part thereof, of actual use. If such equipment is in actual use during such part of a monthly period for more than 240 hours, the maximum rental price shall be the rental price calculated in accordance with subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph;

(4) Which is to remain in the possession of the lessee for one or more full monthly periods, and for which the lessee desires to have the rental prorated for any part of a monthly period preceding the full monthly periods, the maximum rental price for an initial fractional part of a monthly period shall be the rental price calculated in accordance with subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

§ 1399.3 Rate bases: Most favorable to apply. (a) Except where otherwise specifically provided in §§ 1399.15 and 1399.16, set forth as Appendices A and B of this regulation, irrespective of whether construction or road maintenance equipment is leased by the hour, day, week, month, or on any other basis, the maximum rental price of any such equipment shall be:

(1) Calculated on a daily rate basis in accordance with paragraph (a) of § 1399.2 if equipment is in lessee's possession for not more than 4 consecutive daily periods; except that where the rental price so calculated exceeds the price calculated upon a weekly basis, the maximum price shall be the rental price determined upon a weekly rate basis in accordance with paragraph (b) of § 1399.2;

(2) Calculated on a weekly rate basis in accordance with paragraph (b) of § 1399.2 if the equipment is in lessee's possession for more than 4 consecutive daily periods but not more than 3 consecutive weekly periods; except that where the rental price so calculated exceeds the price calculated upon a monthly basis the maximum rental price shall be the rental price determined upon a monthly rate basis in accordance with paragraph (c) of § 1399.2;

(3) Calculated on a monthly rate basis in accordance with paragraph (c) of § 1399.2 if such equipment is in lessee's possession for more than 3 consecutive weekly periods.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section shall apply even where the periods of rental are not consecutive, if the lessee in such case is willing to rent the equipment continuously and the interval between the termination of the initial period of rental and the commencement of the subsequent period of rental to the same lessee does not exceed 30 days. In such case, the maximum rental price shall be calculated as if the periods of rental were consecutive.

§ 1399.4 Minimum rental period. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 1399.1 and 1399.2, a lessor who, on April 15, 1942, observed an established practice of requiring a minimum period of rental for any construction or road maintenance equipment may continue the same practice for such equipment: Provided, That such lessor shall, on or before August 1, 1943, unless he has already done so, file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., explicitly setting forth the nature of such practice, the construction or road maintenance equipment to which such practice applies, and copies of leases, invoices, or published rental lists and other relevant proof showing that such practice was in effect on April 15, 1942.

§ 1399.5 Maximum charges for operating and maintenance and repair and rebuilding services—(a) General provisions. On or after July 1, 1943, no person shall make, or receive, payment for any operating and maintenance, or repair and rebuilding, service unless the supplier thereof has established a maximum charge therefor by filing a report of his proposed charge with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., and, where necessary, by having a charge approved or not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration as provided by this regulation; or unless a maximum charge for such service has been established by a general order of the Office of Price Administration; except that any supplier of such service who was not in business within a period of 90 days before July 1, 1943, shall have 90 days from the date on which he began business to establish a maximum charge for any such service supplied by him, in accordance with the requirements of this regulation.

(b) Maximum charges for operating and maintenance services. (1) For any operating and maintenance service for which the lessor has heretofore established a general maximum charge with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the maximum price for such service shall be the charge which is filed with, and approved, or not disapproved, by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) For any operating and maintenance service, for which the lessor has not established a general maximum charge with the Office of Price Administration, the maximum price for all work for which a report is filed as hereafter provided and for all similar work thereafter to be performed by such lessor, shall be a charge calculated by the supplier: (i) according to the method which he used on March 31, 1942, or if he had no method at that time, by a method appropriate to the service and resulting in a price proportionate to competitiv prices for simillar services on March 31, 1942, (ii) using labor rates and material prices, not exceeding applicable maximum prices, prevailing on March 31, 1942 in the area

C., pursuant to subparagraph (3) hereof. Such report shall state the type of work in connection with which the services are to be rendered and shall show the proposed charge for each item of equipment broken down on an hourly basis to reflect all the elements of cost and profit comprising the charge, submitted as nearly as possible in the form set forth in the following illustration:

Item	Per operating hour
Operator's wages	$------
Social Security taxes and Insurance	$------
Fuel	$------
Oil	$------
Lubrication	$------
Repairs (other than for normal wear and tear)	$------
Total direct expenses	$------
Indirect expense and markup (attach separate schedule)	$------
Total hourly service charge requested	$------

(3) After filing the report required in subparagraph (2), the supplier may quote, contract, or perform services at the proposed charge, but no payment shall be made or received for such services except in accordance with the final action or acquiescence of the Office of Price Administration in respect to such report. The Office of Price Administration may disapprove the proposed charge in writing within 30 days after receiving such report. Upon such disapproval, the supplier shall, unless he wishes to accept a maximum charge suggested by the Office of Price Administration, recompute the charge in accordance with subparagraph (2) and any suggestion of the Office of Price Administration accompanying the disapproval, and report the same as in the first instance. Any recomputed charge reported by a supplier shall be subject to the same action by the Office of Price Administration as a charge initially reported. Upon disapproval of a proposed charge the supplier shall not quote, contract, perform, or receive payment for, services at a charge in excess of any charge suggested by the Office of Price Administration. Reports hereby required shall contain, in addition to the calculations required by subparagraph (2), a clear description of the nature of the services and the item of equipment to which such calculations apply and evidence substantiating the data submitted. The Office of Price Administration may require such additional explanation or evidence as it considers necessary to dispose of any report. Any established maximum charge may be adjusted, without retroactive effect, by the Office of Price Administration at any time it appears that such charge was computed on inaccurate evidence.

(4) For any operating and maintenance service, to be rendered in connection with a type of work which is not similar to that for which a lessor has established a charge with the Office of Price Administration, the maximum charge shall be a charge which is calculated by the lessor and reported to, and approved, or not disapproved, by the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the provisions of subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, all of which provisions shall apply to, and control, the establishment and use of any such maximum charge as aforesaid.

(5) The Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., may at any time by order, establish specific maximum charges for operating and maintenance services, in line with the general level of charges established under this regulation, applicable to any type of work and to any group of lessors, or all lessors, for (i) a designated geographical area, or (ii) specified construction or road maintenance equipment. Any such specific maximum charges established by the Office of Price Administration shall supersede individual maximum charges established by all lessors affected by the general action.

(c) Maximum charges for repair or rebuilding services. (1) For any repair and rebuilding service for which the supplier has heretofore established, a general maximum charge with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the maximum price for such service shall be the charge which is filed with, and approved, or not disapproved, by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) For any repair or rebuilding service, for which a supplier has not established a general maximum charge with the Office of Price Administration, the maximum price shall be a charge: (i) calculated by the supplier in accordance with the method of calculating such charges which he used on March 31, 1942, and if he had no such method, by a method usual in the industry, appropriate to the service and resulting in a price proportionate to competitive prices for similar services on March 31, 1942, using (ii) labor rates and material prices, not exceeding applicable maximum prices, which were in effect on March 31, 1942, in the area where the supplier is located, and rates for determining overhead and markup which the supplier had in effect on March 31, 1942, and which has been (iii) reported to, and approved, or not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., pursuant to subparagraph (3) hereof.

(3) The provisions of subparagraph (3) of paragraph (b) apply to the report required by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (c).

(4) No person may establish a maximum charge for repairs of equipment only which is to be calculated according to the operating hours of the equipment.

(d) Maximum flat charges for groups of repair and rebuilding services. (1) If any supplier desires, or is required by an agency of the United States, to establish a flat hourly charge for any group of repair and rebuilding services, the maximum charge for each service in such group, shall be a charge: (i) which has been calculated so as to accomplish no increases in the supplier's gross income from the sale of all services in such group and which has been (ii) reported by the supplier to, and approved, or not disapproved by, the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., pursuant to subparagraph (2) hereof.

(2) The report required by subparagraph (1) shall contain a clear description of each of the services for which a flat charge is requested, the proposed flat charge, the charge for each of the services in the group in effect on March 31, 1942, or subsequently established with the Office of Price Administration, data showing that use of the flat rate will not increase the supplier's gross income from the sale of all services to which it will be applied, evidence substantiating such data, and a statement of the proportion of the supplier's total business represented by each service in such group. After filing the report, the supplier may quote, contract, or perform any of the services in the designated groups at the proposed flat charge, but final settlement shall be made only in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration. The Office of Price Administration may disapprove the proposed charge in writing within 30 days after receiving such report. Upon such disapproval the supplier shall, unless he wishes to accept a charge suggested by the Office of Price Administration, recompute the charge as required by subparagraph (1) and any suggestion accompanying the disapproval and report the same as in the first instance. Any recomputed charge reported by a supplier shall be subject to the same action by the Office of Price Administration as a charge initially reported. Upon disapproval of a proposed charge, the supplier shall not quote, contract, or perform, or receive payment for, services at a charge in excess of any charge that may be suggested by the Office of Price Administration. As to any report required hereby, the Office of Price Administration may require such additional explanation or evidence as it finds necessary to dispose of such report. At any time after approving, or failing to disapprove, a flat charge for a group of services, the Office of Price Administration may require the supplier to submit evidence showing that his gross income has not been increased by use of the flat charge and, if the evidence indicates there has been such increase, the Office of Price Administration may require revision of the flat charge.

(e) Adjustment of established service charges. The provisions of § 1390.25a (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as amended—Machines and Parts, and Machinery Services—are hereby incorporated herein as a part of this regulation. Application for an adjustment of a general maximum charge for operating and maintenance, or repair and rebuilding, service shall be filed in accordance with those provisions and such a maximum price may be adjusted in accordance with those provisions.

§ 1399.6 Contracts on a "fully operated" or similar basis. If any construction or road maintenance equipment is leased on a "fully-operated" or similar basis, whereby the consideration to be paid represents payment both for the rental of such equipment and any operating and maintenance service, or services, the consideration paid shall not exceed the aggregate of the maximum rental price provided by this regulation for such equipment and the maximum charge established with, or by, the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for such service, or services, and the lessor shall separately itemize on his invoices his charges for rental and his charges for services. This section shall apply in every instance, irrespective of whether or not lessors used "fully operated" or similar lump sum contracts on March 31, 1942, except where the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., specifically approves in writing a combination charge for rental and services and relieves the lessor of the necessity of stating separately his charges for each.

§ 1399.7 Less than maximum prices. Lower rental prices and lower charges for operating or maintenance services than those set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 134, may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1399.8 Evasion. It shall be a violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 134, to effect a price increase above the applicable maximum rental price or maximum service charge by making a charge for transportation of construction or road maintenance equipment to or from the job on a basis not heretofore customarily used, by hereafter establishing or extending a minimum rental period for any construction or road maintenance equipment, by changing an adjunct or an accessory tool of any construction or road maintenance equipment to obtain a capacity higher than the manufacturer's rated capacity for such equipment, or by way of commission, service, or other charge or requirement, or by way of premium or other privilege, or in any other manner. It shall also be a violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 134 for any lessee of construction or road maintenance equipment to pay to any person, or for any lessor of such equipment to receive, any fees, commissions, or other compensation, whether for broker's services or otherwise, which, when added to the price paid for rental of such equipment or the rendering of operating or maintenance services in connection therewith, would result in a total sum exceeding the maximum price established by this regulation for such rental or services.

(b) Additional or substituted records and reports. Every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 134, shall keep such other records and submit such other reports, including periodic financial statements, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require in writing, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports herein required.

The rental rates set forth in these Tables do include allowance for the cost of all repairs and overhaul required as a result of normal wear and tear of equipment. This means that: (a) When equipment is on bare rental and breaks down as a result of normal wear and tear, lessor cannot charge lessee with the cost of repairs, or any rental for time lost while repairs are being made. (b) Where equipment is on bare rental and breaks down as a result of any cause other than normal wear and tear, lessor can charge lessee with the cost of repairs and with rental for possession of equipment during time while repairs are being made. (c) However, where equipment is on bare rental, the lessee may at his own expense always make minor repairs, regardless of the cause of breakdown, where such repairs are necessary to keep the job going, but he may not charge the cost of such repairs to the lessor or deduct the time lost for making repairs from the rental period without the lessor's consent. (d) In any instance where there is a breakdown of equipment on "bare" rental, the cause of such breakdown is a question of fact that must be determined between the lessor and the lessee. (e) In any instance where there is a breakdown of equipment on "fully operated" rental, the lessor cannot charge the lessee with any rental, or for any "operating and maintenance service", for the time lost during the breakdown, or with the costs of any repairs occasioned thereby.

§ 1399.16 Appendix B: Table of rates for dump trucks and truck and trailer mounted equipment—(a) Dump trucks: fully-operated basis. (1) The maximum rental price for any dump truck rented on a fully-operated basis shall be a price calculated on the basis of hours of actual use of such truck multiplied by an hourly rate which is the sum of (i) the applicable charge per hour, according to the capacity of such truck, set forth in the following Schedule, plus (ii) 135% of the hourly wage for the operator of such truck at the rate prevailing on March 31, 1942, in the area of the job-site where such truck is used. "Rate" or "rates" as used in this paragraph means the sum of the aforesaid items.

SCHEDULE

From and including (cubic yards)	Up to but not including (cubic yards)	Charge per hour (less operator's wages) A	B	C
	3	$1.50	$1.20	$1.35
3	4	1.80	1.45	1.62
4	5	2.25	1.80	2.05
5	6	2.40	1.95	2.17
6	7	2.65	2.15	2.40
7	8	3.25	2.60	2.95
8	10	3.65	2.95	3.30
10	12	4.40	3.55	3.95
12		4.70	3.75	4.20
Over 12 cubic yards, add for each cubic yard		.30	.20	.25
On all 3 axle, 10 tire trucks with drive on two rear axles, add		.40	.40	.40

(2) The capacity of any truck shall be determined by using the water-level capacity of the permanent body, exclusive of the capacity added by sideboards, or other removable extensions or additions. It shall be a violation of this regulation for any lessor to refuse to supply sideboards, on any type of work where he has customarily supplied the same, in order to obtain greater aggregate rental for his trucks.

(3) Column A rates apply where the loading is performed by power loading devices except where the material is processed sand, gravel, crushed stone, or other processed materials in stock piles at a commercial producing plant, at point of construction or at an intermediate point of transfer. A hopper, chute, bunker, or conveyor shall not be deemed to be a power loading device.

Column B rates apply where the loading is performed by hand and where the average mileage of the vehicle does not exceed 8 miles per hour for the period of time the vehicle is in use each day.

Column C rates apply where transportation or loading is performed under conditions other than those described for application of Column A or B rates. Column C rates apply where the loading is by hopper, chute, bunker, or conveyor.

(4) On any job where the lessee finds it impossible or impracticable, because of the shifting of trucks from one type of loading to another, to calculate the rental according to the several services rendered by each truck, the lessee may pay, as a maximum rental price for the job, a price calculated on the basis of any rate, or combination of rates, which do not exceed the applicable rates set forth in Column A above.

(5) Irrespective of the basis of contract, in no event shall any rental paid or received for dump trucks exceed the maximum rental permitted by application of the foregoing hourly rates.

(6) In every instance, the foregoing maximum hourly rates shall apply irrespective of the length of time that a truck is on the job, except that where the lessor is required to pay his truck operator overtime wages on any job because of overtime operation of the truck, there may be added to the maximum rental the dollar amount, determined according to wage rates in effect on March 31, 1942, of so much of the excess of overtime wages over straight time wages as is actually paid the operator because of overtime operation of the truck.

(7) In every instance, rental for any dump truck rented on a fully operated basis shall be calculated, in accordance with this paragraph, as beginning from the time the truck arrives on the job ready for use and as ending when the truck is finally released on the job for return to the lessor, except that where the truck must be moved daily to and from the job, the lessor may charge the lessee an additional hour's rent at the applicable maximum rate for each day that the truck is moved to and from the job.

(8) The Office of Price Administration, or any Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, or any district office duly authorized by a Regional Office, may authorize for a particular job, an increase in the rental provided by the foregoing hourly rates, not exceeding 10% of the applicable maximum, where the lessor, prior to charging the higher rental, has satisfactorily shown that his equipment is to be used on such job more than 25 miles from his yard and that his costs will be materially increased by reason of such use.

(9) The Office of Price Administration may at any time by order authorize maximum rental rates for dump trucks rented on a fully operated basis, other than those provided by this paragraph, applicable to any group of lessors, or all lessors, for (i) a designated geographical area, or (ii) a specified type of work.

(10) The following sections of the regulation, where relevant, shall apply to dump trucks rented on a fully operated basis: §§ 1399.1, 1399.4, 1399.7, 1399.8, 1399.9, 1399.10, 1399.11, and 1399.12.

(b) Dump trucks: bare basis. (1) The maximum rental price for any dump truck rented on a bare basis shall be a price calculated on the basis of a monthly rate equal to the applicable percentage, according to the value of such trucks, as set forth on the Schedule below, of the highest maximum price established by any regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration for the sale to any domestic class of purchasers of the nearest equivalent new dump truck, or the nearest equivalent new truck chassis and the nearest equivalent new extra, special, or optional equipment which may have been added to complete the rented truck: The maximum rate per week shall not exceed ⅓ of the maximum rate per month; the maximum rate per day shall not exceed 1/12 of the maximum rate per month:

SCHEDULE

Maximum price of truck, or chassis and equipment	A	B	C
	Per-cent	Per-cent	Per-cent
Up to and including $4,500.00	9	7	8
Over $4,500.00 to $8,500.00	8	6.5	7
Over $8,500.00	7	5.5	6.3
Half-track dump trucks	9	8	7

(2) Determination of truck capacities and application of the foregoing rates shall be governed by the provisions of paragraphs (a) (1), (2), (3), and (7) of this section.

(3) In every instance, rental for dump trucks leased on a bare basis shall be calculated as beginning at the time trucks are delivered into possession of the lessee, and as terminating at the time when trucks are delivered back into the possession of the lessor.

(4) The following sections of the regulation, where relevant, shall appy to, and govern, the rental of dump trucks rented on a bare basis: §§ 1399.1, 1399.2, 1399.3, 1399.4, 1399.7, 1399.8, 1399.9, 1399.10, 1399.11, and 1399.12.

(5) Maximum charges for partial operating and maintenance services supplied by lessors in connection with the rental of dump trucks, not amounting to a fully operated service, shall be charges established in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 1399.5.

(c) Truck and trailer mounted equipment. (1) The maximum rental price for any combination machine consisting of any construction or road maintenance equipment mounted on automotive trucks or trailers and rented on a bare basis shall be a price calculated on the basis of a monthly rate which shall be equal to the sum of the following: (i) the maximum monthly rental rate for such equipment in accordance with § 1399.15, Appendix A, and (ii) a maximum monthly rental rate for the truck or trailer equal, for trucks to 7% and for trailers to 5½%, of the highest maximum price established by any regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration for the sale, to any domestic class of purchaser, of the nearest equivalent new truck or trailer or the nearest equivalent new truck or trailer chassis and the nearest equivalent new extra special, or optional equipment which may have been added to complete the rented truck or trailer. Maximum weekly rental rates shall not exceed ⅓, and maximum daily rates shall not exceed 1/12, of the foregoing maximum monthly rates.

(2) Maximum charges for operating and maintenance services supplied by lessors in connection with rental of truck or trailer mounted equipment, whether amounting to a fully, or partially, operated service shall be charges established in accordance with the application provisions of § 1399.5.

(3) The following sections of the regulation shall, where relevant, apply to, and govern, the rental of truck or trailer mounted equipment, whether on a bare, or a fully or partially operated, basis: §§ 1399.1 to 1399.12, inclusive.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 1st day of July 1943.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. MPR 271,[1] Amdt. 3]

POTATOES AND ONIONS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 271 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 6 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 6. Purposes. The purposes of this regulation are to establish maximum prices for table stock potatoes, for certified and selected seed potatoes, and for onions, for all sales except sales at retail.

2. Section 8 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) "Country shipper" means any person, including a grower or grower's sales agent, who makes sales from a farm or other country shipping point to any other person.

3. Section 8 (a) (10) is amended to read as follows:

(10) "Country shipping point" means a farm or other place in or near the producing area from which potatoes and onions are sold, shipped, delivered, or otherwise transferred to any person, or at which potatoes and onions are prepared for sale, shipment, delivery, or other transfer to any person. "Prepared" means, but is not limited to, loading, sacking, grading, sizing or harvesting.

4. Section 8 (a) (17) is amended to read as follows:

(17) "Cost of transportation" means:

(i) If shipment is by a common carrier whose maximum rates and charges are regulated by the Interstate Commerce Commission or other Federal or State regulatory body, the amount actually paid to the carrier, in conformance with its lawfully established rates and charges, including charges for precooling, icing and other protective or accessorial services actually performed. Any allowance made by the carrier to a shipper or consignee for performing pre-cooling or other services may, nevertheless, be included in "cost of transportation" and may be retained by the person performing the services for which the allowance is made. The amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be added.

(ii) If shipment is by a carrier for hire other than a common carrier (such as a contract carrier) the amount actually paid to the carrier but not in excess of the maximum charges as determined by the General Maximum Price Regulation, amendments, and supplementary regulations thereto, or such other regulations of the Office of Price Administration as may be applicable to the services of such carrier at the time of movement. The amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be added.

(iii) If shipment is by a carrier other than described in (i) and (ii) above (such as an unregulated common carrier or a private carrier) the amount actually paid to the carrier but not in excess of an amount computed by applying to the actual weight of the shipment the lowest published rail carload rate between the rail stations nearest to the points of origin and destination plus rail charges for protective and accessorial services if equivalent services are performed. If the shipment is less than 20,000 pounds, an additional charge of 2 cents per 100 pounds may be made, provided that the total charge for a shipment of less than 20,000 pounds shall not exceed the charge for a shipment of 20,000 pounds. In applying rail accessorial and protective charges which are stated in amounts per car, the per car charge may be made against a shipment of 20,000 pounds or more moving in a single conveyance, but only the proportion of such per car charge which the weight of the shipment bears to 20,000 pounds, may be made against a shipment of less than 20,000 pounds. When precooling or icing, not included in the carrier rates and charges, is performed by or for account of the shipper, the cost of this service, but not to exceed maximum prices prescribed by Maximum Price Regulation 165, may be added.

(iv) If shipment is by a means owned or controlled by the seller an amount not in excess of the lowest of the rates mentioned in (i), (ii), or (iii) above, available to the seller.

The amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942, may be added, if the shipment is subject to that tax.

5. Section 8 (a) (19) is amended to read as follows:

(19) A "carlot sale" or a "trucklot sale" means a sale of a quantity of potatoes or onions shipped in one car or truck or other conveyance at one time, out of which 75% or more by weight is sold to one person. The sale of the remaining quantity to another person or persons may be considered a less-than-carlot sale or less-than-trucklot sale. The sale of that proportion of potatoes or onions moving in a mixed carload or mixed truckload with another commodity or commodities must be on the basis of a "carlot sale" or "trucklot sale" if the entire carload or truckload or 75% thereof by weight is sold to one person.

6. Section 9 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) For sales of potatoes and onions by country shippers on a delivered basis in the terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, the maximum price per cwt. (in the case of potatoes) and per 50 pounds (in the case of onions) shall be the maximum price f. o. b. country shipping point, plus the cost of transportation (as defined in section 8 (a) (17), from the country shipping point to the terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, plus

6 cents per cwt. for potatoes.
4 cents per 50 pounds for onions.

7. Section 9 (h) is added to read as follows:

(h) Every country shipper making a sale to any person shall either furnish an invoice or other document of sale, or shall attach a tag or label to each sack or bag of potatoes or onions, on which shall be stated the state in which the potatoes or onions were grown, and the month and year of the sale.

8. Section 9 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) If any person makes sales at terminal auction, the maximum price for such sales shall be the maximum price computed under section 9 (a) and 9 (b) (1) and (2) plus a commission to the seller not exceeding 15 cents per cwt. for potatoes, or 10 cents per 50 pounds for onions. All expenses of the sale, including charges of the auction market, shall be paid out of the commission, and the amount of the commission shall not be added to the intermediate seller's base price.

9. Section 10 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 10. Maximum prices for carlot or trucklot distributors. If any person other than a country shipper (a) purchases potatoes or onions in carlots and resells such potatoes or onions in carlots in a terminal market or other wholesale receiving point or (b) purchases potatoes or onions in trucklots and resells such potatoes or onions in trucklots (without breaking the original trucklot) at a terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, the maximum price per cwt. (in the case of potatoes) and per 50 pounds (in the case of onions) shall be the maximum price f. o. b. country shipping point plus the cost of transportation (as defined in section 8 (a) (17)) from the country shipping point to the terminal market or other wholesale receiving point plus

14 cents per cwt. for potatoes.
8 cents per 50 pounds for onions.

10. The text of section 11 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Maximum prices for intermediate sellers—(a) Base prices for intermediate sellers. A seller's "base price" shall be the maximum price f. o. b. country shipping point per cwt. (in the case of potatoes) and per 50 pounds (in the case of onions) plus the cost of transportation (as defined in section 8 (a) (17)) from the country shipping point to the terminal market or other wholesale receiving point, plus (but only if applicable and actually paid):

11. Section 11 (c) (7) is amended to read as follows:

(7) The maximum dollar-and-cents markups provided herein for intermediate sellers include all items of cost involved in making local deliveries within a metropolitan area or city limits. Any intermediate seller delivering potatoes or onions to institutions or retail stores outside his free delivery zone may charge different delivered prices in such other areas or zones in which deliveries are made as follows: (i) He first determines his delivered prices for each of these areas or zones by adding to the prices established by this regulation an amount not exceeding the average cost of delivery to the institution or retailers in the area or zone. (ii) In determining the average cost of delivery to the retailers in the area or zone no rate shall be used which is in excess of the lowest common or contract carrier rate for available transportation. (iii) If such a delivery charge is made, the amount of this delivery charge shall be included as part of the maximum price established by this regulation. Before using such a zone differential, the intermediate seller shall report it in writing to the nearest regional, state or district office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the seller. If a particular class of intermediate sellers have normally operated on the basis of markups which are lower than the markups provided by this regulation, the regional office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the seller or the sellers or such District Office as may be authorized by the appropriate Regional Office shall reduce the maximum prices for such intermediate sellers. However, in no case shall the maximum prices provided by this regulation be increased.

12. Section 13 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 13 Prohibition against joint accounts and/or sharing of margins. All joint account arrangements between persons covered by this regulation are hereby prohibited.

Except as provided in sections 9 (c) and 9 (g), no grower or country shipper may share in or receive any part of any brokerage, commission or other markup permitted, established or allowed by this regulation.

13. In Table 1 of section 24 the prices $2.45 for Minnesota red skinned potatoes for May 1943 and June 1943 are amended to read $2.35.

14. Table III, section 24 is amended as follows:

FLUORSPAR

Maximum Price Regulation No. 126, as amended,[1] is redesignated Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 and is revised and amended to read as set forth herein.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper in so far as practicable to establish a uniform system of determining maximum prices for the commercial grades of fluorspar. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

§ 1376.1 Maximum prices for fluorspar. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 (Fluorspar), which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

SECTION 1. Prohibition against selling fluorspar at prices above maximum prices. On and after July 1, 1943, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any fluorspar and no person shall buy or receive any fluorspar in the course of trade or business from any seller at a price in excess of the maximum prices established by this regulation; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

SEC. 2. Exemption of fluorspar ores and toll agreements—(a) Fluorspar ores. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 and of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply to the sale or delivery of any crude fluorspar ores.

(b) Toll agreements. The provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 and of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not apply to any agreement or contract which provides for the milling, grinding, or other processing of fluorspar ore.

SEC. 3. Maximum prices for metallurgical grade fluorspar—(a) Prior to August 30, 1943. (1) Prior to August 30, 1943, the maximum price f. o. b. a consumer's plant on any shipment of metallurgical grade fluorspar shall be the price for the effective CaF_2 content as listed in the following table, plus either (i) railroad freight on such shipment from the producer's shipping point to the consumer's plant, or (ii) railroad freight on such shipment from Rosiclare, Illinois, to the consumer's plant, whichever is lower:

Effective CaF_2 content:	Base price per short ton
70% or more	$33.00
65% but less than 70%	32.00
60% but less than 65%	31.00
Less than 60%	30.00

(2) The maximum price f. o. b. a producer's railroad or waterway shipping point shall be his maximum delivered price as determined under subparagraph (1) less freight from such shipping point to the consumer's plant.

(3) The effective CaF_2 content shall be determined by deducting $2\frac{1}{2}$ times the SiO_2 content from the CaF_2 content. (Example: The effective CaF_2 content of fluorspar with the specifications of 85% CaF_2 and 5% SiO_2 is determined as follows: $85 - 2\frac{1}{2} \times 5 = 72\frac{1}{2}$).

(4) Examples: The maximum price per ton f. o. b. shipping point at Marion, Kentucky, on a carload sale of metallurgical grade fluorspar with an 84% CaF_2 and 5% SiO_2 content to a consumer at Pittsburgh would be $33.00. This price is obtained by first calculating the effective CaF_2 content which is $84 - 2\frac{1}{2} \times 5$, or $71\frac{1}{2}$%, for which the above table establishes a maximum base price of $33.00. Next, to this should be added the lower of the railroad freights from Marion to Pittsburgh and from Rosiclare to Pittsburgh respectively. Since these are both $5.78, the delivered price is $33.00 plus $5.78, or $38.78. To obtain the f. o. b. shipping point price, the freight of $5.78 from Marion to Pittsburgh is deducted from the delivered price of $38.78 which results in a maximum f. o. b. shipping point price of $33.00.

If this shipment were made from Salida, Colorado, to Pittsburgh, the maximum delivered price would be $38.78, since the freight of $5.78 from Rosiclare to Pittsburgh is less than the freight of $11.22 from Salida to Pittsburgh. The maximum price f. o. b. the seller's shipping point would be $27.56, that is, $38.78 minus $11.22.

Similarly, if the shipment were made from Salida to Longview, Washington, the maximum delivered price would be $43.60, representing $33.00 plus freight of $10.60 from Salida to Longview, which is less than the freight of $18.80 from Rosiclare to Longview. The maximum price f. o. b. the seller's shipping point would be $33.00, that is, $43.60 minus $10.60.

For simplification, the 3% transportation tax has been disregarded in setting forth the above examples. In practice, however, it must be considered as an addition to the freight rate in each instance.

(b) On and after August 30, 1943. (1) On and after August 30, 1943 the maximum price f. o. b. a consumer's plant on any shipment of metallurgical grade fluorspar shall be $30.00 per short ton, plus either (i) railroad freight on such shipment from the producer's shipping point to the consumer's plant, or (ii) railroad freight on such shipment from Rosiclare, Illinois, to the consumer's plant, whichever is lower: Provided, however, That on a sale or delivery with respect to which the Steel Division of the War Production Board has certified in writing to the producer that one of the higher grades of metallurgical fluorspar specified in the table set forth in subparagraph (a) (1) above is required by the purchaser, the maximum price shall be computed by using, in place of $30.00, the applicable base price set forth in said table for the respective grade of fluorspar so certified.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for acid and ceramic grades of fluorspar. (a) The maximum price f. o. b. a consumer's plant for any shipment of acid or ceramic grade fluorspar shall be $37.00 per ton, plus either (1) railroad freight on such shipment from the seller's shipping point to the consumer's plant or (2) railroad freight on such shipment from Rosiclare, Illinois, to the consumer's plant, whichever is lower: Provided, That on all sales or deliveries made by the Metals Reserve Company of acid grade fluorspar and on all sales or deliveries of acid grade fluorspar to a buyer who has customarily bought on a premium and penalty basis, the maximum price for any sale or delivery shall be computed by taking as the base price the maximum price established in this section for a base analysis of 97.5% CaF_2 and 1.5% SiO_2 and applying thereto in the case of sales or deliveries to a buyer who has customarily bought on a premium and penalty basis the premiums and penalties customarily applied by such buyer, and in the case of sales or deliveries by the Metals Reserve Company the following premiums and penalties:

PREMIUMS

CaF_2 above 97.5%—3% of the delivered price, established in this paragraph, for each 1%.

SiO_2 below 1.5%—10% of the delivered price, established in this paragraph, for each 1%.

PENALTIES

CaF_2 below 97.5%—3% of the delivered price, established in this paragraph, for each 1%.

SiO_2 above 1.5%—10% of the delivered price, established in this paragraph, for each 1%.

Fractions of percentages may be calculated proportionately.

Each seller, except the Metals Reserve Company, shall file with the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., all such premiums and penalties to which he is subject on or before August 1, 1943, unless such seller has already filed such information with that Office, and thereafter within 10 days after he becomes subject to any new or different premiums or penalties. Any seller who first becomes subject to any premiums or penalties after the effective date of this regulation shall file such premiums and penalties with the Non-Ferrous Metals Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 30 days after the first sale or delivery of fluorspar subject to such premiums and penalties.

(b) The maximum price f. o. b. a producer's railroad or waterway shipping point for acid or ceramic grade fluorspar shall be his maximum delivered price as determined under paragraph (a) of this section, less freight from such shipping point to the consumer's plant.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales of lead-free fluorspar to the International Nickel Company, Inc. Any person may sell or deliver to the International Nickel Company, Inc., Huntington, West Virginia, and the International Nickel Company, Inc., may buy and receive from any person, lead-free fluorspar at a price not in excess of $3.75 per ton above the maximum prices established by this Regulation for the applicable grade.

SEC. 6. Packing charges and less-than-carload handling charges. Each seller may add to the maximum prices established in this Regulation his customary charges for fluorspar when packed in bags, or otherwise specially packaged, or when shipped in less-than-carload lots.

SEC. 7. Discount and credit provisions. In determining a maximum price, as provided in this Regulation, "maximum price" shall mean "net price", i. e. subject to all discounts for cash payments and other credit provisions applicable on January 2, 1942.

SEC. 8. Imports. The maximum prices established by this Regulation shall apply to all import purchases and subsequent sales or deliveries of fluorspar imported into the forty-eight states of the United States or the District of Columbia.

SEC. 9. Export sales. Export sales of fluorspar shall be subject to the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration and any additions thereto and revisions thereof.

SEC. 10. Idle or frozen materials. The maximum price at which any person may sell or deliver idle or frozen fluorspar shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 204[3] on Idle or Frozen Materials Sold Under Priorities Regulation No. 13.

SEC. 11. Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

SEC. 12. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution of production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 13. Prohibited evasive practices. The price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to fluorspar, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

SEC. 14. Records and reports. (a) Every person making sales or deliveries of fluorspar, and every person making purchases or accepting delivery of fluorspar in the course of trade or business, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long a period as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, purchase, or delivery showing the date thereof, the name of the purchaser or seller, the quantity and grade of fluorspar sold, purchased, or delivered, and the price received or paid therefor.

(b) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration, and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraph (a) of this section, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

SEC. 15. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 16. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Applications for adjustment. Whenever it appears that a producer of metallurgical or acid grade fluorspar is unable to maintain or to expand his production at his maximum price or prices, the Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[4] or on its own motion, adjust his maximum price by an amount necessary to permit the maintenance or expansion of such production upon a reasonable operating margin. In determining such margin, consideration will be given to such factors as:

(1) Revenue from sales of metallurgical or acid grades of fluorspar and from all other sources, and

(2) Mining, development, milling, and transportation costs, administrative and sales expenses, depreciation and depletion charges, taxes (excluding Federal and State income taxes), and capital investment.

Before filing an application for adjustment, it is suggested that each applicant obtain from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement of the specific information that will be necessary in order that his application may receive prompt action.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking amendment of any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126 may file a petition for an amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 17. Agreements with Office of Price Administration. This Revised Maximum Price, Regulation No. 126 supersedes any agreements previously made and any orders or regulations previously issued by the Office of Price Administration with regard to fluorspar prices.

SEC. 18. Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 126, the term:

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—Coast Guard: Inspection and Navigation

VESSELS ENGAGED IN BUSINESS CONNECTED WITH THE CONDUCT OF THE WAR

WAIVER OF NAVIGATION AND VESSEL INSPECTION LAWS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the order of the Acting Secretary of the Navy, dated October 1, 1942, 7 F.R. 7979, and to simplify the procedure for making effective the waiver of compliance with the navigation and vessels inspection laws made by such order of the Acting Secretary and thus avoid delays in the departure of vessels engaged in business connected with the conduct of the war, bring about a proper balance between military urgency and safety at sea, make the penalties provided by law inoperative with respect to certain vessels which unavoidably sail without having fully complied with such laws, or which for military reasons may be navigated not in compliance therewith, and otherwise further the conduct of the war, I find, in the case of vessels engaged in business connected with the conduct of the war, that the waiver of compliance with the navigation and vessel inspection laws administered by the Coast Guard is necessary in the conduct of the war, to the extent and in the manner and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the succeeding numbered paragraphs:

1. An application requesting that the waiver made by the Acting Secretary of the Navy, dated October 1, 1942, 7 F.R. 7979, be made effective with respect to a particular vessel engaged in business connected with the conduct of the war, may be made by any authorized representative of an agency of the United States Government or any other interested person (including the master, agent, or owner of the vessel involved). Except as provided in paragraph 3, the application shall be in writing. The application shall be delivered to the District Coast Guard Officer or his designated representative at the port where the vessel is located (or, in the case of vessels in foreign ports at which the Coast Guard has established facilities, to the designated representative of the Commandant). Every application shall contain a statement of the particular provisions of law with respect to which waiver of compliance is requested, a certification that the waiver of compliance with such laws with respect to the vessel involved is necessary in the conduct of the war, and an outline of the facts upon which such certification is based. The District Coast Guard Officer (or his designated representative, or the designated representative of the Commandant, as the case may be) shall promptly examine every application for the purpose of determining whether the necessity for prompt action is such as to require that the waiver be made effective by him without reference to Headquarters. In any case in which it appears to the Coast Guard officer concerned that reference of the application to Headquarters for action would not delay the sailing of the vessel or otherwise impede the war effort, the application shall be so referred. In all other cases such Coast Guard officer shall give immediate consideration to the application and if he reaches the conclusion that military urgency outweighs the marine hazard involved, then such waiver shall be effective in regard to such vessel to the extent and under the circumstances specified by him.

2. The Coast Guard officer making such waiver effective pursuant to paragraph 1 shall immediately prepare, in triplicate, an order setting forth the name of the vessel involved, the laws with respect to which the waiver is effective, the extent to which compliance with such laws is waived, and the period for which the waiver shall be effective. If practicable, one copy of this order shall be delivered to the master of the vessel involved before such vessel sails. In cases where the order is not delivered to the master, it shall be delivered to the owner, operator, or agent of the vessel without delay. One copy of the order shall be transmitted to Headquarters and the remaining copy kept on file.

3. In cases of extreme urgency the application for waiver may be made orally, and if the District Coast Guard Officer or such representative reaches the conclusion referred to in paragraph 1, the waiver shall be effective without further delay, subject to a condition subsequent that the application be reduced to writing and delivered within such period after the date of the oral request as the Coast Guard officer making the waiver effective shall specify in the order.

No penalty shall be imposed because of failure to comply with any provision of law the waiver of which has been made effective pursuant hereto.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to supersede the Conditional Waiver of Manning Requirements contained in 8 F.R. 4736.

R. R. WAESCHE,
Vice Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard, Commandant.

(b) A Day Letter shall be charged for as a Day Letter or a Day Message, according to which of these classifications shall produce the lower charge for the particular message;

(c) A Day Letter Longram shall be charged for as a Day Letter Longram or as a Day Message, according to which of these classifications shall produce the lower charge for the particular message;

(d) An overnight message shall be charged for as a Night Message or a Night Letter, according to which of these two classifications shall produce the lower charge for the particular message;

(e) When the first section of a Serial message is not followed by another on the same day, it shall be charged for as a Day Message; when more than one section is filed on the same day, the sections shall be charged for at the Serial rates or such section shall be charged for as a Day Message, according to which of these classifications shall produce the lower total charge;

(f) When the first section of a serial Longram is not followed by another on the same day, it shall be charged for as a Day Letter Longram or as a Day Message, according to which of these two classifications shall produce the lower charge for the particular message; when more than one section of a serial Longram is filed on the same day, the sections shall be charged for at serial Longram rates or at Serial rates, or each section of the serial Longram shall be charged for as a Day Letter/Longram or as a Day Message, according to which of these four classifications shall produce the lowest total charge; and

(g) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply only to Government messages filed as Day Messages, Day Letters, Day Letter Longrams, Night Messages, Night Letters, Serial messages, and serial Longrams.

2. That the rates and charges for telegraph communication between the several departments of the Government and their officers, relating exclusively to the public business between points in the United States and points in possessions of the United States, between points in different possessions, and between points in the United States including such possessions and points in foreign countries and ships at sea, transmitted by any carrier or carriers subject to the Post Roads Act, or subject to the terms of a permit or license granted by the President of the United States giving the Postmaster General authority to fix rates for Government communications by telegraph (such a carrier being hereinafter called a domestic carrier) shall, between all points embraced within the scope of such Act, permit or license, not exceed fifty (50) per centum of the full ordinary charges applicable to commercial communications of the same length and between the same points, except that charges for Government code messages shall not exceed fifty (50) per centum of the charges for like commercial code messages, subject to the following:

(a) In cases where Government messages are transmitted between any of such points in part over the facilities of any domestic carrier and in part over the facilities of any other carrier, or administration, (hereinafter called a foreign carrier), the charges for Government communications shall not exceed the following:

(1) For Government communications between points in the United States and Mexico or Canada, the amounts derived by applying the percentages stated in the first ordering paragraph herein, to the prevailing commercial charges between the points of origin or destination in the United States and the border, plus the prevailing charges applicable to United States Government messages between points of origin or destination in Mexico or Canada and the border; and

(2) For Government communications between all other points, the amounts derived by applying the percentages specified in this paragraph, to the full portion of the commercial charges accruing to the domestic carriers, plus the charges actually made for United States Government communications by foreign carriers;

3. That if any new service shall be established, a supplementary order may be issued fixing the Government charge for such service.

4. That in no case shall the charge for a Government message exceed the charge for a corresponding commercial message.

8. That in every case where any schedule containing charges applicable to commercial messages shall be changed, or the charges made by any foreign carrier shall be changed, the schedule containing the charges applicable to Government messages shall be correspondingly changed, effective on the same date.

9. That nothing herein contained shall apply to charges fixed by agreement between any department of the United States Government and the companies performing the service if such agreement be authorized in any statute of the United States.

10. That nothing herein contained shall be construed to give Government messages priority over radio communications or signals which are given a higher priority under section 321 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; or under Article 26 of the General Radio Regulations (Cairo Revision, 1938) Annexed to the International Telecommunications Convention (Madrid, 1932); nor shall anything contained herein be construed to give Government messages priority over messages given a higher priority under any order of the Board of War Communications.

FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY.

Food and Drug Administration.

STATEMENT OF POLICY WITH RESPECT TO THE ADDITION OF NUTRITIVE INGREDIENTS TO FOODS

The labeling or advertising of a food as enriched with vitamins and minerals is an implied promise to consumers that it contains, in addition to the normal constituents of the unenriched food, sufficient vitamins and minerals to make a substantial contribution to the nutritional welfare of persons eating the enriched food in customary amounts. In order to promote honesty and fair dealing by fulfilling this implied promise, it is necessary that the kinds and quantities of enriching ingredients be determined in the light of deficiencies of the various nutritional factors in the diets of the population in general and of significant population groups, the place occupied by the food in such diets, and the suitability and effectiveness of the food as a carrier of the enriching ingredients without undue separation or loss before consumption.

Honesty and fair dealing will best be promoted if such enriched foods as are made available to consumers serve to correct such deficiencies and furnish a reasonable margin of safety. Enrichment above the levels required to accomplish this end is wasteful and contrary to the interest of most consumers; nutrient factors in concentrated form are available for use in those special cases of deficiencies in the diets of persons who do not constitute significant population groups. Enrichment of foods with nutrients that are supplied in adequate quantities by the diets of all significant population groups is not only wasteful but tends to confuse consumers as to their nutritional needs.

Knowledge of the roles in human nutrition of various components of food, particularly the vitamins, is incomplete. There is reason to believe that as new information is developed food factors not now recognized as essential may be shown to be necessary to adequate nutrition.

Most natural foods contain a wide variety of needed factors in significant amounts. It is highly probable that a diet of unenriched foods so chosen as to contain the required quantities of the presently known needed vitamins and other factors would more nearly supply all needed factors, known and unknown, than a diet which is raised by enrichment to adequacy in the vitamins and minerals now known to be needed.

Even though adequate nutrition could be better assured through the choice of natural foods than through reliance on enrichment, unenriched foods of the kinds and in the quantities necessary for adequate nutrition are not now available to substantial parts of the population and are not likely to be available soon; nor are most consumers sufficiently educated on nutritional questions to enable them to make an intelligent choice of combinations of unenriched foods on the basis of nutritional values.

Because of the lack of adequate production of a number of foods high in certain nutrients and the lack of consumer knowledge of nutrition, appropriate enrichment of a few foods widely consumed by the population in general or by significant population groups will contribute substantially to the nutritional welfare of consumers and to meeting their expectations of benefit. Enrichment of those foods which are not a substantial part of the dietary of any significant group tends to confuse and mislead consumers through giving rise to conflicting claims of nutritional values and by creating an exaggerated impression of the benefits to be derived from the consumption of such foods.

If the customary process of manufacturing a staple food refines it so as to remove significant quantities of nutritive factors present in the natural product from which the food is made, and if the refined food is a suitable and efficient carrier of the factors so removed, some nutritionists advocate the restoration of such factors to the levels of the natural product as the most desirable basis of enrichment. To the extent that restoration serves to correct deficiencies of such factors, it is consistent with the promotion of honesty and fair dealing that refined foods be enriched on a restoration basis. However, when the evidence shows that the restoration levels are too low to correct deficiencies, or that deficiencies exist in other factors for which the refined food is an efficient carrier, the promotion of honesty and fair dealing may require the inclusion of corrective quantities of nutritive factors in the enriched food even though such factors are present in smaller quantities or wholly lacking in the natural product from which the food is made. Similar considerations may require the enrichment of unrefined foods.

Pursuant to this request, a hearing was held at Houston, Texas, on May 12, 1943, before a duly authorized presiding officer. The respondent appeared at the hearing and was represented by counsel. Data and information pertaining to the violation alleged in the Statement of Charges were presented on behalf of the interested parties. The War Food Administrator, acting under authority conferred upon him by Executive Order No. 9322 (8 F.R. 3807), as amended by Executive Order No. 9334 (8 F.R. 5423), and having considered all of the data and information, including the answer filed by the respondent, pertaining to the alleged violation by the respondent of the provisions of said food distribution order, hereby determines, That:

(a) Respondent, an individual, is a local slaughterer within the meaning of that term as it is defined in said food distribution order, doing business as a local slaughterer under the trade name of Houston Cattle Company, at Missouri City, Texas.

(b) Pursuant to the provisions of said food distribution order, the Fort Bend County War Board, Richmond, Texas, issued to the respondent a permit authorizing the slaughter of livestock for the delivery of meat, in accordance with the provisions of the said order. Under respondent's quota for April 1943, he was authorized to slaughter a sufficient number of cattle to obtain for delivery not more than 44,000 pounds of beef.

(c) Respondent has violated said food distribution order in that during the period from April 1 to April 30, 1943, more particularly between April 1 and April 15, 1943, inclusive, respondent slaughtered cattle and obtained therefrom and delivered approximately 183,879 pounds of beef, which was approximately 139,879 pounds in excess of the amount of his beef quota for the aforesaid quota period.

Because of the great scarcity of livestock for the fulfillment of the meat requirements of the United States for defense, for private account, and for export, and the importance of having meat distributed in a manner to assure an adequate supply and efficient distribution of meat for war and civilian needs, the aforesaid violation by the respondent has impeded the war effort and has, therefore, been contrary to public interest. It also appears to the War Food Administrator that further violations by the respondent are likely unless appropriate action is taken: It is therefore ordered, That:

§ 1590.1 Suspension order against Roland Mason, an individual doing business as Houston Cattle Company. (a) The respondent, his agents, successors, or assigns shall not, in any manner, directly or indirectly, (1) slaughter livestock, or cause livestock to be slaughtered, for delivery of meat; or (2) receive or accept delivery of meat for the purpose of resale or redelivery thereof to others.

(b) No person shall, in any manner, directly or indirectly, (1) transfer to the respondent, his agents, successors, or assigns any livestock for the purpose of having said livestock slaughtered by the respondent, his agents, successors, or assigns for the delivery of meat; or (2) transfer or deliver to the respondent, his agents, successors, or assigns any meat for the purpose of sale or disposition by or through the respondent, his agents, successors, or assigns.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the respondent, his agents, successors, or assigns from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any order or regulation of the War Food Administrator, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) Any terms used in this order that are defined in Food Distribution Order 27 (8 F.R. 2785), issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on March 5, 1943, as amended, shall have the meaning therein given to them, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof.

(e) This order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., c. w. t., July 15, 1943, and, unless sooner terminated, shall expire 12:01 a. m., c. w. t., Sept. 13, 1943.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

MARVIN JONES,
War Food Administrator.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

FARM SUPPLIES

§ 944.40 Priorities Regulation No. 19—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation tells how a farmer gets a priority to buy farm supplies from a dealer and how a dealer gets a priority to maintain his stock of farm supplies. The kinds of farm supplies which are covered by this regulation are only those listed in paragraph (j) of this regulation.

(b) How a farmer gets farm supplies from his dealer. Whenever a farmer orders farm supplies on the list from a dealer who has them in stock, the dealer must fill the order if the farmer gives him a signed certificate as follows:

I certify to the War Production Board that I am a farmer and that the supplies covered by this order are needed now and will be used for the operation of a farm.

The dealer may sell the supplies to the farmer without a certificate, but the dealer must get a certificate at the time he sells if he wants to use it to get a priority for replacing the supplies in his inventory, as explained in paragraph (d) below.

(c) Farmers' certificates must be approved by rationing committees in the case of large purchases. If a farmer wants to use a certificate to buy more than $25 worth at one time of any item on the list, he must first get his certificate approved in writing by the County Farm Rationing Committee.

(d) How the dealer gets his stock of farm supplies. (1) A dealer can use the farmers' certificates which he has received to get priority on his own orders for listed farm supplies. For each dollar's worth of supplies sold against certificates at retail prices, the dealer can get a priority on 75 cents' worth of replacement supplies ordered by him at wholesale prices. He does not have to use the certificates to get the same kind of supplies as those he has sold, but can use them to get any kind of farm supplies on the list, except the special items mentioned in paragraph (e) below.

(2) To get the priority, the dealer signs the following statement on the purchase order which he places with his supplier:

I certify, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that the dollar amount of this order is not more than 75% of the sales price of farm supplies which I have sold under Priorities Regulation No. 19 against farmers' certificates now in my possession, and that I have not used the same certificates as the basis for getting a priority on any other order.

(3) In the special case of a dealer, such as a farmers' cooperative, all of whose sales of listed farm supplies are made at cost or at a mark-up not exceeding 3% of cost, the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) apply except that such a dealer can get priority on replacement supplies on a dollar-for-dollar basis using the following certificate in place of that provided in paragraph (d) (2):

I certify, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that the dollar amount of this order is not more than the sales price of farm supplies which I have sold at cost or within 3% of cost under Priorities Regulation No. 19 against farmers' certificates now in my possession and that I have not used the same certificates as the basis for getting a priority on any other order.

NOTE: Following paragraphs (4), (5), (6) redesignated June 30, 1943.

(4) Each dealer must keep for at least two years all farmers' certificates which he receives, and whenever he uses a certificate as a basis for a priority he must mark the certificate to show which of his own orders he has used it for.

(5) Up to July 17, 1943, a dealer who expects to receive farmers' certificates but has not yet received enough of them to place an order with his supplier, may get priority on farm supplies on the list in an amount which will bring his inventory up to a normal one month's supply by signing the following written statement on his purchase order to his supplier:

I certify, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that I expect to sell the goods covered by this order as farm supplies under Priorities Regulation No. 19. The receipt of these goods, together with others on hand or on order, will not give me more than a one month's supply.

(6) Orders placed by dealers bearing one of the above certifications are rated AA-5, and the suppliers with whom they are placed must fill them accordingly.

(e) Dealers use different methods in getting certain items. (1) A dealer cannot use farmers' certificates as a basis for getting the following steel mill or wire mill products: bale ties, cable, corrugated roofing, fencing, nails, netting, pipe, poultry flooring, staples and wire; and he cannot use certificates received for these items as a basis for getting any other farm supplies on the list. He will get his supply of these items under other War Production Board regulations or orders, which his supplier should explain to him. Since a certificate for one of these items cannot be used by the dealer to replace his stock, he should not ask the farmer to sign a certificate for them unless he is not willing to sell because he thinks the farmer's order calls for too large a part of his stock. In that case, he can refuse to sell unless the farmer gives him a certificate and, if the sale covers more than $25 worth of one of these items, the farmer must get the certificate approved as explained in paragraph (c) above.

(2) The War Production Board may issue orders or regulations making priorities inapplicable to certain items. If any items on the list become subject to these special rules, the dealer's supplier cannot recognize the dealer's certificate as giving him a priority on them. Farmers' certificates can still be used to buy such items from the dealer and the dealer can use the certificates as a basis for a priority for buying other items on the list under paragraph (d) above.

(f) Penalty for violations. Any person who makes a false statement in a certificate to get a priority on farm supplies is guilty of a crime and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment.

(g) What is meant by "farmer". As used in this regulation, "farmer" means a person who engages in farming as a business, by raising crops, livestock, bees or poultry. It also includes a custom operator who uses farm supplies in performing services for farmers. It does not include a person who just has a "victory garden" or raises food or other agricultural products entirely for his own use.

(h) What is meant by "dealer". "Dealer" means any person engaged in the business of selling farm supplies directly to farmers, including a mail order house.

(i) Effective date. This regulation becomes effective June 7, 1943. It does not apply to purchases and sales made before that date.

(j) What farm supplies are covered. This regulation covers only the following farm supplies and does not include second hand items:

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT AND ATTACHMENTS AND REPAIR PARTS THEREFOR

[Supplement 2 as Amended July 3, 1943 to General Preference Order M-330]

The following supplemental order is issued pursuant to paragraph (c) of General Preference Order M-330.

§ 1029.32 (a) Distributors to maintain temporary farm supplies reserves. (1) As to each item on the attached List A, each distributor who regularly supplies farm distribution outlets must segregate as a farm supplies reserve the percentage of his inventory of that item which is indicated after it on the list. The percentage is to be calculated against the physical quantity of the item in inventory as of June 22, 1943, or, if that is not practicable, the latest date before then for which inventory figures are available. The reserve must be segregated either physically or by book record.

(2) Every such distributor must segregate in the same proportion all supplies received after June 22, 1943.

(b) Restrictions on sale from reserve. After June 22, 1943, and before September 1, 1943, no distributor shall make any delivery from the reserve referred to in paragraph (a) above except to farm distribution outlets or to fill orders rated AAA. Orders for listed farm supplies in excess of this reserve shall be treated in accord with War Production Board regulations.

(c) Equitable distribution from reserve. If a distributor's orders from farm distribution outlets for any item on List A call for deliveries in excess of the reserve provided for, he may prorate deliveries under such orders up to the amount of his reserve on the basis of normal shipments regardless of preference ratings (other than AAA).

NOTE: Following paragraph (d) redesignated July 3, 1943.

(d) Appeals. If any distributor is of the opinion that he will not be able to sell his total reserve to farm distribution outlets within a reasonable time he may appeal for a modification of the requirements of this supplemental order. The appeal should be filed as provided in paragraph (i) of order M–330.

Issued this 3d day of July 1943.

[Preference Rating Order P-144 as Amended June 30, 1943 [1]]

§ 3240.1 Preference Rating Order P-144. For the construction of farmstead wiring on approved farms, a preference rating of AA-3 is hereby assigned to deliveries of farmstead wiring material to builders upon the following terms:

(a) Definitions. (1) "Farmstead wiring material" means electrical wiring, including not more than 75 pounds of non-ferrous metal in conductor as well as necessary fixtures and accessories, required to carry electrical energy from the terminal of the utility's facilities to the point or points of use on an approved farm, not including wiring which would be exclusively used to furnish electricity for household lighting.

(2) "Approved farm" means a farm to which a utility has been authorized to furnish electric service under the terms of Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-c, as amended.

(3) "Builder" means the person named as eligible for electric service in the USDA County War Board's certification under Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-c, as amended.

(b) Application and extension of preference ratings. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of Priorities Regulation 3, as amended, the ratings assigned by this order shall be applied by a builder only by his endorsing on, or attaching to, each contract or purchase order placed by him a certification in substantially the following form:

The undersigned purchaser hereby represents to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is entitled to apply the preference rating of AA-3 to the items shown on this purchase order. In addition, the undersigned certifies that he is the person named as eligible for electric service in the USDA County War Board's certification under Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-c, a copy of which certification is attached to this contract or purchase order for farmstead wiring material.

---------- ----------

(Date)

(2) No supplier may sell farmstead wiring to a builder, notwithstanding a certification as above, if he knows or has reason to believe that such certification is false. In the absence of such knowledge or belief, however, a supplier may rely on such certification.

(3) The ratings assigned by this order may be extended to the extent permitted by Priorities Regulation 3.

(c) Records. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (c) (2) hereof, each supplier shall forward to the U. S. D. A. County War Board which certified the purchaser's eligibility, a copy, endorsed by such supplier, of each purchase order or contract to which the rating assigned hereby has been applied or extended. The U. S. D. A. County War Board shall retain such copy for a period of two years for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board. This requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(2) No supplier is required to forward such copy in the case of sales made to other suppliers.

(d) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. Issued this 5th day of July 1943.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1

Paragraph (a) (3) of the order (§ 962.5) provides that its prohibitions shall not apply to fully fabricated articles. For the purposes of this order, formed molding is considered to be a fully fabricated article. (Issued September 9, 1942.)

INTERPRETATION 2

Paragraph (a) of Supplementary Order M-21-d (§ 962.5) places certain restrictions on the use and delivery of corrosion and heat resistant chrome steel except where specific authorization or direction has been given by the War Production Board. For the purposes of this order, the approval of an order for melting or delivery on form PD-391 constitutes specific authorization or direction by the War Production Board. Therefore, an order for such steel rated lower than AA-5 can be melted, processed and shipped, if approved on form PD-391, and the purchaser can use such steel in his own operations or processes or complete fabrication of articles from such steel and ship to his customer. (Issued Dec. 11, 1942.)

Paragraph (a) of Supplementary Order M-21-d (§ 962.5) places certain restrictions on the use and delivery of corrosion and heat resistant chrome steel except where specific authorization or direction has been given by the War Production Board. For the purposes of this order, the approval of an order for melting or delivery on forms PD-391 or PD-707 constitutes specific authorization or direction by the War Production Board. Therefore, an order for such steel rated lower than AA-5 can be melted, processed and shipped, if approved on forms PD-391 or PD-707, and the purchaser can use such steel in his own operations or processes or complete fabrication of articles from such steel and ship to his customer. (Issued Jan. 9, 1943.)

(ii) Material for an addition to or an expansion of sewerage system or works, other than buildings, provided that such an addition or expansion shall not include any work order, job, or project, in which the cost of material shall exceed $1,500 in the case of underground sewer or pipeline addition or extension, and $500 in the case of any other addition or expansion and provided that no single construction project shall be subdivided into parts in order to come below these limits.

(iii) An operator may, in any calendar quarterly period, accept deliveries of material or make withdrawals from inventory of material, necessary for the maintenance or repair of the operator's property or equipment which is damaged by acts of the public enemy, sabotage, explosion, or fire or by flood, storm or other similar climatic conditions: Provided, That if the restrictions of paragraph (f) (1) are exceeded because of such deliveries or use, a full report thereof shall be made within thirty days after such delivery or withdrawal, to the War Production Board.

(iv) An operator may, in any calendar quarterly period, accept delivery of material, having in the aggregate, a dollar value of not more than the dollar value of material of the same class taken from the operator's inventory for delivery to other persons authorized to accept delivery under applicable regulations of the War Production Board but only if, and to the extent that such taking has reduced the operator's inventory of material below a practical working minimum.

(v) An operator may, during any calendar year (or his fiscal year), withdraw from inventory, material, having in the aggregate, a dollar value of not more than the dollar value of usable material of the same class salvaged from plant during such year.

(vi) The provisions of paragraph (f) (1) and (f) (2) shall not apply to fuel or to chemicals for sewage treatment.

(4) The War Production Board, on its own initiative, or on application of any operator by letter, in triplicate, addressed to the Government Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–141, may modify the limitations on practical working minimum inventory, and on scheduling or accepting deliveries, or on use or withdrawals, set forth in this paragraph (f).

(1) An operator may construct an addition to or an expansion of, sewerage system or works, other than buildings: Provided, That such addition or expansion shall not include any work order, job or project in which the cost of material shall exceed $1,500 in the case of underground sewer pipeline addition or extension, and $500 in the case of any other addition or expansion: And provided, That no single construction project shall be subdivided into parts in order to come below these limits: And further provided, That in making house connections or extension of line to serve premises, no iron or steel pipe shall be used except the minimum quantities required in making necessary connections.

(2) An operator may construct sewer pipe lines, manhole structures and pumping stations and equipment, and appurtenant works, (but not including sewage disposal or treatment plants or plant equipment) to serve rated projects in which the cost of material is in excess of the dollar limits prescribed in paragraph (g) (1) hereof, if, but only if, the construction of such facilities is authorized by the War Production Board pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (e) (2) hereof.

(3) An operator may construct sewage disposal or treatment plants and any sewerage facilities other than those referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (g), only pursuant to specific authorization by the War Production Board, by the issuance of an order in the P–19 series or other applicable order, pursuant to application on form WPB–617, (formerly PD–200), or in such other form as may be prescribed.

(2) Each operator and each such supplier shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request, subject to approval by the Bureau of the Budget as required under the Federal Reports Act.

(3) Each operator shall maintain a continuing record of inventory and of segregated material in his possession and all material used by him for maintenance, repair or as operating supplies.

(j) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed by the War Production Board be addressed to the War Production Board, Government Division, Washington, D. C., Ref: P–141.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time as to any operator or any supplier. In the event or revocation, deliveries already rated pursuant to this order shall be completed in accordance with said rating, unless the rating has been specifically revoked with respect thereto. No additional applications of the ratings to any other deliveries shall thereafter be made by the operator or supplier affected by such revocation.

(m) Applicability of regulations. (1) Preference Rating Order P–141 is issued in lieu of Preference Rating Order P–46 in so far as it affects public sanitary sewerage systems as defined in paragraph (a) (1) hereof and any reference in any order or regulation of the War Production Board to said Preference Rating Order P–46 shall constitute a reference to orders in the P–141 series.

(2) This order and all transactions affected hereby, except as herein otherwise provided, are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time, Provided, That none of the provisions of CMP Regulations No. 5 or No. 5A shall apply to operators as defined in paragraph (a) (1) hereof, and no such operator shall obtain any material under the provisions of either of said regulations.

Issued this 5th day of July 1943.

PART 3274—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES [1]

[General Preference Order E–1–b, as Amended July 5, 1943]

PRODUCTION AND DELIVERY OF MACHINE TOOLS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of machine tools for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3274 [1] General Preference Order E–1–b—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Machine tool" means any nonportable, power driven metal working machine listed on Exhibit A hereto attached, excluding any light power driven tool defined in Limitation Order L–237, having a list price on October 15, 1942, of $350 or less.

The term "machine" as used in this order means a machine tool. Each machine tool includes not only the basic machine but also all fixtures, equipment and tooling covered by the original purchase order which are required to be delivered with the machine to make it usable in production for the purposes intended, but does not include any replacements, or spare parts or equipment, or extra tooling, ordered by the purchaser.

(2) "Producer" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation or other form of enterprise engaged in producing machine tools.

(3) "Service purchasers" means those whose preference rating certificates show that the preference rating applied to such delivery was assigned thereto by an original Preference Rating Certificate PD–3, PD–3A, or PD–4, by a Preference Rating Order P–19–h, and also those whose purchase orders show that they are direct purchase orders for machine tools placed by the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts (Navy), Coast Guard, or other Supply Arm or Bureau, rated in accordance with procedures authorized for them to use in place and stead of using Form PD–3A: Provided, That such purchase orders call for delivery to a Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy or to the United States Maritime Commission, or to one of their prime contractors, or to a subcontractor of such a prime contractor.

(4) "Foreign purchasers" means those whose purchase orders show that the machine is to be delivered to or for the account of a foreign country, other than Canada, or a subdivision, agency, or instrumentality thereof.

(5) "Other purchasers" means all purchasers other than service purchasers and foreign purchasers, whose purchase orders have been assigned a preference rating of A–10 or higher. Other purchasers include Canadian purchasers except those who are service purchasers by reason of their purchasing machines for use on direct United States prime contracts or subcontracts.

(6) "Class" when used herein means one of the foregoing three classes of purchasers: namely, service purchasers, foreign purchasers, or other purchasers.

(7) "Size" may include all of those dimensions or variations of a particular type of machine which can be used interchangeably for production purposes. Size classification shall remain the same as heretofore used by each producer unless he is specifically permitted or directed to use a different classification by the War Production Board. Producers may apply for such permission by writing to the Tools Division, War Production Board, Ref: E–1–b.

(b) Delivery of machine tools until May 1, 1943. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, schedules of production and delivery of machine tools to be delivered prior to May 1, 1943, shall be maintained as now established subject only to schedule changes hereafter ordered by diversion orders or by other specific direction from the War Production Board. After May 1, 1943 the preferences heretofore accorded to the Air Services and other Preferred Customers by Amendment 3 to General Preference Order E–1–b, issued November 5, 1942, shall no longer remain in effect but every producer shall schedule his production and deliveries according to the provisions of this order.

(c) Allocation of production to service purchasers and to foreign purchasers and other purchasers. (1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (c), each producer shall schedule his production for each calendar month so as to deliver 75 percent of his production of each size of each type of machine which he produces in that month to service purchasers, and each producer shall schedule his production for each calendar month so as to deliver 25 percent of his production of each size of each type of machine which he produces in that month, in the aggregate, to foreign purchasers and other purchasers.

(2) A producer may schedule for delivery to service purchasers more than 75 percent of his production of any size of a type of machine in the months of May, June or July to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders from foreign purchasers and from other purchasers for machines of such size and type prior to March 1, 1943.

(3) A producer may likewise schedule for delivery to foreign purchasers and other purchasers more than 25 percent of such production of any size of a type of machine in the months of May, June or July to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders from service purchasers for machines of such size and type prior to March 1, 1943.

(4) Similarly, a producer may schedule deliveries to service purchasers in excess of 75 percent of his production in the months of August, September or October 1943 to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders from foreign purchasers and other purchasers prior to June 1, 1943, and he may schedule deliveries to foreign purchasers and other purchasers in excess of 25 percent of his production in the months of August, September or October 1943 to the extent that he has failed to receive purchase orders from service purchasers prior to June 1, 1943.

(5) In preparing his schedules of deliveries for a given month a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries to service purchasers, to foreign purchasers, and to other purchasers within such month so that each class will receive its quota of machines equitably in point of time within the month.

(d) Distribution of 75 percent of production among service purchasers. Deliveries of 75 percent of each producer's production shall be scheduled among service purchasers as follows:

(1) Service purchasers are hereby subdivided into seven groups, consisting of the following, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors: Bureau of Ships (Navy), Bureau of Ordnance (Navy), Ordnance Department (Army), Air Services, Miscellaneous Branches and

[1] Formerly Part 997, § 997.2.

Bureaus, the Maritime Commission, and the Signal Corps. The fourth group, designated "Air Services," includes the Army Air Forces and the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors. The fifth group, designated "Miscellaneous Branches and Bureaus," includes the Quartermaster Corps, the Corps of Engineers, the Army Medical Department, the Chemical Warfare Service, the Bureau of Yards and Docks, the Marine Corps, and the Transportation Service of the Services of Supply, together with any other corps, department, bureau or service of the Army or Navy not heretofore specifically designated as a separate group, and their respective prime contractors and subcontractors.

(2) (i) Each producer shall determine the number of purchase orders on his books for each size of a given type of machine from each of the seven service purchaser groups as of March 1, 1943 or, at the producer's option, the nearest date within ten days prior or subsequent to March 1, 1943 on which the producer may have compiled his record of orders.

No order shall be deemed a purchase order placed on a producer's book unless the purchaser has placed a firm order accompanied by specifications or other description of the machine in sufficient detail to enable the producer to place the machine in his production schedule, together with such priority information as is required for scheduling by paragraph (g) of this order.

(ii) He shall then deduct from such respective numbers for each service group the number of machines of such size and type which he estimates he will deliver to purchasers in such service group during the month of March 1943. He shall not deduct deliveries scheduled to be made during April 1943. The figure resulting from such deduction shall be termed the "net backlog" of each such service group.

(iii) He shall then distribute the number of machines of such size and type allocated in each of the months of May, June and July 1943 to all service purchasers pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) among each of the seven service purchaser groups according to each group's quota. The quota for each service group of such size and type shall be the ratio of

(a) Net backlog of such service group of such size and type to

(b) The total of all net backlogs of such size and type of all the service groups, multiplied by the total number of machines of such size and type allocated for that month to all service purchasers. An example of the calculation required by this paragraph (d) (2) is attached to this order, marked "Illustration of paragraph (d) (2)."

(3) Quotas for each service group for August, September and October 1943 shall be determined in the same manner as prescribed by paragraph (d) (2), based, however, on purchase orders on the producer's books as of June 1, 1943 after deducting therefrom the number of machines which the producer estimates he will deliver to service purchasers in each group during both the months of June and July 1943.

Similarly, quotas for each service group for November and December 1943 and January 1944 shall be determined in the same manner as prescribed by paragraph (d) (2), based, however, on purchase orders on the producer's books as of September 1, 1943 after deducting therefrom the number of machines which the producer estimates he will deliver to service purchasers in each group during both the months of September and October 1943.

(4) Commencing with May 1943, and each month thereafter, the producer shall deliver to each service group the number of machines of that size and type equal to its quota for that month, to the extent that he has orders from purchasers in such group requiring delivery in the month being scheduled.

(5) No producer shall schedule delivery of any machine tool manufactured by him earlier than the date on which the purchaser requires delivery thereof, unless all required delivery dates on other purchase orders are being met.

If a producer does not have on hand on March 1, 1943 rated purchase orders from a particular service group requiring delivery in any of the months of May, June or July 1943 equal to its quota for that month, such "unabsorbed quota" shall be scheduled for delivery to the service group having the lowest number of unfilled orders on the producer's books.

Similarity, if a producer does not have on hand on June 1, 1943 rated purchase orders from a particular service group calling for delivery in any of the months of August, September or October 1943 equal to its quota for that month, such "unabsorbed quota" shall be scheduled for delivery to the service group having the lowest number of unfilled orders on the producer's books.

(6) A purchase order which has been scheduled as provided in paragraph (d) (5) of this order shall represent an addition to the quota of the group of which the purchaser in question is a member and such purchase order shall not thereafter be affected by receipt of a purchase order from a member of any other group, irrespective of the urgency standing of the latter.

(7) In preparing his schedules of deliveries for a given month for service purchasers, a producer shall fix the dates of his deliveries to the different groups so that each group will receive its quota of machines equitably in point of time within the month.

(e) Distribution of 25 percent of machine tools among foreign purchasers and other purchasers. Foreign purchasers and other purchasers shall be treated as one group, and each producer shall schedule his orders for each size of each type for delivery each month within such group's aggregate 25 percent of production for that month, in accordance with the sequence of deliveries determined as hereinafter specified in paragraph (h), subject, however, to the order of the War Production Board freezing delivery schedules to foreign and other purchasers until July 1, 1943, contained in letter of January 30, 1943, which order remains in full force and effect.

(f) Treatment of fractions. Where the number of machines which results from any computation required by this order contains a fraction of more than one-half, the fraction shall be counted as a whole machine. A fraction under one-half shall be disregarded, except that where the computation results in a fraction only (less than one whole machine) for any one month, and such fraction is less than one-half, it shall be counted in computing the next month's quota. Where each of the computations of two or more different quotas for the same month shows a fraction of one-half, and there is only one remaining machine to which such fractions can apply, such machine shall be allotted to the group having the largest quota, and the other fractions of one-half shall be disregarded for that month, but shall be counted in computing the other quota or quotas for the next month.

(g) Necessity for preference ratings. (1) No purchase order for any machine tool shall be placed in production schedules, and no machine tool shall be sold or delivered, whether by a producer or distributor, unless a preference rating of A-10 or higher has been assigned thereto by a Preference Rating Certificate PD-1A, by a Preference Rating Certificate PD-3 or PD-3A, by a Preference Rating Certificate in the PD-408 or PD-311 series, by a Preference Rating Order P-19-h, or by a direct purchase order of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts (Navy), Coast Guard, or other Supply Arm or Bureau, endorsed according to procedures authorized for them to use in place and instead of using Form PD-3A. In placing the endorsement required by Priorities Regulation No. 3 on the purchase order there must also be included therein or set forth in a separate endorsement on the purchase order:

(i) The urgency standing of the purchaser, if any;

(ii) The required delivery date of the machine;

(iii) A statement as to whether the purchaser is a "service purchaser," a "foreign purchaser," or an "other purchaser," and

(iv) In the case of service purchasers, the Supply Arm or Bureau of the Army or Navy, or the Maritime Commission, which placed the prime contract, the number of the prime contract, the name of the prime contractor;

(v) In the case of foreign purchasers, the foreign country for which the machine is purchased; and

(vi) In the case of other purchasers, a statement as to the product or production program for which the machine is to be used.

In addition to making the endorsement upon his purchase order as required, any person placing such an order shall furnish to the producer a photostatic copy (or another copy accompanied by his signed statement that it is a true copy) of the preference Rating Certificate PD–1A, PD–3, PD–3A, PD–408, PD–311 or Preference Rating Order P–19–h: Provided, That where the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts (Navy), Coast Guard, or other Supply Arm or Bureau has issued its direct purchase order for a machine tool and rated the same in accordance with procedures authorized for them to use in place and instead of issuing Form PD–3A, no copy of any preference rating certificate shall be required.

Reproduction of any of the foregoing preference rating certificates or orders for the foregoing purposes is hereby permitted.

(h) Operation of Numerical Master Preference List, and preference ratings. (1) The Numerical Master Preference List, Exhibit B attached to this order, herein called "the list," shall determine the sequence of deliveries as between service purchasers as hereinafter set forth, but shall have no effect upon foreign purchasers or other purchasers.

(2) The sequence of deliveries among each group of service purchasers within its respective quota shall be determined without regard to preference ratings as follows:

(i) Deliveries to service purchasers who are either on the list or are subcontractors of persons on the list shall be preferred to and shall take precedence over deliveries to service purchasers who are not on the list.

(ii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers, both on the list, deliveries shall be made according to their respective urgency standings specified on such list. The highest urgency standing in each group is No. 1.

(iii) As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates to be made to two or more service purchasers, neither of whom is on the list, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the respective dates on which the producer receives the photostatic or certified copy of the preference rating certificate, or if a direct purchase order of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts (Navy), Coast Guard, or other Supply Arm or Bureau rated by them in accordance with procedures authorized for them to use instead and in place of using Form PD–3A, the order properly endorsed under such procedure.

The delivery for which such copy of the certificate or properly endorsed order was first received takes precedence.

(iv) A delivery to a subcontractor who is not specifically named on the list shall take the urgency standing of his prime contractor; the urgency standing of the prime contractor must be endorsed in writing on the subcontractor's preference rating certificate by an officer designated for such purpose by the supply arm or bureau concerned.

(v) In the event that the urgency standing shown on the copy of the preference rating certificate differs from the urgency standing shown for the contract in question on the Numerical Master Preference List, Revision No. 5, the latter shall govern.

(3) The sequence of deliveries among foreign purchasers and other purchasers within the portion of production allocated to such purchasers shall be determined as follows:

(i) All orders placed by foreign and other purchasers bearing a rating of A–1–a or higher shall be scheduled according to their required delivery dates and without regard to the preference ratings assigned. As between deliveries which have conflicting required delivery dates, the sequence of deliveries shall be determined by the respective dates on which the producer received the photostatic or certified copy of the preference rating certificate. The delivery for which the preference rating certificate was first received takes precedence.

(ii) Where all required delivery dates cannot be met, orders bearing a rating of A–1–b or lower shall be delivered only after fulfillment of all orders rated A–1–a or higher; the sequence of deliveries among orders rated A–1–b or lower shall be determined in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(i) Additions to list. Additions to, withdrawals from, and other changes may be made in the Numerical Master Preference List from time to time by the War Production Board or such official as may be specifically authorized by it. Where it is desired to assign an urgency standing between existing urgency standings, the new urgency standing will consist of a number including a decimal. Such an urgency standing will take a position in the sequence of deliveries as indicated by the following example: Urgency Standing 792.1 will be scheduled after 792 and before 793.

(j) Revision of schedules for May and subsequent months. On or before April 1, 1943 each producer shall determine the May, June and July 1943 quotas for the various groups of purchasers in accordance with the provisions of this order, and shall also revise his schedules of deliveries for each type of machine to the extent that he can do so without seriously interrupting his production line. In revising such schedules he shall give full effect to all WPBL–1588's, diversion orders, and other specific directions heretofore issued by the War Production Board which have scheduled specific machines during May or any subsequent month. On or before July 1, 1943 he shall determine the August, September and October 1943 quotas and revise his schedules accordingly; and on or before October 1, 1943 he shall do likewise with respect to November and December 1943 and January 1944 schedules.

The rescheduling of orders necessitated by E–1–b as amended March 8, 1943 shall be reported on Form PD–670, which shall be identified under "Remarks" as follows: "E–1–b amendment of March 8, 1943" (or on Form PD–671 which shall be identified on line 22 in an identical manner). Upon filing the last Form PD–670 (or PD–671) affecting deliveries scheduled for May, June and July 1943 which result from the initial rescheduling required to be done by April 1, 1943, the producer shall certify to the Tools Division, War Production Board, Ref: E–1–b, in writing, that the rescheduling required thereby and the reporting thereof have been completed.

After May 1, 1943 each producer shall make delivery of machines in accordance with his revised schedules.

(k) Postponement of new purchase orders. Unless the War Production Board specifically orders otherwise, and notwithstanding any other provisions of this order, no higher preference rating or urgency standing shall operate to postpone or in any way affect any delivery under a purchase order already scheduled where such delivery is to be made within sixty days of receipt of such higher preference rating or urgency standing.

(l) Replacement parts. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit the delivery by any producer of repair and replacement parts for machine tools in accordance with applicable regulations and orders of the War Production Board concerning maintenance, repair and replacement items.

(m) Deliveries to distributors for stock. No producer shall knowingly deliver any machine tool to any distributor for such distributor's stock or inventory and no distributor shall accept delivery of any machine tool for his stock or inventory, regardless of whether such delivery would be made to the distributor on a consignment or similar basis, or pursuant to an outright sale.

(n) Changes in schedules. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, the War Production Board may direct or change any schedule of production or delivery of machine tools, allocate any order for machine tools to any other producer, divert or otherwise direct the delivery of any machine tool to any other person.

(o) Reports. Every producer shall file reports on Form PD–669, PD–670 and PD–671, and WPB–417 or WPB–1440, in accordance with the instructions on such forms and such supplemental instructions as may be given in respect thereto.

(p) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(q) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(r) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Tools Division, Washington. D. C., Ref.: E–1–b.

Issued this 5th day of July 1943.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[MPR 226,[1] Amdt. 7]

FRUIT PRESERVES, JAMS AND JELLIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Amendment 7 to Maximum Price Regulation 226 has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 226 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1341.302 is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

(j) Elective pricing method. If the packer's maximum price for any item covered by this regulation cannot be determined under the applicable pricing method, the packer may, at his election, figure his maximum price under the pricing method of this paragraph. Under this paragraph, his maximum price shall be:

(1) His total "direct cost" per dozen or other unit of the item, figured by adding:

(i) The total cost per unit of all ingredients and packaging materials subject to maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration, at the current maximum prices applying to the class of purchasers to which he belongs, plus

(ii) The cost per unit of every ingredient and packaging material for which no maximum price has been prescribed by the Office of Price Administration, figured at the current market price of the ingredient or packaging material in question, plus

(iii) The direct labor cost per unit figured at the October 3, 1942, wage rates or as adjusted and approved by the War Labor Board, executive order, or other official legal action applying to each class of direct labor employed in the production of the item, plus

(iv) Transportation charges by the usual mode of transportation, if the cost factors used in subdivision (i) and (ii) above are not delivered costs and if these charges are customarily incurred from his customary supply point to his customary receiving point.

(2) Multiplied by a markup percentage, figured by dividing:

(i) The maximum price established under the maximum price regulation in effect at the time of the calculation for the most closely comparable commodity produced by him with a cost structure similar to that of the item being priced, by

(ii) His current cost of ingredients, packaging materials and direct labor of that commodity.

As used in this paragraph, "most closely comparable commodity" means a food commodity which is most nearly similar and whose "direct cost" is closest to and in no event less than two-thirds of the "direct cost" of the item being priced, and where similar methods are employed in its sale and merchandising to those which will be used in the sale and merchandising of the item being priced.

As used in this paragraph, "current" means at the time of figuring the price.

(3) The maximum price figured under this paragraph for any item shall not exceed 150% of the cost of ingredients, packaging materials and direct labor.

(4) In deciding whether items of labor cost are to be applied as separate items in figuring the price or are to be treated as overhead, the seller shall follow his customary practice. Thus, if a packer treated cleaning labor as an item of overhead in March 1942, he must continue to treat it in this way when figuring the maximum price.

(5) The packer shall employ no cost factors in addition to those which he used with respect to the comparable commodity by which he determined his percentage markup under paragraph (b) and shall make no changes in the method of application of those factors which would result in a higher price.

2. Section 1341.309 is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

(b) Within 10 days after a packer has determined a maximum price pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (j) of § 1341.302, he shall report the price to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. This report shall set forth, in addition to the price, (1) a description and identification of the food item for which the price was determined, and (2) a statement of the facts which differentiate the food item from other food commodities sold by him and by other competitive sellers of the same class during the first 60 days of the 1941 pack, and (3) a statement that the maximum price reported was determined in accordance with this paragraph, and the facts which support this statement. The packer, in this connection, shall submit a statement breaking down the price reported showing all the calculations entering into the determination of "direct cost" and maximum price of both the item being priced and the most closely comparable commodity used, including statements from customary suppliers of any packaging materials for which no maximum price exists showing their purchase price.

Effective Date

This amendment shall become effective July 2, 1943.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681)

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 2d day of July 1943.

Administrator.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 262,[1] Amdt. 7]

SEASONAL AND MISCELLANEOUS FOOD COMMODITIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 262 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1351.954 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Where the following commodity is not subject to maximum prices prescribed by the Office of Price Administration and constitutes an ingredient of the commodity to be priced, the producer shall not include the same in such costs at higher than the price hereinafter set forth opposite such ingredient commodity.

	Per pound

2. Section 1351.955 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) Where one of the following commodities is not subject to maximum prices prescribed by the Office of Price Administration and constitutes an ingredient of the commodity to be priced, the producer shall include the same in such costs at the prices hereinafter set forth opposite each ingredient commodity.

Fresh strawberries	$0.08
	Per cwt.
Soy flour, high fat	$6.25
Soy flour, medium and low fat	4.75

3. Section 1351.955b is added to read as follows:

§ 1351.955b Maximum prices for peanut candy. (a) Any producer who has heretofore calculated a maximum price for peanut candy under this regulation shall be permitted to recalculate and any producer who shall hereafter calculate his maximum price for peanut candy under this regulation shall calculate such price, file a report and notify wholesalers and retailers, as though peanut candy were being included for the first time in this regulation by this amendment, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) All producers of peanut candy shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of this regulation as it existed prior to this amendment until such time as they calculate or recalculate and report their maximum prices as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, and thenceforth they shall be subject to the provisions of this regulation.

4. Section 1351.956 is amended to read as follows:

any class of purchasers for any item packed in any container type or size which the producer did not sell during the applicable base period (March 1942 for items listed in Appendix B) shall be figured as follows: He shall

(a) Determine the base container. If the producer sold the same commodity (that is, the same variety or kind and same brand, if any) during the base period, but only in other container types and sizes, he shall first determine the most similar container type in which he is able to calculate the maximum price to that class of purchasers for the commodity under this regulation (even though he no longer sells that container type). From that container type he shall choose the nearest size which is 50% or less larger, or if there is no such size, 50% or less smaller (even though he no longer sells those sizes). This will be the "base container." If there is no such smaller size, he shall go to the next most similar container type and proceed in the same manner to find the base container.

NOTE: In most cases "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which the producer is adding to or replacing, like the tin he may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will, of course, be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation; where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(b) Find the base price. The producer shall take as the "base price" the maximum price which he may charge that class of purchasers for the commodity in the base container. However, if this maximum price is a price delivered to the purchaser or to any point other than the producer's shipping point, the producer shall first convert it to a base price f. o. b. producer's shipping point simply by deducting whatever transportation charges were included in it.

(c) Deduct the container cost. Taking the base price f. o. b. shipping point, the producer shall then subtract the direct cost of the base container. "Direct cost of the container" means the net cost, at the producer's plant, of the container, cap, label and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include cost of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(d) Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted, in the case of a size change, by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in the new container.

(f) Convert to a maximum delivered price, if the maximum price for the base container is on a delivered basis. If the producer's maximum price for the commodity in the base container is a delivered price, he shall figure transportation charges to be added, as follows: the producer shall take the transportation charges which he first deducted to get his base price and adjust them in exact proportion in the difference in shipping weight. However, if for any reason the commodity in the new container will move under a different freight tariff classification, he shall figure his transportation charges (by the same means of transportation and to the same destination) on the basis of the new shipping weight, but at the rate in effect for that freight tariff classification during March 1942. Increases in tariff rates or transportation taxes made since March 31, 1942, shall not be taken into account. (Similar principles shall apply where shipping volume is the measure of the transportation charge.) The producer shall then add these transportation charges to his f. o. b. shipping point price for the commodity in the new container. The resulting figure is the producer's maximum delivered price to that class of purchasers.

5. Section 1351.965 (a) (17), (18), (19) and (20) are added to read as follows:

(17) "Soy milk" means any colloidal mixture made from the soluble and semi-soluble parts of soy beans with water and in which soy bean derivatives are the principal and most costly ingredient, with or without the addition of homogenized vegetable oil, soluble carbohydrates, vitamins or minerals and salt or flavoring, prepared as a liquid resembling dairy milk in color and general characteristics, or the same product as described herein, but in dehydrated powdered form.

(18) "Vegetarian dietary sandwich spreads" means spreads or pastes made principally from combinations of soy beans, peanuts, lentils, garbanzos, wheat gluten, wheat germ, and with or without the addition of tomato products, olives, salt flavoring, vitamins or minerals, but excluding all ingredients of animal origin and packed in hermetically sealed containers.

(19) "Vegetarian dietary meat" means any vegetarian meat loaf in which the soy bean products, ground peanuts, and wheat gluten content is not less than 60% of the total weight or volume, with or without the addition of tomato products, wheat germ, vitamins or minerals and flavorings, but excluding all ingredients of animal origin, and packed in hermetically sealed containers; or any vegetarian meat in the form of slices or cutlets or minced, containing not less than 50% by volume of wheat gluten, with salt and flavorings and with or without the addition of soy bean products, ground peanuts, vitamins or minerals, but excluding all products of animal origin, and packed in sauce in hermetically sealed containers.

(20) "Rice farina cereal" means granulated rice, with or without powdered milk, seasoning or salt, in packages of less than 2 pounds net weight.

Special dietary health food products, limited to the following: soy milk, vegetarian dietary sandwich spread and vegetarian dietary meats.
Rice farina cereal.
Sandwiches made of crackers and peanut butter.
Macaroni dinners.
Spaghetti dinners.
Chow mein noodles.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 300[1] Incl. Amdt. 9]

MAXIMUM MANUFACTURERS' PRICES FOR RUBBER DRUG SUNDRIES

Sections 1315.1761a, 1315.1754 (c) (2) and (d) (2), 1315.1772 (a) and (b) are amended by Amendment 9, effective July 9, 1943, so that Maximum Price Regulation 300 shall read as follows:

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of rubber drug sundries have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of rubber drug sundries prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustment for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of considerations[2] involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 is hereby issued.

1315.1772 Appendix B: Maximum manufacturers' prices for victory line rubber drug sundries.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1315.1751 to 1315.1772, inclusive, issued pursuant to Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

§ 1315.1751 Applicability of this Maximum Price Regulation 300—(a) What commodities must be priced under this regulation. This regulation applies to the commodities listed in paragraphs (a) to (j), inclusive, of Appendix A (§ 1315.1771) which will be called "rubber drug sundries" in this regulation. However, this regulation is applicable to those commodities only if they are produced in the continental United States or the District of Columbia on or after February 1, 1943. This regulation does not apply to rubber drug sundries produced before February 1, 1943, the maximum prices of which are established by the General Maximum Price Regulation.*

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 1, 8 F.R. 1369, effective 2-1-43]

(b) To what types of sellers this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all manufacturers of rubber drug sundries.

(c) Geographical applicability of this regulation. This regulation applies to the continental United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

(d) Effect of this regulation. This regulation establishes maximum manufacturers' prices for rubber drug sundries. On and after February 1, 1943, the date this regulation takes effect, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no manufacturer is permitted to sell or deliver any rubber drug sundries produced on or after February 1, 1943, at a price which is higher than the maximum price fixed by this regulation, and no person is permitted to buy or receive any rubber drug sundries produced on or after February 1, 1943, from a manufacturer in the course of trade or business at a price which is higher than the maximum price.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that War Procurement Agencies and Governments Whose Defense is Vital to the Defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

§ 1315.1752 Maximum manufacturers' prices for victory line rubber drug sundries. The maximum manufacturers' prices for victory line rubber drug sundries are set forth in Appendix B, incorporated herein as § 1315.1772. The term "victory line rubber drug sundries" is defined in that section.

§ 1315.1753 Maximum manufacturers' prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, which have not been changed substantially since December 1, 1941—(a) Applicability of this section. Except as provided in § 1315.1755c this section is applicable to all manufacturers of rubber drug sundries, except distributors of rubber drug sundries. This section is applicable to any type of rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, which the manufacturer was producing on December 1, 1941, or which has not been modified sufficiently since that date to result in a change of more than 5 percent in its factory costs. Factory costs shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of the next section (§ 1315.1754).

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3-1-43, and Amendment 7, 8 F.R. 7016, effective 5-25-43]

(b) Maximum prices for all rubber drug sundries except those made in whole or in part of neoprene GN. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer of any rubber drug sundry covered by this section, except one made in whole or in part of neoprene GN, shall be the first applicable among the following prices, less the deduction required by paragraph (d) of this section, wherever applicable, and all discounts, allowances, and other deductions which the manufacturer had in effect for a purchaser of the same class on December 1, 1941:

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 5986, effective 5-12-43]

(1) The price stated in the published price list of the manufacturer in effect on December 1, 1941, for a rubber drug sundry which is the same as the rubber drug sundry being priced.

(2) The price the manufacturer regularly quoted, other than through the medium of published price lists, to a purchaser of the same class on December 1, 1941, for a rubber drug sundry which is the same as the rubber drug sundry being priced.

(3) The highest price at which the manufacturer during the period October 1 to December 1, 1941, inclusive, delivered, or if no delivery was made, at which he offered to deliver a rubber drug sundry, which is the same as the rubber drug sundry being priced, to a purchaser of the same class.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph (b) a rubber drug sundry formerly produced by the manufacturer will be deemed to be "the same as" the rubber drug sundry being priced if it is of the same type as the rubber drug sundry being priced and if its factory costs do not differ from the factory costs of the rubber drug sundry being priced by more than 5 percent. Factory costs shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of the next section (§ 1315.1754).

(c) Maximum prices for rubber drug sundries made in whole or in part of neoprene GN. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer of any rubber drug sundry made in whole or in part of neoprene GN, covered by this section, shall be the price determined in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph (paragraph (b)) less a certain amount. This amount shall be determined by multiplying the number of pounds of neoprene GN required to produce the rubber drug sundry by the difference between the price in effect for neoprene on December 1, 1941, and $0.45.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 5986, effective 5-12-43. Former paragraph (c) redesignated (d)]

(d) Deduction of amount of the federal excise tax. If, on December 1, 1941, the manufacturer did not bill the federal excise tax on rubber products separately, he shall deduct the amount of such tax from the price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 1315.1754 Maximum manufacturers' prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, which are not covered by § 1315.1753—(a) Applicability of this section. This section is applicable to all manufacturers of rubber drug sundries, except distributors of rubber drug sundries.

[Paragraph (a) added by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3-1-43. Former paragraphs (a) through (d) redesignated (b) through (e), respectively]

(b) How the seller calculates his maximum price. Except as provided in § 1315.1755c the seller is required to calculate each maximum price for a rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, which is not covered by § 1315.1753 or which is of a type produced by the manufacturer for the first time after December 1, 1941, as follows:

[Above sentence as amended by Amendment 7, 8 F.R. 7016, effective 5-25-43]

(1) The manufacturer should first find the rubber drug sundry he must use in determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced. The method for selecting this rubber drug sundry is explained in paragraph (c) of this section. The manufacturer should then find the maximum price for each class of purchaser (in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1315.1753) of that rubber drug sundry.

(2) The manufacturer should then determine the "factory costs" of the rubber drug sundry being priced and of the rubber drug sundry he must use as a basis for determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced. The method for computing "factory costs" is explained in paragraph (d) of this section.

(3) The manufacturer will then find the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced by adding to or subtracting from the maximum price to each class of purchaser (as determined by paragraph (b) of § 1315.1753) of the rubber drug sundry used as a basis for determining the maximum price, the amount by which the "factory costs" of the rubber drug sundry being priced is greater or less than the "factory costs" of the rubber drug sundry used as a basis for determining the maximum price.

(4) Once the manufacturer has determined his maximum price for a rubber drug sundry under this section, that price is his maximum thereafter so long as the article is not modified sufficiently to result in a change of more than 5 percent in factory costs. If the article is modified to this extent, its maximum price must be recomputed in accordance with the provisions of this section. Factory costs must be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Method of selecting the rubber drug sundry used in determining the maximum price. The manufacturer shall use the first applicable of the following rubber drug sundries, which he offered for sale on December 1, 1941, in determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced:

(1) The rubber drug sundry which would be the same as the rubber drug sundry being priced but for changes in specifications that have taken place since December 1, 1941.

(2) The rubber drug sundry manufactured by the same processes as the rubber drug sundry being priced. If there is more than one rubber drug sundry which is manufactured by the same processes as the rubber drug sundry being priced, the manufacturer shall use that one of those rubber drug sundries whose direct labor costs are nearest to the direct labor costs of the rubber drug sundry being priced. Direct labor costs shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) of this section.

[Paragraph (2) as amended by Amendment 9, effective 7-9-43]

(3) The rubber drug sundry having the same use as the rubber drug sundry being priced. If there is more than one rubber drug sundry which has the same use as the rubber drug sundry being priced, the manufacturer shall use that one of those rubber drug sundries whose direct labor costs are nearest to the direct labor costs of the rubber drug sundry being priced. Direct labor costs shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) of this section.

(4) The rubber drug sundry whose direct labor costs are nearest to the direct labor costs of the rubber drug sundry being priced. Direct labor costs shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (d) (1) of this section.

(d) Computation of factory costs. The factory costs of a rubber drug sundry shall be the sum total of direct labor costs, direct materials costs including waste, and factory overhead costs. The direct labor costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated number of hours of each type of labor required in the manufacture of the rubber drug sundry by the wage rates determined in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The direct materials costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated quantity of each type of material required in the manufacture of the rubber drug sundry by the materials prices determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. Waste shall be determined by applying the same methods as were used or would have been used by the manufacturer in similar production on December 1, 1941, adjusted to reflect the actual quantity of waste in the production of the rubber drug sundry being priced. Factory overhead costs shall be determined in the manner set forth in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(1) Wage rates. The wage rates applicable to any rubber drug sundry shall be the basic wage rates in effect in the manufacturer's plant on December 1, 1941, for each class of labor involved in the production of the rubber drug sundry. If the manufacturer did not employ a given class of labor on December 1, 1941, he shall use the wage rate paid on December 1, 1941, by the nearest employer operating under comparable conditions who employed that class of labor on that date, if that information is available.

(2) Materials prices. The price of neoprene GN used in bulb and bulb goods, catheters, glass molded tubing, gloves, and stoppers shall be $0.45 a pound. The price of any other materials used in the rubber drug sundries just named and the price of any materials used in any other rubber drug sundry shall be the highest price charged on December 1, 1941, by the manufacturer's supplier; except that if the Office of Price Administration has established a lower maximum price for the sale of that material to the manufacturer by his supplier, such lower price shall govern. If the material was not delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer's supplier on December 1, 1941, the material price shall be the first price at which the manufacturer's supplier offered to sell the material to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer after December 1, 1941, or the maximum price for the material established by the Office of Price Administration, whichever is the lower. The manufacturer's supplier shall be (i) his December 1941 supplier of the material, or (ii) lacking a December 1941 supplier of the material, his most recent supplier of the material. If neither of these exists, it shall be his potential supplier. For the purposes of this subparagraph (2) if the manufacturer shall receive a written statement from the seller that the material is being sold at a price which is not in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration, and if the manufacturer shall have no cause to doubt the accuracy of the statement, the price as stated by the seller shall be deemed not to be in excess of the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration for that material.

[Paragraph (2) amended by Amendment 6, 8 F.R. 5986, effective 5-12-43, and Amendment 9, effective 7-9-43]

(i) When used in this subparagraph (2), the phrase "highest price charged on December 1, 1941," means:

(a) The highest price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, on December 1, 1941, to the same manufacturer in a quantity normal for that manufacturer;

(b) If the seller made no such delivery or offer for delivery on December 1, 1941, to the same manufacturer, the highest price at which the seller delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, on December 1, 1941, to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer in a quantity normal for that purchaser;

(c) If the seller made no such delivery or offer for delivery on December 1, 1941, to the same manufacturer or to a purchaser of the same class, the highest price at which the seller delivered, or, if he did not deliver, at which he offered the commodity for delivery, on December 1, 1941, to a purchaser of a different class, in a quantity normal for that purchaser, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(3) Factory overhead costs. Factory overhead costs shall be determined by using the same methods and the same rates that the manufacturer used on December 1, 1941, in determining the factory overhead costs of the rubber drug sundry that he is required by paragraph (c) of this section to use as a basis for determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced. It shall include only those costs which the manufacturer on December 1, 1941, used in calculating the factory overhead.

(e) Reports of maximum prices. If a manufacturer produces after January 31, 1943, a rubber drug sundry for which a maximum price must be determined under this section (§ 1315.1754), he shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within five days after a purchaser first agrees to buy such goods, the maximum price as computed by him and his selling prices. The report shall contain a full description of the rubber drug sundry being priced and of any innovation in manufacturing processes involved and a detailed explanation of the computation of factory costs and of the maximum price. It shall also contain a description of the rubber drug sundry used in determining the maximum price of the rubber drug sundry being priced and the maximum price, factory costs and an explanation of the reasons for the selection of that rubber drug sundry. The manufacturer may not accept payment for the rubber drug sundry, mark the maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container, or notify any person of the maximum wholesale or retail price until the price so reported is approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration or fifteen days have elapsed after the mailing of the report. Within this fifteen day period the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. Subsequent to this fifteen day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time upon the written order of the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1315.1755 Maximum prices — Specific authorization. Except as provided in § 1315.1755c the maximum manufacturers' price for any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, which it is either impossible or impracticable to price under § 1315.1753 or § 1315.1754, shall be a price, in line with the level of prices established by this regulation, determined by the seller after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A seller who seeks an authorization to determine a maximum price under the provisions of this section shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth:

(a) A description in detail of the rubber drug sundry for which a maximum price is sought (including the manufacturing process); (b) a statement of the facts which make it impossible or impracticable for him to use the methods for determining a maximum price set forth in §§ 1315.1753 and 1315.1754; (c) his proposed pricing method; and (d) a statement of the reasons why he believes that the use of this method will result in prices which are in line with the level of prices established by this regulation. Such authorization will be in writing and will prescribe a method of determining the maximum price for some or all of the rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, manufactured by the applicant which it is impossible or impracticable to price under either § 1315.1753 or § 1315.1754.

This section is applicable to all manufacturers of rubber drug sundries, except distributors of rubber drug sundries.

[§ 1315.1755 as amended by Amendment 4, 8 F.R. 3840, effective 3–26–43, and Amendment 7, 8 F.R. 7016, effective 5–25–43]

§ 1315.1755a Maximum distributors' prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. This section is applicable only to distributors, as defined in paragraph (a) (1) of § 1315.1769. Except as provided in § 1315.1755c the maximum prices for sales by such persons of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, shall be determined as follows: The distributor shall multiply the maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to him by a certain percentage. This percentage shall be determined as follows:

[Above paragraph as amended by Amendment 7, 8 F.R. 7016, effective 5–25–43]

(a) The distributor shall use the first applicable of the following rubber drug sundries, which he offered for sale on December 1, 1941, in determining this percentage.

(1) The rubber drug sundry which is the same as the rubber drug sundry being priced.

(2) The rubber drug sundry which is the same as the rubber drug sundry being priced, except for differences which do not result in a change in the price at which the distributor purchases the article.

(3) The rubber drug sundry which has the same use as the rubber drug sundry being priced. If there is more than one rubber drug sundry which has the same use as the rubber drug sundry being priced, the distributor shall use that one of those rubber drug sundries which is most like the rubber drug sundry being priced in design, construction and the price line in which it is sold.

(b) The distributor shall then determine the price at which on December 1, 1941, he was offering to sell that rubber drug sundry to a purchaser of the same class as the person to whom he is selling the rubber drug sundry being priced.

(c) The distributor should then determine the percentage by dividing this selling price by the price in effect to him on December 1, 1941, for the rubber drug sundry selected in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a). If there was no price in effect to the distributor for that rubber drug sundry on December 1, 1941, the selling price shall be divided by the last price in effect to the distributor for that rubber drug sundry before December 1, 1941.

(d) This paragraph (d) is applicable to any rubber drug sundry listed in paragraph (h) of Appendix A which is the same as a rubber drug sundry offered for sale by the distributor on January 1, 1941. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, if the price the distributor had in effect on January 1, 1941, for such rubber drug sundry was higher than the price determined in accordance with the preceding provisions of this section, the maximum price for that rubber drug sundry shall be the price the distributor had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on January 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (d) added by Amendment 8, effective 6–30–43]

§ 1315.1755b Maximum distributors' prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, which cannot be priced under § 1315.1755a. Except as provided in § 1315.1755c, the maximum distributors' price for any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, which cannot be priced under § 1315.1755a shall be a price in line with the level of prices established by this regulation determined by the seller after specific authorization from the Office of Price Administration. A seller who seeks an authorization to determine a maximum price under the provisions of this section shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth: (a) A description of the rubber drug sundry for which a maximum price is sought, including the brand name and the producer; (b) a statement of the facts which make it impossible for him to use the method for determining the maximum price set forth in § 1315.1755a; (c) his proposed percentage mark-up; and (d) a statement of the reasons why he believes the use of this mark-up will result in prices in line with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation. Such authorization will be in writing and will prescribe a method of determining the maximum price for some or all of the rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, offered for sale by the applicant which cannot be priced under § 1315.1755a.

[§ 1315.1755b added by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3–1–43, and amended by Amendment 7, 8 F.R. 7016, effective 5–25–43]

§ 1315.1755c Maximum prices for neoprene bulbs and bulb goods and neoprene catheters—(a) Neoprene bulbs and bulb goods—(1) Applicability of this paragraph. This paragraph is applicable to neoprene bulbs and bulb goods which are sold, offered for sale, delivered or transferred by the manufacturer during the period May 25, 1943, to September 30, 1943, inclusive. Since the term "manufacturer" is defined in the regulation as including distributors, this paragraph is also applicable to distributors.

(2) Maximum prices. The maximum price of neoprene bulbs and bulb goods covered by this paragraph shall be determined as follows: The manufacturer shall first determine the maximum price of the rubber bulb or bulb goods of the same type and size in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 1315.1753 to 1315.1755b, inclusive. The manufacturer shall then determine his maximum price by adding a differential to that price. That differential shall be $0.05 for ear and ulcer syringes, double-end bulbs and breast pump bulbs and for bulb goods containing one of the types of bulbs just enumerated. For other neoprene bulbs and bulb goods containing neoprene bulbs the differential shall be determined by reference to the following table:

However, this paragraph is applicable to that tubing only if it is sold, offered for sale, delivered or transferred by the manufacturer during the period May 25, 1943, to September 30, 1943, inclusive. Since the term "manufacturer" is defined in the regulation as including distributors, this paragraph is also applicable to distributors.

(2) Sales by manufacturers to a wholesaler. (i) When the manufacturer sells one gross or more of the tubing covered by this paragraph and when that tubing is packaged, the manufacturer shall determine his maximum price by deducting the cash discount that he had in effect for a purchaser of the same class on December 1, 1941, from the price stated in the following table:

(ii) When the tubing is packed in bulk, the manufacturer shall determine the maximum price by deducting the price differential he had in effect on December 1, 1941, for bulk packing from the price stated in the table just set forth. When the manufacturer sells less than one gross, the maximum price shall be determined as follows: The manufacturer shall add the percentage differential that he had in effect on December 1, 1941, for sales of less than one gross of the type of article to the prices listed in the table and then shall deduct from the resultant price the cash discount that he had in effect for purchasers of the same class on December 1, 1941.

(3) Sales by a manufacturer to a distributor or other manufacturer. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer to a distributor or another manufacturer of any tubing covered by this paragraph shall be 75 percent of the price listed in the table set forth in the preceding subparagraph (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (b)) for tubing of the same size.

(4) Sales by a manufacturer to a retailer. The maximum price for a sale by a manufacturer to a retailer of any of the tubing covered by this section shall be 133⅓ percent of the price listed in the table set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (b) for tubing of the same size.

§ 1315.1756 Terms and conditions of sale. (a) The maximum prices established by this regulation shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit, unless (1) the manufacturer during December, 1941, required payment of a separately stated additional charge for the extension of credit by purchasers of the same class on sales of the same or similar types of commodities, and (2) the amount charged for the extension of credit is not in excess of the charge the manufacturer had in effect during December, 1941, for extension of credit involving the same amount and term.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3–1–43]

(b) No manufacturer shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of rubber drug sundries, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during December 1941 on deliveries of the same or similar types of commodities.

§ 1315.1757 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export any rubber drug sundry shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5]

§ 1315.1758 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery or processing of rubber drug sundries imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9694, 8 F.R. 1312, 3702, provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1315.1759 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade are sold or otherwise transferred after January 31, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

§ 1315.1761 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase of or relating to rubber drug sundries, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1315.1761a Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery.

[5] Second Revision: 8 F.R. 4132, 7662.

Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

[§ 1315 1761a added by Amendment 5, 8 F.R. 3942, effective 4-1-43 and amended by Amendment 9, effective 7-9-43]

§ 1315.1762 Records. To aid in the enforcement of this regulation every manufacturer is required to keep certain records for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect. These records are described in three paragraphs as follows:

(a) Records of sales. Every person engaged in the business of selling rubber drug sundries shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration complete and accurate records of every sale of rubber drug sundries, including: (1) the date thereof; (2) the name and address of the buyer; (3) the quantity of each class, kind, type, condition and grade of rubber drug sundries sold; and (4) the price per unit received.

(b) Records of the bases on which maximum prices are determined. Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, in addition to the records required by paragraph (a) of this section, complete and accurate records of the following:

(1) Published price lists, discount sheets and all other regularly quoted prices in effect on December 1, 1941.

(2) For those rubber drug sundries for which there were no published price lists or other regularly quoted prices in effect on December 1, 1941, the highest price at which he delivered, or if he did not deliver, at which he offered to deliver, each of those rubber drug sundries during the period October 1 to December 1, 1941, inclusive.

(3) Labor rates, materials prices and waste and factory overhead-rates in effect to him on December 1, 1941.

(4) Detailed cost estimate sheets and other data showing the calculations of prices of all rubber drug sundries sold or delivered after January 31, 1943, for which the maximum price must be determined in accordance with the provisions of §§ 1315.1754 or 1315.1755 of this regulation.

(c) Records of notifications of maximum prices given to wholesalers and retailers. Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, in addition to the records required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, exact copies of all notifications of maximum prices given to wholesalers and retailers.

§ 1315.1763 Reports (a) Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before March 1, 1943, a report stating the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 for all rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, he was producing on February 1, 1943, the method by which he determined those maximum prices, and the discounts, allowances, and other price differentials in effect therefor on December 1, 1941.

(b) Every manufacturer who produces victory line hot water bottles shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., each brand name which he uses for colored and black victory line hot water bottles, respectively, within fifteen days after he starts production of a bottle bearing that brand name. Colored and black victory line hot water bottles are distinguished in footnpes five and six to Table I in § 1315.1772.

(c) Every manufacturer subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration in addition to or in place of the reports required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit.

§ 1315.1764 Notification—(a) Notification of price charged. Every manufacturer shall give each person purchasing rubber drug sundries from him an invoice showing the date of the transaction and the price charged for each type, brand and grade of rubber drug sundries sold.

(b) Notification of maximum retail and wholesale prices of rubber drug sundries other than victory line. This paragraph requires notification by the manufacturer of maximum retail and wholesale prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. This requirement is not applicable to sales of rubber drug sundries to a distributor or to a manufacturer who only finishes, assembles or packages rubber drug sundries or does any combination of these functions. In such case, the distributor or the manufacturer who only finishes, assembles or packages rubber drug sundries or does any combination of these functions, is required to give the notification and calculate the maximum wholesale and retail price.

(1) Notification to wholesalers. Before or at the time of the first delivery of any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, to a wholesaler, other than a dental, surgical or hospital supply house, after January 31, 1943, the manufacturer shall notify the wholesaler of the maximum wholesale price of that article. This notification shall include the brand and the type or description of the rubber drug sundry and the maximum wholesale price applicable thereto. For those rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, of a type that are sold at retail this notification shall include also the maximum retail price and a statement that the wholesaler is required by Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 to notify any retailer to whom he sells that rubber drug sundry of that price unless the manufacturer has marked the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container in which it is sold at retail with the maximum retail price.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3-1-43 and Amendment 4, 8 F.R. 3840, effective 3-26-43.]

(i) Method by which the manufacturer calculates the maximum retail and wholesale price for notification to wholesalers. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail and wholesale price as follows:

The manufacturer shall first calculate the base price. This price is his maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry in question to that class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer will then calculate the maximum retail and wholesale price by multiplying the base price by a percentage which varies with the kind of seller. These percentages are shown in the following table:

Kind of seller:	Percentage by which the manufacturer's base price is to be multiplied—percent
Seller at wholesale, other than a dental, surgical or hospital supply house	133⅓
Dental, surgical or hospital supply house	142
Seller at retail, except a mail order house	[a] 233⅓

[a] a. Whenever the retail price, calculated in this manner, results in a price which is less than 5 cents, the maximum retail price shall be 5 cents. This rule shall not be used for those multiples of a commodity which are normally sold by retailers at a price which, when figured on a unit basis, is lower than the price per unit charged by them when they sell the commodity singly. For example, if the retail price for a particular nipple, calculated in the manner set forth in the text, is 3⅓ cents each and retailers normally sell that nipple at 5 cents each and three for 10 cents, the maximum retail price would be 5 cents each and three for 10 cents.

b. Whenever the retail price, calculated in the manner set forth in the text, results in a price which is 5 cents or over and involves a fractional cent, the maximum retail price shall be the nearest cent.

[Footnote added by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3-1-43]

(2) Notification to retailers, other than mail order houses. Before or at the time of the first delivery of any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, by a manufacturer to a retailer after January 31, 1943, the manufacturer shall notify the retailer of the maximum retail price of that article unless the manufacturer has marked the maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or on the unit of sale container in which it is sold at retail. This notification shall include the brand and the type or description of the rubber drug sundry and the maximum retail price applicable thereto. The notification required by this subparagraph shall also be given to dental, surgical and hospital supply houses for those types of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, that are customarily sold at retail.

[Paragraph (2) as amended by Amendment 4, 8 F.R. 3840, effective 3-26-43]

(i) Method by which the manufacturer calculates the maximum retail price for notification to retailers. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail price as follows:

(a) Rubber drug sundries for which the manufacturer can calculate a maximum wholesale price. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail prices of those rubber drug sundries for which he can calculate a maximum wholesale price in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1753 or § 1315.1754 of this regulation as follows:

The manufacturer shall first calculate the base price. This price is his maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry in question to that class of wholesalers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer will then calculate the maximum retail price by multiplying the base price by 233⅓ percent.[1]

(b) Rubber drug sundries for which the manufacturer can not calculate a maximum wholesale price. The manufacturer shall calculate the maximum retail prices of those rubber drug sundries for which he can not determine a maximum wholesale price in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1753 or 1315.1754 of this regulation as follows:

The manufacturer shall first calculate the base price. This price is his maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry in question to that class of retailers to which he sold the largest volume of rubber drug sundries during the calendar year 1942. The manufacturer will then calculate the maximum retail price by multiplying the base price by 210 percent.[2]

(3) Rubber drug sundries to which this paragraph is not applicable. Anything in this paragraph (b) to the contrary notwithstanding, this paragraph (b) is not applicable to the types of rubber drug sundries listed in paragraph (h) of Appendix A (§ 1315.1771).

(c) Notification to mail order houses of the price to be used by the mail order house as a basis for determining its maximum prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. This paragraph (c) is applicable to all rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, except those listed in paragraph (h) of Appendix A (§ 1315.1771). Before or at the time of the first delivery after January 31, 1943, of any such rubber drug sundry to a mail order house, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser of the price that the purchaser must use as a basis for determining his maximum price. This figure is the manufacturer's maximum price for a sale of the particular rubber drug sundry to the class of sellers at wholesale which during the calendar year 1942 purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer. If the manufacturer can not calculate the maximum wholesale price of the rubber drug sundry in question in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1753 or 1315.1754 of this regulation, the manufacturer shall notify the mail order house of the manufacturer's maximum price to the class of sellers at retail which during the calendar year 1942 purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer.

§ 1315.1765 Marking of rubber drug sundries by the manufacturer. This section requires that the manufacturer mark rubber drug sundries sold by him in a certain manner. This requirement is not applicable to sales of rubber drug sundries to a distributor or to a manufacturer who only finishes, assembles or packages rubber drug sundries, or does any combination of these functions. In such case, the distributor or the manufacturer, who only finishes, assembles or packages, or does any combination of these functions, is required to mark or cause the rubber drug sundry to be marked in the manner set forth in this section. On or after February 1, 1943, before delivery of any rubber drug sundries the manufacturer shall mark them or have them marked as follows:

[Paragraph as amended by Amendment 8, 8 F.R. 2667, effective 3-1-43]

The maximum retail price shall be marked as follows: "Retail Ceiling $------."

(2) Victory line hospital grade of hot water bottles. The hospital grade of victory line hot water bottles shall be marked with the maximum price thereof for sale to a consumer set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 301. This maximum price shall be marked as follows: "Hospital Ceiling $------."

(b) Victory line rubber drug sundries sold to mail order houses. Victory line rubber drug sundries which are sold to mail order houses shall be marked with a "V."

(c) Rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. Rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, shall be marked with either an "R" or the maximum retail price, calculated in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of § 1315.1764 of this regulation.

(d) Method of marking. The marking required by paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be done in a manner so as to make it plainly visible to the purchasing public. The marking shall be placed on the rubber drug sundry itself, on the unit of sale container in which the rubber drug sundry is sold at retail, on a tag which is firmly affixed to the rubber drug sundry or in some other manner approved by the Office of Price Administration in writing.

§ 1315.1766 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to commmunicate with the nearest field, district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1315.1767 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 300 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665; 8 F.R. 6173, 6174) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, excepting those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

[2] "Wholesaler" means any seller at wholesale and includes dental, surgical, and hospital supply houses.

[3] "Mass retail distributor" means (a) a seller at retail who during 1942 purchased any of the types of rubber drug sundries listed in Table I at a discount of 25 percent or more from the manufacturer's list price; (b) a seller at retail who purchased during 1942 any private brand rubber drug sundries listed in Table I; or (c) any seller at retail who in the future buys in the same quantities, manner, and conditions as those which during 1942 qualified purchasers who sell at retail to receive a discount of 25 percent or more from the manufacturer's list price or to obtain private branded merchandise.

[4] "Other retailer" means any seller at retail who is not a mass retail distributor.

[5] A Consumer Grade I hot-water bottle is one made in any color but black. In addition, such a bottle may only bear a brand name, which the manufacturer placed on bottles that he sold on December 1, 1941, at a net price of $0.36 or more and which the manufacturer has not reported for use on Consumer Grade II bottles. Also, a Consumer Grade I hot-water bottle must not bear a brand name which was placed on it by a mold, which either bore a different brand name on January 16, 1943, or which was not used by the manufacturer on December 1, 1941, without written permission from the Office of Price Administration. "Net price" as used in this footnote, means the lowest price arrived at after deducting the federal excise tax on rubber products and all discounts except cash discount. [6] A Consumer Grade II hot-water bottle is one which is made in any color. The manufacturer is required to report the brand name he uses for Consumer Grade II bottles in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1315.1763. Once a brand name has been reported for use on a Consumer Grade II bottle, it may not be used on a Consumer Grade I bottle.

[7] Whether a fountain syringe shall be priced as Consumer Grade I or Consumer Grade II depends upon whether a hot-water bottle bearing the same brand would be priced as a Consumer Grade I or a Consumer Grade II.

[8] Whether a combination syringe shall be priced as Consumer Grade I or Consumer Grade II depends upon whether the hot-water bottle, which is part of the combination syringe, would be priced as Consumer Grade I or Consumer Grade II if sold separately.

[9] If a combination syringe or combination syringe attachment set includes an accessory which is not listed in the table, the maximum price of that combination syringe or combination syringe attachment set shall be determined by adding to the maximum price listed for the combination syringe or combination syringe attachment set, as the case may be, without that accessory, the maximum price of the unlisted accessory. The maximum price of the unlisted accessory shall be determined in the same manner that the maximum prices for rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, are determined, and marked separately on the unit of sale container in which the combination syringe or combination syringe attachment set is sold at retail.

[Table I as amended by Amendment 9, effective 7–9–43]

(b) "Victory line rubber drug sundries" means the items listed in Table II, manufactured after January 31, 1943, which can meet the minimum physical specifications set forth in that table.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of rubber drug sundries have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of rubber drug sundries prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustment for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of considerations[2] involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedure Regulation No. 1[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 is hereby issued.

January 31, 1943. On and after February 1, 1943, the date this regulation takes effect, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person is permitted to sell or deliver at retail or wholesale any rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943, at a price which is higher than the maximum price fixed by this regulation, and no person is permitted to buy or receive any rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943, in the course of trade or business at a price which is higher than the maximum price.

(b) Maximum retail prices. The maximum retail price for a victory line rubber drug sundry is the price placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container by the manufacturer. If there is no maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container, the maximum retail price is the price set forth in Appendix B (§ 1315.1796). This price is the same price that the manufacturer is required to place on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container.

(c) Identification of victory line rubber drug sundries. In order that you may know what rubber drug sundries are "victory line rubber drug sundries" they or their unit of sale container will be marked either with the maximum retail price or with a "V".

§ 1315.1778 Maximum prices for sales at wholesale of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. This section is applicable to rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. The maximum price for sales at wholesale of such articles is the maximum price for the particular type of sale, furnished the wholesaler by the manufacturer. This maximum price must be furnished by the manufacturer in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1315.1764 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. If the manufacturer has not notified the wholesaler of the maximum price, the wholesaler shall not deliver the article until he has obtained the maximum price from the manufacturer.

§ 1315.1779 Maximum prices for sales at retail of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line—(a) Sales by persons other than mail order houses. This paragraph (a) is applicable to all sales at retail of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, except those made by mail order houses. The maximum price for such sales shall be determined as follows:

(1) Where the maximum retail price has been placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container. The maximum retail price shall be the price the manufacturer has placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container. This maximum price must be determined by the manufacturer in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300.

(2) Where the maximum retail price has not been placed on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container. If the manufacturer has not placed the maximum retail price on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container, the maximum retail price of that rubber drug sundry shall be determined as follows: The maximum price shall be the maximum retail price furnished the retailer by the person from whom he purchased the rubber drug sundry. If that person is a wholesaler, he must furnish that maximum price in accordance with the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301. If that person is a manufacturer, he must furnish that maximum price in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. If the retailer has not been notified of the maximum retail price, he may not sell the rubber drug sundry until he has obtained the maximum retail price from the person who sold it to him.

(b) Sales by mail order houses of rubber drug sundries purchased from manufacturers. This paragraph (b) is applicable to rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, which have been purchased from a manufacturer. The maximum price for sales by mail order houses of such rubber drug sundries shall be determined as follows: If the mail order house is notified by the manufacturer of the manufacturer's maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to the class of sellers at wholesale which purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer during the calendar year 1942, the mail order house shall determine its maximum price by multiplying this figure by 200 percent for sales by mail and by 233⅓ percent for all other sales. If the mail order house is notified by the manufacturer of the manufacturer's maximum price for the sale of the rubber drug sundry being priced to the class of sellers at retail which purchased the largest quantity of rubber drug sundries from the manufacturer during the calendar year 1942, the mail order house shall determine its maximum price by multiplying this figure by 160 percent for sales by mail and by 210 percent for all other sales.

(c) Sales of baby feeding nippies. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section (§ 1315.1779), the maximum price for sales at retail of baby feeding nipples shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section (§ 1315.1779), but in no case shall the price for baby feeding nipples other than specially constructed baby feeding nipples exceed three for $0.25 or $0.10 each whenever the purchaser requests less than three. As used in this paragraph (c) the term "specially constructed baby feeding nipples" includes the following types: breast, semi-breast, valve, screw-on and cleft palate.

§ 1315.1780 Terms and conditions of sale. (a) The maximum prices established by this regulation shall not be increased by any charges for the extension of credit, unless (1) the seller during December 1941, required payment of a separately stated additional charge for the extension of credit by purchasers of the same class on sales of the same or similar types of commodities, and (2) the amount charged for the extension of credit is not in excess of the charge in effect during December 1941, for extensions of credit involving the same amount and term.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2669, effective 3-1-43]

(b) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery of rubber drug sundries, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during December 1941 on deliveries of the same or similar types of commodities.

§ 1315.1781 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export any rubber drug sundry shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[5]

§ 1315.1782 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, or processing of rubber drug sundries imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price: If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894; 8 F.R. 1312, 3702) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for the purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1315.1783 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade are sold or otherwise transferred after January 31, 1943, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301.

§ 1315.1784 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1315.1784a Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order.

§ 1315.1785 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase of or relating to rubber drug sundries, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1315.1786 Records. To aid in the enforcement of this regulation every seller is required to keep certain records for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect. These records are described in three paragraphs as follows:

(a) Records of purchases. The seller must preserve all invoices showing purchases by him of rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943.

[Paragraph (a) as amended by Amendment 3, 8 F.R. 2669, effective 3-1-43]

(b) Customary records of prices charged. The seller must continue to keep records of the same kind as he has customarily kept showing the prices actually charged by him after the effective date of this regulation for rubber drug sundries produced after January 31, 1943.

(c) Notifications of maximum prices of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line. The seller must preserve all notifications of the maximum prices of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, received by him. These notifications shall be kept for inspection by any person during ordinary business hours.

§ 1315.1787 Notification of maximum prices for sales at retail—(a) Notification of maximum retail price of rubber drug sundries, other than victory line, to be given by wholesaler. Before or at the time of the first delivery after January 31, 1943, of any rubber drug sundry, other than victory line, by a wholesaler to a retailer, the wholesaler shall notify the retailer of the maximum retail price of that article, unless the maximum retail price has been marked on the rubber drug sundry or the unit of sale container in which it is sold at retail. This notification shall include the brand and the type or description of the rubber drug sundry and the maximum retail price applicable thereto. The wholesaler will be furnished this maximum retail price by the manufacturer in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1315.1764 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 300. If the manufacturer has not notified the wholesaler of the maximum retail price, the wholesaler shall not deliver the article until he has obtained the maximum retail price from the manufacturer.

(b) Marking of maximum retail price by mail order houses. On or after February 1, 1943, before delivery of any victory line rubber drug sundries every mail order house selling any victory line rubber drug sundries at retail shall mark or cause to have marked the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 for the sale of that rubber drug sundry on the rubber drug sundry itself, on the unit of sale container in which the rubber drug sundry is sold at retail, on a tag which is firmly affixed to the rubber drug sundry, or in some other manner approved by the Office of Price Administration in writing. The maximum price shall be marked as follows: "Retail Ceiling $------." The marking shall be large enough to make it plainly visible to the purchasing public.

§ 1315.1788 Sales slips and receipts. Any person who has regularly furnished customers with invoices, sales slips, receipts or similar documents shall continue to do so. Every person shall, regardless of previous custom, upon request of the customer, give such customer a signed receipt showing the date of the transaction, the type, brand and grade of the rubber drug sundries sold and the price charged therefor.

§ 1315.1789 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field, district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1315.1790 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 301 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665; 8 F.R. 6173, 6174) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, excepting those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

§ 1394.5282 How the renewed ration for a house trailer is figured. (a) The renewed ration for heating a house trailer by use of a space heater shall be the amount of fuel oil which the applicant was entitled to use for such purpose (including supplemental but excluding auxiliary rations) for the 1942–43 heating year, figured according to § 1394.5256 (d). In no event shall the renewed ration be more than twice the maximum of the range. However, in determining the range by using subcolumn (b) of column (2) of Table I, the figures for subzone 18 shall apply to subzone 19; those for subzone 19 to subzone 20; those for subzone 20 to subzone 21; and those for subzone 21 to subzone 22.

(b) This section is subject to the provisions of § 1394.5284.

§ 1394.5283 How the renewed ration for premises other than a private dwelling is figured. (a) The renewed ration for heat or hot water, or both, for premises other than a private dwelling shall be the amount of fuel oil which the applicant was entitled to use for such purpose (excluding auxiliary and supplemental rations) for the 1942–43 heating year, figured according to paragraphs (a) to (d), inclusive, of § 1394.5261

(b) If heat or hot water, or both, is furnished by means of a space heater, and if, because the applicant showed good cause for not obtaining a certificate of past consumption, his ration was figured in the same way as though he used a space heater for the purpose in a private dwelling (that is, according to § 1394.5256 for heat or § 1394.5259 for hot water), the renewed ration shall be figured according to §1394.5281.

(c) This section is subject to the provisions of § 1394.5284.

§ 1394.5284 How the renewed ration is figured when a smaller amount is requested. If the applicant states on his application that he will accept, as his renewed ration, an amount less than he was entitled to use (excluding auxiliary rations in house trailers and excluding auxiliary and supplemental rations in all other cases) for the entire 1942–43 heating year, the renewed ration shall be the reduced amount indicated. However, if as a result of the correction of any errors which may have been made in figuring the ration for the 1942–43 heating year, that ration is less than the amount which the applicant states he will accept, the renewed ration shall be the lesser of the following:

(a) The reduced amount indicated by the applicant; or

(b) The amount the applicant would be entitled to receive under whichever of the last three sections is applicable.

§ 1394.5285 The renewed ration will be issued in coupon sheets or fuel oil deposit certificates. (a) Class 3, 4, 5 and 6 coupon sheets (Forms OPA R–1107 to OPA R–1110, and OPA R–1137 to OPA R–1166, inclusive) or fuel oil deposit certificate (Form OPA R–1170) will be issued as renewed rations for heat or both heat and hot water. (The issuance of fuel oil deposit certificates is explained in § 1394.5288.)

(b) Class 3 coupon sheets or fuel oil deposit certificates will be issued as renewed rations for hot water only.

(c) Any ration for less than 300 gallons will be issued only in class 3 coupon sheets.

§ 1394.5286 Class 4, 5 and 6 coupon sheets—(a) They have both unit and fixed value coupons. Class 4, 5 and 6 coupon sheets have coupons with a value of 1, 5 and 25 units, respectively, as well as coupons of definite gallonage value.

(b) When and where unit value coupons may be used by consumers. A unit value coupon may be used by a consumer only during the validity period and in the zone printed on the coupon. (For the 1943–44 heating year the area where fuel oil is rationed is divided into ten (10) zones. The zones are described in § 1394.5290). The periods for each zone, during which these coupons may be used, are as follows:

(1) In Zones A–1, A–3, B–1, B–3, C–1 and C–3:

Coupons numbered:	Validity period
1	July 1, 1943 to January 3, 1944, inclusive.
2	November 30, 1943 to February 7, 1944, inclusive.
3	January 4, 1944 to March 13, 1944, inclusive.
4	February 8, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.
5	March 14, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.

(2) In Zone D–1:

2	November 30, 1943 to January 24, 1944, inclusive.
3	November 30, 1943 to February 21, 1944, inclusive.
4	January 25, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.
5	January 25, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.

(3) In Zones A–2, B–2 and C–2:

Coupons numbered:	Validity period
1	July 1, 1943 to January 3, 1944, inclusive.
2	November 30, 1943 to February 7, 1944, inclusive.
3	November 30, 1943 to March 13, 1944, inclusive.
4	February 8, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.
5	February 8, 1944 to September 30, 1944, inclusive.

(c) When unit value coupons may be used by dealers and primary suppliers. A unit value coupon may be used by dealers and primary suppliers on and after the first date when the coupon may be used by a consumer. The coupon may not be used in any zone for any purpose (as for example, for obtaining an exchange certificate or for deposit in a ration bank account) after the following dates:

Coupons numbered:	Void after
1	February 2, 1944.
2	March 8, 1944.
3	April 13, 1944.
4	October 30, 1944.
5	October 30, 1944.

§ 1394.5287 Issuance of Class 4, 5 and 6 coupon sheets. Class 4, 5 or 6 coupon sheets will be issued by the Board in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) All unit value coupons will be issued on the basis of ten (10) gallons per unit:

(b) If the gallonage for which coupons are to be used is not a multiple of the value (at 10 gallons per unit) of the unit value coupons of the coupon sheets to be issued, coupons may be issued to the next highest multiple of the value of such unit value coupons.

§ 1394.5288 Issuance of fuel oil deposit certificates. (a) If the amount of fuel oil which the applicant may acquire for heat or hot water, or both, for the 1943–44 heating year is between 20,000 gallons and 50,000 gallons, inclusive, fuel oil deposit certificates will be issued upon request of the applicant. If the amount is more than 50,000 gallons, fuel oil deposit certificates only will be issued.

(b) If the ration is for heat or both heat and hot water, the first fuel oil deposit certificate issued to the applicant will equal one-third of the amount of the fuel oil the applicant may acquire and will include the first validity period. A certificate, representing a part of the ration, for each subsequent validity period will be issued after the value of the unit value coupons for the period and zone has been fixed. If the value of the Class 4, 5 and 6 unit value coupons for any validity period is changed from ten (10) gallons, proportionate adjustment will be made in the amount of the fuel oil deposit certificate issued for the period.

(c) If an exemption is granted to a consumer under § 1394.5682 (d) because a bank is not accessible, he will receive coupons instead of fuel oil deposit certificates.

§ 1394.5289 What deductions will be made from the renewed ration. (a) The Board shall deduct from the renewed ration:

(1) The amount of the fuel oil on hand, as stated in the application for the ration for the 1942–43 heating year, which exceeded the amount the applicant was entitled to use (excluding auxiliary and supplemental rations) for that year.

(2) The gallonage value of any coupons or delivery receipts issued to the applicant as a ration for ballast purposes.

(b) No deduction will be made for the fuel oil on hand at the date application is made for the renewed ration.

1. Section 1351.1520 (a) (3) (i) is amended to read as follows:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 7 F.R. 10996; 8 F.R. 490, 1458, 1885, 1972, 3252, 3252, 3327, 4335, 4513, 4337, 4238, 4918, 6440, 7566, 7593, 8276.

(3) Sales by a primary distributor—(i) Definition. A "primary distributor" is a person who customarily receives butter from a creamery or manufacturer of butter and who sells to other primary distributors, to jobbers, retailer distributing warehouses, non-federal governmental users, or to commercial, institutional, or industrial users. A branch warehouse of a creamery or manufacturer of butter shall be deemed a primary distributor if such branch warehouse is located in a town or city other than the town or city in which the butter sold by it is manufactured.

2. Section 1351.1520 (b) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) The maximum price in any place for the sale, for shipment beyond the shores of the continental United States, of any particular score or grade of butter in the form of one pound prints or rolls parchment wrapped and immersed in salt brine in parafined barrels lined with a cotton bag, shall be the maximum price for that score or grade established by paragraph (a) of this section for that particular sale, plus the appropriate following sum:

Not over 30 lbs	8
Over 30 lbs. but not over 50 lbs	7¼
Over 50 lbs. but not over 60 lbs	6¾
Over 60 lbs. but not over 100 lbs	6¼

3. Paragraph (4) of the effective date provision of Amendment No. 15 to Maximum Price Regulation No. 289 is amended to read as follows:

(4) On June 4, 1943, with reference to the maximum prices established by § 1351.1520 (a) (5) for sales to the United States Government: Provided, however, That the maximum price for the sale in carload lots to the United States Government or any agency thereof, of butter manufactured prior to June 1, 1943, and contracted to be sold prior to June 6, 1943, and delivered prior to June 14, 1943 shall not be affected by the provisions of this Amendment.

(o) With respect to butter manufactured prior to June 1, 1943, and contracted before June 6, 1943, to be sold in carload lots to the United States Government or any agency thereof, and delivered on and after June 14, 1943 but prior to July 1, 1943, all Regional Administrators of the Office of Price Administration are hereby authorized to investigate and determine whether the cause for the failure to make delivery prior to June 14, 1943, is attributable to the seller. In any case where in the judgment of the Regional Administrator in whose region the delivery is made, the delay in delivery is not attributable to the seller, he may authorize and approve as the maximum price for butter so sold the appropriate maximum price in effect under this regulation prior to June 4, 1943.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.76 to 501.89, inclusive, issued under E.O. 8989, 9156, 9214, 9294; 6 F.R. 6725, 7 F.R. 3349, 6097, 8 F.R. 221.

§ 501.76 General outline of order. This order restricts the business of furnishing taxi service in any municipality or other governmental subdivision to those persons who were engaged in the taxicab business in such municipality or other governmental subdivision on September 1, 1942, and to persons who have purchased or succeeded to the business of a person so engaged. It also limits the number of taxicabs that may be operated in any municipality or other governmental subdivision by any person in the taxicab business to the number of taxicabs he or his predecessor in interest operated therein on September 1, 1942. The terms "taxicab" and "taxi service" are defined in § 501.87 of the order and are to be given the meaning as stated in the definitions irrespective of how the terms are defined in local ordinances, state laws, and other Federal laws and regulations.

Section 501.79 of the order imposes certain restrictions upon the operation, driving, and use of taxicabs. The restrictions are directed not only to a person conducting a taxicab business and his drivers, but also to persons who use taxicabs as a means of transportation. They are necessary if equipment for the transportation of essential and necessary passenger traffic is to be available. Operations when no passengers are carried must be held to a minimum, hence the restriction on cruising and the restriction on transporting a passenger to a municipality from which the operator may not lawfully transport passengers on the return trip.

The order requires that operators of taxicabs shall participate in group riding plans for taxicabs that are or hereafter may be lawfully in effect in any municipality or other governmental subdivision in which they operate. Operators are also required to eliminate waste in their operations and to conserve and efficiently utilize their equipment and facilities.

Whenever two or more operators engaged in competitive service desire to enter into an arrangement providing for joint action to eliminate waste and otherwise conserve and more efficiently utilize their equipment and facilities, they may, and upon direction of the Office of Defense Transportation shall, submit such plan to the Office of Defense Transportation for approval. If any joint action contemplated by such plan, in the judgment of the Office of Defense Transportation, will result in the elimination of wasteful operations and bring about the conservation and more efficient utilization of equipment and facilities, the Office of Defense Transportation will issue an order authorizing and directing the participants to engage in such joint action. Thereupon the participants will be granted immunity from prosecution or civil action under the Federal antitrust laws by reason of the doing of any act or thing directed by such order by a certificate issued under the provisions of Section 12, Public Law 603, 77th Congress.

It is recognized that there may be occasions when the rigid requirements of the order should be relaxed. Section 501.83 provides for the issuance of special and general permits to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances. Section 501.85 provides for certain exemptions from the order.

§ 501.77 Restrictions on new or additional operations. No person shall engage in the business of furnishing taxi service in any municipality or other governmental subdivision unless on September 1, 1942, (a) there was in force with respect to such business a license, permit, or other grant of authority issued by competent governmental authority, authorizing such person, or his predecessor in interest, to engage in such business in such municipality or other governmental subdivision, or (b) such person, or his predecessor in interest, was engaged in good faith in the business of furnishing taxi service in such municipality or other governmental subdivision, and no such license, permit, or other grant of authority was required.

§ 501.78 Restrictions on the number of taxicabs to be operated. No person shall have in operation in taxi service, in any municipality or other governmental subdivision, a greater number of taxicabs than such person, or his predecessor in interest, had in operation in taxi service in such municipality or other governmental subdivision on September 1, 1942.

§ 501.79 Operating regulations. (a) No person shall drive or operate a taxicab:

(1) For any purpose personal to the driver, including social or recreational purposes;

(2) For the purpose of making any commercial pick-up or delivery of merchandise other than the delivery of drugs, medicines, medical supplies, and medical equipment at the request of a licensed pharmacy or pharmacist, dentist, physician, hospital, or veterinarian;

(3) For the purpose of securing passengers while cruising;

(4) For the purpose of providing transportation for a person when engaged in any unlawful undertaking;

(5) For the purpose of transporting a passenger other than in taxi service;

(6) Without such taxicab being distinctly marked as required by local ordinance or state law or, in the absence of any such requirement, with permanent lettering not less than 2½ inches high and spaced 1 inch apart, to indicate that it is a taxicab or engaged in taxi service;

(7) From a municipality having a population of 10,000 or more, according to the census taken by the United States in 1940, to a point more than 10 miles beyond the corporate limits thereof, except when returning to a point or place from which a passenger was transported to such municipality;

(8) For the purpose of transporting a passenger on a trip that exceeds 25 miles;

(9) For the purpose of transporting a passenger to any municipality, from which the operator by reason of local ordinances, or otherwise, may not lawfully transport other passengers when returning to the point from which the taxicab is driven;

(10) For the purpose of transporting a passenger to any point upon arrival at which, by reason of the limitations in paragraphs (7) and (8) of this § 501.79 (a), such passenger intends to or must transfer to another taxicab in order to continue to his destination.

(b) No person engaged in the business of furnishing taxi service shall permit a taxicab under his direction or control to be driven or operated in violation of this § 501.79, and no person shall use a taxicab as a means of transportation when to do so will require it to be driven or operated in violation of this § 501.79.

§ 501.80 Group riding required. Each person engaged in the business of furnishing taxi service shall participate in any group riding plan for taxicabs which is or hereafter may be lawfully in effect within the municipality or other governmental subdivision within which he does business.

§ 501.81 Elimination of waste. Each person engaged in furnishing taxi service shall eliminate waste in operations and conserve and efficiently utilize the equipment and facilities under his control.

§ 501.82 Submission of conservation plans. (a) Any two or more persons engaged in furnishing competitive taxi service may, and upon direction from the Office of Defense Transportation shall, submit to the Office of Defense Transportation a plan of joint action formulated so as to eliminate waste and bring about the maximum utilization of their equipment and facilities by one or more of the following methods:

(1) Pooling or joint use of concessions, equipment, or other facilities;

(2) Pooling or division of traffic, service, or revenues;

(3) Alternation, staggering or suspension of service;

(4) Elimination of duplicating dispatching service.

(b) Nothing in this § 501.82 shall be construed to authorize any person to engage in joint action by any of the methods described in this section unless directed so to do by specific order of the Office of Defense Transportation.

§ 501.83 Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permit issued by the Office of Defense Transportation to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances, or to prevent undue public hardships.

Special permits heretofore issued by the Office of Defense Transportation pursuant to § 501.84 of General Order ODT 20, as amended, shall remain in effect according to the terms thereof and shall alike be applicable to this order.

§ 501.84 Records and reports. (a) Each person engaged in the business of furnishing taxi service shall keep a daily record of the number of miles and hours each taxicab used in such service is operated, the number of passengers carried, and the gallons of fuel transferred to its fuel tank, and shall keep such other records and make such reports as the Office of Defense Transportation may hereafter require. All such records shall be kept available and open for inspection at all reasonable times by authorized representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

(b) The recording and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Specific recording or reporting requirements subsequently prescribed will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 501.85 Exemptions. The provisions of this order shall not apply:

(a) To the transportation of passengers between their homes and their places of work by a person driving a private passenger automobile between his or her home and place of work;

(b) To the use of a taxicab for the delivery of telegraphic, cable, and radio communications in emergencies when another medium of delivery cannot be obtained or is not available to effect delivery in time for such communications to serve their purposes;

(c) To the operation of a taxicab for the purpose of transporting mail at the request of the Post Office Department of the United States;

(d) To the transportation of passengers incidental to an emergency arising from an accident, sickness, death, public calamity, or military necessity: Provided, however, That with respect to all such transportation the person driving or operating the taxicab shall within 48 hours make a report in writing to the nearest office of the Office of Defense Transportation explaining in full the emergency necessitating the transportation.

§ 501.86 Applicability of General Order ODT 22, as amended. General Order ODT 22, as amended, shall continue to be applicable in New York, New York.

§ 501.87 Definitions. As used in this order (§§ 501.76–501.89), or in any order, direction or permit issued hereunder, the term:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, joint stock company, business trust, or other organized group of persons, or any trustee, receiver, assignee, or personal representative, and includes any department or agency of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or any other political, governmental or legal entity;

Chapter IV—Office of the Coordinator of Fisheries

[Order 1838]

COORDINATED PILCHARD PRODUCTION PLAN

By virtue of the authority conferred upon me by Food Directive No. 2 of February 8, 1943 (8 F.R. 1777), as amended on March 16, 1943 (8 F.R. 3280), issued pursuant to Executive Order No. 9280 of December 8, 1942 (7 F.R. 10179), and in order to facilitate the production of an adequate supply of pilchards to meet war essential civilian needs with a minimum utilization of critical material, manpower and fishing vessels, It is hereby ordered, As follows:

§ 401.2 Coordinated pilchard production plant—(a) Jurisdiction. Complete control and authority over the catching and delivery of pilchards on the West Coast of the United States solely for the purposes herein specified shall be vested in the Fishery Coordinator, and subject to his supervision and direction shall be administered by the Office of Fishery Coordination.

(b) Statement of policy. Shrinkage of the fishing fleet through military requisition, restriction on the movements of fishing vessels imposed by security requirements, limitations of manpower, and other war connected stringencies, coupled with increased National requirements for proteins and fats, have created a condition calling for Government supervision to insure the maximum effectiveness of existing fishing and processing facilities for the production of pilchard products. It is the purpose and intent of the Fishery Coordinator in administering and enforcing the provisions of this order to restore as nearly as possible a normal flow of raw material and as continuous an operation at processing plants as possible and to insure the production of the quantities of each category of finished products required for the maintenance of the Nation's war economy with the least possible interference with the freedom of activity of persons in the pilchard fishery and the pilchard processing industry. In the interest of effective mobilization of material resources necessary to the successful prosecution of the war, it is expected that persons affected by this order will cooperate with the United States Government in the attainment of the objectives which prompt the issuance of this order.

(c) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or any other business entity.

(2) "Pilchard" means raw, unprocessed pilchard (Sardinia caerulea), by whatever name known, including sardines.

(3) "Delivery" means the transfer of pilchards to a processing plant, for canning or reduction, to a transporting facility, or to a place of storage, whether or not the same person owns or controls the vessel from which it is transferred, the plant, or the fish.

(4) "Port" means a single harbor or group of contiguous or nearly contiguous harbors at which pilchards are landed. For the purpose of this order San Pedro shall mean the ports of San Pedro, Wilmington and Long Beach. Monterey shall mean the ports of Monterey and Moss Landing. San Francisco shall mean the harbors on San Francisco Bay, and the tributaries thereof. Ports may be added or regrouped in the discretion of the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative.

(5) "Registration port" means the port where the permanent document of the vessel issues.

(6) "Home port" means the port at which the Captain and the operating owner or holder of the charter of the vessel have had residence for a substantial portion of the period since June 1, 1940, and from which they have practiced pilchard fishing operations during at least half of the time in all seasons of active fishing sinc June 1, 1940; or, in case these criteria are conflicting, the port designated by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, as the home port of the vessel.

(7) "Fishing port" means a port from which the vessel operates for the purpose of pilchard fishing.

(8) "Fishery Coordinator" means the Secretary of the Interior.

(9) "Representative" means any person or persons duly designated by the Fishery Coordinator to perform any of the functions authorized by this order.

(d) Catching or delivering pilchards without a permit prohibited. No person owning or controlling a vessel of 20 net tons or over shall fish for and deliver pilchards to any cannery, reduction plant, or other establishment at any port on the Pacific Coast of the United States, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (m) below, unless expressly authorized by a permit issued by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative.

(e) Clearance of pilchard vessels from ports without a permit prohibited. (1) No vessel of 20 net tons or over which at any time subsequent to May 31, 1940, was used in fishing for pilchards or which first engages in fishing for pilchards in 1943 shall be cleared from any port on the Pacific Coast of the United States for the purpose of catching pilchards or any other fish or return to any port for delivering such fish except in accordance with the terms of a permit issued by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, to the person owning or controlling the vessel; but this provision shall not apply in any case where there has been an emergency modification of the permit as provided in paragraph (m) below.

(2) Clearance from a port will not be permitted unless the Captain of the vessel shall have in his possession a permit issued by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative.

(f) Terms and conditions of permits. (1) Any permit to fish for and deliver pilchards which is issued by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, may provide specifically the period for which it is issued; the port or ports from which clearance is authorized; and such other reasonable terms and conditions as may be deemed necessary to accomplish the purpose of this order.

(2) Permits may be amended at any time or new permits issued when deemed necessary by the Fishery C ordinator, or his representative, to provide an adequate number of fishing vessels at any given port and to assure an even flow of pilchards to canning or reduction plants in order to facilitate the maximum production of sardine products commensurate with available manpower and plant facilities.

(3) The terms of a permit may be modified by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, on request of the holder of such permit when conditions are shown to exist which warrant such modification.

(g) Application for permits. Applications for permits to fish for and deliver pilchards shall be filed with the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, not later than 10 days after the effective date of this order for the fishing season of 1943–1944 and not later than June 1 of each year thereafter, except for vessels built or acquired for pilchard fishing during the course of the season, in which case applications shall be filed not less than 10 days prior to the time fishing for pilchards is contemplated. Applications shall contain the following information:

(1) The name of the vessel, the registration port and number, the state license number, if any, the names of the owner and operating owner or holder of the charter, and the Captain.

(2) The permanent residence or place of business of the owner, of the operating owner or holder of the charter, and of the Captain during the period since June 1, 1940.

(3) The fishing ports of the operating owner or holder of the charter, and of the Captain during the period since June 1, 1940.

(4) The home port.

(5) The fishing port or ports from which a permit to fish is desired and the period of time during which fishing operations are to be conducted at each of the fishing ports.

(6) Any other information deemed necessary by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, to accomplish the purpose of this order, including the submission of copies of contracts bearing on the determination of the home port or of the fishing ports or affecting the delivery of pilchards.

(h) Action on applications. (1) The Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, shall consider each application on the basis of (i) military and essential civilian requirements for canned sardines, sardine meal and oil; (ii) the necessity of maintaining an even flow of pilchards to available canneries or reduction plants; and (iii) the condition of fishing in the waters adjacent to each port.

(2) In granting permits based upon applications filed therefor, preference shall be given to applicants desiring to fish for and deliver pilchards at home ports. So far as possible, assignment of vessels to fishing ports other than the home port, when deemed necessary to secure the maximum production of pilchards, will be given to persons applying for permits to fish for and deliver pilchards away from the home port.

(3) Permits may be granted on applications filed after the dates specified in paragraph (g) hereof but the rules stated in subparagraph (2) above as to the preferential assignment of fishing ports shall not apply to such late applications.

(i) Deliveries to particular persons. The Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, may direct the delivery of pilchards to particular persons whenever deemed necessary to promote an even flow of material to canning or reduction plants or to assure the maximum production of sardine products commensurate with available manpower and plant facilities. The delivery of fish or the receiving of fish in violation of direction shall be a violation of this order.

(j) Designation of particular uses. The Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, may direct or prohibit the use of pilchards for canning or for reduction into meal and oil or may direct the use of any specified percentage for each particular purpose when deemed necessary in order to meet the requirement for military and essential civilian supply.

(k) Agreements to limit production prohibited. No contract or agreement, written or verbal, shall be entered into or carried out and no action shall be taken which directly or indirectly operates to limit the amount of pilchards which may be caught or delivered by any fishing vessel or the frequency with which any pilchard fishing vessel shall leave port for or return from the fishing grounds except as may be ordered by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative.

(l) Records and reports. (1) All persons engaged in processing pilchards and who are affected by this order shall keep and preserve, for not less than two years, accurate records concerning purchases and production of pilchards and pilchard products, and such other material information as may be required by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative.

(2) All records required to be kept by this order or by any order of the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, shall be made available for inspection and audit by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, upon request.

(3) The Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, may require from persons affected by this order periodic reports with respect to amounts of pilchards received, production capacity, quantities of each product produced, and such other material information as may be deemed necessary by the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, for effectuation of the purposes of this order. These record keeping requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget and specific recording and reporting requirements subsequently prescribed will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, all pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(m) Emergencies. (1) In unusual circumstances, when deemed necessary t meet the exigencies of the occasion, the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, may, verbally or by radio telephone, modify the terms of a permit, subject to confirmation in writing within a reasonable period of time thereafter.

(2) Modification of the terms of a permit may include assigning fishing vessels to ports other than those specifically authorized in the permit.

(n) Orders and directions; Deputy Fishery Coordinator. The Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, may issue such orders and directions as he may deem necessary to accomplish the purposes of this order, and violation of any such order or direction shall be considered a violation of this order. For the purposes of this order the functions, duties, and powers of the Fishery Coordinator may, in his absence, be exercised by the Deputy Fishery Coordinator.

(o) Violation; revocation. Any person who violates this order or any order, direction, or prohibition of the Fishery Coordinator, or his representative, or any term or condition of any permit issued by him, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, may, by a decision of the Area Coordinator based upon findings of fact made after reasonable notice and hearing, be prohibited from fishing by suspension or revocation of any permit issued or prohibjted from receiving fish, for a specified period of time. If the Area Coordinator shall have reasonable grounds to believe that such violation has occurred and if the circumstances are such that he shall deem such action reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this order, he may immediately suspend the permit or privilege of receiving fish pending such hearing. Such further action may be taken against the violator as the Fishery Coordinator deems appropriate, including recommendations for prosecutions under Section 35a of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. sec. 80), under paragraph 5 of section 301 of Title III of the Second War Powers Act, and under any and all other applicable laws.

(p) Appeals and petitions for relief. Any person who finds that compliance with this order or any order, direction, or permit issued pursuant thereto would tend to impose an unreasonable burden upon him or would not facilitate the production of pilchards, or who is aggrieved by any decision of the Area Coordinator may, after the hearing or other presentation of the matter before the Area Coordinator, appeal to, or petition the Fishery Coordinator for appropriate relief. Such petition must include a full showing of pertinent facts. The Fishery Coordinator shall thereupon make findings of fact and take such action on the petition as the circumstances may warrant.

(q) Surrender of permits; applications; communications. Permits which have been superseded by amended permits, or which have been revoked, shall be surrendered at once to the Area Coordinator; and all applications, petitions, and communications referred to herein shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to and filed with the Area Coordinator, Area II, Office of the Coordinator of Fisheries, 901 Alexander Building, 155 Montgomery Street, San Francisco 4, California.

(r) Designated representative. The Area Coordinator in Area II is hereby designated as the representative of the Fishery Coordinator to perform any of the functions authorized in this order. In the performance of these functions, he may designate any members of his staff to carry out any specific functions that may be assigned.

(s) Previous order superseded. The provisions of this order shall supersede Conservation Order M-206, as amended September 30, 1942 (7 F.R. 8274) issued by the War Production Board.

(t) Separability; effective date. The various clauses and provisions herein are intended to be separable and the invalidity of any one shall not affect any other provision. This order shall become effective immediately, except that paragraphs (d) and (e) shall not apply prior to August 1, 1943.

Issued this 30th day of June 1943.

HAROLD L. ICKES,
Secretary of the Interior.

[Docket Nos. A–2032, A–2032 Part II]

DISTRICT BOARD 2

MEMORANDUM OPINION, ETC.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 2; Docket No. A–2032.

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for rail and truck shipments for the coals produced at the Hillcrest (s) Mine; Docket No. A-2032, Part II.

Memorandum opinion and order severing Docket No. A-2032, Part II, from Docket No. A-2032, granting temporary relief and notice of and order for hearing in Docket No. A-2032, Part II.

The original petition in the above-entitled matter, filed with the Division pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, prays for the establishment of temporary and permanent price classifications and minimum prices for rail and truck shipments for the coals produced at the Hillcrest (s) Mine, Mine Index No. 2718, of Hillcrest Coal Company, Ltd. (Tony Grippo) in District No. 2. It appears, however, that the petition requests the establishment of shipping points for the coals of this mine which are located in both District No. 2 and District No. 1, and that from the facts alleged in this petition no final determination can be made at this time with regard to the establishment of these shipping points for this mine without a hearing.

In view of the foregoing, it is deemed advisable to grant only temporarily the request of petitioner to establish minimum prices and price classifications for the coals produced at the aforementioned mine.

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That the portion of Docket No. A-2032 relating to the request of petitioner to establish minimum prices and price classifications for coals to be produced at the Hillcrest (s) Mine, Mine Index No. 2718 of Hillcrest Coal Company, Ltd. (Tony Grippo) be, and it hereby is, severed from the remaining part of that Docket and designated as Docket No. A-2032, Part II.

It is further ordered, That a hearing in Docket No. A-2032, Part II under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on July 28, 1943, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Edward J. Hayes, or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officers so designated to preside at such hearing are hereby authorized to conduct said hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to all parties herein and to persons or entities having an interest in this proceeding and eligible to become a party herein. Any person desiring to be admitted as a party to this proceeding may file a petition of intervention in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Bituminous Coal Division for proceedings instituted pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Act, setting forth the facts on the basis of which the relief in the original petition is supported or opposed or on the basis of which other relief is sought. Such petitions of intervention shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on or before July 23, 1943.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in Docket No. A-2032, Part II and any orders entered therein, may concern, in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the petition, petitions of intervention or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief, if any, granted on the basis of this petition.
